

Falling For My “Disabled” Wife by Veronica Winifred

Chapter 111

Chapter 111

Soon, it was time for lunch. Other than those who went to work, everyone else came downstairs.

Even Jasmine, who had been angry all morning, came down to have lunch with others with a sullen expression. It seemed like she was hungry. SEARCH THE website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Roger and Sophie sat on Norman’s right-hand side. Jasmine and Rebecca sat on his left side. Emily sat beside Rebecca. Opposite her was Evelyn, who was next to Sophie. Normally, Ronald would definitely sit beside her.

But today, he had to sit beside Evelyn, as if he wanted to get close to her.

Rebecca’s expression did not look too good when she saw this, but Norman was here, and she could not directly drag Ronald over by her side.

Norman chose to ignore these eyesores. He only had Sophie and Roger in his eyes.

“Sophie, are these dishes to your liking?” Norman was afraid that Jasmine and Rebecca would not treat Sophie well, so he quickly asked.

Sophie smiled and said, “Yes, they’re delicious. I did not expect Rebecca to know my appetite.”

Rebecca had always been cautious. She would not let others get the good on her, so all the dishes were indeed Sophie’s. favorite food.

When Rebecca received Sophie’s affirmation, she immediately smiled, “It’s good that you like the dishes. I also asked the servants to prepare a lot of Roger’s favorite dishes.”

Sophie nodded and said, “Oh, thank you, Rebecca. I think you’re the only one in this family who knows what Roger likes to eat. It’s just that every time we eat at home, we rarely see what Roger likes to eat.”

When she heard Sophie’s words, Rebecca’s face stiffened slightly.

Rebecca thought that Sophie was praising her, but she did not expect Sophie to be settling old scores.

Rebecca could only explain, "Roger did not talk much in the past, so I don't know what he likes to eat. It's only because you've been taking care of him these days that I know what he likes to eat."

Sophie nodded. "That's true. It's Roger's fault. He's too boring."

Rebecca's face froze again.

Every time she explained, Sophie would retort. Rebecca did not know how to end it.

At this moment, Norman chimed in, "It's not his fault. We were negligent towards Roger. Fortunately, we have you. Otherwise, I'm afraid Roger will suffer for a long time."

Roger had always been a strong person. How could he take the initiative to ask others for something?

Chapter 111

Therefore, he gradually forgot what he liked to eat. He did not even notice that the chef no longer cooked the food he liked most

When Sophie saw that Norman felt distressed for Roger, she comforted him in a low voice, "Grandpa, it's not your fault."

After all, Jasmine and Rebecca were in charge of these trivial matters.

Previously, they had probably been making their favorite food. Roger's and Daisy's needs would definitely be ignored.

Roger could not help but feel warm in his heart as he watched Sophie seek revenge for him,

He smiled and said, "It's fine now. It's good that you know what I like to eat."

Hearing this, Sophie smiled brightly and nodded. "Then I will get a shrimp for you."

When she finished speaking, Sophie began to put some food on Roger's plate.

Seeing that the two of them had started eating, others also picked up their knives and forks and started to eat.

Ronald saw the reserved look on Evelyn's face and quickly tried to curry favor with her. "Evelyn, what do you like to eat? I'll get it for you."

Evelyn nodded shyly and said, "Thank you, Mr. Ronald. I like to eat shrimp, too."

"Alright, I'll help you peel the shrimp." As he spoke, Ronald actually stood up and picked up some shrimp to put on his plate. Then he sat down and started peeling shrimp for Evelyn.

This action made everyone frown.

Rebecca could not take it anymore. Her precious son was actually peeling shrimp for a humble woman.

At the thought of this, she suppressed her anger and said with a smile, "Ronald, Miss Dawson has hands, Do you need to fawn over her? Aren't you afraid that she'll despise you? Just let her peel the shrimp by herself."

Ronald only reacted after being scolded.

That made sense. He did not know if Evelyn would despise him, so he could not help but look at her.

However, he met Evelyn's affectionate eyes. "Why would I despise Ronald? I can't thank him enough. Although I like to eat shrimp, I don't dare to peel them myself. In the Dawson family, the servants peeled the shrimp for me."

However, she did not have such treatment now. It had been a long time since she had eaten shrimp.

She just treated Ronald as a servant.

Rebecca's expression suddenly turned even uglier. "Did you hear that, Ronald? It was the servant who peeled shrimp for her. You're one of the heirs of the Nicholls family, not her servant. Put the shrimp down and let the servants peel it."

"She wants my son to peel shrimp for her? Dream on!" Rebecca thought angrily.

Ronald did not understand it that way. How much trust did Evelyn have in him that she did not mind him peeling the shrimp for her? “No. I want to peel shrimp for her!”

This was a scene that he had imagined countless times in the past! How could he give up?

As he spoke, he quickly began to peel the prawns for Evelyn.

When Norman saw Ronald’s humble behavior, he could not help but get angry. “What are you doing? You’re not related to Miss Dawson, Why are you peeling shrimp for her? Willard, take the shrimp away!”

Unexpectedly, Norman could not stand it anymore. Ronald could only watch as Willard took the shrimp away and let the servants peel them.

Initially–Evelyn thought that she could control Ronald. She did not expect Rebecca and even Norman to oppose her!

At this moment, she was filled with unwillingness.

Suddenly, she had an idea. She immediately looked at Ronald with tears in her eyes and said, “I’m sorry, Ronald. I don’t understand the rules of the Nicholls family. Did I cause you trouble?”

After saying that, she looked at Norman and Rebecca, saying, “I’m sorry, Norman and Rebecca. If you are angry, just scold me. Don’t blame Ronald. I was too arrogant. When I was in the Dawson family in the past, my parents and brothers doted on me very much, so they spoiled me. I have been changing recently, but there are still some things that I did wrong. Please forgive me if I offend you.”

This move to feign pity by retreating was used to great effect by Evelyn.

As expected, even though Norman and Rebecca did not like her, they did not make things difficult for her at this moment. “It’s not that serious. There are rules in the Nicholls family. No one is allowed to talk when eating. Everyone, let’s eat.”

Not wanting other things to affect their meal, Norman directly ordered that no one was allowed to speak.

“I understand” Evelyn could only nod.

However, she hated Norman to the core.

She wanted to get closer to Ronald while they were eating, but she did not expect Norman to stop them from talking. It was too much

However, she was not in her own family. Evelyn could only resign herself to her fate and eat with her head down.

Not long after, Sophie asked Roger, "This is chicken wing. It tastes good. Do you want to try it?"

"Alright." Roger nodded.

The two of them spoke openly

Evelyn immediately looked up and waited for Norman to scold them.

Unexpectedly, not only did Norman not blame Sophie and Roger, but he also looked at them happily.

Chapter 112

What was even stranger was that the others seemed to be used to this scene. Everyone remained silent and ate silently. Even Ronald pulled Evelyn and shook his head at her, indicating for her to continue eating and not care what Sophie and Roger were talking about.

Evelyn immediately understood something.

So, this rule was only set for others! Sophie and Roger did not have to follow the rules!

But Evelyn was also from the Dawson family and a guest!

How could the Nicholls family treat her like this?

Feeling depressed, Evelyn poked at the dishes even harder.

Under the silent atmosphere of the family, they soon finished the lunch.

Sophie still had class in the afternoon, so she didn't plan to stay any longer. After the lunch, she said goodbye to Norman.

"Grandpa, I still have class in the afternoon, so I'll go back to school first."

“Go ahead. Come home whenever you’re free,” Norman replied with a smile.

“Alright.” Sophie nodded and planned to go out with Roger.

Seeing that she was about to leave, Evelyn knew that there was no excuse for her to stay. She could only bid farewell to Norman and Ronald. “Grandpa, Ronald, I’m going back too. Thank you for your hospitality,” Norman nodded indifferently and did not reply. His gaze indicated that she could leave.

