

Deeply 524

524 Nightmare (10)

Xi Zhiwei was stunned. She subconsciously wanted to call out to him, but the warning that PEI Munian had given her that day appeared in her mind again. She swallowed the words in her throat and then moved her body to the side to hide.

Her large movements attracted su Wanwan's attention and her eyes couldn't help but look over.

Xi Zhiwei looked at PEI Munian timidly, with infatuation and love. She seemed to have noticed su Wan's gaze. She didn't know if it was intentional or not, but her hand slowly stroked her stomach.

It was as if something sharp had ruthlessly pierced su Wanwan's heart. The blood on her face slowly faded.

PEI Munian did not even look at Xi Zhiwei. As if she was air, she walked straight past her.

The chauffeur opened the door to the back seat. PEI Munian put su Wanwan in and then sat in the car. He let su Wanwan lean in his arms and pressed his slender fingers on her forehead, massaging it skillfully. Wanwan, bear with it. We'll be home soon.

Su Wanwan's head didn't hurt, but her mind was in a mess now. She was afraid that PEI Munian would see that something was wrong, so she simply closed her eyes and snuggled up to PEI Munian, hiding all her true emotions.

PEI Munian saw that su Wanwan's expression was getting worse and worse, and her brows furrowed even more. She raised her head and said to the driver in front, "Drive faster,"

"Yes, young master,"

Although su Wanwan's eyes were closed, the things in her mind were getting clearer and clearer. Her mother-in-law's words also echoed in her ears over and over again. She never thought that between her and PEI Munian, it was not only Gong Lingyu's problem, Xi Zhiwei's problem, but also a child's problem.

Xi Zhiwei had once mentioned the child to her, but at that time, she did not understand what she meant and had gradually forgotten about it. Today, her mother-in-law's words were like a blow to her head.

She and niannian had a child! However, she had not seen this child since she woke up!

Then where did their child go?

Mrs. PEI's every word was hinting that if she remembered the past, she and niannian would not be as good as they were now. Was it because of the child?

Su Wanwan tried her best to think, hoping that in her blank mind, she could at least remember a little bit about the past, but she couldn't remember anything.

She didn't know if she forced herself to think about it, but her brain, which didn't hurt at first, slowly felt a trace of pain. Su Wanwan couldn't help but groan.

PEI Munian's arm tightened and he held su Wanwan firmly in front of him. His thin lips gently kissed the center of her hair and he tried to speak in a soft voice, "Wanwan, the doctor is already waiting at home. Don't be afraid, he's almost here.

In this pain, su Wanwan lost consciousness in a daze. She seemed to have fallen into a nightmare. Everything was dark in front of her. She didn't know where she was and could only run as fast as she could, wanting to get out of this uncomfortable darkness.

Suddenly, a voice slowly came from all directions. I don't want a child. I don't want your child. I can't leave behind a future trouble, Yingluo.

Every word and sentence was so cruel and terrifying. Su Wanwan covered her ears, not wanting to hear such painful and sad words, but it had no effect at all. Those words were like a demonic voice, lingering in her ears and unable to go away.
