The PEI family's land? Half of the mountain ah ~~~

Su Wanwan blinked and her mouth almost opened into an O shape. She knew that the PEI family was very rich, but she didn't expect them to be rich to this extent. She couldn't help but sigh, "did your ancestors pass down this half a mountain or buy it? Your ancestors couldn't have been some bandits or something, right?"

PEI Munian chuckled and pinched her cheek with her slender fingers. su Wanwan, it's fine if others hate the rich, but you're the SU family's young miss. You have the cheek to hate the rich? Aren't you afraid of being laughed at?"

what miss su? we're just collateral relatives. If it were the main su family, that would be the real miss.

Su Wanwan was a little depressed thinking about it. I'm telling you, our su family has only produced a real miss after so many years. Her name is su Yumo, and she's second young master SU's only daughter. That's the real collection of thousands of Pampers in one body, okay? It's a legend!"

it's a pity that I was born in a branch family. It's impossible in this life. Maybe I can place my hopes on my daughter. As su Wanwan spoke, she suddenly realized what she was saying and quickly stopped.

She probably wouldn't have a daughter in this life, right? After all, she wanted to have Yueyue and PEI Munian wouldn't want her child. She didn't intend to fall in love with another man in the future, so it was even more impossible for her to have children.

Fortunately, she still had little Zeze. She could raise him well, train him well, and hand over the SU group to him in the future. Her life would be considered complete.

Su Wanwan's pearly white teeth bit her lower lip, her dark eyes quickly turned. She was about to say something to change the topic when a light suddenly flashed past her eyes.

Su Wanwan was stunned for a second, then her eyes lit up. a shooting star!

Unknowingly, it was almost ten O'clock. One or two meteors began to flash across the sky from time to time. All of su Wanwan's attention was attracted. She quickly unfastened her seat belt, pushed open the door, and ran out.

There were more and more meteors in the sky. Su Wanwan screamed excitedly while turning her head and saying to PEI Munian in the car, " "Niannian, quickly come over and take a look!"

PEI Munian's lips curved. She got out of the car and walked over. She was immediately pulled by su Wanwan. niannian, look. It's so spectacular and beautiful.

Those meteors gradually rushed over like raindrops. One by one, they glided across the sky, their light dazzling. Su Wanwan was obsessed with them and suddenly remembered that she wanted to make a wish. She quickly said, " "niannian, quickly make a wish!"

Su Wanwan put her hands together, lowered her head, and closed her eyes.

she clearly had many, many wishes, but at this moment, her mind was blank.

she only wanted hanhan to never be separated from the man she loved so deeply. she only wanted him to love her!

Ironically, today was the last twenty-four hours she had fought for herself. The time they could be together was already counting down, and such a wish was destined not to come true, Yingluo.

Su Wanwan's hand slowly loosened and her eyes opened.

PEI Munian raised her eyebrows in surprise. you're making a good wish so quickly? "

"No, I didn't," Su Wanwan gently shook her head. I didn't make a wish.

"Why?"

Why couldn't Wanwan make it happen? it was a pity that she couldn't tell him.

"Because I'm not a three-year-old child anymore. Who would believe in such things? wishes are made for fun. You've already fulfilled my wish today. I'm not greedy anymore."
