The footsteps were extremely fast and rushed towards her. She didn't know why, but an ominous premonition quickly rose in su Wanwan's heart. She didn't dare to look back, but picked up Xiao Zeze's pace and walked faster.

However, as soon as she ran, the footsteps behind her also started to run. Su Wan's eyes turned cold and understood that the people behind her were probably coming for her, although she didn't know why.

As she ran, she looked behind her through the car mirrors on both sides of the road. There were three tall and burly men in suits and leather shoes who looked like bodyguards.

But why were these people chasing her?

Su Wanwan tried her best to run forward. She thought that as long as she ran out of the parking lot and reached a place with many people, she wouldn't be afraid of those people behind her. However, she was wearing high heels and carrying a child. In the end, she couldn't run very fast. In less than a minute, she was caught up by three men behind her and surrounded.

Su Wanwan subconsciously held the child in her arms tightly and looked at them vigilantly. She said in a deep voice, "Who are you people? What do you want?"

One of the men in the lead looked at her expressionlessly, and his voice was cold. He did not answer her question, but said, "Miss su, please come with us."

Miss su? Did they know her?

"Who are you? If you don't explain it clearly, I won't go with you!"

The man didn't speak again and directly gave a look to the other two people. The two people understood and immediately approached su Wan.

Su Wanwan secretly cried out for help, but the two people's movements were faster. One directly covered her mouth with a piece of cloth, and the other man directly took Xiao Zeze from her hand.

"Wuwuwuwu."

Su Wanwan struggled with all her might, but she smelled some strange smell. Her eyes gradually became a little lax and her consciousness became unclear. Finally, everything turned black and her body went soft.

When she woke up again, su Wanwan felt that she was lying on a big, soft bed. She didn't have any strength in her body. She tried hard to open her heavy eyelids and struggled for a long time, but she could only open her eyes a little.

There seemed to be a lot of people around her, and some people were talking, but she couldn't hear clearly what they were talking about.

Where was she? Who were these people? And where's Wanwan, little ze ze? Where was Xiao Zeze?

Su Wanwan thought in a daze. Suddenly, she felt her hand being grabbed and then a sharp pain in her finger. Her consciousness had a little bit of clarity. She vaguely saw the person beside her wearing a white coat. It seemed to be doctor Wanwan?

Why was there a doctor here? What were they doing?

Su Wanwan wanted to open her mouth to ask and wanted to struggle, but it was to no avail. However, those people seemed to have only stabbed her once and didn't do anything else. Then she heard the sound of footsteps gradually fading away. They seemed to have all gone out and the room slowly became quiet.

Su Wanwan gritted her teeth and turned her head with great effort. She looked around but didn't find Xiao Zeze's figure. The uneasiness in her heart surged wildly.

The people who caught her and Xiao Zeze were all dressed in suits and leather shoes, and they even knew her name. It was definitely not an ordinary kidnapping, but a premeditated one.

But she didn't have any enmity with anyone. Unless it was Xi Zhiwei?

But would Xi Zhiwei dare to let someone take her away so openly? She didn't seem to have the courage to do so! But if it wasn't her, who else could it be?

Who wanted to capture her? What was he going to do?
