Su Wanwan directly said to the salesperson, " "Give me a few sets of underwear that men like, ones that are more sexy."

The salesperson couldn't help but glance at su Wanwan. Su Wanwan subconsciously puffed out her chest. don't worry, I can hold it up!

She was very thin when she returned to the country, but she had been paying attention to her diet these days and had already taken care of some of it, okay? It was completely different from the shriveled up state he was in back then!

The salesperson was amused by su Wanwan's humor. She covered her mouth and chuckled, " good customer, please follow me. I'll recommend a few styles for you.

Su Wanwan bought several sets of underwear and under the shop assistant's recommendation, she bought a few nightgowns and returned to the villa with big and small bags.

Auntie Wu looked at the shopping bags and said in surprise, " "Young Madam, didn't you go to deliver lunch to young master? Why did you go shopping?"

Could it be that she was in a bad mood after being rejected by young master again, so she went shopping?

Su Wanwan saw through aunt Wu's thoughts and shook her head with a smile. it's the exact opposite. I've successfully reconciled with niannian and we plan to start over. I naturally have to appear in front of niannian with a new face!

Su Wanwan placed the five sets of undergarments she bought on the bed and said to Wu Xin, " "Auntie Wu, which one do you think niannian will like? Pure type one or sexy type two? Or is it the No. 3 Wild type?"

Auntie Wu covered her eyes. Young people these days, Yingluo.

"Young Madam, you should choose for yourself."

Aunt Wu fled. Su Wan smiled at aunt Wu's back as she fled. She held her cheek and thought about which set she should wear tonight.

Su Wanwan thought about it and it was difficult to make a choice. Her black eyes turned and she had a flash of inspiration.

Su Wanwan took out her phone and took a picture of the five sets of undergarments on the bed. Then, she opened WeChat and sent it directly to PEI Munian, with a message at the end: [my dear husband, which one do you like from the first to the fifth?]

PEI family corporation's top floor, meeting room.

PEI Munian leaned on the swivel chair and listened to his subordinate's report on the company's performance. He picked up his glass of water and took a sip. The phone on the table rang. He picked it up and clicked on it.

The water that he had just drunk was spat out before he could even swallow it.

The meeting room fell silent for a moment as everyone turned to look at PEI Munian. She coughed hard, her cheeks flushed red.

Assistant Wu came to her senses and quickly handed him a tissue. boss PEI, are you alright? "

PEI Munian took the tissue and wiped the corners of her lips. She waved at assistant Wu, indicating that he was fine. After his cough subsided, he was about to continue the meeting when his phone rang again. It was a message from su Wanwan.

[is it difficult to choose? Why don't I put them on and take pictures for you? [this way, it has more reference value!]

PEI Munian's hand that was holding the phone stiffened. Then, she slammed it on the table and coughed lightly, saying nonchalantly, " "Let's continue,"

PEI Munian picked up the cup of water and took a sip. After a while, she took another sip and drank it all in one go.

Su Wanwan didn't wait for PEI Munian's reply and could only choose by herself. With PEI Munian's sullen personality, she definitely liked the wild type. She looked like she was restrained, but maybe she was very passionate inside!

Su Wanwan looked at the time. PEI Munian would be back in about half an hour. She carried her number three bra and walked into the bathroom.
