Chapter 1201: First Ms. Min's Displeasure 2

Even if Lord Huai was here, First Ms. Min did not conceal her anger. She was strong enough to interrogate Gu Chaoyan, because she was from the Min Family, and she knew pretty well what Lord Huai was like right now, thus ignoring him totally. And she never liked Zhuxun, namely Mrs. Min, so she would not care what she thought either.

Having said this, First Ms. Min glared at Gu Chaoyan.

She was waiting for her to give her an explanation. First Ms. Min did not mind when Gu Chaoyan turned her down. She just wanted to know why she answered to Zhuxun's invitation, rather than hers, whilst she was First Ms. Min.

That was why she turned to Gu Chaoyan for the answer.

She believed that Gu Chaoyan would know what to say.

Gu Chaoyan turned to First Ms. Min and said coldly and calmly, "When First Ms. Min sent me the invitation, I already told my maid to pass on the message that I was not feeling well, therefore not being suitable to be your guest, thus not showing up."

She sounded distant yet polite.

First Ms. Min was obviously not very satisfied by Gu Chaoyan's answer. She frowned at Gu Chaoyan as if she were going to blame her.

She was about to say something when Zhou Huaijin took Gu Chaoyan in her arms, saying straightforwardly to First Ms. Min with coldness on his face. "We need to be off now. Bye."

Having said that, he left with Gu Chaoyan. He looked furious.

The Min Family was getting more and more conceited these days. Even when the Min Family was in their most flourishing time, they had not behaved like this. However, the Min Family was declining right now and it was Mrs. Min who was supporting the whole family, whilst they were not even aware of that. How could they be so arrogant?

How First Ms. Min reacted had shown that she never considered him and Chaoyan, or even Mrs. Min as someone important.

It seemed that just because all the princes were trying to suck up to the Min Family, the Min Family believed that they were unshakeable.

It was up to Chaoyan whether she wanted to visit the Min Family, so how could they interrogate her like this? Had they forgotten how Chaoyan saved Madame Min on her birthday? What did the Min Family do to return the favor?

Since the Min Family was behaving like this, he had to ignore Mrs. Min as well.

Zhou Huaijin was thinking this inwardly...

The Min Family had to pay something now!

"What are you so angry about?" Gu Chaoyan asked.

"Nothing, I just don't like First Ms. Min." Zhou Huaijin said, "The Min Family must be thinking that they are still on the top, because of how the Crown Prince treats them. I will deal with that."

Gu Chaoyan nodded.

After seeing how First Ms. Min behaved at Mrs. Min's mansion Gu Chaoyan finally realized that the biggest mistake she had made was to visit the Min Family the other day.

The Min Family tried their best to get rid of her the other day, but she did not care about that. She even understood why they did something like that?

Since they were not close enough, then they could just go separately, and it was not a bad choice to stay in a distant relationship with the Min Family, but... It seemed that the Min Family was thinking differently.

They were trying to make her suck up to them, but Gu Chaoyan would never do anything like that.

Gu Chaoyan suddenly felt very angry too.

Chapter 1202: First Ms. Min's Displeasure 3

As for the Min Family...

She had decided to stay away from them.

At Mrs. Min's mansion.

Seeing Zhou Huaijin leaving with Gu Chaoyan, First Ms. Min, who had been angry about Gu Chaoyan's visit at Zhuxun's mansion, got even more furious.

She had not yet finished speaking, yet Gu Chaoyan was taken away. That was something First Ms. Min had never run into after she became the master of the family. So she was very angry, since something like this happened in front Zhuxun. She even thought about joining the Crown Prince just to punish Lord Huai.

However, that was just one thought, First Ms. Min did not actually want to work on it.

She looked at Mrs. Min, frowning slightly, "You seem to get on well with Elder Miss Gu?"

Mrs. Min nodded without denying that.

"Me and Elder Miss Gu ran into each other in the court a while ago, and we then met each other at the banquet and Madame Min's birthday. So we get on well with each other," Mrs. Min said frankly. She did not try to hide their relationship, because that could be found out anyway.

She had never wanted to get rid of Gu Chaoyan either. It was just that no one would expect that they would hang out.

Hearing that, First Ms. Min got even less pleased.

Mrs. Min and Elder Miss Gu had been hanging out with each other, so why didn't she say so when she was at the Min Mansion, when she tried to send the invitation?

That was what displeased First Ms. Min deeply.

Mrs. Min was ignoring the Min Family, and her!

