

Deeply 700

700 Are you done (10)

PEI Munian felt the beautiful curves of su Wanwan's body and desired to break up the consciousness in his mind bit by bit. The veins on his forehead popped out and the light in PEI Munian's eyes completely darkened. He suddenly turned over.

His strong body pressed against su Wan's body. The handsome face that was close at hand was stained with extreme impatience. Su Wanwan saw that in PEI Munian's deep eyes, there was a burning flame, as if it wanted to burn people up.

His hot breath sprinkled on her face, and that heat seemed to be transferred to her body. Su Wan's body also started to heat up little by little.

Her heart seemed to beat wildly with PEI Munian's movements. Su Wanwan slowly closed her eyes and pouted her red lips.

Her bright red lips seemed to be wrapped in a thin layer of light under the light, like a delicious jelly, tempting people to taste it. PEI Munian subconsciously lowered her head and lightly touched su Wan's lips. Desire seemed to explode in her heart in an instant, but PEI Munian turned her head away and propped up her body.

PEI Munian got out of bed, still panting, but she opened her mouth hoarsely and said to su Wanwan, who was on the bed, "Wanwan, you should sleep first."

Su Wanwan suddenly opened her eyes and quickly sat up.

However, PEI Munian had already turned around and walked towards the door.

Su Wanwan stared at PEI Munian's back in disbelief. She stared at her for a few seconds and couldn't help but curse. So what? He was already burning with desire, but he could still hold himself back from touching her?

Sleep, sleep, sleep, sleep, his sister! Could she still sleep in this situation?

Su Wanwan was so angry that she directly picked up a pillow and threw it at PEI Munian. She said angrily, "PEI Munian, are you even a man?"

PEI Munian's back was hit and she paused in her steps. However, she did not say anything and continued to stride out of the bedroom with her long legs.

Su Wanwan really felt a little wronged now. In order to be more intimate and at ease with PEI Munian, she had put down her restraint and integrity. She had done everything that should and shouldn't be done, but he was still indifferent. What exactly was the problem?

If he hadn't accepted her before, so he didn't sleep with her, that would make sense. But now that he had accepted her, why didn't he touch her? She wasn't infected with a virus that would kill her with a touch!

Was it really as Yu Jia had said, that it was not her problem, but his?

Su Wanwan's heart suddenly thumped. Is niannian going to die?

After all, he had all the reactions he should have, but he had to brake at the last step every time. This was just too suspicious.

Su Wanwan immediately frowned and grimaced. Is niannian really going to die?

Su Wanwan couldn't sleep at this moment. The uneasiness in her heart couldn't be relieved. She took out her mobile phone and naturally called Yu Jia.

The phone rang for a while before it was picked up. It was a man's voice.

Su Wanwan was stunned for a moment. Then, she remembered something and asked, "Lingyu?"

No, I'm not. I'm Dr. Yu's friend.

"Dr ... Dr. Xu?"

"You know who I am?" the person on the other end was surprised.

"Yeah, I heard Yu Jia mention it before. But Yingluo, why did you answer Yu Jia's call? Where's Yu Jia?"

"She's drunk and can't answer your call now. If you need anything, call her tomorrow."

"What?"

"I'm sorry, I'm driving. If there's nothing else, I'll hang up."
