

Deeply 579

579 A domineering return (1)

Su Wanwan immediately pressed the pause button and carefully identified the figure. Even if there was only a back view, she could be sure that it was Xi Zhiwei!

He didn't expect her to be in the hospital that day. What a coincidence that she appeared in the corridor near the back door at this time.

Su Wanwan's Black eyes narrowed and she stared at the back of the running figure. In a trance, it actually overlapped with the vague back in her mind.

Could it be that all of this was not a coincidence? Did he do it on purpose? Xi Zhiwei was the one who pushed the cart and hit her?

If it was her, then a lot of things could be explained. Other people had no grudges with her and naturally would not deliberately push the cart to hit her. But Xi Zhiwei was different. If she knew that the child in her stomach was PEI Munian's, she would definitely not want the child to be born and become an obstacle between her and PEI Munian. Thus, she ruthlessly knocked her down and caused her to have a miscarriage.

Although it was only a guess, if it was true, then ...

Su Wanwan's hand that was holding the mouse trembled fiercely. Her black eyes were filled with tears as she glared at the figure on the screen. If her child was really lost because of Xi Zhiwei, she would not let her go. She would not let her go!

Su Wanwan took a deep breath, suppressed her grief and indignation, and continued to watch other videos, wanting to find more direct clues.

However, su Wan stayed in the monitoring room for almost a day and her eyes were sore. Besides seeing Xi Zhiwei's figure in the corridor, she didn't see any other clues.

Without direct evidence, she couldn't determine that her fall had something to do with Xi Zhiwei, even though her intuition told her that it had something to do with her.

Su Wanwan came out of the monitoring room and returned to her car. She leaned back in the chair and rubbed her tired eyebrows with her fingers. The anger and unwillingness in her heart were still surging in her chest.

She clearly knew that her child did not die of an accident, and she clearly had suspicions, but she could not find any evidence to prove it. This kind of mood was really terrible.

Her phone suddenly rang. Su Wanwan took it out and saw that it was Yu Jia calling. Her finger swiped on the screen and picked up the call. Her voice was weak, " Hello.

"Wanwan, what's wrong with you? Haven't you eaten yet?"

She really hadn't eaten. She had only been staring at the screen the whole day, but she was so depressed that she didn't have the appetite to eat.

Su Wanwan didn't want to talk about these annoying things with Yu Jia, so she didn't answer and asked instead, " what's the matter? "

Yu Jia's voice suddenly became excited, and her excitement could be felt through the phone. Wanwan, didn't you and Xiao Zeze have an accident at the mall yesterday? The more I thought about it, the angrier I got. I'd like to see who's so shameless to do such a thing in broad daylight. So, I took advantage of today's holiday and ran to the mall to get someone to check the surveillance video."

Pfft!

Su Wanwan's listlessness was lifted by Yu Jia's words. She and Yu Jia were worthy of being best friends. Their actions were so consistent.

Su Wanwan sat up slightly and said, " "And the result? Did you see anyone?"

"I saw Yingluo."

Yu Jia's voice suddenly dropped, with anger and unwillingness. that person was covered up and had been hiding from the camera, so I couldn't see clearly. But there was another unexpected discovery!