Chapter 1211: The Min Family's Panic 2

With hands holding tightly to the table, Madame Min did not come back to herself until a long while later. She finally calmed herself down.

It was such a sudden thing for her.

Madame Min, who had been unprepared, just had no idea how to react.

However, First Ms. Min felt more glad than worried. Zhuxun is gone? That was fantastic! Min Yu had been dead for decades, and yet she kept living in the capital for so many years. Because of Zhuxun, she had never achieved anything big. She should not stay in the capital.

Madame Min always believed that Zhuxun was helping the Min Mansion, but by this point, she should understand that Zhuxun, who did not even want to stay at the Min Mansion, would never favor the Min Family. She was not loaded with any burden, so she would not favor the Min Mansion!

Finally, this point was shown.

It was she who had been working for the Min Family all this time!

First Ms. Min snorted inwardly, but she did say that out loud.

First Ms. Min decided to drop this topic. She even hoped that Zhuxun would disappear forever.

On the other hand, Madame Min, who was covered with wrinkles, looked very worried. After a long while, she finally said, "But where did she head for? How long has she been gone?"

"..."

"Zhuxun has not been home for decades, but she should not have left without saying goodbye. Yu is deceased, but he was still a child from the Min Family! The Min Family should keep her company on her way back to her own home. And the Min Family should have gotten some presents ready for her and her family!"

"..."

"I will get Min Qing to catch up with Zhuxun, and we should do that!" Madame Min said, as she started to think about it.

If the Min Mansion could keep her company, then she would have her in her control. However...

Zhuxun was already falling out of Madame Min's control, and she had no idea when Zhuxun would appear. It was already in May and after summer, Mid-Autumn Day would arrive very soon. Zhuxun should always be present on those important occasions, and if she was absent from these occasions, the Min Family would be suspected for not being as powerful any more. It was an important time right now in the capital, and the Min Family needed her to support them.

Madame Min had her hands over her chest, and looked really worried.

The housekeeper threw a look at Madame Min.

He actually had no idea how to answer.

When Mrs. Min left, she did not mention any of this, but she also made sure that the servants of the mansion would have a peaceful future.

She did not point out everything clearly, but the road ahead was already clear – she was not coming back.

The housekeeper was not going to tell the Min Family about this. All he said was – “I am not sure.”

Hearing those words, Madame Min collapsed. She coughed heavily and did not look very healthy.

First Ms. Min asked her about how she was doing.

Madame Min said to the housekeeper of the Min Mansion, “Just get Old Master and Young Master here!”

Chapter 1212: The Min Family's Panic 3

They had been out for a long time, so they must have seen the Crown Prince and the army off. If nothing urgent happened, the Min Family should accompany everyone out of the capital. However, something had happened to the Min Family, so they needed to be back now.

Madame Min was very eager to bring them back as soon as possible so that they could have a discussion about what to do.

They could not wait any longer to get Zhuxun back.

Madame Min was extremely worried.

The housekeeper rushed out directly and instructed the guards to bring them home.

Madame Min kept drinking tea and coughed. She almost felt as if she was coughing blood. She had gotten better after eating so much medicine from Elder Miss, but now she was feeling worse.

Madame Min took the medical bottle and ate a pill.

Afterwards she felt slightly better.

Seeing her recovering, First Ms. Min asked. “Madame Min, are you alright?”

First Ms. Min always cared about Madame Min, but at this moment, First Ms. Min did not want to care about her. First Ms. Min was not very happy that Madame Min got so worried because of Zhuxun. So she did not have interest in showing any concern.

Seeing Madame Min getting better, she sat down next to her, looking totally uninterested.

Madame Min was feeling so anxious that she did not notice First Ms. Min. It was very quiet in the hall, except for the coughing sound from Madame Min.

Almost one hour later...

Min Qing and Min Liang returned. Both of them looked very anxious. Min Liang asked, "Mom, what is going on here?"

Madame Min had always been a very considerate person.

They had seen the Crown Prince off, but it had not yet been time for them to return. Nevertheless, the guards from the Min Family were asking them to come home. Something urgent must have happened at the mansion.

However, when they returned, they did not sense anything strange happening.

Min Liang was very curious.

Madame Min said with a sick look on her. "Zhuxun is gone and she let her housekeeper pass on the message. She is nowhere to be seen!"

"..."

"Just get someone to catch up with her!" Madame Min stressed.

