Su Wanwan's original step was taken, but she couldn't help but withdraw. Her gaze fell on that figure. It had been about half a month since they last met at the old house. Xi Zhiwei's stomach seemed to have gotten bigger again. Even if she was wearing a loose dress now, it could still easily show that protruding waist.

She didn't seem to be afraid of being recognized. She didn't wear a hat, mask, and glasses to cover herself like other celebrities. Instead, she walked into a Branded Bag Shop with two accompanying assistants in a high-key manner. She basically just walked around the shop casually, then pointed at more than a dozen bags in one go and asked the salesperson to pack them for her.

The salesperson immediately beamed with joy. He looked at Xi Zhiwei as if she was his God of Fortune. He respectfully took the card from her hand, swiped it on the card machine, and then handed the form to Xi Zhiwei for her signature.

Xi Zhiwei stood in front of the counter, picked up a pen, and skillfully signed her name. Then she ordered her assistant to pick up her bag and enjoyed the envious gazes of the crowd. She walked out with her head held high.

The people in the shop recognized her and started to discuss her. One of the staff was extremely envious and couldn't help but say, "Are celebrities all so profitable these days? She bought more than ten bags without even blinking. Oh my God, why didn't my mother give birth to me to be prettier? that way, I can also become a celebrity and buy as many bags as I want."

The shop assistant who had been serving Xi Zhiwei had already put away her flattering smile. Instead, she said with a look of disdain, "What are you thinking? Do you really think that celebrities earn so much money that they can buy bags worth hundreds of thousands? How could he be so rich! Let me show you, this bill has PEI Munian's name on it. She's the famous CEO of the PEI family corporation. I've taken a look at this card, and it's a supplementary card. In other words, this is young master PEI's supplementary card, and he's using his money!"

As soon as he said this, everyone's faces were filled with shock. One by one, they came forward to look at the list in the shop assistant's hands. They couldn't help but exclaim.

"No way? She actually used young master PEI's supplementary card."

"My God, what's going on? Didn't young master PEI just announce his marriage to the world half a month ago? Why is his secondary card in Xi Zhiwei's hands?"

"No, didn't Xi Zhiwei and young master PEI expose their relationship before? None of them denied it. When the reporters interviewed Xi Zhiwei, didn't she look shy? Xi Zhiwei and young master PEI are probably really together."

A shop assistant sneered. can you not be so naive? Nowadays, which rich person didn't have a bright future outside while their family's Red flag didn't fall? So what if he had a wife? You can still have a female friend."

“So, you’re saying that Xi Zhiwei is young master PEI’s lover?”

“Who knows, maybe Xi Zhiwei is the one who truly loves you? The supplementary card is in her hands, and she was the one who exposed the relationship first. Also, did you guys notice just now that Xi Zhiwei’s stomach was bulging?”

Before he could finish his sentence, everyone knew what was going on and smiled.

No one noticed that the slender figure standing at the door had a face paler than the incandescent light in the mall. Her body trembled violently, her legs went soft, and she could barely stand.
