Su Wanwan opened her eyes wide and stared at PEI Munian's face. Her eyes were filled with panic and fear. bloody niannian, you're bleeding.

Blood?

PEI Munian touched the lower part of her nose and indeed felt some sticky blood. She looked at the red stain on her fingertips in disbelief, unable to react at all.

Su Wanwan had never experienced this kind of thing and didn't know how to deal with the situation in front of her. When she saw the blood, she only had an instinctive fear. Her eyes turned red and tears flowed out. "Niannian, are you going to die?"

In her current knowledge, blood and death were the same.

".....?"

A nosebleed was considered normal if it had happened to a teenager who had never experienced anything. However, to PEI Munian, this was one of the most embarrassing things in her life.

Although su Wanwan couldn't understand or laugh at him now, PEI Munian still felt a little embarrassed. He pretended to be calm and raised his head. He took a few tissues from the bedside table and wiped the blood from his nose before replying, "Wanwan, I'm not going to die. Don't be afraid. I'm fine.

Su Wanwan didn't believe him. but you're bleeding. You'll die if you bleed!

Although su Wanwan often asked a hundred thousand whys and he always patiently answered her, he really didn't know what to say about today's matter. He could only answer vaguely, "Wanwan, bleeding doesn't necessarily mean death. My bleeding is because the weather is too hot. I, I'm getting angry!

PEI Munian was afraid that su Wanwan would continue to question him, so he added, "I'll be fine after I take a shower. Be good and go to bed first.

PEI Munian picked su Wanwan up and placed her on the bed. Then, he pulled the blanket over and covered su Wanwan firmly. He kissed su Wanwan's forehead, straightened his body, and quickly walked into the bathroom, locking the door.

Although PEI Munian said that, su Wanwan was still very worried about him. She sat up from the bed and wanted to see how he was doing, but she couldn't open the bathroom door. She waited at the door for a long time, but PEI Munian still didn't come out. She couldn't help but raise her hand and knock on the door. niannian, nianqian.

The sound of water stopped for a moment, then PEI Munian's slightly panting and suppressed voice could be heard. Wanwan, I'm fine.

Su Wanwan heard that PEI Munian's voice was not the same as usual. He must be dying soon. Her heart suddenly panicked. She can't live without niannian. Niannian can't die, Huahua.

What to do?

Su Wanwan anxiously paced back and forth behind the bathroom door. She tried her best to think of a way to save PEI Munian.

She suddenly remembered that every time she had a headache, niannian would give her medicine, and then she wouldn't feel the pain anymore. Now that niannian was bleeding, she also had to give him medicine, and he would be better after taking the medicine!

Su Wanwan remembered that the first aid kit was in the living room downstairs. She walked out of the room and went downstairs, ready to look at the first aid kit.

Aunt Wu saw su Wanwan suddenly come down from upstairs. Her beautiful little face was full of tension and anxiousness. She said in surprise, " young Madam, did something happen? "

Su Wanwan rushed down and grabbed aunt Wu's hand. She said anxiously, " aunt Wu, niannian is dying. Help me find medicine to save him!
