

Deeply 460

460 Our past 10

PEI Munian's back quickly felt cold. The sun shone through the floor-to-ceiling windows and the surroundings were warm, but he seemed to be isolated from it. His body gradually turned cold.

He actually knew that this day would come eventually. Su Wanwan recovered little by little and adapted little by little. She regained her own thoughts, her own consciousness, her own behavior. She recovered to be an adult with her own thoughts. Then, she would not only accept the world he shaped for her.

It was just that the more blissful he was, the more he was afraid of the arrival of this day and the more he didn't want this day to come. Sometimes, he would rather su Wanwan be ignorant all her life, even silly, so that they could be happy together forever.

However, that was just a pipe dream, so he could only pray that this day would come later, a little later, so that he had time, so that she could really fall in love with him.

PEI Munian smiled bitterly. He replied with an 'I got it' and hung up the phone.

Assistant Wu saw the change in PEI Munian's expression and asked worriedly, "Boss PEI, are you alright?"

PEI Munian leaned back in her chair and remained silent for a few minutes before saying, "cancel all of this afternoon's schedule. Cancel the dinner tonight as well.

"Ah?" Assistant Wu was stunned and couldn't react in time.

However, PEI Munian ignored him. After saying this, she stood up, took his coat and car keys, and strode out of the office.

PEI Munian drove to the office first, then returned to the villa. When the car drove into the courtyard, he turned off the engine but did not get out of the car immediately. Instead, he lowered the window and looked out with his dark eyes. On the lawn not far ahead, su Wanwan was doing rehabilitation exercises under the guidance of Lin Xiaoxuan.

Her improvement was obvious to all. Some time ago, she had to walk unsteadily and hold on to something to walk properly. She would get tired after walking for a while. Now, she could walk and jump freely without relying on anything. The time she could take was also more than twice as long as before.

He wanted her to be well, but she had to pay the price for it.

As PEI Munian looked on, she was slightly lost in thought.

Not knowing when, su Wanwan's rehabilitation exercise ended. She and Lin Xiaoxuan walked back together and saw PEI Munian's car parked at the door. She was stunned for a moment and her eyes widened in disbelief.

Usually, PEI Munian would only be back at night. It was only five in the afternoon, why was he back already?

Su Wanwan rubbed her eyes, closed them, and opened them again. After making sure that she wasn't hallucinating and didn't see wrongly, she excitedly rushed towards the car. niannian, you're back? "

Su Wanwan stood next to the car and reached her hand into the car through the window. She wrapped her arms around PEI Munian's neck and her voice was full of joy.

PEI Munian snapped back to her senses and her lips curled up habitually. Her voice was low and pleasant. yes, I'm back.

"Why did you come back so early today?"

PEI Munian smiled and replied gently, " I miss you."

The smile in su Wanwan's eyes deepened and was mixed with a hint of sweetness. It was just that she already knew how to be shy now, and Lin Xiaoxuan was still there watching. Her small face blushed, but she still replied to PEI Munian in a low voice, " I missed you too!

She seemed to be really embarrassed. I'll go change first. Then, he quickly entered the villa.

Only PEI Munian and Lin Xiaoxuan were left in the courtyard.
