“Niannian, are you jealous?”

Su Wanwan’s hands wrapped around PEI Munian’s neck. The smile in her eyes was bright and even more dazzling than the stars in the night sky, taking people’s souls.

PEI Munian’s lost rationality seemed to be pulled back by su Wanwan’s words in an instant. His handsome face sank and he forcefully pulled su Wanwan’s arm down, as if he had heard a joke. jealous? Su Wanwan, we just haven’t divorced yet. You should stop!”

They were not divorced yet, so he just didn’t want to see her make him a cuckold in front of everyone?

Yingying was really able to find the perfect excuse to block the real thing in his heart at any time.

Su Wanwan’s hands clenched hard, her pearly white teeth bit her lower lip, and she suddenly laughed. niannian, the divorce agreement is in your hands. If you want to divorce me, it’s a matter of minutes. Don’t always talk about divorce!

besides, you don’t have the right to criticize me now. You pushed me away and told me to stop loving you. I have the right to pursue a new happiness.

I’ve said it before. I’ll work hard to fight for your love. It’s my fortune to have it. I won’t regret it even if I don’t. Unlike you, you clearly care about me, but you have to pretend that you don’t care!

PEI Munian’s dark eyes flickered slightly, but in the next moment, they were dead silent again. He took a step back, his eyes getting colder and colder. He did not hide the sarcasm in his voice at all. Su Wanwan, do you know what it means to care? Someone who only treats relationships as a game and a means to gain benefits is not worthy to say that he cares about me?”

don’t think that I don’t know. Your so-called fiancé, Shen Ziwei, is basically your su family’s adopted son. He can be considered your brother. Su Wanwan, if you want to act, you should act more realistically. Is there any meaning in finding your own brother to act? ”

but that’s true. It should be quite interesting for you. You were the younger brother before, and now you’re the older brother. You’re using all means possible.

She was wondering why he was so calm today. So he knew that brother Ziwei was her family. However, this also showed that su Wanwan’s Black eyes were spinning around and she raised her eyebrows proudly. PEI Munian, didn’t you not care? Then why did you even investigate brother Ziwei’s background?”

The SU family had never announced to the public that Shen Ziwei was their adopted son, so everyone only knew that the SU family had two young ladies. If they did not investigate the matter, no one would know that Shen Ziwei was the SU family’s adopted son.

PEI Munian was a little speechless by su Wanwan’s words and couldn’t reply for a long time.

Su Wanwan's Black eyes swept across PEI Munian's handsome face. She took a step forward and closed in on him. PEI Munian, since you've already investigated, then you should know that brother Ziwei and I are not related by blood at all. There's no problem for us to be together and get married. Brother Ziwei and I grew up as childhood sweethearts. If I marry him, he'll definitely treat me well.

Su Wanwan deliberately said each word slowly and clearly. The light in PEI Munian's eyes grew darker and darker. Her thin lips were tightly pursed and her hands were tightly clenched into fists. The veins on the back of her hands were protruding one by one.

PEI Munian, although I love you, love is never one-sided. If you don't love me or accept me, I'm not willing to force you, and I don't want to force myself either."

so, PEI Munian urged me to marry brother Ziwei. Are you really okay with it? "