However, Ronald’s eyes were filled with reluctance. “Your foot is injured. Let me send you back.”

It was rare for Evelyn to come to his house. Ronald wondered if he would have the chance to give her a ride next time.

When Evelyn saw that Ronald was going to send her home, she immediately agreed happily. “Alright, then I’ll have to trouble you, Ronald.”

“No trouble! I’ll go get the car. Wait for me!”

As Ronald spoke, he rushed out and got his car!

This was a good time to take the girl out for a ride! He could not miss the chance.

“Ronald, come back here!” Rebecca shouted at his back.

But Ronald had already run out of the living room,

Rebecca was furious, but she knew that she wouldn’t be able to catch him, so she could only roll her eyes at Evelyn and say, “Miss Dawson, your foot is injured at the right time.”

Evelyn had seduced Ronald for the entire morning and even wanted him to send her home!

At such a young age, Evelyn was quite scheming!

Evelyn pretended not to understand what Rebecca said. She smiled and said to Rebecca, "Rebecca, thank you for your hospitality. I'll get going first."

With that, Evelyn turned around and left smugly.

Sophie and Roger watched them disappear quickly and sneered.

Evelyn and Ronald were quite enthusiastic about being able to stay alone.

When the two of the went out, Dillon's car was parked at the door.

However, Evelyn had already gotten into Ronald's car. The two of them left the Nicholls together

"Tsk. Tsk. Look at what she did just now. She doesn't look like someone with an injured foot at all."

Roger smiled. "Your sister is really good at the self-injury trick."

"I think so too. She must have read a lot about how to be scheming."

The two of them shook their heads playfully and got into the car together.

Dillon slowly started the car. Only then did Sophie react and say, "Actually, Dillon can send me. You can rest at home."

Roger had been tired all morning. He should have a rest at home.

But Roger said calmly. "It's boring at home. I'll miss you. So just let me send you to school,"

Sophie immediately glanced at him.

"Roger, you are so full of such mushy words these days, and you are just saying it all the time," Sophie said.

At first, she was not used to it, but now, she was immune to it.

Roger said with a wicked smile, "I will only say these words to you."

Sophie rolled her eyes at him and said, "You'd better say those to someone else. Let me go. It's too much."

Roger looked at her speechless expression and found it funny. He could not help but continue to tease her. “Too much? Don’t you like to hear the sweet words?”

Sophie was instantly embarrassed by such low–class sweet words..

“Roger, that’s enough!” His words really made her skin crawl.

It seemed that Roger would not stop until she had goosebumps.

“You’re so funny... Roger looked at her and could not help but laugh out loud.

This smile stunned Dillon, who was in the driver’s seat.

He had been with Roger for seven years, but he had never seen Roger laugh so happily.

Sophie was also stunned for a moment because of his laugh.

She had seen Roger smile, but she had never seen him laugh...

Roger was really handsome, especially when he laughed so happily. It instantly made him seem like he was covered in a layer of–light from the sun, making him exceptionally attractive.

It made Sophie panic for a moment...

It seemed that it was good to have such a handsome husband...

Soon, Sophie arrived at the school.

After getting out of the car, she waved at Roger and walked straight into the campus.

Roger watched her back until she disappeared. Only then did he let Dillon drive straight to the company.

There was still half an hour before the class started. Sophie decided to go to the library to return the books.

However, he did not expect to see a familiar face as soon as she entered the library. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

“It’s you?” Sophie looked at the librarian. It was the young man who had been beaten up yesterday.

Edward was also a little surprised to meet Sophie here. He calmly took the Myeiteesh book from her hand and asked, “You know Myeiteesh?”

Sophie nodded and said, “I do. Otherwise, why would I borrow the Myelteesh book?”

Edward admired Sophie.

She was kind and talented. Most girls like her were extremely proud at Habourland University, but she was quite Independent and modest.

Knocking on the keyboard, Edward said, “It’s done. You can just put it back on the shelf.”

Sophie took it and said, “Alright, I’ll go put the book away.”

With that, Sophie went to the bookshelf to place the book. After putting back the Myeiteesh book, she went to check the Fruoveno documents.

Edward happened to be free. Seeing her looking for books on the shelf, he walked over and whispered, “What books are you looking for? Shall I help you?”

After all, he owed her a favor, and he wanted to help her.

Sophie glanced at him. “Can you do it? You should still have a lot of Injuries. If I were you, I would have to rest at home for at least two days.”

When he heard her caring words, a strange feeling flashed across Edward’s heart.

However, when he thought of that depressing home, he said coldly, “It’s torture for me to rest at home.”

A hint of curiosity appeared in Sophie's eyes. She did not understand why he said that.

He should also be from a rich family. Why did he say that he couldn't even stay at home?

However, it was a private matter after all, so she did not ask further. Sophie returned to the main topic and told him the name of the document she wanted.

Edward was stunned for a moment. "That's a Fruoveno book."

Sophie said matter-of-factly, "Yes."

He couldn't help but raise his delicate eyebrows. "You know Fruoveno?"

Sophie was too awesome. It was already very impressive that she knew Myelteesh, but she actually knew Fruoveno.

"So?" If she couldn't read Fruoveno, she wouldn't have borrowed Fruoveno books.

At this moment, Edward's eyes were filled with admiration for Sophie. He said in a low voice, "Ordinary people won't borrow such books. They're all high up on the bookshelf. Wait for me. I'll go get the ladder."

With that, Edward went to a corner and pushed the ladder over. Then, he went up to help find books.

Sophie looked at Edward. He was thin and weak, and his face was still injured. But he actually helped her find a book. She couldn't help but feel sorry for him. "You should come down. You're still injured. If you fall, it'll be terrible. I'll do it myself."

However, Edward didn't lower his head when he heard of that. As he searched for a book, he said, "There's no need. I found it."

With that, he took out the book and jumped down the ladder to hand it to Sophie.

“Here you go,” Edward said.

Seeing that he had really found it, Sophie said to him, “Thank you.”

If it weren't for him, she probably wouldn't have been able to find the book so quickly.

A satisfied smile appeared on Edward's face. “You're welcome.”

He was in a good mood to be able to return her a favor

With that, Edward sent the ladder away.

Sophie returned to the counter to fill in the borrow information..

After Edward returned, he entered the information into his computer.

After everything was done, Sophie asked him worriedly before she left, “Did you go to the hospital yesterday?”

Although they were all external injuries, they should be treated.

However, his face was still swollen. It was obvious that he had not taken care of the injuries.

Being cared for by her again, Edward avoided his gaze. “There's no need. It's a common thing. It'll be fine in a few days.”

Sophie frowned and said, “What do you mean by that? Do you get beaten up often?”

Edward's mind was suddenly filled with scenes of his father coming back to beat up his mother after drinking too much...

No matter how much he struggled and pushed, he could not dissuade his father.

As a result, he became number. He no longer resisted violence, and he no longer cared about injuries.

However, this unfamiliar girl in front of him was so concerned about him that he wanted to avoid her.

“No. Just go. I don’t need to be checked.” Instinctively, he resisted. He deserved it anyway.

Sophie couldn’t take it anymore. She grabbed him and said, “Come with me to the school’s infirmary.!”

There was definitely an infirmary in a top university like Habourland University. Although she did not know where it was, he definitely knew.

“I’m not going...” Edward tried to struggle.

However, he did not expect Sophie to be so strong that she actually pulled him out of the counter.

The two of them were a little loud, and the students who were reading immediately looked over.

Edward was afraid of affecting others, so he could only follow her out. “Stop fooling around. I’m doing volunteer work. Don’t affect my work...”

Sophie said coldly. “It’s Okay. I just saw that there are others tidying up the bookshelves. It doesn’t matter if you take a leave for a while. You can’t work with a bruised and swollen face, right? The sooner you recover, the less people will look at you.”