Min Liang did not understand what was going on until a while later.

Madame Min hurriedly called them home, because Zhuxun was gone.

"Mother, she is definitely returning. She is the Min Family's daughter-in-law, so what are you worried about? Me and Min Qing will watch out for her, but what is the point of getting so anxious about Zhu Xun?" Min Liang complained.

In his opinion, it was nothing that Zhuxun refused to return during this time.

She never lived at the mansion, and she barely cared about the affairs of the mansion, and never made any contributions to the mansion either. She could just leave... What was more...

The Min Family was a noble family with a long history... Why was it related to Zhu Xun?

Chapter 1213: To Get Elder Miss 1

Just because she had a special family background?

1

However, her family was far away, so what was the point of taking them into consideration? Madame Min was too old to think everything through.

Min Liang felt very helpless.

Min Qing was frowning, looking really worried.

He looked at his father. "Mrs. Min never cares about the Min Family's affairs, but on important occasions, she always appears at the mansion. That is what she has been doing for us. They all respect Mrs. Min."

"..."

"If she is gone, we are still the Min Family, a noble family with a long history, but not everyone would respect us like before, and we are not as strong as usual."

"..."

"We need to catch up with her!" Min Qing said.

Min Liang's expression twisted.

First Ms. Min, who had been silent for a while, suddenly felt very unconvinced. Min Qing was her son, and he never mentioned Zhuxun before, but she did not expect that he would speak so highly of Zhuxun.

Well...

First Ms. Min was very displeased.

"Qing, you are too young to understand what is going on. Zhuxun has a father who has a special background, but her father never visits her. You think everyone in the capital is so stupid as to worry about her father? She is a married person. The reason why she is respected is because she is the daughter-in-law of the Min Family!"

"..."

"We don't have many children in our family, and we need some support, but Qing, you are a grown-up and you are an excellent person, so we don't need anyone to help us. Just let Zhuxun go, and she can return when she wants to," First Ms. Min said.

Min Qing shook his head.

That was not what was going on. His mother still did not understand what was going on in the capital.

Mrs. Min was the most important supporter in the Min Family!

Min Qing did not want to spend time talking about this. He shook his head and said, "I will get someone to catch up with her; she should not be too far away."

Having said that, he left in a hurry.

First Ms. Min could not stop him. She looked very displeased.

She had thought that Madame Min was the only stubborn one, but she had not expected that Qing thought the same – why was Zhuxun so important anyway?

What about her? She was the master of the Min Mansion, who had been so devoted to the Min Mansion!

However, she was nothing compared to an idling woman like Zhuxun?

First Ms. Min sneered ironically.

Qing must have been affected by Madame Min for too long not to think otherwise.

She was going to teach him new things!

When Madame Min coughed First Ms. Min decided not to think about this any more.

However, Min Liang let out a cry. "Mother, are you alright?"

Blood covered Madame Min's handkerchief.

Min Liang was startled. He said to the housekeeper, "Go and fetch Elder Miss Gu. She is a great doctor!"

Chapter 1214: To Get Elder Miss 2

That was what Min Liang subconsciously believed should happen.

Elder Miss Gu made no efforts other than to cure Madame Min on her birthday, so Min Liang trusted Elder Miss Gu deeply when it came to medical skills. Therefore, he naturally came up with the idea of finding her.

He did not trust ordinary doctors, and they could not turn to Elderly Liao because only Mrs. Min was able to get him here. Therefore, he dropped the idea of inviting him.

As for the imperial doctors, the Min Mansion was not qualified enough to bring one out of the court. The reason why the imperial doctors were there the other day was only because the Crown Prince personally asked for that.

After making a decision, Min Liang did not change his mind but turned to his mother.

Hearing that Elder Miss Gu was invited, First Ms. Min had the intention of stopping this idea. After all, she subconsciously did not want the Min Mansion to be related to Lord Huai.

However, after she thought for a while and remembered that Elder Miss Gu did not answer her invitation, and wondered what misunderstanding had been caused between them, she wanted to bring Elder Miss Gu here again, so that she could ask about the cream again.

That would make everything sound natural and smooth.

First Ms. Min was quite satisfied by this decision, but... As the master of the Min Family, she needed to show some concern despite her selfishness.

First Ms. Min asked. "Old Master, Elder Miss Gu is Lord Huai's future Princess Consort, is it proper for us to hire her?"

