Chapter 73 Why did you help her? v

Xi Zhiwei said that the advertisement would be shot soon, but she didn't turn on her phone for a long time. Xi Zhiwei sat under the parasol and leisurely played with her phone. From time to time, she raised her head to look at su Wanwan and smiled proudly.

Xi Zhiwei's manager, sister li, looked at su Wanwan and then looked at Xi Zhiwei. She couldn't help but say, " Weiwei, this su Wanwan is, after all, the daughter of the SU family. It's not very good for us to treat her like this, right? "

Although Xi Zhiwei was currently very popular, things in the entertainment industry were ever-changing. Now, people were begging her, but who knew if she would have to beg others in the future? it was better to leave some leeway in everything.

Xi Zhiwei hated it the most when people talked about su Wanwan's family background. She and PEI Munian were childhood sweethearts and had always had a crush on PEI Munian. It was because she was the daughter of the Butler and did not have a good family background, so she could not like him openly. As for su Wanwan, just because she was a rich young lady and had a good family background, she could pursue PEI Munian without any restraint! She could only hide in the dark and watch as she pursued her vigorously. She watched as PEI Munian noticed her bit by bit, fell in love with her, and even fell in love with her, Yingluo.

what rich young lady? "

Xi Zhiwei glared at sister li and sneered, " su enterprise is about to fall. Su Wanwan is nothing now!

However, sister li frowned. Weiwei, I heard that the PEI family has recently invested in the SU family's company. The endorsement she's looking for us for now is a project that the PEI family has invested in.

with the PEI family corporation as our backing, the SU family will never fall. It might even be more glorious than before. So, Weiwei, let's not put on too much airs. Don't really offend them.

Sister Li's every word stabbed Xi Zhiwei's heart. Xi Zhiwei's expression suddenly turned extremely ugly and her voice could not help but raise. so what if I offended her? " I'll have to offend her today! Let's see who can do anything to me!"

Xi Zhiwei sneered and stood up. She walked in her high heels and walked in front of su Wan in two or three steps. Her beautiful big eyes glanced at her and she laughed. sister Wanwan, my assistant suddenly felt unwell, so I asked her to see a doctor. But I need an assistant now. I wonder if you can help me? "

Su Wanwan didn't expect Xi Zhiwei to say this to her. She was stunned for a moment and then nodded. okay.

She would deal with whatever came her way. No matter how hard she tried to make things difficult for her, she would take it.

Xi Zhiwei's lips curled up and there was a trace of hostility in her eyes that disappeared in a flash. then come with me.

An assistant's job was to do some trivial things. Su Wanwan was no longer the pampered young miss of the past, so she could be considered to have done it with satisfaction.

Xi Zhiwei was waiting to pick a bone with su Wanwan, but she couldn't find anything wrong with her. She was so angry that she had no place to vent her anger. Su Wanwan just happened to bring her a hot porridge. Xi Zhiwei's eyes turned and a vicious thought suddenly appeared in her mind.

When su Wanwan handed her the porridge, Xi Zhiwei took it and her hand inexplicably trembled. The hot porridge went straight towards su Wanwan. Su Wanwan was quick to react and dodged back. Her body avoided the hot porridge, but when it hit the ground, a large part of it still splashed on her leg. Suddenly, there was a heart-piercing pain.

Xi Zhiwei blinked her big eyes as if she had been greatly frightened. sister Wanwan, I'm sorry. I didn't mean to. Does it hurt? "

However, as soon as her words fell, su Wan gave her a backhand slap and directly slapped her face!
