811 The line between life and death (7)

The snow fell down and pressed on su Wan's back. The impact made her fall forward. She couldn't stand still and fell to the ground, rolling down in the direction of the snow.

"Wanwan!"

PEI Munian, who was pushed aside by su Wan, shouted at her and struggled to get up from the ground. Following the downward arc, she almost rolled and crawled to su Wan's side.

He forcefully pushed away the snowballs on su Wanwan's body and picked her up from the ground.

su Wan, wake up, quickly wake up. Open your eyes and look at me. Wanwan, did you hear me? I told you to open your eyes! PEI Munian's voice was low and anxious. She couldn't hide the panic and fear in her voice. The hand holding su Wan trembled badly.

"Su Wanwan, wake up!"

Su Wanwan held on to her last bit of consciousness. Her eyes seemed to be open but not open. She opened her mouth weakly and her tone was extremely weak, "Nian, niannian, you, you are, are you okay?"

What time is it? you're still asking me if I'm okay? if I'm okay, you can't be okay either!

"Ha."

Su Wanwan's lips curved into a very shallow arc. Nian, niannian, Yingluo, do you still care about me and love me? "It's better to leave early and leave this early."

stop talking. I'll take you down the mountain now.

PEI Munian let out a deep breath, hugged su Wanwan with both arms and lifted her up. However, he was also extremely tired and cold at the moment. He had only taken two steps when his knees went soft and he fell down again. Su Wanwan also fell back onto the snow.

Su Wanwan rolled twice before stopping. PEI Munian hurriedly ran over. Wanwan, I'm sorry. Are you okay?"

As he spoke, he reached out to hold her again, but su Wanwan raised her hand with great effort, held his arm, and shook her head. Nian, niannian, Yingluo, don't, don't care about me. Now, now the snow is too, too heavy. You, you can't leave with me.

If she wasn't injured, perhaps they could still grit their teeth and hold on. However, she was cold all over and her back was in great pain. She had lost all her strength and could not get up to walk with Him. If this continued, she would drag PEI Munian down and the two of them would freeze to death here.

"You can go. Yingluo, you can, can come and find me. I, I'm already very, very happy."

"Niannian, I, I love you. Please, please, you must, must believe me, if, if there's a next life, don't be shy, don't push me, push me away."

As su Wanwan spoke, she laughed again. if, if you still, still don't believe me, then I really, really have to be wronged, wronged to death, you, you know? "

"Su Wanwan, don't talk nonsense. There will be no next life between us, absolutely not." PEI Munian's Black eyes stared at her coldly, as if she was dissatisfied with her words.

Su Wanwan suddenly felt a little wronged. niannian, I, I'm about to die. How can you still, still be like this? " You ... You can't even coax me?"

"No!" PEI Munian did not even have time to think about it.

"You, you, you, you, you, you, you, you, you," Su Wanwan was originally on the verge of death, but these two words of his made her open her eyes in anger. She had just risked her life to save him. Did he still not believe her? In that case, why did he follow her to Switzerland and come up the mountain to save her?
