Chapter 1131: The Birthday Banquet at the Min Family 2

Gu Ruxue could sense Junyi's look, so she showed a smile – this strategist liked her, and she knew it well. She was now beautifully dressed, and she had to look even more striking than ever. It was normal that he looked at her in this way.

Gu Ruxue felt very satisfied. After all, most women liked to be admired for their beauty, and liked to be considered the most beautiful in the whole country.

Gu Ruxue walked forward arrogantly without even taking a glance at Junyi. She would allow this servant to look at her from below, but she was never going to look at him from above.

As Gu Ruxue walked in front of them, Junyi followed behind them.

Junyi looked at Gu Ruxue, not because he found her striking or beautiful, but because Junyi had never expected that a Crown Prince Consort would be so stupid and inconsiderate – it was a birthday banquet!

What was she wearing? She was not as graceful as a Crown Prince Consort should be.

And the Crown Prince allowed her to be dressed like this!

Their purpose was to get support from the Min Family, but the Crown Prince Consort would annoy the Min Family who might feel humiliated!

Junyi sighed and felt anxious, but he couldn't say anything about it, in case his words made things worse.

The Crown Prince was a very arrogant person, and he had never thought about how wrong other people find it. On the other hand, the Crown Prince Consort was a very stupid woman and it was impossible to make her change her mind.

Junyi frowned as he followed her. He almost lost his mind thinking about what to do.

The wagon was already heading towards the Min Mansion.

The Min Mansion was a real noble family, and it was very close to the court, so it took them less than a quarter of an hour to arrive there.

Zhou Huailing got out of the wagon and he offered his hand to help Gu Ruxue down.

Gu Ruxue got out of the wagon with confidence and arrogance, believing that she was going to be the most strikingly dressed at the banquet today.

The Min Family had their own rules for treating guests. For example, the Old Master and First Ms. Min would be receiving the guests outside the mansion.

Seeing the wagon from the Crown Prince's Mansion pulling over... Old Master and First Ms. Min bowed to them, and offered to take them back to the Min Mansion.

First Ms. Min smiled brightly and just looked up. "Crown Prince Consort, please follow me inside."

Seeing Gu Ruxue... she almost stiffened.

It was a birthday banquet held for Madame Min, and the banquet was held every tenth year after she became 50 years old. It was the most solemn banquet held at the Min Family.

First Ms. Min had never expected that the Crown Prince Consort would be dressed like this at the banquet.

She paused. What on earth was a Crown Prince Consort?

The Crown Prince Consort was the first madame of the mansion, so she should always be dressed elegantly.

"First Ms. Min, what is going on?" Gu Ruxue asked with a smile.

Chapter 1132: The Birthday Banquet at the Min Family 3

First Ms. Min showed a forced smile. "Nothing really, Crown Prince Consort, join me this way."

Gu Ruxue nodded arrogantly. She had noticed First Ms. Min's strange look on her face, but she did not care. She believed that First Ms. Min reacted in this way because she found her striking.

Women and men were different.

Men would always get obsessed by her look, whilst women would be jealous of her, no matter what social status she was in. Gu Ruxue was more than beautiful, as she herself believed, she was also the Crown Prince Consort, so she would always make people jealous. The same went for First Ms. Min, otherwise she would not have shown that look.

Junyi had the worst expression on his face.

He had been thinking about how to deal with this thing properly, and he had realized that what he was afraid of actually happened, seeing how First Ms. Min reacted.

The Old Master did not look at the Crown Prince Consort, so he had no reaction, but First Ms. Min's look had exposed everything.

However, the Crown Prince Consort had no reaction except a look of pride.

Junyi had an even worse expression on his face, then he went to the front hall with the Crown Prince.

***

First Ms. Min took Gu Ruxue to the back hall which was just one screen away.

The Saint Divine Land was more open than before, and screens were not often used at banquets, but the Min Family was an authentic noble family, so screens should still be used.

After Gu Ruxue approached the seats, she received many looks of admiration. Some were even shocked at how she looked, which made Gu Ruxue feel even more confident.