First Ms. Min did not like it when she was threatened.

Her expression sank. "The Min Family will never take any side in the court or in the capital, and the Min Family are not working for the court, nor are we involved with the wars between princes. What do you think of the Min Family when you hang out with Gu Chaoyan? The Min Family is already tolerant towards you when you refuse to live with the Min Family, but why are you doing something just to embarrass the Min Family?"

"I have to report this to Madame Min so she can give us a just answer!"

"..."

"You are part of the Min Family, though you are not living with us. You should take care of your actions! Zhuxun, you never behave well, but I forgave you because of what Madame Min said to me, but now you are involved with the court and the wars between princes, and that is something we can't ignore!"

First Ms. Min got even worse as she spoke of this...

"You need to follow me home!" First Ms. Min said.

Mrs. Min looked at First Ms. Min...

She wondered if First Ms. Min had always been like this, or was it like this because the Min Family had lost their original direction since they had been so admired these days?

What First Ms. Min had said and done was not like how a master of the Min Family should behave – she was being selfish and cruel.

She could go to the Min Family... she would like to see what Madame Min was like nowadays.

She even started to consider if she should move out of the city.

Mrs. Min nodded.

Chapter 1203: First Ms. Min's Displeasure 4

First Ms. Min let out a sigh of relief...

Good that she was willing to visit the Min Family with her. It would make everything easier. Madame Min had been taking Zhuxun's side all the time, so she was going to make Madame Min see who was the real useful one that helped the Min Family along.

She had been so tolerant of what Zhuxun had done – she always stayed at her own mansion, and she never did anything for the Min Family or considered anything for the Min Family, but Madame Min adored her deeply...

And Zhuxun was always respected outside the family.

However, she was the master of the Min Family, and she should be respected!

With a bad look on her face, First Ms. Min took Mrs. Min to the mansion.

Madame Min was just playing with the bird in the yard, which was kept by the Old Master of the Min Family, but those birds outlived her husband, so they had now become Madame Min's pets, and she loved playing with them.

Hearing the sound of footsteps she looked up and saw Mrs. Min next to First Ms. Min. She was very surprised.

Zhuxun would never visit the Min Family unless the Min Family were hosting some banquet and required her presence. What was she doing here today?

Madame Min looked at Zhuxun and asked gently, "What brought you here, Zhuxun? Are you staying for dinner? We will get a feast ready for you!"

"No thanks," Mrs. Min said.

First Ms. Min got slightly surprised.

That was what she did every time!

Zhuxun was always the center, when she was with her. Zhuxun was always the one that received attention.

That was what displeased her the most, as Madame Min said so.

First Ms. Min sounded stiff, as she said straightforwardly, "I went to Zhuxun's mansion today and found her hanging out with Lord Huai and Elder Miss Gu."

"The Min Family is never involved with any wars between princes, but Zhuxun is ignoring our family! I am the master of the family, but I can't dispose of her regarding what she did. So I brought her here to let you make the decision," First Ms. Min said.

Hearing that Madame Min looked at Mrs. Min.

She had a touch of blaming in her tone. "Zhu Xun, is that real?"

Mrs. Min nodded.

“Me and the Jiang Family have always been on good terms and when Lord Huai was little, he always visited me at my mansion, so it is normal that he was at my mansion today,” Mrs. Min said calmly.

Madame Min shook her head. “Zhuxun, you should not do that! The Min Family is at a very important point right now. You are not living at the Min’s mansion, but you are part of the family, so you should behave yourself! You are representing what the Min Family are thinking.”

“You should not hang out with Lord Huai and Elder Miss Gu in the future.” Madame Min stressed.

Mrs. Min looked quite disappointed.

That was what she had expected...

The Min Family had been going in the opposite direction than she did...

If that was the case...

There was only one thing she could do...

Chapter 1204: Mrs. Min’s Plan 1

Well...

She had no choice but to leave the capital.

When she and Min Yu got married, Min Yu had already removed his name from the family tree and established his own household. So she and Min Yu were on their own, and neither of them belonged to the old mansion of the Min Family. Therefore, she spent these years at her own mansion, and the Min Family had no opinions against that. However, only Madame Min and her husband knew about it. It was unknown to the outsiders.

The reason why Min Yu did that was because he was trying to help her get rid of the suffering that might come in the future. The Min Family passed on the seats generation after generation, and Min Yu, who ranked the second, might not have the chance to get their children to inherit the Min Family since Min Qing came first, so she would not be in an equal position as First Ms. Min.

