

Deeply 514

514 Announcing their marriage to the world (10)

Mrs. PEI was playing mahjong with her Mahjong friends. She had just gotten her last card and was about to celebrate when she suddenly saw the live broadcast of PEI Munian kneeling down and proposing. Her black eyes widened and her heart skipped a beat. The card in her hand slipped and fell on the table.

Her next in line, Madam Huang, immediately pushed away the cards in front of her and smiled. "It's burnt!"

"I thought I had no chance of winning this round and wanted to remove it. Mrs. PEI, you really are my God of Fortune."

"This card is actually played out. Madam PEI, this card is not of the standard." Mrs. Li, who was sitting opposite Mrs. PEI, pretended to be angry. Then, she revealed the card that she was about to touch and shouted unwillingly, "my self-touch!

that's my luck. I can't stop it. I'm willing to accept my loss!

The madams chatted and laughed, but Mrs. PEI did not seem to hear anything. Her eyes were fixed on the TV, and the expression in her eyes sank little by little.

Only then did everyone realize that something was wrong with Mrs. PEI. They followed her line of sight and were all shocked.

They had been playing cards with Mrs. PEI for many years and their relationship was relatively close. When they played cards, they would talk about the trivial matters of the family and naturally had some understanding of each other's family matters. Everyone knew that the young master of Mrs. PEI's family had high standards and had not fallen in love with any woman for many years. It was not easy for his relationship with Xi Zhiwei to be exposed some time ago. At that time, Mrs. PEI was full of joy and preparing for the wedding. How could he turn his eyes away, Young master PEI had proposed to another woman?

Madam Huang was straightforward and said to Madam PEI, "Madam PEI, what's going on? isn't your future daughter-in-law that little girl from your family, xi zhiwei? How did she become this Yueyue, the daughter of the SU family corporation?"

Mrs. Li was also too surprised. She thought of something and said directly, "ah, this su Wanwan, isn't she the future daughter-in-law of the gong family? Why is young master PEI arguing with his cousin's fiancée?"

At this point, Madam li suddenly realized that she had said something she shouldn't have. She quickly covered her mouth and glanced at Madam PEI. Seeing her extremely cold expression, she was secretly shocked.

Mrs. Huang was about to say something else when Mrs. Li quickly pulled her hand. Mrs. Huang understood and immediately kept quiet. Then, the other madams found an excuse to leave. Mrs. PEI sat there and watched the live broadcast from beginning to end. She slammed her hand on the card table with a loud bang. Butler Xi, who was standing behind her, felt his heart tremble.

“Give mu Nian a call!” Mrs. PEI ordered in a low voice.

Butler Xi took a deep breath and calmed himself down. He quickly took out his phone and dialed PEI Munian’s number.

—

When su Wanwan came out of the bathroom, she didn’t see PEI Munian. She looked around the suite and finally saw him standing on the balcony, as if he was on the phone.

Su Wanwan smiled and walked over briskly. As soon as she approached, she heard a roar from the other end of the phone, which scared her so much that she stopped in her tracks.

PEI Munian noticed su Wanwan’s figure. He didn’t say anything to the person on the other end of the phone and only said indifferently, “ okay, I’ll return to China tomorrow. We’ll talk about these things then.

After hanging up the phone, PEI Munian turned around and walked over to embrace su Wanwan. She kissed her forehead and said softly, “ You’re done?”