“.....?”

He avoided her important questions every time. He didn't tell her that it was a coincidence. He was definitely doing it on purpose. He was deliberately trying to make her feel uncomfortable.

Su Wanwan stood up and unwillingly wanted to continue asking, but PEI Munian had already stepped out of the office. Su Wanwan opened her mouth, but she could only swallow the words at the tip of her tongue.

She couldn't help but glare at assistant Wu, who was standing there. Wouldn't it have been better if he had come a few minutes later? He just had to come at a time he shouldn't have.

Assistant Wu was confused by su Wanwan's stare and said weakly, " "Miss, miss su, did I do something wrong? I'm not used to you looking at me like this!"

Su Wanwan angrily cleaned up the lunch boxes on the table. After putting them into the bag, she walked towards assistant Wu and glared at him fiercely, " "of course you're wrong. why are you calling me miss su? call me young madam!"

"This Yingluo."

"What?"

"Young Madam, take care!" Assistant Wu shouted.

Only then did su Wanwan's anger subside a little. She raised her hand and patted assistant Wu's shoulder. then you should help niannian with her work. Finish it early and let him go home early. Don't go to any messy dinner parties. Xiao Zeze and I are waiting for him at home.

"Understood!"

Su Wanwan smiled. then I'll be leaving.

She raised her foot and as if she had thought of something, she said, " by the way, if Xi Zhiwei calls niannian or comes to the company to look for niannian, reject all of them, understand? "

A drop of sweat rolled down assistant Wu's forehead. this isn't something I can decide, ran ran.

"What?"

alright, I'll try my best. I'll try my best to tell Miss Xi that boss PEI is not free. He's in a meeting.

"Thank you, assistant Wu."

Su Wanwan walked out of the office and looked in the direction of the meeting room. Through the glass window, she could see PEI Munian sitting in the main seat. He happened to look over as well.

Su Wanwan naughtily gave him a flying kiss.

PEI Munian turned around expressionlessly.

Su Wanwan couldn't help but pout. Is it so difficult to give her a smile? She turned around and walked toward the elevator.

PEI Munian, who was in the meeting room, lowered her eyes. The corners of her lips curled up slightly, and a slight smile appeared in her eyes.

Su Wanwan drove back. When she passed by a large shopping mall, she swept a glance at the shops that were full of Ling Lin's sight. Her eyes narrowed, she turned the steering wheel and the car drove into the underground parking lot of the shopping mall.

After she found a parking space and parked the car, su Wanwan got out of the car and took the elevator to the shopping area on the first floor. Su Wanwan went straight to the underwear store.

Since PEI Munian had agreed to try to start over with her, from tonight onwards, they could rightfully sleep in the same room and bed, right?

Then, her plan to have a baby could also be implemented?

Su Wanwan thought about it and couldn't help but smile shyly. She couldn't be blamed for being impatient. It was really because Xiao Zeze was a time bomb. Who knew when an accident would happen? moreover, if her relationship with PEI Munian slowly eased, she didn't want to deceive him again.

Since they were sleeping on the same bed, there were some things that had to be prepared.

Her undergarments were more conservative and comfortable, but that kind of man would probably not have any desire for them. She decided to buy a few more seductive ones. It would be best if PEI Munian could not hold back and pounced on her.

Su Wanwan walked into the underwear store and the salesperson came up with a smile. welcome.
