

Deeply 790

790 Are you going to leave or not (2)

Lu Sheng's hand that was holding the towel paused and he reflexively looked at the phone. The screen lit up for a moment and he saw a text message from su Wanwan.

He really didn't expect su Wanwan to send a text message to PEI Munian. She was crying so hard just now and still took the initiative to tease her. But it was good too. Her text message was a life-saving charm, right?

Lu Sheng quickly grabbed his phone and towel before walking towards PEI Munian.

PEI Munian leaned against the wall and panted heavily. Droplets of water trickled down from his forehead and cheeks, and his dark eyes were as deep as ever.

Lu Sheng threw the towel at him first. wipe yourself. It's cold at night. Don't catch a cold.

However, PEI Munian ignored him and threw the towel aside. He stood up with his hands on the ground and strode towards the pool.

"You're not going to swim again, are you?" Lu Sheng's face was bitter as he quickly reached out to stop him. However, PEI Munian glanced at him coldly and said in a chilly voice, " move away.

".....?"He must have been careless in making friends, and that was why he was so miserable now!

Lu Sheng threw the phone in his hand to PEI Munian. let's look at this first. Su Wanwan sent you a text message. If she wants to make peace, you should stop being stubborn and try to believe in her sincerity.

I'm guessing that what she said to Shen Ziwei about marriage in the banquet hall was just out of anger. She's probably here to explain things to you.

PEI Munian grabbed the phone with her large palm and unlocked the screen. After unlocking it, she opened the message.

He only took a glance, and his eyes quickly turned extremely dark. His handsome face was covered with gloom, and the next second, the phone was thrown to the ground by him.

With a loud bang, Lu Sheng was caught off guard, and his heart contracted in fear.

W-what's going on?

Before Lu Sheng could come back to his senses, PEI Munian had already jumped into the pool again and started swimming with all her might. Her hands and feet hit the water surface heavily, showing how angry she was at the moment.

Lu Sheng was stunned on the spot and only came back to his senses after a while. He quickly bent down to pick up the phone, wanting to see what su Wanwan said to make him so angry.

Lu Sheng couldn't help but gasp when he saw the message.

[let's get a divorce. Either you hand in the divorce agreement to the lawyer to notarize it, or we'll go to the Civil Affairs Bureau together!]

He originally thought that su Wanwan's text message would be a life-saving talisman, but now it became a death talisman.

Lu Sheng scratched his head in frustration. young master PEI, stop swimming!

He didn't want to spend such a wonderful night swimming with him!

—

After su Wanwan sent the text message, she waited and waited, but PEI Munian never replied. She couldn't help but call her, but no one picked up. She was so angry that she threw her phone on the bed.

After her sadness, she felt anger. PEI Munian, that bastard, what right did she have to make her so sad?

Did he not believe her? doesn't matter? Then get a divorce. It's hard to find a three-legged toad, but two-legged men are everywhere on the street!

The more su Wanwan thought about it, the angrier she got. She grabbed her phone again, pulled up a text message, and her fingers quickly typed on the virtual keyboard of her phone.

[PEI Munian, it's not like I have to be with you. If you're so capable, then divorce me. If you're so capable, then come to the Civil Affairs Bureau at nine in the morning tomorrow!]

After she finished editing, su Wanwan pressed the send button without hesitation!