

Deeply 987

987 She's changed for the better?(3)

The man's handsome face slowly enlarged in front of her, but his thin lips did not land on her lips. Instead, he turned to her ear, his hot breath blowing on her ear. His thin lips opened slightly, and there was a charming hoarseness, which was extremely charming. from now on, feel my existence, hmm? "

As his words fell, the man's lips covered hers, the kiss went from shallow to deep, advancing one step at a time, not giving su Wan the slightest chance to breathe, and he had already attacked the city and plundered the pool.

His big palm slid in from under her clothes and touched her delicate skin. Wherever it went, it scattered hot seeds, making su Wanwan couldn't help but moan.

Her voice was like the strongest catalyst. PEI Munian's hands were originally unbuttoning her shirt, but in the end, she used force and pulled it open, revealing her fair skin.

The button was ripped off and fell to the ground, making a crisp sound on the wooden floor.

PEI Munian's kiss slowly moved down and landed on his neck, leaving marks one by one. He even deliberately used some strength to suck and kiss. Su Wanwan slightly gasped, gasped, and looked at him with blurred eyes.

The corners of PEI Munian's lips curled up devilishly, and her voice became even more hoarse and charming. how is it? Can you feel my presence?"

Su Wanwan glared at him in a seemingly coquettish manner. The man chuckled, hooked her long legs up, and wrapped them around his thin waist. Then he picked her up and walked towards the big bed.

Su Wanwan was placed on the soft bed and her whole body almost sank in. PEI Munian pressed down in the next second, his big palm caressing her face and continued to kiss her deeply.

His kiss today was not as gentle as usual, but with a strong force. It was like a storm, making everyone's senses focus on his kiss and feel his strong presence.

Her tensed emotions gradually melted in his kiss. Her fear and uneasiness had disappeared without a trace. She could only feel the man in front of her and everything he had brought her.

She removed her clothes and they were scattered messily on the ground. PEI Munian's large palm slid down her curves and landed on her slender waist. He held her and then lowered his body, completely occupying her.

Su Wanwan let out a soft cry. She didn't know if it was pain or something else, but the hand she used to grab PEI Munian's shoulder unconsciously exerted a little force. Her nails dug into his flesh, as if she heard the man's extremely soft muffled groan.

PEI Munian looked up, the light in her eyes so deep that one couldn't see the bottom. The lust between her brows added to the charm of his handsome face last night, which was extremely alluring. His kiss became gentle again as he pecked her and laughed- now, do you feel my presence? "

Along with his words, the movement of her body became heavy. Su Wanwan's breathing became heavy, her black pupils suddenly contracted, and her black eyes couldn't help but open.

"What?"

Su Wan didn't answer, so his movements didn't stop. He moved up and down on her body, and every time, he was able to hit su Wan's soft ribs, making her open her mouth and gasp for breath. Her voice was thin and broken, " don't be dazed ...

It was a little difficult for her to bear seeing him like this. The unfamiliar feeling made her heart palpitate, and she didn't know how to deal with it.

However, PEI Munian was unhappy. this is not the answer I want.

She hit him again as a punishment, and the words in su Wanwan's throat seemed to be broken.
