808 The line between life and death (4)

The car rushed over at such a high speed that the police could only Dodge. The car broke through the fence and rushed up the mountain. The police who were left behind looked at each other as if they did not understand why someone would rush up the mountain in such a situation. Did he not want to live?

PEI Munian didn't have time to think about anything. His only thought was that he had to find su Wanwan. He must find her. Nothing must happen to her, absolutely not!

The blizzard was getting heavier and the car couldn't move forward anymore after driving for a while. PEI Munian got out of the car and walked up the mountain step by step. As she walked, she shouted, "Wanwan, su Wanwan!"

The lights on the mountain were already covered by snow and the surroundings were dark. The sharp wind blew on her face like a blade and she couldn't open her eyes. However, PEI Munian was still trying hard to open her eyes, trying to find su Wan's figure in this vast snow.

"Su Wanwan, where are you? If you hear me, answer me, su Wanwan!"

PEI Munian took a step forward with difficulty. The coat on her body was blown up and the wind kept blowing in. The blood in his body gradually froze and his limbs stiffened from the cold. Every step he took was extremely difficult.

su Wanwan, come out. Come out quickly. Don't scare me. Come out! His voice was like a roar and in the end, he even begged, "su Wan, stop playing. Come out quickly. I beg you to come out.

When the snowball fell, su Wanwan's survival instinct made her cover her head with both hands and throw herself to the side. Although she dodged, the snowball inevitably hit her shoulder heavily. She was pressed on the snow and wanted to struggle to get up, but the pain in her shoulder made her lose her strength.

One after another, blocks and balls of snow fell. The snow was getting heavier and heavier. Su Wanwan couldn't struggle to get up for a while. Then, the fierce snow fell on her body little by little and finally almost buried her whole body there.

It was so cold, so cold. Her hands and feet, her body, seemed to slowly turn into stone and she couldn't move at all. Su Wanwan blinked powerlessly, her eyelashes were covered with snowflakes.

She really didn't expect that she would fall here. Was she going to die like this?

In the past, she had wanted to die too, and not just once. Back then, when she was forced by her grandfather and ridiculed by PEI Munian, she felt tired and wanted to be free. She wanted to die and end everything.

Also, when Hanhan lost her child, that heart-wrenching pain gnawed at her day and night. It was so painful that she wanted to leave with the baby.

However, she still survived. She was also glad that she could survive.

There were so many beautiful things in life. How could he give up his life so easily because of a little weakness? Therefore, no matter what, he had to live well.

Who knew that she was going to die again?

She was not afraid of death, but she was unwilling to die. She had not won PEI Munian's love, had not made PEI Munian tell her that she loved her, had not explained everything to PEI Munian, and had not told her how much she loved him. How could she die now?

However, she was really cold and tired. She wanted to close her eyes and sleep for a while, okay?

Su Wanwan's eyelids gradually became heavy and fell down little by little. When her eyes were almost completely closed, she vaguely heard a very small sound in her ear, as if someone was calling her name.