"You don't need to worry about that. She is a skilled doctor, so it is totally reasonable to hire her. We can pay her which will solve things. We can also offer her help so she will be grateful. We don't have to hang out with her. She can just be our doctor. She can be quite useful for us. We don't need to cut our relationship with her totally!"

“ ... ”

“As for how much we hang out with her, it depends on us. We can just drop her if we must not hang out with her. What are you worried about? She is just a young girl and we are in a whole mansion!” Min Liang said confidently. He did not think that any of this would be a problem.

Hearing that, First Ms. Min nodded with assurance.

That sounded right.

She saved Madame Min’s life at the banquet and that was a big favor, but right now, she was just being hired to check up on Madame Min, and no one outside the mansion would have any idea of what on earth was going on inside.

First Ms. Min nodded and agreed.

At Xinlin Mansion.

Zhou Huaijin and Gu Chaoyan had just returned from the gate. They were eating pastry and drinking tea whilst the letter had been sent to the other two countries. They just needed to wait for the reply.

Gu Chaoyan sipped the tea.

Qing came and said, “Elder Miss, the housekeeper of the Min Mansion is here.”

Gu Chaoyan frowned slightly.

The Min Family tried to dodge her all the time in the past, so what were they doing here again?

“Should I let him in?”

Chapter 1215: Self-Indulging

Gu Chaoyan sipped her tea as she frowned.

Normally, she did not want to meet anyone from the Min Family, because she had no intention of getting involved with them, but the Min Family kept sending her invitations, so she wanted to see them directly and to express herself clearly, so that they would never try to hang out again.

That was what Gu Chaoyan was thinking. So she agreed to meet the housekeeper again.

Qing went to pass on the message while Gu Chaoyan continued to drink her tea.

Zhou Huaijin did not want to interfere with Gu Chaoyan’s affairs, so he just poured tea for her.

Soon the housekeeper arrived. He looked a bit anxious. He must have urged Qing for him to have arrived so fast.

The housekeeper greeted Gu Chaoyan and Zhou Huaijin briefly and said, "Elder Miss Gu, come with me, Madame Min is not feeling well today, and she has just coughed up some blood. I am here to get you to give Madame Min a check up. It's good that you are here, let's go now, we have no time to waste."

The housekeeper said this as if everything should have been done without consideration.

They believed that the Min Family was a noble family with a long history and even the Crown Prince was sucking up to them, which was known to the housekeeper as well. That was why he behaved in this way.

He believed that Lord Huai and Elder Miss Gu would definitely try to suck up to them as well.

She should be glad to answer the invitation when the Old Master requested her, so he did not pay attention to his tone.

Gu Chaoyan looked up at the housekeeper from the Min Mansion.

She was still frowning.

The Min Family was far out of reach for many people, so people would think that it was a family who attached great attention to manners, but after spending some time with them...

People would realize that the Min Family was just trying to bully people rather than respect them.

Just look at how the housekeeper reacted, then you would know how the rest of the Min Family were like.

Gu Chaoyan did not move an inch. She sipped the tea and looked at the housekeeper, saying, "If you need any pills, you can go to Xinlin Mansion to buy them, it costs 1,000 liang one bottle. I am not going out today, you can turn to someone else."

Gu Chaoyan replied distantly and politely.

She did not move. She never even contemplated going to the mansion with him.

Hearing that the housekeeper wondered if Elder Miss Gu had not understood him. She must be thinking that she needed to cater to the Old Master like she did last time at the mansion.

It was a very special time, but Elder Miss Gu was way too cautious.

The housekeeper said, "Elder Miss Gu, don't be modest. It is our Old Master who trusts your medical abilities and has invited you. Madame Min is not doing well and Old Master doesn't trust the other doctors, so he has asked me to bring you there. Don't be modest, Elder Miss Gu, just get the kit and come with me, it is never good to be late."

1

Gu Chaoyan glanced at the housekeeper coldly.

The housekeeper saw that she did not have the intention of moving, he wondered if she was waiting for a direct promise from the Min Family.

Normally, he should not have made any promise, but it was an urgent situation.

The housekeeper thought for a while and said cautiously, "When you are done with the checkup, Elder Miss Gu, we have other things apart from payment that we can offer you."

Chapter 1216: Self-Indulging 2

The words had just been spoken, and the housekeeper of the Min Mansion looked at Gu Chaoyan, trying to see what on earth Elder Miss Gu was thinking at the moment based on her reaction.