That was why Min Yu made some efforts to do this.

Madame Min and her husband approved of this proposal, on one condition.

The condition was that she was always going to help the Min Family no matter what happened.

That was why even though Min Yu was deceased for so many years, she still remained at the capital – the Min Family needed her still.

However as Min Qing grew older and some changes were happening to the Min Family...

For example, Madame Min and her husband had changed a lot. Although Madame Min was still making the decision at the mansion, she tended to listen to First Ms. Min more, and went further and further away from the principles of the Min Family.

And when the Crown Prince offered the invitation, and the Yao Family gave them some favors, the Min Family started to change even more.

They claimed to not get involved with the war between princes, but in Mrs. Min's eyes, they seemed to be shakeable about this.

1

She did not think that her being in the capital or in the Min Family would be of any use.

That was something Mrs. Min was pretty aware of.

She would not be in danger in the court. She was always respected but never liked.

It was the same with the Min Family. She was both respected and isolated. Madame Min kept trying to keep her, but Madame Min never wished that she could stay at the Min Family for real. The Min Family would become chaotic if she did choose to move in since First Ms. Min ranked over her.

Madame Min let her stay for special days, so that the outsiders would know that she was still part of the Min Family.

Madame Min called her Zhuxun, but First Ms. Min refused to do so. That was the difference between family members and outsiders.

Judging from what happened, First Ms. Min had apparently gotten even more hostile against her.

Under such a circumstance, she did not think that it was necessary for her to stay in the capital and in the Min Family.

It was time for her to leave.

Min Yu was right – he said to her that they would never get on well with each other in the Min Family. That was why Min Yu tried his best to get them out of the Min Family.

Min Yu, the handsome and flourishing young man, was the only person who knew her well and cared about her.

Mrs. Min sighed and looked into the distance, then she nodded as she looked at Madame Min. "I got it."

"..."

"It is getting late. I need to leave now."

Chapter 1205: Mrs. Min's Plan 2

Madame Min nodded. It was getting quite late, and in a couple of hours the day would turn dark. Min Qing normally returned late, so did her husband. So it was not proper for Zhuxun to remain here. Also,

Zhuxun herself did not like being in the Min Family either. So Madame Min nodded at her briefly and said, "You can leave now."

Madame Min still wasn't happy about her hanging out with Lord Huai.

Mrs. Min nodded and left quietly.

Madame Min did not express much. She had already passed on her warning so Mrs. Min should have an idea of what to do. So she would not do anything like this any more.

First Ms. Min, however, smiled.

She felt quite happy to see what was happening to Zhuxun at the moment. She did not like how Zhuxun behaved, that she did not seem to be interested in the cream the other day, but made use of her relationship with the Jiang Family to get Lord Huai and Elder Miss Gu to come to her mansion. She had her own purpose, First Ms. Min thought, but this woman tried to dodge her to achieve her purpose. That was what First Ms. Min did not like at all.

So she had to do something first.

Well...

Luckily Madame Min was not confused. She pointed out a warning to Zhuxun after all.

Feeling good, First Ms. Min was trying to come up with an idea of how to get Elder Miss Gu to come to her own mansion behind Lord Huai's back. She really needed to get the cream, which worked well. The other madames she met these days even asked if she purchased them at Jinxiu Pavilion, but the cream cost too much. The Min Mansion was able to afford the cream, but she was First Ms. Min, so as a role model she should not splurge her money on such a thing.

She still hoped that Elder Miss could understand what she meant.

A present would be different from the medicine given to Madame Min.

The cream could be given away on any occasion.

First Ms. Min already started to think about the cream.

Only Madame Min's old aunt Zhuying did not seem to look so assured. She was worried – she had noticed the strange expression on Mrs. Min's face and started to suspect that Mrs. Min was planning something.

Actually, everyone at the Min Mansion understood one thing – Mrs. Min was respected more than First Ms. Min, not only because her husband passed away ages ago so the Min Mansion was taking care of her. It was because she was the supporter of the Min Mansion. Zhuying had been working for the Min Mansion for a long while, and she was experienced enough to see through a few things.

She had never noticed anything strange like this before.

She was getting rather worried so she could not help but say, "Madame Min, Mrs. Min should be fine right? I noticed her changed expression, and it seems different. She is not a senior member of the family, but she has a special background... do you think she will..."

1

As she said so, First Ms. Min glared at her, looking rather displeased, so Zhuying lowered her head, but she insisted.