Sophie’s words hit home.

Indeed, he was always looked at in the library today.

Edward didn’t like the feeling of being noticed, so he could only sigh and say, “Alright, stop pulling me. I’ll go with you.”

Only then did Sophie let go of him and continue walking.

However, Edward realized that she had gone the wrong way and reminded her, “This way. You’re going the wrong way.”

When Sophie heard this, she immediately returned and walked in the opposite direction with him.

Edward glanced at her name tag and said suspiciously, “Aren’t you a senior student? Why don’t you know about the infirmary?”

Sophie replied coldly, "I'm a new transfer student. I've only been here for a few days and haven't been to the infirmary"

"A transfer student?" Edward suddenly understood.

He was a freshman. On his first day at school, he heard that a transfer senior student had caused a scene in the admissions office and even expelled the teachers in the admissions office.

"So you're the transfer student who caused a ruckus at the admissions office.

When Sophie heard this, she frowned. "What do you mean by causing a ruckus in the admissions office? It was clearly the teachers in the admissions office who caused trouble for me, Okay?"

Where did he hear this gossip from? He actually said that she was causing trouble.

Edward smiled, "It's all the same. Anyway, you were discussed on the school forum on the first day of enrollment. I heard that you were once the top scorer in the middle school examination. Now, you're still the holder of the high school examination record. No wonder you were accepted as a transfer student."

Sophie pursed her lips and said, "You know quite a lot."

"You're too famous. Information about you has been all over the school these past few days."

"Really?" Sophie frowned. She did not know about this at all.

"Don't you know that there's a forum in the school? Every day, people will post what happens in the school on the forum. Yesterday, there seemed to be a conflict in the canteen... But I didn't click on it to see what it was."

Sophie's face darkened.

“How is this a school forum? It’s like a gossip club, right?”

Edward smiled, “More or less.”

The two of them chatted and laughed as they walked to the infirmary. Along the way, Edward introduced himself. “My name is Edward Pierce. I’m a freshman from Class A.”

“Class A? I didn’t expect you to be a top student.” Seeing that the hooligans bullied him, she thought that Edward was one of those young men who did not like studying.

“Tsk, it’s just learning. What’s so difficult about it?” Edward looked disdainful.

Sophie curled her lips. “It’s indeed not difficult. It’s just reading and doing exercises. Many things in the world are much harder than this.”

Looking at Sophie, Edward suddenly said in disdain, “You’re only two or three years older than me. Why did you sound so old-fashioned?”

Sophie could not help but roll her eyes at him. She raised her hand and almost slapped him. “If you weren’t injured, I would definitely slap you. How can you talk to your senior like that?”

When Edward saw her raise her hand, he couldn’t help but chuckle. “Thank you for not hitting me.”

Sophie put down her hand helplessly. At this moment, the two of them had already arrived at the infirmary.

They pushed the door open and entered, only to find that there was no one inside.

Edward couldn’t help but think of something. “They should be on their lunch break at this time. There’s no one around. We came for nothing, and my time is wasted.”

With that, Edward was about to leave.

Sophie glanced around the infirmary and realized that the commonly used trauma medicine was on the table. The medical staff must have placed it here because they were afraid that some students would use it urgently,

She immediately said, “Kid, don’t leave yet. There’s medicine here. Let the help you apply it.”

Seeing that Edward didn’t take care of himself, Sophie couldn’t help but complain

After applying medicine on the external injuries on his face and hands, she said coldly, “Lift your clothes and let me see if there are any other external injuries.”

Edward, suddenly came back to his senses and hurriedly covered his collar. “What are you going to do? Do you still want to see me naked?”

“Shut up!”

Sophie treated Edward like her younger brother and took care of him, but he actually thought that she had improper thoughts

“It’s fine if you don’t want to apply the medicine. No one cares about you” She thought that even if there was a wound, it shouldn’t be serious because he was wearing clothes. It was fine if he didn’t apply the medicine

It was about time Sophie said gloomily, “Alright, you can leave. I have to go to class too. It’s best if you come to the doctor for two more days of medicine after that, understand?”

Edward looked at Sophie and couldn’t help but ask, “It’s only our second time meeting Why are you so concerned about

He hadn’t even noticed the hopeful note in his last sentence

Sophie rolled her eyes at him and said, “I saved your life. Of course, I can’t bear to see you degrade yourself. Besides, you have delicate features it’s a pity that you’re disfigured I don’t want you to have a scar on your face.”

Actually, she was only concerned about him because he had helped her in the library just now

Unexpectedly, he really did not apply the medicine She was a little worried about him, so she brought him here.

Edward looked at Sophie with mixed feelings. However, he did not say anything else and left the infirmary with her.

On the way back, the two of them did not speak. They arrived at the teaching building first, and Sophie said goodbye to

Edward and left

Edward watched her enter the teaching building before slowly leaving.

However, on the way back to the library, he couldn’t help but turn around to look in the direction of the teaching building.

Sophie was having computer science class.

As for computers, in order to earn extra money as a hacket, she had learned everything she could. Night had even taught her many top-notch hacker skills.

However, she did not know much about other subjects, so she chose to major in computer science. Therefore, this was considered a compulsory course for her. She could only learn programming with other students.

Although it was high-level programming, it sounded like child's play to her. She could not help but doze off at the side.

In the back row, Brennan Dixon was furious when he saw Sophie dozing off.

In modem history class, she read other books. In computer class, she dozed.

Could it be that Sophie even knew the programming?

Or could it be that she did not understand at all and was dozing off?

The corners of his lips curled up slightly, and he could not help but snort coldly in his heart.

There were no geniuses in this world. Even if Sophie was good at studying, it was impossible for her to be proficient in computers.

After the middle school examination, the two of them no longer had a chance to compare.

He might as well let her know how powerful he was.

With that in mind, Brennan suddenly raised his hand

Brennan was the top student in the school and the principal's grandson. If he suddenly raised his hand, the teacher naturally had to ask.

"Brennan, what's the matter?" The bespectacled female teacher smiled as she looked at Brennan, and she was extremely amiable towards him.

“Miss Lowe, this is advanced programming. If we still write programming according to the book, wouldn't it be boring? Why don't we start a competition in pairs and see who comes up with the most practical, neat, and innovative program? I think it can stimulate everyone's programming potential.”

When Gracie Lowe heard that, she found this suggestion feasible. She couldn't help but nod and say, “This suggestion is good. Let's split it into pairs, but we still have to keep the proposition. Let's take that I'm the client, and you have to design a website that's useful to me according to my description.”

“Sure.” Brennan smiled lightly as he looked at Sophie who was slightly energetic at this moment.”

“Sophie, this is your first time coming to a programming class, right? You probably have a lot of questions that you don't understand. Why don't we form a team? If you have any questions, you can ask me.”

Sophie had just dozed off when she heard Brennan stir up trouble. The moment she opened her eyes, he wanted to team up with her.

As expected, he had ulterior motives, and he was here for her again.

“Sure, then let's form a team and spar.” She was second only to Night on the hacker network. It had been a long time since anyone had challenged her.

Coincidentally, she could use Brennan to practice.

However, Brennan had an arrogant expression on his face. “Spar? That's a term used by people of similar strength. You're only a newbie, so there's no need for me to bully you. But I can teach you how to program and help you catch up on your lessons.”

He spoke righteously as if it was for her own good.

However, Sophie knew that he was mocking her for being on a completely different level from him.

“Try my skills? It’s been a long time since I’ve heard anyone say such things. Fire away.” Sophie couldn’t be bothered to say anything else. She turned around and started typing on the keyboard.

The crisp sound of a keyboard suddenly rang out. Everyone looked over.

Sophie typed so fast. In just a short while, she typed out a few lines of code.

At this moment, Brennan couldn’t help but frown.