When they came to the place where the ladies were supposed to sit and talk...

The Second Lady of the Chu Family took the lead in speaking highly of Gu Ruxue's beautiful appearance.

Gu Ruxue was very satisfied – everything was going according to her plan.

Despite the pride in her heart, Gu Ruxue still showed an appearance of calm. She sat down on her chair and showed a leisurely smile on her face.

Someone served tea for her.

Gu Ruxue did not take the tea, but glanced about, failing to see Gu Chaoyan.

She frowned – she was the Crown Prince Consort, so she should be the last one to arrive. She had thought that Gu Chaoyan the b*tch would have arrived before her, but she was still missing.

Displeased, she asked straightforwardly, "Second Lady of the Chu Family, where is Gu Chaoyan? Is she not here?"

"Oh no, she is not here. I don't think she is coming. I am sure that she would make a fool of herself if she was here." The Second Lady of the Chu Family showed a smile, sounding very happy.

Gu Ruxue snorted. She had to see the b*tch here today. Otherwise she would have no one to humiliate.

Gu Ruxue turned to Ming next to her and said, "Just bring Gu Chaoyan here!"

Ming answered and went to get it done.

Hearing what Gu Ruxue said, the Second Lady of the Chu Family realized what she meant.

She threw a look at those who were around them.

Those ladies were noble ladies in the capital, but most of their families had taken the Crown Prince's side. So they should definitely try to suck up to Gu Ruxue, and should know what they were supposed to do.

Those ladies nodded in an understanding way.

The Second Lady of the Chu Family spotted First Ms. Min going to the door, so she reminded her with a small whisper. "I believe that it is Gu Chaoyan who is at the door."

Chapter 1133: The Birthday Banquet at the Min Family 4

The Second Lady of the Chu Family had established a friendship with Gu Ruxue who helped her at the banquet, and Gu Yunhe was going to marry her as well, so the Second Lady of the Chu Family already regarded them as one family. She kept flattering Gu Ruxue. She did not think that her own family was reliable at all, so she put her hope in Gu Ruxue and the Gu Family's hands.

Since she had been working with Gu Ruxue, she naturally knew what Gu Ruxue liked or wanted.

For example, she knew that Gu Ruxue hated Gu Chaoyan the most.

The Second Lady of the Chu Family knew well that they were going to humiliate Gu Chaoyan at this banquet.

She also disliked Gu Chaoyan, but she was not brave enough to look straight into Gu Chaoyan's eyes. So she just gave a reminder.

Hearing that Gu Chaoyan was coming, Gu Ruxue smiled with a confident look on her face.

It was good that she was here.

Gu Ruxue was going to see how Gu Chaoyan was going to humiliate herself!

Gu Chaoyan had no Gu Family to protect her, Lord Huai was the only supporter of hers. However, currently Lord Huai was not having a good time either. He even had to give his mansion to the Crown Prince, what more could he do? Gu Ruxue thought and smiled proudly.

First Ms. Min received Lord Huai and Gu Chaoyan.

Like before, Lord Huai was dressed in a purple-colored, golden lined robe, looking cold and serious. He nodded at Old Master and then went into the front hall with him.

First Ms. Min came to Gu Chaoyan.

Gu Chaoyan greeted First Ms. Min. She was engaged with Lord Huai, but they were not yet formally married, so she was not yet a real Princess Consort. She was just the Elder Miss, so she needed to greet First Ms. Min, who had a higher position.

Gu Chaoyan behaved very well, then she gave a brief and respectful smile as a junior member of the family.

First Ms. Min felt that Gu Chaoyan was very well-behaved.

She did not know much about Elder Miss Gu, because the Min Family was very far from the imperial family and the power, and First Ms. Min barely spoke with people in the capital, but she heard that Lord Huai's fiancée had a very strange personality because her mother passed away when she was still little, and she was also very ugly.

However, when she met her in person today... First Ms. Min did not think that it was the case.

Also...

She was much better than the Crown Prince Consort! Elder Miss Gu behaved elegantly and well, she was also quite innocent-looking yet she had a touch of coldness.

