If he couldn't bear to part with Xi Zhiwei, then why did he have to start over with her?

The grievances and sadness that she had suppressed in her heart surged up like a fire, breaking through the gorge and turning into a raging anger. She pursed her lips tightly and in the next second, she shook off PEI Munian's hand with all her might.

PEI Munian was stunned and looked at her empty hand.

"You said you're coming back?"

Su Wanwan raised her small face. There was a fire burning in the bottom of her eyes. She pointed at Xi Zhiwei, who was following them downstairs. Her voice trembled because of anger. you still want to come back to accompany her and spend the night here? "

Su Wanwan's lips curled up. She couldn't hold back her sneer. Her black eyes glared at PEI Munian fiercely and she said word by word, " PEI Munian, if you still want to come back, then you don't have to leave now. You might as well stay here. If you leave with me, I won't let you come back here again, to another woman's side!

What did he mean by "send her back to where Wanwan has her, that's his home"? Wanwan made it sound like this was his home, Xi Zhiwei was his wife, and she was just an unimportant person?

PEI Munian's eyes were dark. She still could not tell what emotions were in them. His voice was still calm. Wanwan, let's go back first.

He reached out his hand again and wanted to pull su Wan, but she took a step back and avoided him. Her black eyes looked at him stubbornly, " if you don't make things clear, I won't go with you!

"You can either stay here and accompany your Xi Zhiwei, or you can leave with me and never step foot in here again!"

In a relationship, in front of the person you love deeply, who could really be indifferent?

She wanted to hold it in and not lose her temper in front of Xi Zhiwei, but PEI Munian's words hurt her too much. She did think that he might have his reasons or difficulties, but there weren't many people who could still keep their rationality at this time, right?

Xi Zhiwei was shocked by su Wanwan's words. She didn't expect that su Wanwan would be so aggressive even after she had backed down.

Her face sank and she bit her lip lightly. She looked at PEI Munian with tears in her eyes and called out faintly, " brother Munian, Yueyue.

PEI Munian's Black eyes looked at su Wan, and his gaze fell on her tense face. Even if she was angry, he could still see that her body was trembling slightly and the fear in her eyes was hard to detect.

She clenched her fists and turned to look at Xi Zhiwei, who was standing at the top of the stairs. you should rest well tonight.

If he told her to rest well, did that mean he wouldn't be coming back tonight?

Xi Zhiwei blinked and her eyes instantly became wet.

Throwing down this sentence, PEI Munian's long arm wrapped around su Wan, suppressed her struggle, and took her out of the house without saying anything.

In the elevator, the two people had been silent. PEI Munian didn't have the intention to speak and su Wanwan had been waiting for him to speak first.

Under such circumstances, should she question him first?

However, he didn't say a word even when the elevator went down from the fifth floor to the first floor.

When she walked out of the apartment, the cold wind of the late night hit her body. Su Wan came out in a hurry and only wore a thin shirt. When the wind blew, her whole body shivered from the cold.

However, no matter how cold it was, it couldn't be as cold as her heart at this moment. The coldness spread from her heart to her limbs and bones. The bone-piercing coldness made her feel extremely uncomfortable.

She couldn't help but wrap her arms around herself, and the next second, her back was wrapped in a layer of warmth.