He thought, “What was the point of being fast? No one knew if she was just typing blindly.

‘When everyone saw the effect later, she would be embarrassed.’”

As he thought about it, Brennan started to get serious. He lowered his head and quickly typed in the code. SEARCH THE FindNOvel.net website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Time passed bit by bit. Gracie stood on the stage and saw that it was about time. She raised her voice and said, “Time is up. Hand in your homework in groups.”

Everyone immediately handed in their works through the link to Gracie in the group chat.

Gracie checked the works one by one to see if the webpages functioned well.

To Gracie’s surprise, the websites that these students spent more than half an hour on only yielded the basic interface. They did not even have a secondary page!

“What are you guys doing? These two works are just shit. Zero points for both!”

“And these two... Why is the interface so ugly? Where did you find these pictures?”

“These two are not bad, but the secondary pages are too sloppy...”

“Is it because of the tight schedule? Why are you all so sloppy?”

Gracie complained about the design of more than 20 people along the way.

Sophie rolled her eyes at Brennan coldly and said, “No need.”

As she spoke, she typed the last letter and quickly sent her work to Gracie.

Gracie looked at Sophie awkwardly and said, “You’re that transfer student, right? Today should be your first computer class. If you really don’t know how to do it, you can skip the task.”

She had already read too many lousy web pages just now. If she opened another lousy novice web page, it would lower the computer skills of the entire class and make the students mock her. Gracie could not bear to destroy a girl’s confidence.

However, Sophie said, “There’s no need. I’ve already handed it over. You can take a look.”

She also wanted to see what other suggestions Gracie had for the webpage she designed.

Under her gaze, Gracie sighed helplessly.

Gracie thought, Since she felt that there was no need to save her face, I can only check her work now.

As she thought about it, Gracie checked the webpage.

However, in the next moment, an exquisite and high–end website appeared in front of everyone.

“Damn it. This website is so interesting.”

“That’s right. It seems to be similar to those high–end websites I’ve seen. It’s so stylish.”

A few students started discussing.

Gracie could not help but push up her glasses in surprise. She thought that she had made a mistake.

However, Gracie did not expect that this was really a website. It was not just a picture. She could also click on the secondary pages. Even the secondary pages were very exquisite. There were even some contents.

This was something that could not be completed in half an hour.

Only someone with super fast speed could fill in some content after completing the framework of the website.

However, what surprised Gracie even more was that when she casually clicked on the third–level webpage, she did not expect to see the contents. Moreover, the contents were very interesting. There were even many options and modules.

This time, everyone was stunned...

“This is a finished product, right?” a student asked.

“That’s right. If I were a client, I would have signed the contract with her...”

Everyone was feeling surprised by Sophie’s work.

Chapter 115

Suddenly, a girl said, “Calm down. Is this a webpage made by a green hand? Maybe it’s a copy of someone else’s code.”

Sophie glanced sideways and saw the girl sitting in front of Brennan,

She was beautiful and elegant. looking like she was from a wealthy family.

“Bella doesn’t believe that...”

“She is right. How can a green hand make such a good webpage?”

“Yeah, I think it’s suspicious too.”

Bella Bruce was the school belle.

No wonder she was so persuasive. Many of the boys present began to agree with her.

However, Sophie was not afraid at all. She said coldly, "I knew you would doubt my skills, so I recorded the screen when I was typing the code just now."

As she spoke, Sophie sent the recording video to Gracie.

Gracie did not want to wrong anyone and immediately opened the video.

As expected, Sophie had typed the codes one by one!

Everyone was speechless.

Even Brennan didn't expect Sophie to have a backup plan.

Was she afraid that he would suspect her?

However, he didn't expect Bella to speak first. But indeed, he didn't want to admit defeat. Even if Bella didn't say anything, he would still question Sophie.

However, at this moment, the video showed that Sophie indeed typed the code and didn't plagiarize. Her codes were as neat as a professional engineer's.

Sophie was actually so talented in programming.

What else did she not know?

Was there no way for him to surpass her?

Seeing that Brennan's expression wasn't good, Bella was a little angry, but she still said, "Even if you do it yourself, it doesn't mean anything. Maybe you remembered the codes."

But her words this time made it difficult for everyone to agree...

"To memorize such a beautiful string of code... That's definitely not something an ordinary person can do."

Dreame

Chapter 115

"If that's the case, she's impressive..

At this moment, Gracie already believed Sophie.

“Sophie has already recorded the process of her typing the codes, so there’s no reason for you to doubt her. If she can really memorize someone else’s code word for word and do it in such a short period of time, she’s definitely outstanding. Compared to the things you just did, she’s much better.”

Brennan knew that the ones Gracie mentioned included him.

His website was incomparable to the one designed by Sophie.

This time, Brennan had really embarrassed himself.

At this moment, he could not help but feel a little regretful. Why did he provoke Sophie just now?

He actually foolishly thought that he could defeat her.

His expression was extremely ugly.

At this moment, Gracie also came to a conclusion and said loudly, “Sophie, I’ll give you full marks for this task. I’ve also seen your strength. You’re excellent. In the future, if the rest of you don’t know how to do it, you can ask Sophie more questions. If you hand in these lousy things for the next exam, go to the field and run laps.”

“What?”

Everyone wailed and looked at Sophie sadly. Some even blamed Brennan.

“It’s all Brennan’s fault. Otherwise, We wouldn’t have been implicated.” SEARCH THE WEBSITE TO ACCESS CHAPTERS OF NOVELS EARLY AND IN THE HIGHEST QUALITY.

“That’s right”

At this moment, Brennan’s expression was even more unsightly.

Bella had been paying attention to Brennan’s expression. When she saw his unhappy expression, she couldn’t help but glare at Sophie.

It was Sophie who made Brennan unhappy and even made him the topic of everyone’s discussion. Bella would remember this!

Soon, the computer class ended.

Gracie assigned the homework and left the classroom.

Everyone stood up and left.

Just as Sophie picked up her backpack lazily and stood up, she was suddenly bumped by someone. The bag in her hand was knocked to the ground.

She subconsciously looked at the person who bumped her. It was the Bella.

Bella looked at her bag that had fallen to the ground and did not look guilty at all. She even mocked coldly, "Oh, why didn't you take care of your things? I only bumped into you, and your bag fell to the ground. It's not my fault."

Sophie did not expect her to be so uncultured while she was beautiful. Bella did not live up to the reputation of being a compus belle.

She simply bent down to pick up the bag. Taking advantage of the movement, Sophie used her butt to hit Bella!

"Ouch!" Accompanied by a scream, Bella directly pounced on the desk at the side. She barely managed to keep herself from falling to the ground. However, her elbow was painful! It was inevitable that she would get bruised!

However, Sophie turned around and coldly retaliated with Bella's tone. "Hey, why aren't you standing properly? I only bumped into you, and you almost fell. It is not my fault."

After saying that, Sophie turned around and left without looking back!

Bella suddenly turned around and shouted angrily, "Sophie! Come back here!!"

Sophie snorted, "There's no need to apologize! We're even!"

With that, she walked out of the classroom.

Only Bella was left behind. She stood up angrily and shouted, “No one is going to apologize to you. You’re hurting me!”

However, Sophie could only hear her shouting from afar and could not be bothered with her.

The surrounding boys saw that the school belle had fallen and quickly came over to show their concern.

“Bella, are you alright?”

“Don’t lower yourself to Sophie’s level.”

“Yeah, she’s new here and doesn’t know the rules.”

The few of them were so concerned about Bella, but she couldn’t be bothered with these young men.

When she saw that Brennan stood up and was about to leave, she hurriedly pushed the three of them away and walked over. “Brennan, wait for me!”

With that, she followed him.

The other boys immediately lost interest.

“Tsk. Tsk. Only the principal’s grandson can win the school belle’s favor.”

“Yeah, let’s not even think about it.”