She must truly want to get involved with the Min Family, otherwise she would not have gotten so anxious about Madame Min's health at the birthday, or prepared the cream to make First Ms. Min like it. In this way, the Min Family would be involved with her after all.

She turned down the invitations sent to her a couple of days ago, and now she turned down the Old Master's invitation as well.

Apparently, her plan had been realized.

Similar things often happened to the Min Family, and the housekeeper did not really care. They had dealt with such people numerous times, and the winner was never those who had schemed. Elder Miss Gu had the plan, but she still needed to follow the Min Family's intention. Therefore, he had nothing to worry about, and threw out the bait directly.

Gu Chaoyan had no expression on her face, but frowned slightly after hearing what the housekeeper said. She looked disgusted, but the housekeeper did not notice.

He assumed that she was just making considerations.

He urged with a small voice, "Just hurry up Elder Miss Gu, Madame Min is waiting for you!"

He sounded and looked extremely conceited.

It was as if he thought Gu Chaoyan would have said yes if she didn't want a better exchange condition.

Gu Chaoyan looked at the housekeeper.

She felt that she was talking with a stupid person. She frowned and said expressionlessly, "Xiu Jie, just see him off."

Xiu Jie had expected that to happen. He nodded and showed the housekeeper out.

The housekeeper had no idea what was going on. He could not understand!

After a while, he asked in surprise, "What do you mean, Elder Miss Gu?"

"If you want to buy the pills, go to Xinlin Clinic. The bottle costs 1,000 liang for one. If you want to hire doctors, you can turn to somewhere else, because I won't be going out today, understand?" Gu Chaoyan stressed word by word.

The housekeeper looked at Gu Chaoyan with shock. He just could not believe it.

Did she mean...

Did she mean that she had turned down the Min Mansion?

And the words were so familiar... he had been told this when he first came to Xinlin Mansion. It was the first thing Elder Miss said to him. Did he get her wrong all this time? Elder Miss Gu really had no intention of leaving the mansion today, it was not that she was waiting for him to put forward exchange conditions.

So she was not planning to suck up to the Min Family?

That was impossible!

Elder Miss Gu had no support in the capital, and Lord Huai was suffering from a bad condition as well. It was extremely important for her to suck up to the Min Family, so why was she not doing so?

The housekeeper had no idea what was going on, and he could not figure it out.

What had he done? What was the problem?

The Min Family was a noble family with a long history, one that was respected by the King. He had never been turned down after working as the housekeeper for so many years.

However, he was turned down at the Xinlin Mansion today!

The housekeeper still had no idea what was going on by the time Xiu Jie had seen him out.

The gate was closed directly.

However, the housekeeper was still very confused.

Chapter 1217: Self-Indulging 3

That was the first time that he was turned down, so he had no idea what to do, and how he should tell Old Master and Madame about it. He had always assumed that it was an easy thing to get Elder Miss Gu to come, because it was the Old Master who sent the invitation and she had no reason to turn down the offer, especially when it was for Madame's health.

How could it be?

The housekeeper wore a very complicated look on his face, and after a long while, he started to think about what to do.

Madame Min coughed because she was very anxious. She was old and had suffered from an illness a while ago, but she should not have had a sudden relapse again.

Elder Miss Gu drove him out, so the Min Mansion and Elder Miss Gu should have contradictions with each other, but Madame Min's health mattered the most at the moment.

He needed to buy pills from Xinlin Clinic first.

Only then did the housekeeper's mind become clearer.

He said to the coachman. "We'll go to Xinlin Clinic first, before heading to Jishi Clinic."

The wagon left in a hurry.

The housekeeper bought some bottles at Xinlin Clinic and hired the visiting doctor at Jishi Clinic before heading back to the Min Mansion.

At the Min Mansion.

Madame Min had just coughed blood, but after some rest she came back to herself. She looked pale and weak, but she was not in a critical condition. Zhuxi was taking care of her, and Min Liang as well as First Ms. Min was waiting for Elder Miss Gu to arrive.

Both of them were thinking something different.

Min Liang thought of Gu Chaoyan's medical skills when Madame Min fell ill suddenly. He was afraid that after some years, he would be like Madame Min and would need a doctor like Gu Chaoyan to check up on him. He had not thought about this before, but he considered that during the past two days.