First Ms. Min had met numerous people...

She was a rare being!

First Ms. Min smiled brightly and took Gu Chaoyan to the back yard where the ladies were seated.

Gu Chaoyan had just arrived with First Ms. Min when all the talking ladies all fell into silence.

Even the Second Lady of the Chu Family was astonished. "That is... Gu Chaoyan?"

Chapter 1134: The Birthday Banquet at the Min Family 5

That was the second time for the Second Lady of the Chu Family to meet Gu Chaoyan, apart from the first time at the Spring Hunt, when Gu Chaoyan was dressed in a plain-colored dress with no expression on her face. She had looked slender and pretty, but she was not very striking among all the noble ladies in the capital, because the birthmark on her face was way too conspicuous.

People tended to see the birthmark on her face first, and believe that she was not very pretty, but she did possess an okay temperament.

However... this time, she looked very different.

Dressed in a set of red clothes, with her fair skin, she looked exceptionally beautiful. And she had a relatively cold air, which was a huge contrast with the exaggeratingly red clothes which made her look very beautiful. She might not be the best looking, yet she was the most exceptionally beautiful.

The Second Lady of the Chu Family might be born by a concubine, but she had, after all, grown up in the Chu Family. So she had seen many noble ladies and princesses of other countries... but none of them looked as beautiful.

Even the Crown Prince Consort was not a match.

That was what she was thinking. However, Gu Chaoyan would not have a great end because she was hated by the Crown Prince Consort and she was engaged to Lord Huai. What a pity!

The Second Lady of the Chu Family expressed some gratified emotions inside her heart, before she turned to the Crown Prince Consort.

The Crown Prince Consort was, by this point, really angry and her face was twisted. Her eyes cast a fierce look, as her hands clenched tightly.

The Second Lady of the Chu Family gave a light cough.

Those dumbfounded ladies instantly brought themselves back, and the noise arose again.

Gu Ruxue's fists were so tight that her fingernails were digging deep into the flesh, and her palms turned purple and blue.

Why! Gu Chaoyan should be an ugly woman! Why did she look so beautiful! She used to be chubby and fat. Since when did she become so beautiful? No! She should not become this pretty!

Gu Ruxue was crying inside her heart.

Seeing Gu Ruxue's twisted expression, the Second Lady of the Chu Family whispered in her ears. "Gu Chaoyan is so shameless. She is still unmarried and yet she is already dressed in red! People would think that she just can't wait to marry Lord Huai! Her birth mother passed away ages ago, so she must not know any rules. Lord Huai's mother passed away not long ago, so they have to stay unmarried for at least two years!"

"..."

"I think that she is worried that Lord Huai will abandon her!"

"..."

"Lord Huai must be regretting right now! When they got engaged, Lord Huai's mother was the Queen, and the King favored her, so she thought that her son could get engaged to any woman."

"..."

"But now Lord Huai is having a bad time, and he must be thinking that if he marries a woman who had been deserted by her family it will be useless for him!"

"..."

"Look at how Lord Huai reacted just now... I know what Lord Huai is thinking!"

"..."

"That is why she got so well-dressed. Look at her face, full of makeup, and she is trying to cover up her ugly birthmark with a brush!" Second Lady of the Chu Family kept babbling in front of Gu Ruxue.

Only then did Gu Ruxue feel slightly better.

The Second Lady of the Chu Family was right.

Gu Ruxue soon regained her rationality.

"Second Lady of the Chu Family, you know what you need to do later." Gu Ruxue said, with a very low voice.

1

The Second Lady of the Chu Family nodded in understanding.

She knew all of this.

When the Crown Prince Consort needed something, she would always ask her maid to pass it on to her at the mansion. Although the maid never gave the message explicitly, the Second Lady of the Chu Family knew pretty well what she meant. Born by a concubine, the Second Lady of the Chu Family grew up, at the mansion, after all, and she had witnessed those tricks. The Second Lady of the Chu Family was definitely going to make the conflict happen.