They shook their heads dispiritedly.

At this moment, the boy beside them said, “But did you guys notice just now? When Sophie was standing with the school belle just now, she did not seem to be inferior to the school belle in terms of looks and figure.”

Only then did they react. “Now that you mention it, Sophie seems to have a better figure than the school belle.”

“She is also beautiful... It’s just that the school belle has always worn thick makeup and permed hair. Sophie doesn’t seem to have any makeup on at all.”

albelle

“Yeah... Maybe she isn’t even as good-looking as Sophie without makeup.”

“Exactly.”

The few of them chatted and laughed as they left the classroom.

At this moment, Sophie had already walked out of the classroom.

Chapter 116

Her family knew that she only had one class today. Timothy had promised to pick her up.

However, when she reached the school gate, she did not see Timothy’s car. Instead, it was Kenneth’s car.

It seemed that Kenneth had gotten off work early today and came to pick her up ahead of Timothy again.

As she pondered, Sophie walked towards Kenneth’s car.

However, just as she was about to approach Kenneth’s car...

A car crashed into them from behind!

With a bang, it hit the back of Kenneth’s car. The impact was quite strong. Kenneth’s car was pushed forward, and the back of the car was visibly dented.

Sophie rushed forward and opened the car door, asking in concern, “Kenneth, are you alright?”

Kenneth had a driver, so he usually sat in the back seat.

As expected, Kenneth’s neck was injured. He was holding his neck in discomfort. “My neck seems to have been sprained.”

“What?” Sophie did not have time to think. She quickly reached out to help Kenneth out of the car.

The driver got out of the car and rushed over. “Sir, are you alright?”

Kenneth felt a little dizzy at this moment. He could only hold onto the car and close his eyes in an attempt to calm down.

Seeing this, the driver was furious. He turned around and rushed towards the car behind him.

“Can’t you drive? What the hell is wrong with you? This is the school gate! You have to slow down!”

At this moment, the driver’s door in the back car opened.

A woman slowly got out of the car. She held her forehead and said with a headache, “Why are you shouting? I didn’t do it on purpose!”

She was late and was in a hurry to come to class. However, the driver dared not give her a ride, so she simply drove to school herself and ran two red lights in a row. She thought that everything would be fine when she reached the school gate, but she did not expect to bump into a luxury car just as she turned the corner.

Hearing the voice, Sophie could not help but look at her sideways and say in shock, “Dolores? Why is it you?”

Dolores also sobered up a little. When she saw Sophie, she said, “Sophie? Is this your car?”

Sophie nodded helplessly. “It’s my brother’s car.”

Sophie was holding Kenneth to ease his discomfort.

Dolores followed her hand and saw Kenneth.

Dressed in a grey suit, Kenneth was 5.9 feet tall and looked handsome. He was holding the car and adjusting himself with his eyes closed

The afternoon sun was exceptionally warm. When it shone on Kenneth, it actually revealed an endless charm.

Dolores was actually mesmerized by it...

‘Holy shit, this is my ideal man!’ she thought.

At this moment, Dolores could not care about her discomfort. She quickly went forward and said, "Handsome guy... No, sir, are you alright? I'm sorry I didn't see your car when I turned the corner just now. I bumped into you, right? Do you want me to take you to the hospital?"

Kenneth, who liked to be quiet, felt his head ache even more after being bombarded by a series of words.

He calmed down for a moment and said, "Let's go to the hospital."

His cervical vertebrae were not good, so it was better to check them.

"Alright, I'll go with you. Don't worry. I'll be responsible for this." Dolores looked heroic.

Sophie could not help but take another look at Dolores.

Dolores seemed to be serious every day. Why was she so concerned about Kenneth today?

However, Kenneth did not give her a chance at all. "There's no need. You're Sophie's classmate, right? Let's forget about this matter, Go to class. Drive carefully in the future."

With that, Kenneth said to Sophie, "Sophie, get in the car."

"Okay." Sophie nodded and helped Kenneth into the car.

However, when Sophie was about to get into the car, Dolores suddenly grabbed her. "Sophie, I'll go with you. It's my responsibility. If I don't go with you, I will feel guilty and can't sleep tonight."

Sophie looked at Dolores's persistent look and could not help but ask, "Aren't you going to class in such a hurry? So you're going to skip the class?"

Dolores was stunned for a moment.

Although she would be punished by her father for skipping class, it was rare for her to meet her ideal type. She had to take the initiative!

"Well, yes! It's more important to take care of your brother first! You guys get in the car. I'll follow you." With that, Dolores rushed back to her car.

“Dolores...” Sophie wanted to stop her, but Dolores had already closed the car door and sat in the driver’s seat.

Sophie had no choice but to get into the car and say to Kenneth, “Kenneth, Dolores still wants to follow us. Just let her do

At this moment, his head was starting to ache. He really did not want to say anything else.

Sophie was helpless and immediately instructed the driver to leave.

Then, she sent a message to Timothy, telling him that Kenneth had picked her up and he didn’t need to come.

Timothy sent an emoji angrily, telling Kenneth to wait and see.

Soon, Kenneth was sent to the hospital

He had a CT scan and found that his cervical vertebrae were just a little bruised. His headache had eased a lot after resting.

Only then did they relax.

Kenneth glanced at Dolores and did not say anything

However, with just one look, Dolores’s heart was pounding.

Wow, he looks so cool. He is exactly as handsome as in the novels! I like him!’ she thought.

Sophie saw that Dolores’s eyes were always fixed on Kenneth.

At this moment, she seemed to understand why Dolores had skipped class and followed them to the hospital.

Sophie smiled secretly and helped her. “Kenneth is fine, but the car still needs to be repaired. I’ll give you Kenneth’s contact information later. Tell him when you’re done repairing it.”

Kenneth frowned and said. “There’s no need for the car. You’ve already paid the medical fees.”

However, Dolores insisted, “How can that do? According to the traffic laws, I’m fully responsible for this incident. Sophie and I are classmates, so I have to be responsible for you. It’s decided. Let your driver drive the car back tonight. I’ll get someone to get your car. I will return it to you after it’s repaired.”

Dolores said domineeringly.

Kenneth still wanted to refuse, but she was really making his head ache. Helpless, he could only agree. “Up to you.”

He just wanted to go home and have a good rest

Seeing that Kenneth was really unwell, Sophie said to Dolores, “Dolores, my brother seems to be unwell. I’ll bring him back to rest first. I’ll call you when we get home.”

“Alright, you guys go back first.” Dolores immediately nodded. She didn’t want Kenneth to continue feeling uncomfortable. “Go back and rest well. If you feel uncomfortable, you can call me again.”

“Okay.” Looking at Dolores’s nervous expression, Sophie couldn’t help but want to laugh.

Dolores had just met Kenneth for the first time and was already so nervous about him.

Could it be love at first sight?

Sophie secretly laughed. She bent down and helped Kenneth up. Then, she bid farewell to Dolores with her eyes and turned to leave.

Dolores reluctantly saw them off. When she saw their car, she jumped up happily.

“Yes! I can get the handsome man’s phone number now! It’s worth it!”

Timothy was waiting at the door to mock Kenneth for picking Sophie up, but he did not expect Kenneth to be helped out of the car by Sophie.

Seeing this scene, Timothy immediately went up to them and asked, “Kenneth, what’s wrong?”

Sophie said helplessly. “His car was hit at the school gate and his neck was injured. He probably has a headache and is dizzy now. He needs to rest.”

“Let me do it!” Seeing that Sophie was struggling to support Kenneth, Timothy quickly went over to support him. He could not help but complain, “Well, you replaced me to pick Sophie up and was punished. Let’s see if you still dare to snatch my job next time.”

If Kenneth had not gone to school to pick Sophie up, he definitely would not have gotten hit.

Kenneth sighed helplessly, “No, you will be responsible for picking her up in the future.”

