

Deeply 803

803 Are you really giving up?(7)

Lu Sheng's eyes followed Shen Ziwei and su Wanwan's figures. He watched as they checked their tickets, entered the airport, and sat in the shuttle bus. The shuttle bus started and drove away, gradually disappearing into the distance. Lu Sheng looked back at his phone, but there was no reply.

Lu Sheng sighed and put his phone away. He could only help him so much.

Su Wanwan's plane took off on time. When it rushed into the sky, Lu Sheng stood up from his seat and walked to the window. He raised his head and looked at the plane gradually becoming smaller and gradually covered by clouds. He felt a touch of melancholy in his heart.

When he turned around and returned to his seat, Lu Sheng inadvertently glanced outside and his eyes suddenly froze. Then, he strode out of the VIP lounge and walked towards the big pillar in front of him.

Lu Sheng's eyes were still filled with shock and disbelief when he reached PEI Munian. what are you doing? when did you come? "

PEI Munian's gaze was still on the airport landing. Her handsome face was indifferent and her dark eyes were deep, without a trace of emotion. just now.

"Just now? What time was that?"

"Ten minutes ago."

".....?"

Lu Sheng thought that PEI Munian didn't make it in time. In the end, he came ten minutes ago and the plane had only taken off for five minutes. He had the time to keep su Wanwan, but he kept hiding behind the pillar?

"You're already here, why didn't you ask me to stay? Didn't you see that su Wanwan was waiting for you?"

Didn't he see how she kept turning back to look at him?

"Make him stay?"

PEI Munian muttered these two words and suddenly laughed. For the first time in her life, she felt that those five minutes were the most torturous time. Behind the pillar, he saw su Wanwan sitting there crying.

His heart, which he thought was dead, was hit hard and trembled violently.

He asked himself, in these few months, did he believe that su Wanwan was sincere? The answer was that he had believed in Yingluo.

Every time su Wanwan told him that she loved him, he believed her in his heart. However, this belief also became the biggest obstacle in his heart because he was afraid that the belief would be destroyed again.

Just now, when he wanted to disregard everything, he saw her tears and became timid.

Of course, he could rush out now. Of course, he could make her stay. Of course, he could stop her from leaving. Of course, he could also tell her the answer she wanted to hear.

But he clearly understood in his heart that he would definitely hurt su Wan again because he couldn't really remove the knot in his heart for her. Because of her one action, one word, even one look, he couldn't help but think whether she wanted to do something again, scheme against him, or hurt him.

The shepherd boy had told too many lies, and no one would believe him anymore. However, no one knew how conflicted the person who was deceived was.

He was afraid that he would lie to him, but if he didn't go, he was fine with it. He was also afraid that if the wolf really came, he would die.

Love was indeed a matter between two people. When he couldn't move forward, he didn't want her to stubbornly hit the south wall again, because she was the kind of person who wouldn't look back even if her head was broken and blood flowed.

"This might be good."

"What?"

"Lu Sheng, have a safe journey."

PEI Munian raised her hand and patted Lu Sheng's shoulder before turning to leave.

Lu Sheng subconsciously stopped him. no, young master PEI, what do you mean? Yingluo, are you really going to let go?"