The moment she received the message, she had spoken with the noble ladies from different mansions, telling them what they should do. Apart from herself, all the other ladies understood the current situation – they were going to do what the Crown Prince Consort asked them to.

The Court and their homes were in the same situation.

Everyone understood that the Crown Prince was going to take the throne, so the noble ladies already took their sides. When the officers and ministers in the court took their sides, the ladies followed suit.

So no matter what Gu Chaoyan was like, they would definitely follow the Crown Prince Consort's order.

The Second Lady of the Chu Family nodded without hesitation, as Gu Ruxue spoke. Then she gave a look to the rest of the ladies.

Those ladies knew what they ought to do.

They all came to Gu Ruxue and flattered her. Ladies did not drink alcohol, nor did they dare to make a toast to the Crown Prince Consort, but they expressed their respect by drinking some tea.

Suddenly, Gu Ruxue was surrounded by the madames and ladies, each of whom looked extremely polite and flattering.

That made Gu Ruxue feel much more comfortable.

She had been so annoyed a while ago.

Those madames and ladies might think Gu Chaoyan pretty, but so what? She was going to marry Lord Huai who was fading away, whilst Lord Huai might not even have any intention of marrying her.

However, Gu Ruxue believed that she was not only beautiful, she was also the Crown Prince Consort, who was going to be the Queen in the future. She, who was in a noble position, did not have to split hairs with someone like Gu Chaoyan.

1

In this way, Gu Ruxue felt slightly better.

She smiled at the madames and ladies.

Therefore, no one sat next to Gu Chaoyan, nor was there anyone speaking to her. She was just seated there with her maid, displaying a vivid contrast to the scene.

Gu Ruxue glanced at Gu Chaoyan, with an ironic smile.

Gu Chaoyan just nodded briefly and continued to drink her tea.

Gu Ruxue was surrounded by many people, and so was the Crown Prince in the front hall. The Crown Prince was the favorite son of the King and he had his own power. He married the Phoenix Girl, and his future was almost settled.

Those attendees, who had no chance to drink with the Crown Prince, took this occasion at Madame Ming's banquet and started to make toasts.

Everyone started to show flattering respect to the Crown Prince, since they were Young Masters of the capital, who expected to have a promising future, just like Gu Yunhe.

Within a few seconds the Crown Prince was surrounded by guests in the front hall, whilst in the back hall, Gu Ruxue was surrounded by many people.

What a prosperous scene!

However, the Min Family were not very happy about this.

Chapter 1136: Striking 2

The Min Family was the real noble family in the capital, and they had officers working for the court for many generations. They even had the token of a death sentence pardon, which was a special authority for only this family. Although the Min Family had no power right now, Mrs. Min was still there, and the Min Family was still influential like before.

And the Min Family was indeed a family that stuck to rules.

There was a screen separating the women and men at the banquet, and the master of the Min Family would receive guests at the gate whenever a banquet took place. Therefore, the rules at the Min Family were very strict.

This was Madame Min's birthday banquet, so the leading role should be Madame Min.

However, at the moment, Madame Min was seated alone with no one greeting her, yet the Crown Prince Consort and the Crown Prince became the leading roles instead.

That was something that had never happened before. At every birthday banquet of some elderly people, the Crown Prince and lords would stick to the rules rather than take the opportunity of making the birthday banquet about themselves.

The Min Family was really displeased by how the Crown Prince was acting.

They were the most influential family in the capital and they did not want to be treated in this way.

Especially the master of the Min Family. He was watching the scene with a serious look on his face.

However, Zhou Huailing and Gu Ruxue did not even notice that it was inappropriate.

Especially Gu Ruxue. When she was surrounded by the madames and ladies, she showed a smile as she glanced at Gu Chaoyan. "Why did you arrive so late, Lady Chaoyan?"

"Lord Huai's Mansion is a bit far from the Min Family, so I spent some more time on the way here." Gu Chaoyan answered briefly.

Gu Ruxue smiled awkwardly. She was very displeased... but she had no idea how to answer her.

She asked the question because she wanted to test what mood Gu Chaoyan was in right now, but she didn't expect her answer.

Well...