He was really traumatized by the collision.

Timothy could not help but snicker. “It’s really rare to see Kenneth being so weak. I really want to see who hit you.”

Sophie sighed helplessly, “She is my classmate, Dolores Murphy”

When Timothy heard this, he could not help but ask, “Is she the hot–tempered young lady from the Murphy Group?”

When she heard Timothy’s description of Dolores, Sophie immediately looked embarrassed.

Dolores had been maintaining a good impression in front of Kenneth in the hospital today.

She did not expect that Timothy would expose her face in front of Kenneth so directly.

At this moment, Kenneth also reacted. “No wonder I find her name so familiar.”

192% 10:51

The hot–tempered lady of the Murphy family had a bad reputation. Every few days, there would be rumors that she had taught some lady a lesson. It was said that she was not an honest student in school and was often lectured by the teachers.

These were all gossip that Evelyn had told them back from time to time.

Therefore, Dolores was quite famous in the Nicholls family...

Kenneth couldn’t help but snort, “No wonder she’s so rash. She even dares to drive so fast around the school.”

Sophie felt a little awkward.

Sophie thought, ‘Dolores, don’t blame me for this. You can only blame yourself for being famous...

I’m powerless to defend you.

They returned to the living room.

After Kenneth sat down, a servant poured a glass of water for him.

At this moment, his parents also heard the sound and came downstairs.

Originally, they were rushing downstairs for Sophie, but they did not expect to see Kenneth.

“Kenneth? Why are you back so early today?” Marcus asked in confusion.

Timothy added fuel to the fire and said, “It is because Sophie finished class early today. Kenneth went to pick her up again, but he went for wool and came home shorn. He was even hit by a lady,”

Chapter 117

When she heard that Kenneth had been hit, Blanca’s heart lightened. “He was hit? How is he?”

Kenneth rolled his eyes at Timothy and said, “Stop fanning the flames. I’m fine, Mom.”

Timothy gloated at the side and said, “I was the one who carried him in just now, yet he said that he is fine. Can you believe that?”

Kenneth had always been aloof and cold at home. Today, he finally saw Kenneth’s weak side. Timothy could not help but tease him crazily.

Kenneth was angry, but he felt a little dizzy when he was excited. He could only hold his forehead and close his eyes again.

Seeing this, Sophie nudged Timothy and said, “Timothy, don’t agitate Kenneth anymore. He needs to rest now and his emotions need to stabilize.”

Bianca also glared at Timothy and scolded, “Do not be so childish. Go get a cervical pillow for your brother to lean on.”

“Oh...” After being lectured by his sister and mother, Timothy decided to go upstairs and take down the cervical pillow he had bought for Kenneth.

After Timothy left, Bianca asked, “Sophie, what’s going on?”

Sophie had no choice but to tell her parents about the ins and outs.

When Bianca heard this, she could not help but feel a little depressed. “What happened to Miss Murphy? Why didn’t she pay attention when driving? She’s like a boy. Isn’t her family worried that she won’t be able to get married? They just let her do whatever she wants.”

Bianca’s words made Sophie hold it in again.

Not only was Dolores not worried that she would not be able to get married, but she was also missing Kenneth and wanted to be his wife.

If Bianca found out about this, she would be furious...

Forget it. Sophie would better not match her and Kenneth in the future. Otherwise, her parents would definitely blame her in the future.

At this moment, Kenneth calmed down a little and asked Sophie, “Sophie, Dolores is hot-tempered and has a bad reputation. You should have heard about her, right? Why are you in such a close relationship with her?”

in Kenneth’s mind, Dolores was concerned about him because of Sophie. He thought that Dolores and Sophie were close friends.

Bianca and Marcus could not help but be shocked when they heard Kenneth’s words.

“Sophie and Dolores are very close?” Bianca asked in shock.

Chapter 117

How was that possible? Sophie was so obedient and sensible. How could she be friends with Dolores, who was so hot-tempered?

Sophie had no choice but to tell the truth. “We met at the last banquet. When Laura bullied me, she helped me out. I felt familiar that she was not as bad as the rumors said. After school started, we met again. She was the only person I was with in school. She brought me to familiarize myself with the school environment, so we got to know each other,” Sophie said.

Hearing that Dolores was actually taking care of Sophie, Marcus, Bianca, and Kenneth raised their eyebrows in surprise.

Was this still the rumored hot-tempered Dolores? It seemed that she was not as bad as they thought.

“However, hot-tempered people are unpredictable. You should keep a distance from her.” Blanca was still a little worried about Sophie.

Sophie smiled, “Mom, don’t worry. I’m an adult. I can tell who can make friends and who can’t. After interacting with her for two days, I realized that she was not as bad as the rumors said. Instead, she’s very honest and won’t beat around the bush. If she’s happy, she’s happy. If she’s unhappy, she would say it out. That’s why she easily offends people. You know the people in the circle. If they’re unhappy, they definitely make things up about her. You can’t believe everything you have heard.”

Sophie’s rational words made the three adults nod.

“You’re right. The people in the circle are pretty gossipy. Don’t worry about them. If you think Dolores is good, you can interact more with her. I believe you.”

Sophie was a smart child. She would not be with someone whose conduct was not good.

Sophie nodded and could not help but sneak a glance at Kenneth.

Sophie could not help but heave a sigh of relief. She lamented in her heart, ‘Dolores, I can only help you salvage it up to here. You have to rely on yourself from now on...

Soon, Timothy returned. When Lucas heard that Kenneth was injured, he immediately went downstairs.

Other than Benjamin and the other two who were at work, everyone else in the family was present except for Evelyn.

Sophie could not help but ask, "Where is Evelyn? Is she not back yet?"

Speaking of Evelyn, Timothy asked Sophie suspiciously, "She said she went to send your phone to you this morning. She hasn't come back since."

Sophie could not help but raise her eyebrows and say suspiciously, "Evelyn and I left after lunch at the Nicholls family Ronald said that he wanted to send her back. Is she not back yet?"

Could these two people have done something shameful?

"Ronald? Is that Ronald Nicholls of the Nicholls family?" Benjamin raised his eyebrows and asked.

Sophie nodded and said, "Yes, it's him."

Benjamin's face was filled with puzzlement. "In the past, this man always pestered Evelyn and she would avoid him like the plague. Why would she agree to let him send her home?"

Benjamin's words made Sophie speechless.

If Benjamin knew that not only did Evelyn not hate Ronald now, but she was even throwing herself at him, what his reaction.

would be like now?

As they were talking, the butler suddenly entered.

"Sir, Madam, Miss Evelyn and Mr. Ronald are here," said the butler.

Speak of the devil. Everyone's eyes were filled with suspicion.

However, since Evelyn and Ronald were already here, they had no choice but to meet them. Bianca said, "Got it. The few of you, hurry up and prepare coffee for them."

“Alright.” The servants beside her hurriedly went to the kitchen to prepare coffee,

At that moment, Evelyn and Ronald walked into the living room of the Dawson family, chatting and laughing.

“Mr. Ronald, thank you so much for sending me home. I would be embarrassed if I didn’t treat you to coffee,” Evelyn said shyly as she walked.

Ronald’s eyes were fixed on Evelyn as he smiled and said, “After having fun for the entire afternoon, I am indeed thirsty. Thank you very much, Evelyn.”

Everyone in the living room could not help but reveal puzzled expressions when they heard their conversation.

They were all very surprised. When did Ronald and Evelyn become so close?

They even went out to have fun for the entire afternoon.

What was going on?

Seeing this, Marcus had no choice but to cough to remind Evelyn that everyone was present.

Evelyn did not expect that the Dawson family were all here at this moment. Her expression stiffened for a moment, but she quickly calmed herself down and smiled. “Dad, Mom, you’re all here.”

Looking at them sizing her and Ronald up, Evelyn felt inexplicably flustered.

