511 Announcing their marriage to the world (7)

Wei Wei.

Su Wanwan's first reaction was Xi Zhiwei, and she actually also knew her father-in-law and mother-in-law, and even called them so affectionately. Moreover, she didn't expect that her mother-in-law didn't seem to like her very much, but liked Xi Zhiwei.

But she was his daughter-in-law, wasn't she?

Why did her mother-in-law not like her, and why did her father-in-law not want to see her? why did they just leave like that?

Niannian also said that her father-in-law liked her, but that wasn't the case at all.

After PEI Munian watched father PEI leave, he turned around and saw that su Wanwan had not come out. He went to push the door of the room but found resistance. He reached out and knocked. Wanwan? You're behind the door?"

Su Wanwan seemed to wake up from a dream and quickly opened the door.

Although su Wanwan tried her best to hide it, PEI Munian still caught the disappointment in her eyes. PEI Munian's heart trembled. Wanwan, did you hear what I said to father? "

Su Wanwan was not someone who could hide things in her heart. Since PEI Munian had seen through her, she simply said, " I heard that your parents don't like me, right? "

It seemed that she only heard the last few words. PEI Munian's raised heart slowly calmed down. He put his hands around su Wanwan's slender waist, his forehead against hers, gently touched her nose, and said gently, " no, they all like you very much.

Su Wanwan's hand grabbed PEI Munian's lapels and pushed him away. I heard everything. Don't try to lie to me. They like Wei Wei more. That Xi Zhiwei! That's why you want to marry her!"

In a fit of anger, su Wanwan couldn't help but speak without thinking.

"Wanwan, Didn't I tell you? There is nothing between me and Xi Zhiwei. Don't say such things again!"

PEI Munian's voice faintly carried a trace of anger. Su Wan couldn't help but close her mouth and hang her head in grievance.

Seeing her like this, PEI Munian felt as if something sharp had pierced her heart. His tone quickly softened. I'm sorry Wanwan. I shouldn't have spoken to you like this. But, didn't you say you had to believe me? Then believe me one more time, mom and dad do like you, okay?"

With PEI Munian coaxing her like this, the sourness in su Wanwan's eyes became more intense. It wasn't because he was fierce to her, but because she felt inexplicably uneasy. She kept feeling that something bad was going to happen.

Su Wanwan subconsciously hugged PEI Munian tightly and said in a muffled voice, " niannian, you won't like that Xi Zhiwei, right? "

PEI Munian returned su Wanwan's embrace and replied clearly, " no, I only love you. I only love su Wanwan.

The collaboration that PEI Munian was talking about this time was to form a strategic partnership with the MK Corporation to develop a project with an investment of hundreds of billions. The signing ceremony was held at the MK corporation's headquarters in the United States.

PEI Munian didn't send su Wanwan back to L city but took her directly to the United States. On the day of the contract signing ceremony, he even brought her to the scene.

The PEI family group and the MK Group were the most influential companies in Asia. PEI Munian and Gu Ningyi, the president of the MK Group, were even more outstanding. Their cooperation had attracted the attention of many media, so their signing ceremony was also live-streamed.

After PEI Munian and Gu Ningyi signed the contract and shook hands, they were supposed to leave, but PEI Munian took the microphone from the emcee's hand. His dark eyes swept across the media below and his lips curved up. Then, his eyes fell on su Wanwan, who was sitting in the first row.