She was just saying that the new Crown Prince's Mansion used to be Lord Huai's Mansion.

Gu Ruxue was not that stupid, and she knew that she could not say a thing against that.

It was a birthday banquet, so if she mentioned that the Crown Prince's Mansion was built upon Lord Huai's Mansion, people would think that the Crown Prince was suppressing Lord Huai, which was going to ruin the Crown Prince's reputation, if the madames and ladies heard about it.

So she said nothing more about that.

She thought of how her mother taught her, then she snorted and threw a displeased look at Gu Chaoyan before she continued with her tea.

She was in a good mood after all, when she saw how those arrogant madames and ladies were flattering her like this.

Gu Chaoyan was a businesswoman's daughter, so she would never receive such treatment in her life.

Gu Ruxue was thinking this inside her heart.

As they were thinking to themselves Mrs. Min showed up.

Mrs. Min did not live in the mansion, but at her own house.

No one would dare say a thing about her late arrival.

Gu Ruxue threw a look at Mrs. Min and then at the vacant seat next to her, she smiled. "Mrs. Min, please have a seat here with me."

Gu Ruxue looked extremely confident.

Well...

That was because she was the Crown Prince Consort and the Phoenix Girl, so she believed that anyone with a brain would know what they ought to do, especially when she of her own accord asked them to join her. She was surrounded by madams and ladies, and many of the wives of the ministers were flattering her.

She once asked Mrs. Min to join in on a banquet in the court before, but Mrs. Min did not really answer her request. Nevertheless, she did not care about what happened in the past, and she was even willing to showcase her generosity once again. That was because she knew well that she could offend anyone, but not Mrs. Min, because if Mrs. Min was offended, there was no other way for her to spin the tale.

So Gu Ruxue decided to drop it.

As long as Mrs. Min could please her this time, she could ignore what happened before.

1

However, she also understood that Mrs. Min was quite unique in personality, so she was worried that if she did not say something, Mrs. Min would not have thought about joining her.

So she spoke straightforwardly. Therefore, Mrs. Min would definitely have to join her.

That was right...

She should not offend Mrs. Min, but Mrs. Min should understand that if she ever offended the Crown Prince Consort and the Phoenix Girl, something bad would happen to her.

Therefore, Gu Ruxue believed that Mrs. Min would do as she said.

She had just finished speaking, when she asked Ming to prepare the tea. Ming started to pour the tea while Gu Ruxue waited, looking really confident.

Mrs. Min threw a calm look at Gu Ruxue, nodded but did not go to her. Instead, she went to Gu Chaoyan and sat down next to her.

Everyone was looking at Mrs. Min and Gu Chaoyan, including Gu Ruxue.

Mrs. Min was a very influential woman in the capital.

And the exact reason why the Min Family was still the most influential noble family in the capital was because Mrs. Min was there, showing her power.

Mrs. Min chose to speak with Gu Chaoyan instead of the Crown Prince Consort which was beyond everyone's expectations.

Lord Huai was not as influential as before, so who would ever try to get closer to Lord Huai?

Seeing how Mrs. Min reacted... the other ladies and madams all went quiet. They did not dare to say anything when all those powerful people were around, in case they caused trouble in the court.

***

Gu Ruxue's fingernail broke because of the force she used. She looked extremely annoyed.

She had intended to humiliate Gu Chaoyan at the birthday banquet, so that she could understand what position she and Lord Huai were in, and so that she would offer Yellow Crane of her own accord, but it turned out that she was the one that was humiliated all day.

Gu Ruxue could not stand it anymore, so she smashed the teacup to the ground.

With a loud crash, the teacup was smashed.

It became very quiet in both the front and back halls.

Seeing this, the Second Lady of the Chu Family quickly said, "The Crown Prince Consort is just careless!"

Gu Ruxue frowned and glared at the Second Lady of the Chu Family, then slapped her right in the face.

Chapter 1138: Useless Woman 1

It was even quieter.

The Second Lady of the Chu Family might have been born by a concubine, but she was a lady from the Chu Family! Now the Crown Prince Consort was slapping her right on the face in public!