“Could it be that they have discovered something? Evelyn thought.

However, it was only a matter of time.

After having fun with Ronald for the entire afternoon, she had already hinted at everything that needed to be hinted at. She just did not tell them directly that they were dating. So, Evelyn had nothing to be afraid of.

She told her parents why she was late. “I went to give Sophie her phone. When I left, Mr. Ronald said that he would send me home, but we passed by the beach amusement park on the way, so we went for a walk. That is why we came back a little late.”

Marcus frowned and said suspiciously, “Is the beach amusement park the one you used to think was small and didn’t like exposed by her father, Evelyn felt awkward for a moment and quickly tried to smooth things over. “It’s newly evated and we passed by it on the way home, so we took a look. Actually, it’s quite interesting. I was too insensible in the past.”

Marcus looked at Evelyn and his gaze turned gloomy.

He had been in the business industry for so many years and had seen all kinds of people.

How could he not see through Evelyn’s thoughts?

he did not understand why Ronald, whom she had never looked up to before, had suddenly won her heart.

Marcus couldn’t help but suspect her motives.....

But Evelyn was a young lady who had just come of age. Would she be so scheming?

Hopefully he was overthinking things.

Seeing that her father did not say anything else, Evelyn turned around and saw that the servant had made coffee and brought it over. She quickly said to Ronald, “Ronald, take a seat. Since you’re already here, have a cup of coffee before you leave”

Ronald was feeling awkward and helpless. Seeing this, he quickly agreed. “Alright. Thank you.”

As Ronald spoke, he picked up his coffee and drank it. However, his eyes kept sizing up the expressions of the Dawson family

For some reason, they were sizing him up from time to time. It gave him the creeps.

Unable to stand the oppressive atmosphere, Ronald quickly finished his cup of coffee and got up, saying, “I’m done. I was happy to have fun with you today. And I still have something to do, so I’ll be leaving first. Evelyn, you should rest well.”

He could not bear to part with Evelyn, so he entered the house because he wanted to spend more time with her.

However, Ronald was under great pressure the moment he entered the Dawson family. It was even more uncomfortable than he was in the Nicholls family. He really could not stay any longer.

Evelyn bit her lips, feeling indignant.

However, her family was here, and the atmosphere was depressing. She could only say. "I see you off at the gate."

"Don't bother. It's nice to send you home. You should stay with Mr. Dawson and Mrs. Dawson. leave first."

After saying that, Ronald looked at Marcus awkwardly and said, "Mr. Dawson, I'll take my leave first. Sorry for disturbing you today."

"Alright." Marcus had no intention of keeping him. He only nodded coldly at Ronald.

Ronald felt a little awkward.

However, he was suspicious in his heart. Since Evelyn was so close to him today, he thought that the Dawson family had changed their opinion of him. It turned out that he was overthinking.

Ronald left just like that, leaving Evelyn to sit down at the side in disappointment.

Bianca looked at Evelyn drinking her coffee and could not help but ask, "Evelyn, when did you get so close to Ronald?"

Evelyn raised her eyebrows and pretended to be calm. I didn't. It's just that I gave Sophie her phone today when I encountered Ronald, and he entertained me and chatted with me for a long time. He just sent me back. I don't think we're particularly close."

“That’s not close?” Timothy could not help but say, “Evelyn, you hated Ronald the most in the past. He’s a well-known playboy in the circle and he’s always fooling around with other women. Now that you’re so close to him. Aren’t you Timothy’s words made Evelyn’s expression turn ugly. She could not help but bite her lip and ask, “Embarrass myself? What’s there to feel embarrassed? It was in the past. Timothy’s words just now had obviously stung her.

Otherwise, she wouldn’t have told the truth in front of her parents.

At this moment, Marcus’s eyes were filled with disappointment.

Initially, he had hoped that he was thinking too much.

But now, it seemed that he had guessed everything correctly. He simply did not want to admit it.

“That’s why you’re throwing yourself at Ronald so that you can keep a way open for retreat in the future? You’re only 20 years old! How can you humiliate yourself like this and get together with that promiscuous man? Marcus was furious. His eyes were filled with disappointment at Evelyn’s failure to meet his expectations

“Although we were not related by blood, Evelyn was someone whom we had raised for 20 years. Did she not learn anything good from us?” thought Marcus.

Seeing the disappointment in Marcus’s eyes, Evelyn lowered her head and said something that numbed herself along the way, “At least Ronald is from the Nicholls family. Even if he was fooling around with other women, you've all seen his attitude toward me just now. He treats me differently. Perhaps he will change after he is with me."

"It is hard to change his nature!" Marcus roared angrily, "Your mother and I have rejected the marriage with the Nicholls family for you all these years because of his promiscuity! I didn't expect you to jump into a fire pit for your selfish reasons!! You, you're really pissing me off!"

Marcus was so angry that his face turned pale. It could be seen that although he had been very disappointed in Evelyn. these past few days, he was still worried about her.

But at this moment, Evelyn had really disappointed him.

Evelyn bit her lips. She couldn't take it anymore. She raised her head and said, "Whether it's a fire pit or not, it's up to me! Anyway, you've been hoping for me to leave this family, haven't you? I've found my own way out! I don't have to wait for my biological parents, whom I've never met before, to pick me up! Isn't it good for you guys? Why continue to pretend to care about me?"

Evelyn's words were like knives stabbing into Marcus's and Bianca's hearts.

At this moment, Marcus could not take it anymore. He raised his hand and slapped Evelyn.

Everyone was shocked.

Chapter 119

Evelyn was hit so hard that she turned her head away. It was obvious how much force Marcus used.

The living room instantly fell silent. No one spoke, and the servants were so frightened that they kept quiet out of fear.

In all these years, this was the first time they had seen Marcus hit someone in this house!

"You ungrateful bastard! Go back upstairs! From today onwards, you're not allowed to go anywhere without my permission!" Marcus pointed upstairs and shouted at Evelyn.

Evelyn covered her face. Her heart was cold. Suddenly, she laughed. "Isn't it just solitary confinement? What's the big deal? Anyway, you won't be able to lock me up for long.

With that, she turned around and went upstairs.

There was no regret in her words at all.

As he watched Evelyn leave, Marcus suddenly felt a little unsteady.

Fortunately, Sophie was quick-witted and supported Marcus. "Dad! Are you alright? Is your blood pressure high?"

He was so agitated just now and suddenly felt dizzy. It must have been caused by his blood pressure.

Marcus shook his head and looked at Sophie. His mood eased a little. "It's fine. I'll be fine after sitting for a while."

With that, he sat down with the help of Sophie and Bianca.

Bianca looked at Marcus with a pained expression on her face and said, "Evelyn, are you alright? Evelyn is just a child, why are you angry with her? Perhaps she was just confused for the moment."

Even now, Bianca was still putting in a good word for Evelyn.

However, Marcus was already holding his forehead. "Don't be silly. She's not from the Dawson family. She doesn't have the backbone that the Dawson family of us have."

This sentence silenced everyone present.

They hoped that what Evelyn said just now was just out of anger, but it was obvious that she really wanted to marry

Ronald.

In order to have a so-called backup plan, she would not hesitate to marry a libertine....

This was definitely not something the Dawson family could do.

With the commotion and Bianca had lost their appetite.

They had a quick bite of dinner and went upstairs. Kenneth was not feeling well either. After eating, he left.

Wesley was probably busy today. He actually worked overtime and did not go home. The others had no mood and returned to their rooms as well.

Chapter 119

After Sophie returned to her room, her mind was filled with Evelyn's words, and she was a little gloomy.

It seemed like Evelyn really wanted to marry into the Nicholls family.

However, whether it was the Nicholls family or the Dawson family, they did not agree to this marriage. Sophie was afraid that Evelyn would be disappointed in the blink of an eye, three days passed

Evelyn really did not go downstairs, nor did she go to school for lessons.

