714 Who slapped whose face (4)

Su Wanwan's eyes turned cold. She turned around and wanted to chase after him, but she ruthlessly hit a meat wall. She was knocked back two steps and her head was dizzy for a moment.

PEI Munian was standing behind her, her dark eyes looking at her. you're looking for me? "

".....?"

Su Wanwan blinked and blinked again. Then, she narrowed her eyes, raised her hands, and pretended to be in a daze. I, I'm sleepwalking. I don't know anything.

As su Wanwan spoke, she started to walk away. PEI Munian pulled her back by the back of her collar and said, " tell me, why are you here? "

Su Wanwan didn't dare to look into PEI Munian's eyes. Why was it that PEI Munian caught her red-handed every time she did something bad? She had been very careful. Was this man a roundworm in her stomach?

However, no matter what, she could not let PEI Munian know that she had been following him the entire night!

"Cough cough!"

Su Wanwan coughed twice, swallowed her saliva and said, " I, um, I saw that you weren't home so late, so I came to see you. I didn't want you to tire yourself out from work.

"Oh?"

PEI Munian crossed her arms and raised her brows. but when I called back, I said that I had a dinner appointment and wasn't at the office.

".....?"

Su Wanwan's eyes flickered. that's, that's because of Yingluo. After hemming and hawing for a long time, she suddenly had an idea and said,"Because our hearts are connected!"

yes, it's telepathy. I sensed that you were in the company, so I came to the company to find you.

PEI Munian looked at su Wanwan talking nonsense with a serious face. Her mouth was clearly full of lies, but she still couldn't help but laugh at her. The corners of his lips curved slightly. really? "

"Of, of course!" Su Wanwan said firmly.

PEI Munian didn't say anything more. She walked around her and entered the office. Su Wanwan followed her in. She was sure that PEI Munian wasn't here on a date with Xi Zhiwei. Then, what was he doing in the office?

"Niannian, it's so late. What are you doing in the company?"

PEI Munian paused in his steps. He turned to look at her and laughed. what do you think? "

“Ah?”

How would she know? she wouldn't have asked if she knew.

“Don't we have telepathy? Do you still need to ask?”

“.....?” This was what it meant to smash one's own foot with a stone! His own words had shut him up.

Su Wanwan could only laugh dryly. I, I know. Of course I know. I was just asking.

A hint of a smile flashed in PEI Munian's eyes. He walked to the sofa, picked up his coat, and then said to su Wanwan, “You drove here, right?”

“Ah? Oh.”

“Then let's go home.”

He's leaving like this? What was he doing back at the company? Su Wanwan was so curious that she wanted to die, but she couldn't ask. She stared at PEI Munian's back and couldn't help but secretly complain, “cunning and sinister!”

At the same time, she mourned for herself. PEI Munian was so skilled, could she really successfully find out the reason why he did not touch her?

No, she couldn't be discouraged like this. There was no such thing as a wall that didn't leak air. If PEI Munian really had something going on with Xi Zhiwei, she would definitely give herself away. She couldn't be impatient and had to find out the truth!

For the rest of the time, su Wanwan went out almost every day after PEI Munian stepped out of the door.
