648 Do you hate seeing me that much?(8)

PEI Munian seemed to have noticed that the direction of the ball was not right and had rushed out with her long legs. Before the ball hit Xi Zhiwei, he had already used his body to block it.

The ball hit him hard on the shoulder. He frowned slightly. Although he didn't say anything, it was obvious that it was a heavy hit.

Xi Zhiwei was shocked by the ball that had just flown over. After she regained her senses, she quickly looked at PEI Munian. brother Munian, are you alright? Are you hurt anywhere?"

"I'm fine," she said. PEI Munian discreetly blocked Xi Zhiwei's hand.

Xi Zhiwei was already full of anger towards su Wanwan. Her good time with brother mu Nian was completely disrupted by her and she even hurt brother mu Nian again and again. She could no longer suppress her anger. She glared at su Wanwan and said angrily, " sister Wanwan, this is playing basketball. How can you hit someone? "

Su Wanwan acted as if she didn't hear Xi Zhiwei's question. She stared at PEI Munian.

The ball hit him, but her heart hurt a thousand times more than when the ball hit her. She was actually very good at golf, and her aim was very accurate. The ball just now looked like it would hit Xi Zhiwei, but in reality, it would only brush past her and not hurt her.

PEI Munian's golf skills were not worse than hers, so he could tell that the angle at which the ball flew out was not going to hit Xi Zhiwei. He rushed out to block it without thinking. Was he being too concerned?

He cared more about Xi Zhiwei than she had imagined.

No wonder no matter what she did, she could not move him. If she had not been so thick-skinned and used Xiao Zeze, she would not have been able to stay by his side.

Su Wanwan's hand somewhat couldn't hold the baseball bat. She suddenly lowered her eyes, not letting others see the tears in her eyes. She shrugged her shoulders and pretended not to care: "I'm sorry, I made a mistake. I told you, I'm not good at fighting."

"Yingluo, you've hurt someone, and you still have this kind of attitude?"

Elder Lin rushed over from the rest area. He looked at su Wan and then at Xi Zhiwei and quickly mediated the situation. it's just a mistake. Give me some face and don't be angry. Mr. PEI, how are your injuries? " Do you need medicine?"

"No, it's fine."

"Let's go take a look, in case your wife gets worried!"

Old master Lin gave PEI Munian a look and then asked a servant to bring her to the family doctor. PEI Munian did not refuse and Xi Zhiwei followed.

Only elder Lin and su Wanwan were left at the scene. Elder Lin looked at su Wanwan's lowered head and comforted her, " "Mr. PEI is fine. You don't need to blame yourself."

Su Wanwan didn't want elder Lin to see her tears. She restrained the choking in her throat and whispered, " "Old Sir, I'm sorry. I want to be alone for a while."

Elder Lin nodded. that's good. Behind this is my horse farm. It's very quiet there and the scenery is not bad. You can go there for a walk. There are my horse servants at the horse farm. If you're in a bad mood, it's best to ride a horse for some air.

"Okay, thank you."

Su Wanwan turned around and walked towards the horse track.

Xi Zhiwei wanted to accompany PEI Munian to look at the wound on her shoulder but he refused. Xi Zhiwei was left at the golf course. When she turned around, she saw su Wanwan walking towards the racecourse. She glared at her back and followed her without a word.