Madame Min also threw a look at her auntie.

Chapter 1206: Array 1

Madame Min knew clearly that Zhuying said all of these for the Min Family's good. She had been working for her for a very long time, and she had developed her own connection with the Min Family. So she was taking the Min Family as her own.

So she looked at First Ms. Min and waved her hand. "It is fine. Just go back to your own place. I will have a few words with Zhuying."

First Ms. Min was feeling even worse, but she did not dare to throw around her temper. So she pressed down her anger and nodded.

Zhuying had been working for the Min Mansion for ages, and she was, after all, a servant who should be punished for making mistakes, but her punishment was skipped, because she was working for Madame Min! What rights did she have as the master of the Min Mansion?

First Ms. Min felt very displeased for not being respected. It was more like a humiliation.

However, Madame Min did not think much.

She had regarded Zhuying as her own friend and Zhuying had her own intention to remind her of this.

"Zhuying, you don't have to be worried. It has been decades since Zhuxun settled down in the capital, she is used to living here. Yu is gone, but for her, remaining in the capital meant a lot."

"She has always been respected by the Min Family."

1

"And we should not make any mistakes until the war between princes is over. It was right of me to lecture her a while ago. Zhuxun will not change her mind just because of a few words. Also, Zhuxun is part of the Min Family, so she needs to obey our rules and arrangement."

"First Ms. Min is in charge of the family and Min Qing is getting old enough to do so. The Min Mansion is different from the past so Zhuxun should come under our control gradually," Madame Min said calmly.

She did not think that Zhuxun would leave.

Zhuxun would have left a while ago, rather than just remain here for so long. So Zhuxun would not leave...

Madame Min was confident enough to see through this, after meeting so many people in her lifetime.

Zhuxun had a special background, but she was a woman, who could not be totally independent outside. A woman would always find someone to lean against.

1

Zhuxun looked cold, but she was relying on the Min Family. She could tell from the way Zhuxun remained during her birthday.

Madame Min looked very confident.

She patted Zhuying's shoulders, telling her not to be worried.

Madame Min returned to her own room for a break.

Hearing that, Zhuying nodded and felt a little assured.

At Putuo Temple.

When Zhou Huaijin and Gu Chaoyan arrived at the temple, it was still daytime. They went directly to where Destiny Monk was.

Destiny Monk was the most well-received monk at the temple, so he had his own yard, which was guarded by some juniors.

Gu Chaoyan and Zhou Huaijin were stopped the moment they arrived, but Gu Chaoyan ignored the warning and walked in directly.

Chapter 1207: Array 2

Zhou Huaijin stopped the junior who prevented Gu Chaoyan, as she walked smoothly to the array.

Zhou Huailing took Gu Ruxue and Junyi to this place, and they had never realized that it was an array, So they wasted more than an hour before realizing what they were faced with.

However, the moment Gu Chaoyan arrived she realized that she was faced with an array.

It was a very confusing yet simple array of confusion.

Gu Chaoyan in her previous life did not have any knowledge about arrays, but she found some books related to array formations in her space, and the one she ran into right now was the most simple one.

Therefore, Gu Chaoyan could not help but feel disappointed. She had overestimated Destiny Monk.

Gu Chaoyan guided Zhou Huaijin and walked into the room with assured strides. During this time, Gu Chaoyan had her eyes closed and it was not until she reached the doorstep that she opened her eyes, looking satisfied as she saw the house right in front of her. Those books about array formation were so useful!

Those juniors who released them were shocked.

There were many people who came to break through the arrays, but they always ended up being stuck inside and not daring to go any further. How did this woman break through so fast?

They all went mute and exchanged their looks. They had no idea how to deal with this situation.

When Monk went into the house, they were told to guard the door, because he told them that no one would break through the arrays. Therefore, they had no idea what they should do when someone did.

Gu Chaoyan knocked at the door.

She could hear the sound of movement.

The door was opened and Destiny Monk got confused as he saw who was there. "You are..."

"It is you!" Destiny Monk suddenly got excited. He was also shocked when he saw Gu Chaoyan. He had not expected that it was she who came to his door.

So..

Did he really make a mistake before?

Or..?

Destiny Monk suddenly got confused.

Gu Chaoyan looked at Destiny Monk, whom she met for the first time. She had a very strange feeling inside her, but Gu Chaoyan did not continue to figure out what that was.

She looked at Destiny Monk and then she said seriously, "You are really able to tell the destiny of heaven?"

