

Deeply 522

522 Nightmare (8)

Su Wanwan sat on the sofa and frequently turned her head to look at the terrace. It had only been a few minutes, but she felt that a long time had passed. She couldn't sit still.

She was very curious about what her mother-in-law would say to niannian. If her mother-in-law firmly opposed niannian being with her, what should she do?

She didn't want to be separated from niannian at all. She couldn't live without niannian!

After su Wanwan thought about it, she still felt uneasy. She couldn't help but stand up and walk towards the terrace. She wanted to hear what her mother-in-law had to say about her.

The servant next to her saw that su Wanwan was going to the terrace and opened her mouth to stop her. However, Butler Xi swept a glance over, hinting her not to meddle in other people's business. The servant quickly closed her mouth, lowered her eyes, and pretended not to see anything.

Su Wanwan walked out of the terrace, but she was afraid that her mother-in-law and Nian Nian would see her. She looked left and right. There was a big potted plant at the door. Su Wanwan bent down and hid behind it. She pulled the large leaves of the potted plant and covered her face, only revealing a pair of eyes.

Mrs. PEI was infuriated by PEI Munian's words and her chest heaved up and down violently. She took a few deep breaths before she finally calmed down. She knew how cowardly her son was and reprimanding him would be of no use at all. It would only be a waste of her breath.

However, she couldn't just sit back and do nothing about this matter.

Reputation was very important to a company's leader. If he, PEI Munian, did not care, she had no choice but to care for him.

Mrs. PEI turned her head and saw su Wanwan sneakily hiding behind the potted plant. She even thought she was smart and used a leaf to block her face, but she didn't know that her whole body was exposed. She thought that su Wanwan couldn't see!

If she wasn't so angry, she would have laughed.

Madam PEI coughed lightly and retracted her gaze. She looked at her son again and said, " alright, I won't mention Gong Lingyu's matter. What about Weiwei's matter? " mom, I've already made it clear to you about Weiwei's matter the last time. I'm responsible for her, but it has nothing to do with love. I've explained it to Wanwan, and she believes me, so mom, don't use Weiwei as an excuse anymore. You're hurting her by giving her hope.

"I gave her hope? Son, you were the one who gave me hope first, and I also think that Wei Wei is more suitable for you. At least she's devoted to you!"

Indeed, Mrs. PEI still had a glimmer of hope that there was really something going on between mu Nian and Wei Wei. She hoped that Wei Wei's child was his and the PEI family's child. However, PEI Munian had been denying it all this time. Moreover, the matter about the child could not be faked.

Even so, she still felt that Wei Wei was the best candidate for PEI Munian's wife.

"You and Weiwei have been childhood sweethearts since you were young, and Weiwei has always been deeply in love with you. Aren't you moved at all?"

"No, I didn't,"

"My son, Yingluo."

I don't want to discuss such a meaningless issue with you. If you're here today to talk about this, then there's no need to talk about it. It's time for Wanwan to be rebuilt. We're going back.

PEI Munian's last bit of patience ran out. After saying this, he turned around. Mrs. PEI seemed to be angered by his attitude and her voice suddenly raised. alright, I won't mention Weiwei's matter. What about the child? "

After a pause, Mrs. PEI said word by word, " I'm talking about the child between you and Wanwan!
