

Deeply 654

654 Do you really hate seeing me that much?(14)

If it had been that night, she would not have been so sad, and she would not have been so foolish. She would not have had any hope that she could make his heart move again.

It turned out that the past was the past. Even if he wanted to chase it back and hold on to it, it was like sand in his hand. The tighter he held on to it, the faster it would leak.

The mist in front of her eyes rose and gradually blurred her vision. It also blurred PEI Munian's handsome face.

Su Wanwan's lips trembled and her red lips squirmed. She still opened her mouth in a low voice, " PEI Munian, do you hate seeing me so much? "

She knew that such a question was meaningless, but she still wanted to ask because she needed a reason to give up.

PEI Munian looked at her steadily. Seeing her red eyes, the tears floating in her red eyes, and the two lines of tears that fell, his hands clenched tightly.

"Didn't you want me to leave? Then answer me. "

The ancient Bell suddenly rang, and the sound echoed in the huge Manor. The bell rang ten times, and the last sound echoed for a long time.

PEI Munian finally opened her mouth. it's getting late, you should rest. I've already spoken to elder Lin. The driver will send you out of the manor tomorrow. I've already booked your flight ticket. Go back to China.

With that, PEI Munian stood up, turned around without hesitation, and strode out of the room.

Su Wanwan sat on the bed and slowly curled up her body. Her lips were curved, but tears fell.

It turned out that he had already acted first and reported later. How was he here to ask for her opinion? He didn't need to care about unimportant people.

The night gradually deepened. PEI Munian didn't return to her room. Instead, she stayed in the corridor outside su Wanwan's door. Even with a door between them, it seemed that she could still hear her low sobbing.

PEI Munian leaned against the pillar in the corridor and looked up at the stars in the sky. The twinkling stars seemed to be the glistening tears in the corners of her eyes.

The next day.

The sun was shining brightly, and there were no clouds in the sky.

Elder Lin felt very regretful about su Wanwan's sudden departure and said to her, " miss su, I'm very sorry to have caused you to have an unpleasant vacation. It's a pity that you have an urgent matter to attend to and have to return to your country. I hope that I can invite you over to have fun again in the future.

Su Wanwan forced a smile. okay, I'll definitely come if I have the chance.

Old Lin, PEI Munian, and Xi Zhiwei sent su Wanwan out together. Su Wanwan and old Lin hugged each other, but she didn't even look at PEI Munian and Xi Zhiwei. She directly turned around and sat in the car. She said to the driver in front, "Let's start the car."

The driver responded, started the engine, turned the steering wheel, and slowly drove away from the manor.

Elder Lin glanced at PEI Munian. He seemed a little absent-minded, but his dark eyes kept following the direction of the car. His eyes flashed and he curled his lips."Mr. PEI, let's go to the garden for a walk."

"Yes."

PEI Munian responded a few seconds later and turned to look at Xi Zhiwei. Xi Zhiwei understood and said,"I'll go to the doctor to change the medicine."

Old Lin and PEI Munian walked towards the garden. Under the sunlight, the flowers were beautiful and full of vitality. Old Lin admired them for a while before slowly opening his mouth. Mr. PEI, is it really good to let miss su leave just like this? "

"She looked very sad," elder Lin added after a pause.

PEI Munian's eyes narrowed and she did not speak.

Elder Lin laughed. she's your true love, isn't she? "
