430 The happiness that was stolen (14)

Su Wanwan's walking was still a little unstable, but it didn't stop her from walking around the villa. When she stopped, she was so tired that she was panting and couldn't walk anymore. She directly reached out her hand to PEI Munian.

PEI Munian knew that he wanted him to carry her. During this period of time, he had often carried her around and she was used to it.

Without another word, PEI Munian bent down, crossed her arms behind her neck and knees, and carried her up.

Su Wanwan's slender arms were wrapped around PEI Munian's neck and her head was leaning on his chest. She looked like she was completely dependent on him. Her eyes, from the beginning to the end, were unfamiliar with this place.

She did not feel anything about the traces of them living together in the past. While PEI Munian was relieved, she could not help but feel sad.

Everything about him couldn't stimulate su Wan. That meant that she really didn't care about him.

But fortunately, Xuxu and su Wanwan didn't have a past. He still had a future. These were all happiness he stole.

PEI Munian's hand that was holding su Wanwan tightened slightly, then she walked back to the villa with her long legs.

Aunt Wu had prepared a large table of dishes that su Wanwan loved to eat. PEI Munian carried su Wanwan into the dining room and placed her on a chair. He pulled a chair over and sat beside her. Then, he pointed at aunt Wu and said to su Wanwan, "Wanwan, that's Auntie Wu. She's in charge of our daily life. If you need anything, you can ask her for help when I'm not around.

long time no see, young Madam," Auntie Wu said with a smile. welcome back.

Su Wanwan glanced at aunt Wu, but her eyes were filled with a touch of timidity. Her body subconsciously shrank into PEI Munian's arms.

Aunt Wu knew about su Wanwan's situation and didn't mind. She even felt a little distressed. A good girl had become like this. Fortunately, young master never left her.

After the meal, su Wanwan was lazy and wanted to sleep. PEI Munian forced her to take a walk for a while and then did some simple exercises under the guidance of the reconstruction master. Her back was sweating a little before she returned to their bedroom.

PEI Munian let su Wanwan sit on the bed. He went to the bathroom and filled the tub with hot water. When he came out, he wanted to take su Wanwan to take a bath. Su Wanwan seemed to be still angry at him for what happened just now. She resisted and grabbed her collar, not letting PEI Munian take off her clothes.

PEI Munian found it funny for a moment. He crossed his arms and looked down at su Wanwan, who was curled up on the bed, with a faint smile. Wanwan, you just broke out in sweat. Do you want to sleep without taking a shower? It'll stink."

During this period of time, the nurse and PEI Munian had been reading to su Wan. Some things had formed a consciousness in her mind. She knew what PEI Munian meant by stinky. She immediately frowned in dissatisfaction. She wasn't stinky!

Su Wanwan suddenly stood up from the bed and walked towards the bathroom.

PEI Munian reflexively wanted to follow him, but when he walked to the bathroom door, su Wanwan turned around, raised her hands, and pushed PEI Munian.

She had very little strength and basically couldn't push PEI Munian away. However, this action of hers made him realize that she was still angry and refused to let him get close.

PEI Munian raised an eyebrow. Wanwan, are you going to take a shower by yourself? "

Immediately, PEI Munian's expression turned serious and she said sternly, " Wanwan, you can't take a shower by yourself now. It's very slippery in the bathroom. If you're not careful and fall, Hanhan will fall.