On the other hand, First Ms. Min was drooling for the cream, so she did not object to the Min Mansion's proposal to get involved with Elder Miss Gu, as long as she did not drag the Min Mansion down.

1

Both of them were waiting patiently.

The housekeeper arrived, but it was Doctor Wang from Jishi Tang, not Gu Chaoyan, who was with him.

First Ms. Min and Min Liang were both slightly shocked.

They were friends with Doctor Wang, after all the clinic he was in was of great importance. They would have hired Doctor Wang in the past, because he was a very good doctor too, but when Madame Min fell ill the other day, Doctor Wang had not been as capable as Elder Miss Gu.

The Min Family would definitely turn to someone better if they had a better choice.

Min Liang got up and asked the housekeeper. "What is going on?"

The housekeeper had a very complicated look because Doctor Wang was here and he was not supposed to hear everything.

Min Liang looked at Doctor Wang and said, "Madame Min has just coughed blood. Currently she is slightly better, but please give her a check up."

Having said this, he went into another room with the housekeeper.

First Ms. Min thought for a while and asked Zhuxi to take good care of Madame Min, before catching up to them.

She could understand why Elder Miss turned down her invitation, but... why was she still not here when the Old Master dispatched the housekeeper to get her?

Chapter 1218: Elder Miss Gu's Intention 1

First Ms. Min frowned and followed Min Liang and the housekeeper to the wing-room. She had no expression on her face, but wondered what Elder Miss Gu was thinking – why was she still not willing to come to the Min Family? Did she get startled last time that she was here? The housekeeper went there personally at the Old Master's invitation so what on earth was she thinking?

She could not have visited Xinlin Mansion personally, right? Otherwise how could she convey the idea about the cream? That was not something a noble person like her should do anyway.

First Ms. Min was going through different things in her head right now. She had never run into troublesome things like this.

Many things were going through First Ms. Min's mind.

She did not speak for a long time.

Even when they went into the room, First Ms. Min was still absent-minded.

Min Liang did not notice First Ms. Min's reaction because he was concentrating on finding out what on earth was happening to Elder Miss Gu.

For whatever the reason was... Min Liang was the male master of the Min Family, and no one would disobey his order on whichever occasion it was. When his arrangement went wrong, he felt really displeased.

He looked at the housekeeper with a cold expression on his face. "What on earth is going on? Madame Min is not doing well, and we can't be delayed, but Elder Miss Gu doesn't even want to show up? I have already told her clearly about what is happening to Madame Min, but she is still so rude as not to show up?"

Min Liang did not throw his temper earlier because Doctor Wang had been around, but Min Liang could not hold his temper when no one was around.

The housekeeper looked helpless too. He had not expected that things would become like this.

He had thought that as long as he put everything clearly and the conditions were good, he would be able to get the lady to come.

"Old Master, Elder Miss Gu said that she is not coming out on medical visits today." The housekeeper confessed.

"Not coming out on medical visits? What does she mean?" Min Liang asked coldly.

"I saw Elder Miss Gu, and I told her straightforwardly about Madame Min's health situation and told her why I was there. I expected that she could come along with me to check up on Madame Min, and I also told her that it was your intention." The housekeeper said, "But Elder Miss Gu said that she is not coming out on medical visits today, and if we want pills, we can buy them at Xinlin Clinic, and if we need a doctor, we can turn to someone else."

Min Liang frowned. He was not at all happy. "What is her purpose?"

The housekeeper shook his head confusedly. "I thought so too, so I stressed that we can offer more than payment, but Elder Miss Gu did nothing other than to repeat her words, and drove me out of the mansion!" the housekeeper said helplessly.

He simply had no way to make any more deals.

That was why he brought Doctor Wang here instead.

"Old Master, what on earth do you think Elder Miss Gu want?" the housekeeper asked.

Chapter 1219: Elder Miss Gu's Intention 2

Min Liang snorted, looking very displeased.

What did she want? Of course she wanted something!

If the housekeeper only mentioned one thing and she turned them down, then she must have been considerate enough not to say yes to the invitation.

He and Officer Gu hung out for a while before.

He learned from Officer Gu that Elder Miss Gu was a very skillful doctor, but she was too stupid to understand how to hang out with people.

According to the housekeeper... that judgment had proven itself.

She was not bending down for the Min Mansion!

