Her stomach was flat, while the woman's stomach was protruding. However, for some reason, she was more familiar with that look. It seemed that her stomach was also protruding.

However, no matter how she touched her stomach, it was still flat.

He felt like something was missing!

Su Wanwan furrowed her eyebrows and thought for a while. Suddenly, she remembered the child Xi Zhiwei had told her about.

As soon as these two words entered her brain, su Wan's heart suddenly ached. She covered her heart and couldn't help but groan.

PEI Munian heard the voice and immediately turned around. He saw su Wanwan curled up, her hand pressing on her heart, and her small face was filled with pain.

He quickly strode forward and squatted in front of the bathtub. He held her shoulders and pulled her in front of him. His dark eyes looked at her worriedly and he said in a deep voice, "Wanwan, what's wrong? Where do you feel uncomfortable?"

Su Wanwan's Red lips moved slightly, but she didn't answer PEI Munian's question. Instead, she muttered two words, "child."

PEI Munian felt as if a basin of cold water had been poured on her, and her entire body was bone-chillingly cold.

The child

In order not to agitate her, he forbade su Wanwan from saying this word and any words related to this. When he usually read to her, he would also pick these words, so she should have never heard this word before now, but she said it herself. Could it be that Xuxu remembered something?

PEI Munian's hand trembled unconsciously. He stared at su Wanwan and swallowed his saliva heavily. His voice was extremely soft as he said, "Wan, Wanwan, what Yingluo child?"

Su Wanwan's delicate eyebrows furrowed tighter and tighter. She looked up at PEI Munian and slowly shook her head. I don't know. I'm so sad. It hurts here.

Su Wanwan's finger pointed at her heart. niannian, why does this place hurt?"

She had always only had headaches, but she didn't expect her body to hurt, and it seemed to hurt even more than a headache.

Su Wanwan didn't remember anything. PEI Munian should have heaved a sigh of relief, but when she saw her pointing at her heart and shouting at him in pain, PEI Munian's heart was even more afraid and painful than before.

Even if she could not remember anything, her heart would still feel intense pain when she heard the word 'child'. It was enough to prove that she had not let go of this matter.

To him, these things were like a time bomb that could explode at any time.

He hoped that she would never remember the past, but he also knew that it might have been an extravagant dream.

Wanwan Wanwan, Wanwan, because, because I've done a lot of wrong things to you in the past, Wanwan, so I made you sad.

Wrong? Su Wanwan's attention was attracted by these two words and she temporarily forgot about the pain. She asked, "niannian, what wrong did you, Yueyue, do?"

PEI Munian only looked at her sorrowfully. Instead of answering her, she asked, "Wanwan, I did something wrong. Can you forgive me?"

Su Wanwan didn't like to see a sad PEI Munian. He was sad and she felt sad too. It was just that she couldn't understand what he meant by saying that he was wrong and what he meant by forgiveness.

She raised her hand and touched the corner of PEI Munian's lips, trying to lift it up. niannian, smile, smile.

PEI Munian held her hand and her voice became even more hoarse. Wanwan, I'll smile when you forgive me.

"Okay, I forgive you. Niannian, smile!" Su Wanwan said without thinking.
