577 The missing memory (9)

Dr. Zhao's eyebrows furrowed. How could he not remember that su Wanwan was knocked down by a cart? Because when PEI Munian and the others found the back door, they only saw su Wanwan lying there alone, so everyone thought that she had fallen on her own.

Su Wanwan sniffed hard and raised her hand to wipe the corner of her eyes. Then, she replied, " yes, I just remembered that I was hit by a cart on the side of my waist and fell down. It was the kind of cart in the hospital.

"This Yingluo."

Dr. Zhao's eyes were filled with confusion. perhaps the situation was urgent at the time, so no one noticed this. But why would a cart appear at the back of the hospital for no reason? Did a nurse push a cart past and accidentally hit you?"

Nurse?

When Dr. Zhao said this, an extremely vague figure suddenly appeared in su Wan's mind. It seemed that after she fell, she wanted to call for help and ask someone to save her child. At that time, she seemed to really see a figure run away in her daze.

Was this running figure a passer-by by chance, or was Wanwan the one who pushed the cart and knocked her down?

But if it was an ordinary nurse who accidentally knocked her down and saw her fall, they would at least come to help her. But she ran away, so did Yueyue knock her down on purpose?

Su Wanwan was shocked by this thought that came to her. She didn't want to maliciously speculate about others. After all, others had no grievances or enmity with her and would not maliciously hurt her.

Su Wanwan's face suddenly became serious. Dr. Zhao looked at her and asked, " miss su, what's wrong? " Did you remember something else?"

Su Wanwan didn't know if her guess was right or not, so she didn't tell Dr. Zhao to avoid wrongly accusing others. She shook her head at Dr. Zhao, " no, I didn't see anyone pushing the car. There was only a car that suddenly rushed out.

"But I did see a figure running away, but I'm not sure if it's an illusion," she continued after a pause.

Although she said that, she began to feel that her fall might not have been an accident. She wanted to figure out what exactly had happened and whether the figure she had seen was real.

Su Wanwan gently bit her lower lip, furrowed her eyebrows and thought for a while. She suddenly asked, " Dr. Zhao, is there a surveillance camera installed at the back door of your hospital? "

Dr. Zhao was stunned for a moment before he understood what she meant. He thought for a moment and replied, " the back door is rather remote and there are not many people there, so there are only a few surveillance cameras installed. I'm not sure if the place where you fell is on the surveillance cameras.

Su Wanwan's eyes suddenly brightened. Dr. Zhao, can you take me to the monitoring room to have a look? "

Dr. Zhao said apologetically, " I'm sorry, I still have a surgery later. I can't take you there, but I can tell the people in the monitoring room and have my assistant take you there later. You can go and take a look.

"Okay, thank you, Dr. Zhao."

"You're welcome!"

Dr. Zhao made a phone call and called his assistant in. He gave her a few simple instructions and then looked at her. you can just follow her.

Su Wan nodded her head and thanked him again.

Just as she was about to leave the office, su Wan's footsteps paused for a moment. She turned around, pursed her lips, and softly said, " Dr. Zhao, can I ask you not to mention to PEI Munian that you saw me?
