

Deeply 571

571 The missing memory (3)

That day at the cemetery, Xi Zhiwei thought that the familiar figure she saw was an illusion. She didn't expect it to be true. Su Wan really came back.

Xi Zhiwei looked at it and still could not believe it.

She had already left, so why did she come back? And why did he come back at this time? Just as she was about to marry PEI Munian.

And why was Yueyue pushing a baby stroller?

Xi Zhiwei's heart was suddenly filled with many emotions, and threads of uneasiness spread. She bit her lower lip hard and subconsciously walked out of the jewelry store and towards the opposite side.

Su Wanwan pushed the baby Cart and strolled around the store. Now, children's toys were small and exquisite, dazzling and dazzling, making people's childlike hearts emerge. Su Wanwan took those toys and teased the baby, " little ze ze, take a look and see which one you like? " Do you like little ducks or Little Pigs?"

Little Zeze raised his hand and grabbed the piglet toy. Su Wanwan chuckled, " little Zeze, you actually like piglets! You're just a little pig."

Little Zeze pinched the little pig's stomach and made a pig's grunt, which made the baby smile.

The salesperson at the side looked on with envy and complimented, " miss, your baby is so cute. He's so handsome.

"Of course, my little Zeze is cute, right?"

Su Wanwan rubbed little Zeze's little head and kissed his face again. okay, since you like little piggy, then let's buy little piggy.

xi zhiwei stood on the other side of the display stand and listened to their words. her heart sank.

When she walked over just now, she had been anxiously guessing what was going on with the child in the baby car because she knew that su Wanwan had aborted the child before she left. Now, she had another child.

She originally held hope that it might be the child of su Wanwan's friend or something. Now it seemed that it was indeed su Wanwan's child.

But how could she have a child?

Did she have it with another man after she left? Or did she not abort the child?

If Yingluo is PEI Munian's child Yingluo

Xi Zhiwei's whole body trembled. A chill rose from the soles of her feet and quickly spread to her whole body. She had finally cut off all ties with PEI Munian and su Wanwan. If another child, ran ran, appeared, then they would be tied together for the rest of their lives.

She had waited so hard for this day, and she couldn't let any accidents happen again!

Xi Zhiwei narrowed her eyes and looked at su Wan through the gap in the display rack. Then, her eyes fell on the baby sitting in the pram and her hands clenched little by little.

She had to find out if this child was PEI Munian's!

After su Wanwan finished shopping, she pushed Xiao Zeze and took the elevator back to the underground parking lot. She found her car, unlocked it, and put the pram aside. She opened the door of the back seat and first put the big and small bags she was carrying in. When she turned around and was about to carry Xiao Zeze in, she suddenly bumped into a shopping cart from the side.

The speed of the shopping cart was extremely fast and it directly hit the baby carriage. Su Wanwan was shocked and reflexively pushed the baby carriage away. She used her body to block the shopping cart for fear that it would hit the child.

The situation was urgent and su Wanwan didn't control her strength well. The baby Cart was pushed a little far away by her and su Wanwan was heavily hit by the shopping cart on the side of her waist.
