462 Making love (2)

However, she was not willing to leave just like that. Once she left this place, she would never have any interaction with PEI Munian again. Even if she just wanted to look at him, it would be impossible.

Lin Xiaoxuan opened her mouth, wanting to explain something and fight for something for herself. However, PEI Munian did not give her a chance at all. He bypassed her directly and walked into the villa.

Lin Xiaoxuan froze on the spot, and finally, her eyes slowly turned red, and she squatted down weakly.

Su Wanwan took a shower, changed her clothes, and walked out of the bathroom refreshed. PEI Munian leaned against the sofa and sat, holding a glass of red wine in her hand. She gently shook it, raised her head, and drank it all in one go.

This was su Wanwan's first time seeing PEI Munian drinking. She felt a little strange and curious.

Su Wanwan walked over and hugged PEI Munian's neck from behind the sofa. She put her face close to his ear and stared at the wine bottle on the table with her dark eyes. "Niannian, why are you drinking?"

It was said in the book that troubled people would drink, because getting drunk would solve a thousand worries.

"Do you have any troubles?"

PEI Munian turned his face and looked at su Wanwan's big blinking eyes. He reached out and pulled su Wanwan in front of him. Then, he took her into his arms and kissed her delicate cheek. He didn't answer su Wanwan's question but said, "I heard from aunt Wu that you asked her a question today.

Su Wanwan immediately stopped dwelling on the matter of drinking and turned her attention back to him. She nodded. yes, yes, but she said she didn't know and asked me to ask you.

PEI Munian smiled. yes, you can ask me directly if you want to know anything. Auntie Wu doesn't know everything, okay? "

"Alright!"

Su Wanwan wrapped her arms around PEI Munian's neck and smiled. I want to know what we were like in the past. How did we meet? Who liked who first?"

After su Wanwan finished speaking, she quickly added, "you must have liked me first, right? "

PEI Munian's eyes were filled with a smile. Under su Wanwan's expectant eyes, she shook her head without hesitation and said, "no, you liked me first and you pursued me first.

".....?"

Su Wanwan didn't expect it to be like this. Because during this period of time, she could feel how good PEI Munian was to her and how much she doted on her. No matter how she looked at it, he liked her more!

"I don't believe it. You must be bullying me because I can't remember anything. You're saying this on purpose!" Su Wanwan puffed up her cheeks, indicating that she refused this answer.

"But that's the truth."

PEI Munian reached out and pinched her round little face. She continued, "the first time we met was during the freshmen gathering. You fell in love with me at first sight and started to pursue me relentlessly.

at that time, you were like a sticky candy, sticking to me. No matter how hard I tried to chase you away, I couldn't get rid of you. You had to confess to me several times a day, and I rejected you every time.

Su Wanwan's eyes widened. She couldn't imagine that she used to be like what PEI Munian said. Where was the beautiful love? Were fairy tales really all lies?

Su Wanwan still refused to believe him. you must have turned around and said it. It should be that you've been chasing me and I don't like you!

I don't like Yingluo

Su Wanwan's unintentional words were like a sharp knife, ruthlessly stabbing into PEI Munian's heart, causing him to shiver in pain.