Those ladies and madames were so shocked to have witnessed the scene.

Actually, those ladies and madames were all born in the officers' families, and they could punish either concubines and servants at their own mansions, and the punishment would be more than one slap on the face, but those were just private actions.

On the surface, they would always hold their ill tempers.

And that was a rule they should all keep in mind.

However, the Crown Prince Consort slapped the Second Lady of the Chu Family's face...

The Second Lady of the Chu Family was also a lady from the Chu Family! And some of them were not even as good as the Second Lady of the Chu Family!

So those people believed that they would not have a promising future when following the Crown Prince Consort.

At this moment, people started to think.

For one moment, they dare not say a thing. They believed that keeping silent was the best solution.

The Second Lady of the Chu Family was helping the Crown Prince Consort a while ago.

The Crown Prince Consort was the Crown Prince's wife, yes, but she was nothing in front of Mrs. Min. So from the interest point of view, the Second Lady of the Chu Family was helping the Crown Prince Consort.

She was letting Crown Prince Consort vent her anger yet avoid offending Mrs. Min.

However, the Crown Prince Consort could not tell right from wrong.

The Second Lady of the Chu Family was dumbfounded after being slapped in the face.

The annoyed Gu Ruxue had no idea what mistake she had made, so she shouted. "Second Lady of the Chu Family, what rights do you have to defend me?"

The Second Lady of the Chu Family was so anxious that she would like to give an explanation.

Zhou Huailing was here with Junyi at the moment.

He hurried forward and frowned, whispering. "Ruxue, stop it!"

Being in the front hall, he heard the noise but did not believe that it was his business. If not for Junyi's reminder, he would not have decided to check it out, since he believed that Ruxue was someone everyone admired, and nothing would go wrong. He thought that it must be a fight between two ladies from some families.

However, now... he found out that it was Ruxue who was making the fuss. And she was having a row with the Second Lady of the Chu Family!

Honestly, the Second Lady of the Chu Family was useful to them! She could snap at her, but if she was irritated, he would fail to get the Chu Family to take his side!

Annoyed and anxious, Zhou Huailing could not possibly vent his anger.

He whispered. "Just stop it!"

Gu Ruxue was extremely annoyed, and she did not want to listen to what he was saying. She was about to spew some more curses, when Zhou Huailing gagged her.

That brought silence into the hall, but suddenly, noise arose.

Zhou Huailing frowned. "What is going on?"

The guard said, "Madame Min is not feeling well. She just passed out!"

What happened?

Startled, Zhou Huailing was about to check it out.

Gu Chaoyan stood up too and decided to have a look at it.

For one moment, Madame Min was surrounded by a crowd.

Zhou Huailing was about to show his concern when Gu Chaoyan rushed in, so Junyi got upset. "What are you doing here, useless woman?"

Chapter 1139: Useless Woman 2

Madame Min passed out because of some physical issue, and it was chaotic. Apart from those from the Min Family, who were anxious, many people were trying to see what happened to Madame Min, even though they were pretending to be concerned. Therefore, Madame Min was instantly surrounded by a huge group.

Zhou Huailing and Junyi came when they heard the chaos, but since they were with the ladies, many people were already there when they arrived.

The Crown Prince was blocked by the crowd, which made Junyi unhappy.

However, many of those from the crowd were officers and ministers, except for Gu Chaoyan, who was a woman. That was why Junyi developed an enormous dislike towards Gu Chaoyan.

He knew what this woman was doing.

Madame Min had the highest position in the whole mansion, and the Min Mansion attached great importance to etiquette and manners.

If anyone showed concern to Madame Min, he or she might attract Madame Min's attention, and receive her respect. That would bring about huge benefits in the future. Junyi knew this well, and believed that this woman was here for this purpose too.

That was why he did not like her.

These women were all stupid. They could do nothing except to show off how beautiful they looked.

1

He had no idea what she was doing here?

Gu Chaoyan also heard what Junyi said to her. She frowned and threw a cold look at him. As far as she remembered, he was next to Zhou Huailing a while ago, so he must be Zhou Huailing's strategist.

