

Deeply 520

520 Nightmare (6)

Everything happened too quickly and too suddenly. No one expected su Wanwan to have such a move and they were all stunned.

PEI Munian had long been used to su Wanwan's occasional shocking actions, so she quickly reacted, stepped forward, and helped su Wanwan up.

"Wanwan, does it hurt?" PEI Munian's Black eyes scanned su Wanwan's body and she said worriedly.

"It's fine, it's fine," Su Wanwan perfunctorily replied, her gaze directly glancing at her mother-in-law's face, for fear that her mother-in-law would be unhappy.

However, perhaps Mrs. PEI was shocked by her, her eyes were a little dazed. After a long while, she recovered and couldn't help but burst out laughing. When she laughed, the other servants also laughed.

Su Wanwan scratched her head. She was a little embarrassed by the smile, but her mother-in-law laughed. Did it prove that she still liked her a little?

Madam PEI slowly stopped laughing and raised her eyes to sweep a glance at su Wanwan's face. Although the previous su Wan was clever, perhaps there were many things hidden in her heart. There was always a faint sorrow between her brows. Now, her eyes were clear, her brows were soft, and her pair of black eyes were extremely lively. When she looked at you, no matter how big the anger was, it seemed that she couldn't get angry.

After all, she had truly liked him before, so she couldn't bear to criticize him. She said calmly, "you guys can sit down."

Su Wanwan felt that her mother-in-law didn't seem to be as scary as she thought. Her suspended heart relaxed.

PEI Munian brought su Wanwan to sit down and the servants poured tea for them. In order to hide her nervousness, su Wanwan picked up the tea and took a sip. Who knew that the tea was a little hot? she glared at it but didn't dare to spit it out. She swallowed it.

Mrs. PEI had been observing her, and seeing her like this, the last bit of anger in her heart disappeared.

This kind of su Wan, she simply had no way to carry the airs of that evil mother-in-law.

Wanwan, don't be nervous. I called you here today to see how you're recovering. Are you feeling better?"

Su Wanwan was simply flattered. She originally thought that her mother-in-law would make things difficult for her like in the TV shows. She didn't expect her mother-in-law to be so affable. Su Wanwan nodded repeatedly, "I'm very good. I insist on doing exercise every day."

"That's good."

Su Wanwan continued. mom, you're a good person. I'll definitely work hard to sleep with niannian and give you a gift!

“Pfft, pfft, pfft.”

Mrs. PEI picked up the teacup and took a sip, but before she could swallow it, she spat it all out.

This was probably the most embarrassing moment in Madam PEI’s life.

Butler Xi quickly went forward and took a tissue to wipe Mrs. PEI’s face.

PEI Munian also didn’t expect su Wanwan to open her mouth and speak. He raised his hand and touched his forehead. For a moment, he didn’t know whether to be angry or laugh. His slender fingers pinched su Wan’s nose. He looked at su Wanwan’s innocent eyes and couldn’t help but laugh. you silly girl.

After Mrs. PEI tidied herself up, she looked at su Wanwan and didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. She sighed softly and her gaze returned to her son. She said in a deep voice: “Mu Nian, let’s have a talk.”

She originally wanted to talk with the two of them, but su Wan’s situation was completely different from what she imagined. Talking to her was probably also playing the zither to a cow.

Without waiting for PEI Munian’s reply, Madam PEI stood up and walked towards the balcony.

Su Wanwan immediately looked at PEI Munian nervously.
