Shen Ziwei had also been staring at the screen. His brows were furrowed and his eyes were full of worry. He was too busy yesterday and it was already very late when he got home. He thought that su Wanwan had brought Xiao Zeze to the villa and didn't call to ask.

If something happens to su Wanwan and Xiao Zeze ...

Shen Ziwei's heart grew heavier as he thought about it. He took out his phone and said, "Let's call the police,"

"No need!" PEI Munian called out to stop him. The light in her eyes was focused and her voice was low and deep. I know where Wanwan is.

PEI Munian turned to face Shen Ziwei and said, leave this matter to me. Don't worry, Wanwan and Xiao Zeze should be fine now.

Shen Ziwei looked at him in confusion. you know who took them away? "

However, PEI Munian did not answer Shen Ziwei's question. Instead, she patted his shoulder and said, "I'll take my leave first.

Once they were out of the mall, PEI Munian returned to her car. She put on her Bluetooth Earphone and dialed a number. Then, she started the engine and stepped on the accelerator. The car sped away.

The moment the other party picked up the call, PEI Munian directly asked a question.

When the car arrived at the PEI family's old mansion, PEI Munian stepped on the accelerator all the way in. He only stepped on the accelerator when he reached the main house, causing the servants to panic and hide. The tires screeched as they rubbed against the ground. PEI Munian unbuckled her seat belt, pushed the door open, and slammed it shut.

Butler Xi stood at the door and looked at the aggressive PEI Munian. Her heart could not help but skip a beat. She forced a smile and greeted, " young master, you're back.

PEI Munian strode over and glanced at her coldly. Butler Xi's head drooped involuntarily when he saw her cold gaze.

"Where's mom?"

"Madam has just woken up, Zhenzhen."

When PEI Munian walked into the main house, Mrs. PEI was coming down from the spiral staircase. When she saw him, her eyes flashed with joy and she smiled. mu Nian, why are you back so early? you didn't tell me in advance so that I could have asked someone to prepare your favorite breakfast.

PEI Munian walked in and looked up at Mrs. PEI. There was no expression on her handsome face. Her thin lips parted slightly as she said, " where did you take Wanwan and Xiao Zeze? "

The smile on Mrs. PEI's face faded a little. She walked down the stairs step by step and sat on the sofa in the living room. She took a sip of the tea that the servant had prepared and said, "Mu Nian, How long have you not been back? Is this the attitude you have when you see your mother?"

mom, taking my wife and son away without saying a word is not the attitude a mother should have, right? "

"Wife, son?"

Mrs. PEI slammed the teacup back onto the table with a heavy thud. Her eyes darkened and were stern. mu Nian, is it the attitude a son should have when you come to question me without distinguishing right from wrong? You're talking to me like this for two outsiders?"

PEI Munian took a deep breath and suppressed the anger in her heart. She tried her best to speak in a calm tone, " mom, I'm sorry. I apologize for my attitude, but you have to apologize to me too. Wanwan is my wife and Xiao Zeze is my son. They're both important people to me and not outsiders. Please hand them over!

Mrs. PEI was so angry that she laughed. mu Nian, have you lost your mind over a woman? Whether that child is your son or not, you should know better than anyone else!"