It was only when the school called and said that she had skipped classes consecutively that Marcus asked Blanca to release Evelyn

Evelyn did not seem surprised at all. When she went downstairs, she did not feel the slightest bit of regret or fear. She ate as if nothing happened and left for school

She did not seem to have much attachment to the people in this family.

She thought that she had Ronald under control.

Therefore, she had forgotten her promise that she would serve Sophie coffee and would treat her nicely.

Sophie could not be bothered with her Without Evelyn around, she felt more comfortable.

After Evelyn left, Sophie also bid farewell to her family and went to school.

In the past two days, her brothers had been fighting to send her to school or pick her up after school. However, after Kenneth's accident, she did not want to cause any more trouble for her brothers, so she handed the car keys that Lucas had given her to the driver.

From then on, the driver would pick her up and send her to school. Sophie was happy with that.

Soon, she arrived at the school.

Sophie

le saw Dolores as soon as she got out of the car.

Helplessness flashed across her eyes, and Sophie could not help but shake her head.

Ever since Dolores bumped into Kenneth, she had been waiting for Sophie at the school gate for the past two days.

On the first day, Dolores asked for Kenneth's contact information. On the second day, she reported to him about the repair of the car

Dolores had told Sophie yesterday that she had sent a message to Kenneth, but he did not reply to Dolores's message. After confirming that she did not friend the wrong guy, Dolores let Sophie go.

For some reason, Sophie wanted to walk past Dolores and pretend not to see her today.

However, Dolores still noticed her. "Sophie! I'm waiting for you. Didn't you see me?"

Sophie stopped in her tracks helplessly and turned to look at her. "Dolores, you've been blocking me at the school gate every day. What's the matter today?"

Chapter 120

Dolores also knew that she had been pestering Sophie for the past three days, but she really could not take it anymore.

Ever since she came home, she had been thinking about Kenneth all day and night. She only smiled foolishly when her father scolded her.

However, she sent three messages to Kenneth in a row, but he did not reply at all. She was really about to break down.

“I’m asking you if your brother changed his WhatsApp account. Otherwise, why didn’t he reply when I sent him messages last night to report the repair situation?”

Sophie rolled her eyes at her and said, “If he changed his WhatsApp, he would be the first to tell me, so don’t worry. He didn’t.”

Dolores was even more disappointed and confused when she heard that. “Then why didn’t he reply to me?”

Seeing Dolores’s pitiful look, Sophie could only kindly remind her, “My brother is usually very busy and is aloof, so he won’t reply to messages most of the time. If you really have something to tell me, why don’t you call him? That’s what his assistant and friends do.”

Kenneth was good in every way, but he didn’t like typing on electronic products. If he could finish what he wanted to say in a few seconds, he definitely wouldn’t type and repeat his words.

To him, WhatsApp was just a tool to occasionally see what his family was doing.

“Call him? But I don’t have anything to tell him...” Dolores fell into deep thought again.

Sophie said helplessly, “When the car is fixed, you can tell him this. You can call him after he gets off work and ask him to pick up the car.”

However, Dolores pouted. “I asked. His car is a limited edition. The parts need to be shipped overseas and can only be repaired next week. What should I do these few days? I really want to talk to him.”

Dolores no longer concealed her love for Kenneth.

Sophie could not help but roll her eyes. “Dolores... What are you doing? You’ve only met my brother once, and you’re already infatuated with him? That’s a little exaggerated.”

Dolores rolled her eyes at Sophie and said, “You’re in love, so you don’t know how sad it is for single dogs who meet their love but can’t see them. You’re married. Although your husband has poor eyesight, he’s quite hartsome. Besides, I think you like him quite a lot. I’m different. I’ve lived for so many years, but this is the first time I’ve met my ideal type, so I have to work hard to fight for my love.”

Sophie blushed at Dolores's words. "What did you say? I didn't say I love my husband. Don't drag me into this."

Seeing that Sophie, who was usually cold, would actually blush, Dolores could not help but smile. "Tsk. Tsk. Look at you. Your face is red, yet you still say that you don't like him. If you don't like him, why are you feeling guilty?"

Chapter 120

"I'm not feeling guilty. I'm just not used to being teased." Sophie tried to rationalize her actions..

However, her heart was inexplicably beating like a drum.

Sophie thought, 'What's going on? I did feel a little guilty and wanted to explain. Why?

'Could it be that I cared about Roger?'

"Don't find an excuse. Then the last time I said that it was a waste for you to marry him and asked you to consider finding a new date in school, not only did you not agree, but you even got angry at me."

If she didn't acknowledge Sophie, Dolores wouldn't have given anyone a chance to disrespect her.

Sophie raised her eyebrows and said suspiciously, "When did I? I don't remember."

Seeing that Sophie had lost her memory', Dolores could not help but purse her lips.

"Sophie, you're hopeless. For that man, you actually started to pretend to have lost your memory and avoid problems. You used to be a fearless and open-minded person. Look at you now. Do you look like yourself? Think about my words."

Dolores's words pierced Sophie's heart... She could not help but feel even more guilty.

She did not want to talk to Dolores.

It was impossible for her to fall in love with Roger.

How long had they known each other? It had not even been a month.

She was only with Roger because both families had approved of this marriage.

In addition, he was the one who brought her out of the Bourn family, so she wanted to repay his kindness and stay by his side.

There was no love between them.

At most, they were friends.

“Yes, friendship’ Sophie thought.

After Sophie forcibly convinced herself that she and Roger were just friends, she felt much more at ease.

“You can think what you want. Anyway, in my heart, we’re just friends.”

With that, Sophie walked past her and paced up.

Seeing that Sophie was about to shake her off, Dolores quickly chased after her. “Hey! Wait for me... Okay. Let’s not talk about you. I’m begging you. Can you think of a way to let me see my dream man again?”

Hearing this form of address, Sophie almost vomited. “Dream man? Oh, dear. If you really want to see my brother, you can go to my house to look for him.”

She suggested sarcastically. Dolores probably wouldn’t dare to go to her house. Sophie just wanted Dolores to shut up leave her alone.

Unexpectedly, Dolores’s eyes lit up and she immediately put her hands together. “That’s right! That’s a good idea! Anyway, we’re best friends now. If you invite me to your house, won’t I be able to see him?”

This idea was simply too good!

At the thought of meeting Kenneth in the Dawson family, Dolores jumped with joy.

Sophie was speechless.

She did not expect Dolores to really want to go to her house!

“Are you really going to my house? Aren’t you afraid?” Most people wouldn’t want to go to their sweetheart’s house even if they wanted to see their sweetheart. After all, no one wanted to deal with the gossipy relatives and even their parents.

However, Dolores blinked her innocent eyes and said, “What’s there to be afraid of? I can’t be happier to see Kenneth! It’s decided! After class today, I’ll go to your house!”

As she spoke, Dolores pushed Sophie into the teaching building.

Sophie tried to refuse. “Kenneth will only be back tonight. We will be done with class early today. Why don’t we do it another day?”

“No, I haven’t seen him in three days. No matter how late it is, I have to wait.”

“But...” Sophie had never brought a friend home before. She should at least inform her family first.

Moreover... Dolores was a hot-tempered young lady in her mother’s mind.

She was really afraid that her parents would treat Dolores coldly if she brought Dolores back.

“It’s settled!” Dolores was too excited and couldn’t listen to anything else. She pushed Sophie into the classroom.

Dolores only wanted to finish this class as soon as possible and go to the Dawson family to meet Kenneth.

Little did she know that the moment the two of them entered the classroom, they were targeted.

Bella looked at the two of them and snorted, “What a waste of effort!”

She had not seen Sophie in class for the past few days. Today, Bella finally caught her again!

Her elbow had hurt for a few days, and it was still bruised! Bella had to settle this score with Sophie.
