it should be fine. What you want the most is for your parents to live well and for Weiwei to live well. Now that they're all doing well, you can rest assured. But, Hanhan, I've always thought that if you were still alive, you would live even better. You might have a successful career and a beautiful girlfriend now, or you might be married and have a happy family.

As PEI Munian spoke, her lips curled up and she chuckled softly. However, her smile seemed bitter. your life shouldn't have stopped at the age of eighteen. If you could have lived well until now when you were so young, how great would that have been? " but Wanwan, I couldn't understand your choice at that time. Now I think I can understand your thoughts. Su Wanwan, that woman, really has the ability to make life worse than death. But the most ridiculous thing is, I clearly saw your end, but I'm still Wanwan.

PEI Munian seemed to think that she was ridiculous. Before she could finish her words, she couldn't help but laugh out loud. He poured another glass of wine and drank it all in one go.

Su Wanwan never thought that PEI Munian would talk about the past in front of Xi Zhiqian's tombstone. She also didn't think that he would mention her. She also didn't expect that his words didn't contain the hatred she knew.

he said that he had clearly seen senior brother xi's ending, but he was still in a daze or something?

Back then, she had fallen in love with PEI Munian at first sight and had pursued him with all her might. However, he had never been nice to her and did not even try to hide his hatred and disgust for her.

At that time, she was extremely puzzled. PEI Munian was indeed very cold and indifferent to those women who admired him. However, she was the only one who was obviously repulsed and disgusted.

Initially, she thought that PEI Munian hated her because she had chased him too closely, causing him to feel annoyed. It was only later that she found out that he hated her because of senior Xi.

Speaking of senior Xi's matter, she didn't dare to say that she wasn't completely at fault, but it was unfair to put all the blame on her.

She had been pretty since she was young and had many suitors. However, she had never met anyone who had moved her heart, so she did not pay much attention to these things. Therefore, she did not notice that senior Xi liked her too. At that time, she was in the same club as him and they often hung out together because of activities. Senior Xi was handsome and had good grades, while she was beautiful and pleasant. Naturally, they were seen as a couple.

When everyone was ridiculing her, she had tried to explain, but every time she did, others would say that she was shy or something. After saying too much, she might as well not say anything. She knew in her heart that she and senior brother Xi were only good friends.

She didn't know that her refusal to explain had led to so many misunderstandings, Yingluo.

It had been a long time, so her memory of many things had become blurry. She didn't know if she was young and didn't pay attention, or if she had done something that caused senior Xi to misunderstand. He also thought that they were together, and then the news of their relationship spread throughout the campus.

During that time, su Wanwan was annoyed by these rumors. They asked her one by one and looked at her with eyes that thought they knew. In a fit of anger, she blurted out to one of the people who came to ask her, " how could I like him? "

The man was surprised. so you were just playing with him? "

"Yes, I'll play his game. Are you satisfied? Can you stop asking these boring questions?"
