PEI Munian and Xi Zhiwei had nothing to do with each other. Niannian had explained and promised her in front of her, but what he said and what she saw were completely different.

Her father-in-law was questioning her about Xi Zhiwei, and her mother-in-law was also questioning her about Xi Zhiwei. Even Xi Zhiwei's eyes were filled with undisguised love for PEI Munian. She was even holding niannian's supplementary card in her hand.

She wanted to firmly believe in niannian, but nothing in this world was without reason. If Xi Zhiwei really had nothing to do with niannian, why were there so many flaws in her relationship?

She had tried very hard to ignore the past and look only at what was in front of her. However, the scene in front of her had completely crushed her taut string.

She could ignore what happened between her and PEI Munian in the past, but she had to care about what happened between Xi Zhiwei and PEI Munian and whether PEI Munian was lying to her.

Su Wanwan's hands clenched tightly. She tried to stabilize her mind and caught up with him in big strides.

"Xi Zhiwei!"

Su Wanwan shouted. Xi Zhiwei, who was about to step into a jewelry store, paused and turned to look behind her.

Xi Zhiwei's assistant thought that su Wanwan was a fan and reached out to stop her, not letting her get close.

Xi Zhiwei saw su Wanwan and raised her eyebrows slightly. She didn't seem to be very surprised. She glanced at her assistant and smiled: "let her in, she's my friend."

Xi Zhiwei looked at su Wanwan and smiled gently. sister Wanwan, what a coincidence. Are you here to shop at the mall too?" She looked behind her. are you alone?"

Su Wanwan walked in front of Xi Zhiwei and looked at her smiling face. Her gaze then fell on her protruding belly. She gently pursed her lips and asked instead of answering, "can I treat you to a cup of coffee?"

"Of course, I should be the one treating you. I've always wanted to find an opportunity to have a good chat with you." Xi Zhiwei replied, thought for a moment and continued, there's a cafe on the top floor. The environment is pretty good. Let's go up.

After Xi Zhiwei said this, she stepped forward and held su Wanwan's hand. let's go.

Xi Zhiwei and su Wanwan took the elevator to the top floor. As soon as they entered the coffee shop, the manager came up and said respectfully, "Miss Xi, you're here. Do you want me to clear the place for you as usual?"

"Sure, I was just looking for a quiet environment to chat with my friend."

“Understood.”

The manager nodded and said a few words to the waiter beside him. The waiter then went to clear the place and the manager led Xi Zhiwei inside.

When the waiter went to clear the place, a few customers were very dissatisfied. They looked over at Xi Zhiwei and saw that it was her. They were even more angry. It's her again. Every time she comes, she drives people away. I'm speechless.

Another companion said, “It's his fault for having the PEI family's CEO as his financial backer. Of course, he can do whatever he wants. There's no point in being envious!

Their voices weren't loud, but they could clearly enter Su Wanwan's ears. Su Wanwan's eyebrows twisted and her heart sank.

The manager took them to a booth with an excellent view. Xi Zhiwei and Su Wanwan sat down one by one and then he asked them what they wanted to drink.

Xi Zhiwei pushed the menu in front of Su Wanwan. The things to drink here are pretty good. Take a look.

Su Wanwan wasn't in the mood to drink at all. She only said indifferently, “I'll have a cup of warm water.”
