984 The responsibility I want is to get married (10)

“Yeah, she always hurts me and makes me sad, Yingluo.” PEI Munian followed her words and muttered, but there was a trace of gentleness in his eyes. He lowered his eyes and looked at the extremely nervous su Wan below. The corners of his lips curled up. It’s because she can hurt me and make me sad that I can’t let go of her. As for you, I won’t have any emotional fluctuations because of you. If I do, I’ll only be annoyed and helpless. You’re slowly consuming my promise to you and my promise to your brother.”

Weiwei, I truly treat you as a younger sister. That’s why I’m warning you. You’re destined to lose this bet. You’ve already lost the moment you invested your feelings into a man who doesn’t love you!

I won’t make Wanwan feel aggrieved, so the person who will feel aggrieved is definitely you.

Who wasn’t selfish in love? However, how could a one-sided love beat a mutual love?

It was a very simple logic. It just depended on whether you could get over it and stop being stubborn!

Language was the most wondrous thing in the world. Sometimes, a simple sentence could make people feel sweet, but sometimes, just a few words could make people fall into hell instantly.

PEI Munian only felt annoyed and helpless towards her.

Xi Zhiwei looked at him with teary eyes. She had loved the man in front of her for many years. Even if he just smiled at her inadvertently, she would be happy for a long time. However, all her years of love had only been exchanged for annoyance and helplessness?

No, she didn’t believe it. She didn’t believe that after doing so many things, she still couldn’t move him in the slightest.

Xi Zhiwei shook her head so hard that she could not stand steadily and her body started to sway. The doctor and the nanny were so scared that their faces turned pale. The doctor turned to PEI Munian and said, boss PEI, just say something nice to Miss Xi. If this goes on, something will happen.

She was a doctor and Xi Zhiwei was her patient. She could not just watch Xi Zhiwei be forced into a corner. If she destroyed the last bit of hope in her heart, she would really be pushed to her own death by the darkness in her heart.

However, PEI Munian was unmoved. Her indifferent expression did not change at all. Even her eyes did not waver.

The doctor anxiously looked at su Wanwan and said, “miss, please advise boss PEI. No matter what, a life is at stake.

Persuade PEI Munian?

Was she supposed to persuade her husband to accept another woman?

Although she didn’t want anything to happen to them, wasn’t this a little too harsh on her?

Su Wanwan's throat suddenly became a little dry and hoarse. She opened her mouth, but her voice couldn't come out for a while. When she finally found her voice, PEI Munian's voice rang again before she could open her mouth.

"Wei Wei, now it's your turn to choose. Do you want me to repay you with my life?" His thin lips opened slightly and he spat out each word clearly. He looked at Xi Zhiwei and his lips curled up coldly. He continued, "I'll give you five seconds to decide."

"Five,"

PEI Munian took a small step forward as she recited.

Su Wanwan's Black eyes couldn't help but widen, and her voice finally broke out of her throat. niannian Qian Qian.

He acted as if he didn't hear su Wan's shout and continued to read, " four!

"Three,"

Xi Zhiwei's face finally flashed with a touch of fear. Her red lips were pursed and she was still unwilling to speak.

"Two,"

"One,"
