Su Wanwan had been waiting for this moment. She lowered her body, grabbed the horse rope with one hand, and waved the whip with the other hand. She used a little strength to hit the horse's butt. giddyup-"

Su Wanwan's horse suddenly sped up and rushed up from behind, gradually closing the distance between her and Xi Zhiwei.

Xi Zhiwei was jolted by the horse and her body fell straight down. Su Wan's horse rushed up and there was only an arm's distance between them. If she rushed through this road, she would win and then the person who had to leave the manor would be her!

But how could she leave the manor? Wouldn't that be giving su Wanwan and PEI Munian a chance to be alone for nothing?

Even if she couldn't win, she wouldn't let su Wanwan win!

Xi Zhiwei didn't even think. When su Wanwan passed by her, she reached out and pulled su Wanwan hard.

Su Wanwan was caught off guard and her body tilted to the side. Her horse continued to rush forward and her body was carried by Xi Zhiwei. The two of them rolled on the ground.

Because of the speed, the fall was also extremely heavy. The two people fell on both sides and cried out in pain.

This section of the road was not far from the key point. When the horse ran back to the finish line, the Wagoner saw that no one was riding on it and knew that something had happened. He was shocked and wanted to run in to save the person.

Elder Lin and PEI Munian happened to walk over to the horse track. Seeing the panic on the horsekeeper's face, elder Lin couldn't help but ask, "What's wrong?"

"Old master, Mr. PEI, Mrs. PEI and miss su are having a horse race, but only the horse ran back on its own. I'm afraid that something happened to them," the servant said hurriedly.

Just as the stable boy finished speaking, PEI Munian had already pulled the horse that had run back and nimbly flipped it over. Riding it, with a gallop, they quickly rushed into the forest.

Old master Lin was slow for a second, but he quickly reacted and ordered the servants, "Hurry up and go in to save her."

"Yes!"

PEI Munian rode very fast and arrived at the place where they fell in the blink of an eye. Looking at the two people on the ground, he almost didn't even stop the horse. He jumped off the horse, took a few steps forward, and squatted beside su Wanwan.

PEI Munian's long arms wrapped around su Wanwan, and her black eyes quickly scanned her body. Her voice was low and hoarse, with an undetectable tremble. Wanwan, how are you? "

Su Wanwan fell from the horse, making her dizzy. Her eyes were dark and her ears were buzzing. She only vaguely felt that someone had helped her up and someone was asking her if she was okay. She tried hard to open her eyes and answer, but she couldn't recover for a while.

Xi Zhiwei was lying on the other side. Her injuries were lighter. She only had cuts on her hands and feet, but her head was not dizzy. So when PEI Munian ran over, she had already seen him. Seeing him help su Wan up, her eyes sank. She gritted her teeth heavily and called out weakly, " brother Munian, please let me rest here.

PEI Munian didn't know if she didn't hear or didn't notice. She called out to him a few times, but he only cared about su Wanwan until old Lin and the servants rushed over. PEI Munian glanced at old Lin who was walking over and handed su Wanwan over to one of the servants. She hurriedly instructed, " take care of her.

Then he got up and walked over to Xi Zhiwei.

The servant had already helped Xi Zhiwei up. PEI Munian happened to be squatting down and looked at her with her dark eyes. Her voice carried a trace of worry. are you okay? "
