

Deeply 843

843 I'll support you (3)

Su Wanwan tried her best to keep herself awake, afraid that she would fall asleep again. She only hoped that those people wouldn't hurt Xiao Zeze and that they could come at her if anything happened.

Time passed by, but no one came into the room. Su Wan's heart became more and more uneasy. At this moment, she hoped that it was Xi Zhiwei who did it. If it was Xi Zhiwei, at least she wouldn't dare to hurt Xiao Zeze.

As long as she waited until night time and PEI Munian realized that she was missing, she would definitely come to look for her. She would be fine as long as she held on until night time.

She didn't know how long had passed when there was finally movement again. Someone opened the door and walked in, walking to the bedside. Su Wanwan lifted her eyelids. It was a person who looked like a maid.

She seemed to have come in to check on her situation. Her black eyes swept over her body and she was about to turn and leave. Su Wanwan used all her strength to raise her hand and grabbed her wrist. She opened her mouth with difficulty, "you, Who are you? " W-where is this place?"

The maid seemed to be shocked by her sudden action and quickly shook off her hand. Without saying a word, she quickly turned around and left.

Su Wanwan was thrown back onto the bed. She panted but didn't have the strength to get up again.

—

Once PEI Munian returned to the company, he had meetings for almost the entire day. He even had lunch casually. It was only after nine O'clock in the evening that he could finally rest.

Originally, he planned to have dinner with su Wanwan. He didn't expect to be busy at this time. She should have already eaten by now, right?

PEI Munian picked up her phone and lit up the screen. Her phone was completely empty, without a single call or text message from her.

This woman, Yingluo, didn't even care about him the entire day.

Before they made up, she would send him countless text messages a day, reporting her situation and whereabouts at all times.

As expected, she didn't cherish him after she had tricked him into her hands?

PEI Munian's slender fingers tapped on the phone and was about to call su Wanwan when assistant Wu knocked on the door a few times. Then, she pushed the door open and walked in, saying: Boss PEI, the video call to New York has been connected.

PEI Munian's fingers paused and she nodded at assistant Wu. alright, I understand.

His gaze returned to the phone screen, but he didn't continue to call su Wanwan's phone. Instead, he clicked on the message and typed: [I might not be going back tonight. Don't wait for me. Go to bed early. Good night.]

After sending the message, PEI Munian kept her phone, stood up, and walked towards the door.

—

Su Wanwan felt that the sky outside was slowly getting dark. She still didn't have much strength and the surroundings were getting more and more terrifyingly quiet.

She didn't know how Xiao Zeze was doing, and she didn't know if PEI Munian had found out that she was missing. However, it had been almost a day, and those people had not done anything to her. They probably wouldn't hurt her, so Xiao Zeze should be fine, right?

No one would want to do anything to such a young child. Conflicts were adults' business. However, she still could not figure out who had captured her.

Her body was weak, and coupled with the fact that she hadn't eaten for a day, her head was a little dizzy. In the end, she fell asleep again in a daze until she heard footsteps again.

The door of the room was pushed open, the light came on, and su Wanwan's eyes opened.

It was still the same maid from before. She was holding a tray with food on it. She slowly approached and put the tray on the bedside table. She said to su Wanwan: "Miss su, let's eat."