733 The courage to confess (5)

Su Wanwan's body slowly leaned back on the sofa, her fingers unconsciously poking the sofa, waiting for PEI Munian's answer anxiously and uneasily.

PEI Munian was silent for a moment before she laughed. as long as you don't want me to pluck the stars from the sky for you, I can consider it.

"Yingluo, who wants you to pick the stars in the sky?"

Su Wanwan reproached and couldn't help but feel a little sweetness in her heart. She curved her lips and said softly, "I'll tell you about this wish when you're back,"

"Sure."

Su Wanwan spoke with PEI Munian for a while more before reluctantly hanging up. She was really a little afraid that this would be the last time they would talk so peacefully.

PEI Munian originally said that she would return the day after tomorrow. In the end, when su Wanwan was ready the day after tomorrow, the flight was canceled at the last minute due to the weather. PEI Munian returned to the country a day later.

Humans were like that. It wasn't that hard to find out when they were ready to face everything, but when they were ready and an accident happened, the fear in their hearts would increase in an instant.

He had a bad feeling about this!

Su Wanwan couldn't care about any apprehension now. She only hoped to see PEI Munian quickly and explain this matter to him quickly. She wouldn't have to worry all day long, not be able to eat well and sleep uneasily.

Before PEI Munian got on the plane, she sent a text message to su Wanwan. Su Wanwan calculated the time and wanted to pick her up.

She did not expect to get caught up in a traffic jam on the way. She then received a call from PEI Munian, saying that he had met a good friend on the plane. As they had not seen each other for a long time, they went out for a drink after they got off the plane and asked her to go home first.

"Can't we drink it another day?" su Wanwan said gloomily.

She was so eager to confess to him now, and it was not easy to gather courage, okay?

Wanwan, I haven't seen Lu Sheng for almost a year. He'll only be back for a day or two. Don't worry, I won't be back too late, okay? "

The relationship between PEI Munian and Lu Sheng was indeed very close, just like that of senior Xi. She remembered that PEI Munian had mentioned to her a year ago that Lu Sheng had been transferred to a branch company in the United States by his father, and the two of them had not seen each other for a long time.

Since PEI Munian had already said so, su Wanwan couldn't insensibly stop her. She could only nod. just reminisce about the old days. Don't drink too much.

"Alright," he said.

After hanging up the phone, su Wanwan was about to call the driver to turn around. She opened her mouth but stopped again. If she went back now, she would only continue to let her imagination run wild and be in fear. She might as well go directly to PEI Munian now.

When he was done reminiscing with Lu Sheng, she would be able to see him immediately and come clean.

Su Wanwan nodded her head lightly. She recalled that PEI Munian had mentioned that he and Lu Sheng were going to the black pool. She then said to the driver, "Sir, let's not go to the airport. Let's go to the black pool.

"Alright!"

The driver responded, turned the steering wheel, and drove toward the black pool.

The car arrived at the entrance of the black pool. Su Wan paid for the car, pushed the door open and got off. She walked in and directly said to the waiter: "Take me to young master PEI's private room."

"Alright, this way please, miss."

Su Wanwan followed the waiter and slowly walked to the VIP area. There was a private room reserved for PEI Munian all year round. She thought that PEI Munian and Lu Sheng should be here.

As expected, when he brought her to the door of the private room, he saw PEI Munian's figure through the slightly open door.