Min Liang looked extremely annoyed. "What does she want? You don't have to visit Xinlin Mansion any more. We can just get some imperial doctor from the court if we need one for Madame Min. She is just a skilled doctor so she doesn't have to be hanging out with us!"

"..."

"She has been holding a grudge against us since the banquet!"

"..."

"She thinks that we should not treat her like that and that she should accept the favor for future use."

"..."

"She really believed that she was someone important?" Min Liang said annoyedly, "She has turned down our invitations many times so we are not hanging out with her any more! I would like to see how much she is going to lose if we stop hanging out with her!"

1

"..."

"She is just a skillful doctor, but we have power. We can just drop the idea of hanging out with her!" Min Liang snapped furiously.

Obviously, Min Liang was very angry about it, otherwise he would not have said things so furiously.

He grew up with the Min Family, and had never met with any setbacks. This was the first time for him to have someone treat him like that, so it made him really angry.

After he spoke with the housekeeper, he turned to First Ms. Min, "And you, don't think about buying cream from her place. It is overpriced, and we can't help her earn money. She must be very poor for her to blackmail us! We are not going to give her this little favor!"

1

First Ms. Min felt a bit unsure, but since Min Liang said so, First Ms. Min nodded. "Okay."

Compared to Gu Chaoyan's impoliteness, First Ms. Min cared more about cream.

She could deal with someone who did not respect the Min Family, but she could not do anything about the cream.

The cream really worked well. She had changed a lot during the past few days, and she might even have gotten prettier compared to the past.

First Ms. Min could not accept that she could not buy the cream.

She wondered whether Elder Miss Gu had been irritated by Zhuxun, so she dropped the idea of hanging out with the Min Family. She needed to ask her about that.

That was what First Ms. Min was thinking inwardly, whilst bending down. "Old Master, don't be mad about a young girl like that."

Min Liang was about to say something when some noise arose in the mansion.

First Ms. Min looked out and smiled. "Qing is here, let's go and check on him!"

Chapter 1220: Elder Miss Gu's Intention 3

Min Liang nodded.

The housekeeper finished what he said, and already knew what he needed to know. He would have checked on Doctor Wang's situation, but Min Qing had returned so he went there to meet him instead.

Min Liang led the way with a cold look on his face while the housekeeper followed behind with a very complicated expression.

He found it pitiful, after all, he had understood how excellent Elder Miss Gu was.

Min Qing went straight into the hall, and Madame Min followed him. Before he was able to say anything, Madame Min asked anxiously, "Qing, did you catch up with Zhuxun?"

Min Qing had a very bad expression.

He sat down and drank some tea. He was very thirsty after he went out, so he drank some tea and shook his head. "No, the gatekeepers said that Mrs. Min left town before dawn, and they couldn't see which path Mrs. Min took. It is very difficult to find her, but I have arranged for some people to seek her."

Min Qing looked pitiful and anxious too. He really had no idea what the future would be.

"We can't just spread the news about the search because her leaving should be concealed rather than revealed to the others. If the whole capital knows about this, our family will be in trouble!" Min Qing said anxiously.

Madame Min had just gotten checked up by Doctor Wang, but she did not care about the result. She was just wondering what she should do about the Min Mansion.

Min Liang walked in and saw these two.

He said angrily, "Look at you, you cowards! Zhuxun is nobody so she can leave if she wants to! We are a noble family with a long history, not because there is a woman like that! Be strong!"

Min Qing did not dare to counter his father.

Madame Min did not want to mention it either. She was confident that she could bring her back.

Madame Min skipped the topic. She looked up at Min Liang and asked, "What happened to Elder Miss Gu?"

"Mother, just drop it. We just need a doctor and we can find one whenever we want it. Look at Doctor Wang, he is very skillful too, we can even get an imperial doctor from the court if you want it," Min Liang said indifferently, without caring about that.

Madame Min sighed and started to blame herself.

For some reason, something went wrong causing the Min Family to go into a mess.

Zhuxun's disappearance was already very disturbing and now Elder Miss Gu now refused to accept their invitation – what should they do?

Only Zhuxun was able to get Elderly Liao as well.

Madame Min shook her head tiredly.

Min Liang did not care. He got up and asked Doctor Wang, "Doctor Wang, what is wrong with Madame Min? What medicine should she take?"

Doctor Wang wiped his forehead, looking nervous and unsure.

It took a long while before he said something.
