

Deeply 989

989 She's changed for the better?(5)

Su Wanwan turned her face to the side and looked back at PEI Munian. The misty look in her eyes slowly became clear. She clenched her fist and punched him again. no, if you dare to scare me like this again in the future, I will never forgive you!

PEI Munian held her hand and brought it to her lips for a kiss. Her voice was hoarse from her desire. I won't do it again.

He had never thought of using such an extreme method to resolve this matter. After all, he felt guilty towards Xi Zhiwei. Also, because of their many years of relationship, he still treated her as his sister. Therefore, he wanted to do his best to make it up to her.

However, no matter what Yingluo did, he only had one bottom line and that was su Wanwan.

She shouldn't have, she shouldn't have involved su Wanwan in this matter.

"Then what's going on between you and Xi Zhiwei? Can you tell me now?"

Even though she had heard their conversation just now and had a rough guess, she still could not understand the details. What she did not understand the most was the thing that Xi Zhiwei had mentioned, the thing that she had always been very concerned about.

PEI Munian's dark eyes swept across her probing gaze and she smiled. "What do you want to know?"

"I want to know everything!" Su Wanwan said decisively.

He had kept Xi Zhiwei's matter from her. There were secrets between them that she did not know about, and it made her extremely uncomfortable. She hated this feeling. She hated any connection he had with other women.

Su Wanwan furrowed her eyebrows and thought about it. "You tell me first, what is the matter that Xi Zhiwei was talking about? To make you feel like you owe her, is it related to Qianqian and senior Xi?"

No matter how she thought about it, this was the only thing that PEI Munian would care about.

PEI Munian shook her head.

I owe her, and part of it is because of Qian. I didn't tell you, did I? Qian saved my life before. I was kidnapped when I was a child.

"Kidnapped?" Su Wanwan opened her eyes in shock.

yes, ah Qian and I have been close since we were young. We were always inseparable. My mother also likes him and Weiwei because she studied as a Butler. I would buy them a share of everything I have. Everyone in the family basically treats them as young masters and young ladies. So, people outside who are not familiar with ah Qian have no idea who the real young master of the PEI family is. When ah Qian and I were captured, the kidnappers needed to send someone back to inform them. Ah Qian took the initiative to replace me.

“After I went back, I informed the adults that the kidnapper took Qian and hid him in an extremely secret place. The police spent nearly a week to save him. At that time, he was covered in wounds and on the verge of death. It was ah Qian who helped me endure all this.”

also, after he came back, I don't know what he went through. He became depressed, cautious, and extremely sensitive. He didn't want to talk about what happened in that week. That was when he got depressed.

Su Wanwan would never have thought that senior brother Xi, who was once so sunny, always had a faint smile on his face and actually had such a past.

my life was exchanged for by ah Qian. I swore to be good to him for the rest of my life and repay his kindness. That's why I hated you so much and indulged Weiwei.
