

Deeply 555

555 Is this what you want?(5)

Su Wanwan's finger unintentionally clicked and the content of the text message appeared in front of her eyes. Her black pupils suddenly enlarged and su Wanwan stood up.

The flight attendant hurriedly walked over. miss, the plane is about to take off. Please take a seat and fasten your seat belt.

Su Wanwan grabbed the flight attendant's hand and said in a flustered tone, " I'm sorry, I have an emergency and have to get off the plane immediately.

"What?"

"I want to get off the plane now!"

After su Wanwan left the airport, she quickly hailed a taxi. Sir, go to the central Hospital, quick!

The text message was sent by nanny li. Su Zhenhua was so angry that he fell to the ground and couldn't breathe. After she was sent to the hospital, the doctor checked and issued a notice of critical illness, asking her to come back as soon as possible.

When the car arrived at the hospital, su Wanwan randomly took out money from her wallet and stuffed it into the driver's hand. After getting out of the car, she sped all the way to the operating room. From afar, she saw the light on the operating room door. It was so red that it made people's hearts tremble.

When nanny li saw su Wanwan running over breathlessly, she quickly greeted her, but her tone couldn't help but be a little harsh. miss, where on earth did you go? before old master entered the operating room, he was still waiting for you!

I'm sorry, I'm sorry, Wanwan. I didn't know it would turn out like this. How's grandfather? "

Nanny li sighed and her eyes turned red. the doctor said that she's in a bad condition. I don't know if she'll be able to come out.

"How could it be?" Su Wanwan was shocked by nanny Li's words and staggered a few steps back.

She had seen that Grandpa was in a good mental state these days. She thought that Grandpa would be fine. At most, he would just have a small fight like before. She didn't expect it to be so serious.

"You know that master's health has always been poor. It's not easy for you to hold your wedding with young master PEI, so he's in high spirits these two days. He only looks better, but in fact, his body can't take it anymore. But miss, you're in a daze again."

Nanny li looked at su Wanwan's Red eyes and didn't know how to continue. She only said, " I hope that the heavens will help the good, master. Even if you can't, I think master still loves you and won't blame you for being sad."

Su Wanwan stood there in a daze and looked at the tightly closed door of the operating room. Her soul seemed to be drawn away bit by bit, leaving only a shell.

Back then, she had also watched her parents being pushed into the operating room like this, but they never appeared again, and they could no longer smile at her.

No, her grandfather wouldn't be like this. Her grandfather still wanted to revitalize the SU family and let the SU family make a comeback. He wouldn't fall so easily. He wouldn't, Xuxu.

The operation went on for a long time. Su Wanwan leaned against the wall to support herself. Time seemed to have stopped, so long that it made people panic.

finally, the light of the operating room went out and the door was slowly pushed open. a doctor in a white robe came out from inside. su wanwan took two or three steps forward and looked at him with her big eyes. her voice trembled badly, " how is xuxu? " Grandpa, is Grandpa alright?"

The doctor sighed and shook his head. I'm sorry. We've tried our best.

Su Wanwan shook her head in a daze, as if she couldn't believe it. it's impossible. Grandpa can't possibly be in a daze.

"You're the patient's granddaughter, right? He has something to say to you, so make use of the time to go in and see him for the last time."
