

Deeply 937

937 There's something even more atrocious (7)

The man's slightly raised tone was like a feather floating over the softest place in the bottom of the heart, with a little itchiness and extremely seductive. Su Wan's heart started to beat wildly. Her hand covered her heart and she couldn't help but curse: This man was a scourge.

After taking a hot bath, the soreness in su Wanwan's body eased a little. She sighed and stood up from the bathtub. When she reached out to take the bathrobe on the shelf, she inadvertently glanced at the mirror and was suddenly a little dumbfounded.

Her entire body was covered with traces of intimacy, which were imprinted on her white skin. It was a shocking sight. She looked up and down, left and right, and couldn't help but clench her teeth.

PEI Munian, this beast, actually didn't let go of a single place. Even the root of her thigh was imprinted with marks.

She regretted it now. If she had known earlier, she wouldn't have seduced him like that and forced herself on him. How could he have endured it back then? he even gave it all to her in one go last night. He really brought it on himself!

Su Wanwan walked out of the bathroom and saw PEI Munian sitting on the bed. She didn't give him a good look at all. niannian, I'll repeat myself again. Within a month, don't even think about getting into my bed! You cowardly beast!"

PEI Munian raised her eyebrows. yes, Wanwan, I remember someone saying that I'm worse than-beast, so I can only be-beast and prove my ability to Madam.

Su Wanwan was speechless and glared at him with her cheeks puffed up.

"Come here." PEI Munian beckoned at her and patted the seat beside him.

Su Wanwan immediately stared at him warily. don't tell me you want me to warn you again and not mess around again.

She couldn't bear his demands anymore, Hanhan.

PEI Munian laughed but deliberately didn't answer. He got up and walked directly towards her. Su Wanwan turned around and wanted to run, but before she could take two steps, he wrapped his strong long arms around her waist. He carried her and walked towards the bed.

Su Wanwan kicked her legs and struggled, but she couldn't move him at all. In the end, she was still thrown onto the bed by PEI Munian.

In the next second, PEI Munian pressed down on her and her hand unceremoniously pulled on the belt of her bathrobe. Su Wanwan struggled to grab the belt and fought with PEI Munian. niannian, I will definitely not compromise.

Wanwan, don't resist anymore. Just obey me. PEI Munian spoke like a hooligan. One hand grabbed her wrist and pressed it on top of her head, while the other continued to pull the belt around her waist.

Su Wanwan couldn't break free. She could only stare at his movements and clench her teeth in anger.

As soon as the tie was removed, the nightgown loosened, revealing her fair skin. PEI Munian glanced at the traces of intimacy all over her body and could not help but feel her heart ache.

He was too excited yesterday. At first, he could still take care of her, but in the end, he just let his temper take over. Who asked her to be so charming that he could not control his feelings?

She was the only one who could make him lose control time and time again.

PEI Munian's deep black eyes were fixed on su Wanwan's body. The light in the bottom of her eyes was dim and unclear. It gradually darkened and su Wanwan twisted her body uncomfortably.

Although the two of them were so intimate, she still could not get used to him staring at her body in broad daylight.

"Hello," he said. Su Wanwan shyly and angrily shouted.

PEI Munian's eyelashes trembled slightly before she turned around and gave su Wanwan an evil smile.
