PEI Munian hailed a taxi and opened the door of the back seat. He pressed her down with his big palm on the top of her head and let her enter the car. He also got in. After closing the door, he glanced at su Wanwan and said indifferently, " what does it have to do with me whether she's sad or not? "

Why should he care about the emotions of other women? He saved her only because of su Wan. It was just in passing. She was a strange woman to him.

"Ahem."

Because ning Jingting looked very young, a little girl around the age of 20, and because of what happened tonight, she looked very pitiful, su Wanwan subconsciously thought for her. She didn't expect PEI Munian to still be so cold.

However, PEI Munian, who treated other women as nothing, was just as handsome as the PEI Munian who had just fought.

Su Wanwan's eyes couldn't help but turn red again. Her heart was rippling. She couldn't help but throw herself at PEI Munian, put her arms around his neck, and planted a heavy kiss on his lips.

"Niannian, I really love you to death!"

PEI Munian was hit by the force of su Wanwan's pounce and fell back into the back of the chair. Her body pressed against him, her hands holding his face. Her red lips kissed his lips, and then she generously planted a kiss on his left and right cheeks, causing the driver in front to look back and sweep a glance.

PEI Munian hugged su Wanwan, who was in front of her. She lifted her eyelids and her black eyes met su Wanwan's bright eyes. The corners of her lips rose. you Love Me To Death. Is that all? "

Listening to the hint in PEI Munian's words, su Wanwan's cheeks couldn't help but blush. Her dark eyes turned and she pretended not to understand anything. ah, I've been tormented just now and I've already digested everything. Now, my stomach isn't full and I don't feel uncomfortable anymore.

She had been applying the medicine that Yu Jia had given her these few days, and her scars had faded a lot. In another two days, they would be gone. By then, her body would be perfectly exposed to PEI Munian. Hence, she had to resist the temptation now and not give up!

PEI Munian curled her finger and knocked on su Wanwan's forehead unceremoniously. His voice didn't hide his dissatisfaction at all. you heartless woman.

Su Wanwan covered her forehead, but she didn't dare to refute. She only cleverly moved her red lips closer and kissed him all over his face until PEI Munian lost the strength to resist.

The car arrived at the hotel. PEI Munian paid the fare and was about to push the door open to get off the car. Su Wanwan searched around her but did not feel the bag. She suddenly remembered that their bicycle was still at the restaurant where they ate and the bag she bought was in the basket of the bicycle.

Su Wanwan quickly pulled PEI Munian and said anxiously, " "Niannian, our bicycles are still at the restaurant."

"A bicycle?"

PEI Munian didn't think that su Wanwan would still be thinking about this. He shook his head and laughed. we don't need the bicycle anymore. We don't have to care about it.

"No!"

It wasn't that she felt pity for the bicycle, but that she still had something in the bicycle that she needed to use the next day. She couldn't lose it.

She clutched PEI Munian's sleeve tightly and opened her eyes wide, pleading, " "Niannian, come back with me to get it."

".....?"

Su Wanwan blinked her big eyes a few times and continued, " I beg you.