"Of course." Destiny Monk looked serious, and was even displeased by her suspicion.

"The North Qi Land own ferocious magical monsters and they are invading us at the border. If you can really tell the destiny of heaven, then just tell me what the Phoenix Girl can do for our land?" Gu Chaoyan asked Destiny Monk.

Destiny Monk's face twisted.

Why did she ask him such a straightforward question?

Having been startled for a while, he said, "Elder Miss, it is not yet time to reveal the secret!"

"I will come out of this house when it is time." Destiny Monk said, "And the array will disappear when the moment comes. I am very surprised that you can break through."

He just sounded incredulous. "How did you break through, anyway?"

Gu Chaoyan frowned slightly.

Chapter 1208: Array 3

Destiny Monk claimed to be able to tell the destiny of heaven, and the King as well as Zhou Huailing's men were all looking for him when he was away from the temple for half a year, and he did seem quite mysterious.

Even when he was back at the temple and practiced, no one dared to disturb him and even the King would have to wait until he finished his practice.

However, Gu Chaoyan did not think that he lived up to the name after she met him.

Well...

He could form the array, but he did not have any idea of how to solve it.

And that was the most simple array in the book she got from the space, a preliminary level one! And he had no idea how to solve it?

Gu Chaoyan had thought that he formed the array because no one else could, but it seemed that the array was so easily formed that it could be solved so easily.

All she did was to remember the distance, and walk with eyes closed.

That was exactly what she did. How come he had no idea how to solve the array?

Gu Chaoyan looked at Destiny Monk with a frown.

She was not going to tell him how she solved it.

Gu Chaoyan smiled. "When you tell me the answer, I will tell you how to solve the array."

Destiny Monk's face twisted.

Elder Miss Gu was different from his knowledge.

When he was told that the Phoenix Girl would be born in the Gu Family, he even went to check on all the ladies of the Gu Family. The fourth lady was too young to be one, so she was eliminated directly. The remaining ones were the Elder Miss, Second Miss, Third Miss. Elder Miss Gu was said to be too ugly and annoying, and she was bullied by the Gu Family. Third Miss was too ordinary being the concubine's daughter, so Second Miss became the most likely one.

So he subconsciously believed that the Phoenix Girl should be Second Miss.

When Lord Ling was not yet the Crown Prince he came to ask him for the answer, to which he indicated that the Second Miss should be the one, but after meeting Elder Miss Gu... He started to have doubts about his own answer.

She could solve the array so she might be the Phoenix Girl too.

For one moment, Destiny Monk panicked.

Everyone came to him to ask about the Phoenix Girl. He would like to know the secret too, but it was not yet time. He wished the time could arrive as soon as possible, so that he could learn about who the real Phoenix Girl was and how she could help the world.

Destiny Monk was busy thinking about this, so he nodded. "Then let's both wait for the time to come."

Gu Chaoyan shrugged and nodded.

She sighed and left with Zhou Huaijin.

As they came out, the juniors all let out a sigh, thinking that they finally saw off a difficult figure.

After Gu Chaoyan walked out of the temple, she looked even more worried.

Destiny Monk still said that the time was not yet here, even though the North Qi was invading them.

So when exactly was the time? Could it be the time when the whole world became chaotic? Then how did the Phoenix Girl help when that time came?

Gu Chaoyan shook her head.

"What is it?" Zhou Huaijin asked.

"Huaijin, I am suddenly reminded of one thing," Gu Chaoyan said anxiously.

Chapter 1209: Zhuxun's Words

"We are wrong. The North Qi invade, and what we need to do is not to come to Destiny Monk. I remember one thing you once said – you don't believe in the so-called destiny of heaven, you believe in yourself, and it is we who can make decisions about our destiny!"

"The North Qi Land invades because they are impulsive. What we need to do is to write letters to Prince Muyi and have a discussion with Cloud Land. If the three lands combined forces, what would those magical monsters do anyway?"

"..."

"The most important thing about the world is peace. The North Qi Land has breached the deal, so they have to pay. The cost is the combination of our three lands."

"..."

"Destiny Monk does have some knowledge about what happens, but his knowledge is limited, totally not living up to his name," Gu Chaoyan said with a serious expression.

Zhou Huaijin nodded. He totally agreed with what she said.

He touched her head and then caressed her face. "I got it! We were just too anxious about the civilians at the border to calm ourselves down. We will have time, so we'll take it slow."