What was he doing here, trying to belittle her?

Gu Chaoyan threw a cold glance at him, and without any expression on her face, she countered with a tone of intimacy. "Do you know how to do acupuncture or examine a patient? What are you, are you a useless man too?"

In her previous life, Gu Chaoyan was an assassin.

She had been trained in all kinds of aspects. Apart from finishing her tasks, she had been trained to learn what a man or a woman thought through the way they spoke.

So when she heard what this man said to her... She understood one thing – he was too proud to think highly of a woman.

She remembered how Xie Yan spoke of this classmate of his. He told her that this man disliked women and she had found what he said true. This man did not even try to conceal his disgust.

Gu Chaoyan snorted and turned to Junyi with a look of interrogation.

That was the first time Junyi was interrogated. He was stuck speechless. He had been furious a while ago, because of what the Crown Prince Consort did and because of what this woman did, but when he tried to vent his anger in front of this woman, he had never expected that she would counter him in this way without showing any shame.

Junyi had a bad look on his face, but he still countered. "I am not a doctor, how would I be capable of doing this?"

"Then keep your mouth shut and stay aside. Don't bring trouble to Madame Min because of your stupidity." Gu Chaoyan countered angrily.

Then she gave Junyi a push and headed towards Madame Min.

Chapter 1140: Useless Woman 3

Madame Min was at her birthday banquet when the elderly woman suddenly became sick, so Gu Chaoyan was really worried that something had happened to her. However, she was surrounded by so many people, and Madame Min was not really in a good state.

She did not have much relationship with Madame Min or the Min Family, the reason why she hurried there was all because of Mrs. Min.

She and Mrs. Min did not have a close relationship, but she knew pretty well how Mrs. Min treated her. Therefore, she was offering help, when something happened to the Min Family.

Junyi threw a look at Gu Chaoyan, who had made her own way in. He looked disdainful. He looked forward to seeing what this woman was up to.

He suddenly stopped being mad.

Junyi told the Crown Prince's men. "You go and get the imperial doctor. Take the Crown Prince's authority token, and be quick. This is Madame Min's birthday banquet, so nothing bad should happen."

The Crown Prince's guards hurried off.

If something wrong happened to Madame Min at her birthday banquet, it would be really bad.

When Junyi had it all arranged, he decided to make sure the banquet went back to normal. It was too messy right now.

As for Madame Min, the Crown Prince's presence would be enough.

Junyi showed a calm look on his face.

He would very much like to let that woman see what use he could have, and how useless she was on this occasion.

A touch of fierceness flashed across June's eyes.

Nevertheless Gu Chaoyan ignored him completely. She had just arrived at Madame Min's side, when she realized what was wrong with Madame Min. She must have eaten too much pastry, and passed out from a small stroke.

It was really dangerous for her right now.

The Min Family must have gone to find a doctor, but if they waited until the doctor arrived, the best treatment time would have passed.

Gu Chaoyan thought for a while and took a step forward. "Let me check on Madame Min, please."

Old Master and First Ms. Min did not respond directly, but looked at Gu Chaoyan suspiciously.

The Min Family had heard about Gu Chaoyan's medical skills, but Madame Min was an important figure, and they did not dare let anyone check on her randomly. She never went to any doctor apart from those who normally checked her. Madame Min had to be alright.

The Min Family was a very special family.

Everyone was trying to suck up to the Min Family on all kinds of occasions. This Elder Miss Gu was going to marry Lord Huai who needed the Min Family's support, so she must be trying to earn their favor. However, the Min Family could not take the risk.

So they were going to turn her down, but they were trying to find a good excuse to reject the offer.

Junyi heard what Gu Chaoyan said and smiled disdainfully, "You want to check-up on Madame Min? Do you think that your primary medical skills would be enough to check up on Madame Min? She is not your experimental object!"

Having said this Junyi turned to Old Master and First Ms. Min with a look of flattering, "The Crown Prince has already sent his men to bring the imperial doctors. Madame Min should be fine within no time."