Only then did Gu Chaoyan feel slightly calmer.

The two of them headed towards Xinlin Mansion together.

The following day, the Crown Prince as well as General Liu led the army and headed towards Jiayu Pass. It was drizzling, but the drizzle in May did not matter much. The road would get dry, as they marched on.

General Liu had his own troops – three camps with around 50,000 people.

Half of the Saint Divine Land's military forces were gone once those troops were taken.

Gu Chaoyan and Zhou Huaijin were standing on the top of the gate and watching the scene. They wondered what the future would bring about when they were gone.

Another battle started at Jiayu Pass the night before. More than 2,000 soldiers of the Saint Divine Land died in the war, whilst no one was hurt in the North Qi Land's army.

They were not in the same standard of military forces.

The North Qi Land depended on their magical monsters, while the Saint Divine Land kept losing their men.

Gu Chaoyan took a look at the gate and saw that the King did not come to see those soldiers off. He did not even show up the whole day.

"Let's just leave." Zhou Huaijin reminded her.

"Okay." Gu Chaoyan answered, as the couple walked off the gate.

At the Min Mansion.

The Old Master of the Min Family as well as Min Qing was seeing the Crown Prince and General Liu off at the gate.

Only Madame Min and First Ms. Min were waiting for them at the hall. Peace had dominated the Saint Divine Land for too long, almost decades, so even Madame Min felt a bit emotional.

They had not expected that the Saint Divine Land would be threatened from both inside and outside.

They wondered what would happen in the future. However, as long as the Min Mansion was not involved, then it would be fine. After all, the Min Mansion had been a noble family for hundreds of years.

Madame Min sighed.

"Get the kitchen ready for dinner, and you don't need to move. We will be waiting for Min Qing to return," Madame Min said.

That was a conventional rule.

Women from mansions were supposed to wait for the men, who saw the army off, to have the meal together, which was an auspicious sign.

Having said this Madame Min saw the housekeeper rushing in. "Madame Min, the housekeeper of Mrs. Min's mansion is here. He says that he has some words to pass on to you."

"Zhuxun's words?" Madame Min suddenly felt alarmed.

Chapter 1210: The Min Family's Panic 1

She frowned slightly. Though the housekeeper had not revealed what Zhuxun had said to them, Madame Min started to realize that something bad was happening. She started to get anxious. She had her hands tightly clenched around the teacup, her knuckles pale. She felt slightly messy inside her head, not realizing that the teacup was getting heated.

Zhuxun did not like hanging out with the Min Mansion, and she was barely seen, but on some special occasions, Zhuxun came personally rather than passing on the message through her servants.

That was something Madame Min was very aware of.

Zhuxun had a very special background, but she had rules and manners, especially when she was faced with Madame Min.

That was why Madame Min never suspected Zhuxun, and never watched over her even though she was not at the Min Mansion.

Even the day before, Madame Min was still totally confident that Zhuxun cared about the Min Family.

However, when Madame Min heard what the housekeeper said, she suddenly felt that something was wrong. If something strange happened suddenly, then something bad would happen as well. Madame Min was very aware of that.

Madame Min got anxious and worried. She was no longer as calm as she was the day before.

She should not have ignored it when Zhuying reminded her!

She and First Ms. Min were both inside so they did not see through it as Zhuying, who was an outsider, did.

Madame Min had a very bad expression on her face. With hands tightly clenched to the teacup, she took a deep breath and said to the housekeeper from Zhuxun's mansion. "Just spill it."

The housekeeper had remained calm. His face did not change due to Madame Min's sudden change of expression. He said calmly, "Mrs. Min left the capital today. She did not come to say goodbye since she left early. That is why I am here to pass on the message."

“Our Old Master has been deceased for decades, and Mrs. Min has been with the Min Mansion for years, and she has never been out of the capital. So she has not visited her mother for decades. She was here for your birthday so she decided to return after seeing that you are fine.”

“...”

“She did not tell us when she will return, just that you don’t need to feel worried, because she needs to stay at her mother’s home for a long time,” the housekeeper said calmly.

Madame Min’s face turned pale when she heard what the housekeeper said. She was not even aware of the water she spilled out of her teacup.

Sure enough... Zhuxun was gone...

And she did not say her return date, so no one would know about this.

What would the Min Mansion do now that she was gone? It was her fault. She had been careless.

She had thought that Zhuxun would depend on the Min Family after being with them for so many years, but now...

Madame Min felt a bit dizzy.
