Chapter 33: Madame Gu's Request

The words had just been spoken when laughter arose in the yard.

Gu Xiuying and Gu Caiqin were chortling as if they just heard the most ridiculous joke ever.

That confused Chaoyan momentarily. She didn't know what was so funny!?!

Before Madame Gu could scold Gu Caiqin and Gu Xiuying, Gu Xiuying spoke up. "Sister, you have been divorced and everyone knows that the Prince doesn't like you. Why are you still hung up on him?"

Madame Gu turned towards Gu Chaoyan and gave her a searching look.

She was trying to figure out Gu Chaoyan's expression. She knew how much Gu Chaoyan used to like the Prince earlier.

If Gu Chaoyan put forward this request, then the situation would become rather annoying. The Prince did not like her appearance, which was publicly known to everyone.

But, for the sake of Ruxue's face, she could lower herself and ask the Prince to spare the position of a concubine for Gu Chaoyan.

Madame Gu started to calculate inwardly after she found a solution to this matter.

"Mother." Gu Zhenkang spoke up, fearing that Gu Chaoyan would really request to marry the Prince.

Madame Gu gave him a look of assurance.

Then she said seriously, "How dare you raise a condition when you are supposed to treat your sister unselfishly. You are not acting like the eldest daughter of the family. No wonder your father wants to punish you. You should learn from your mistake and not hate him for that."

"Nevertheless, if you are able to cure your second sister's face, I would grant your request. But you have to promise me one thing in return for letting you escape the punishment."

Madame Gu moved her hand over the jade hanging on her waist. What she wanted most was Gu Chaoyan's position as the eldest daughter of the house because Ruxue was going to marry a Prince and she definitely deserved the best.

As for Gu Chaoyan... it would be nothing short of a miracle for her to get back the marriage that had been snatched away from her. If Gu Chaoyan was smart and willing to take some steps backwards, she would be willing to fulfill her wish. If she was stupid, then she could simply be discarded later on.

Gu Chaoyan felt the fierce look from Madame Gu. However, it did not frighten her.

"Alright, I agree." Gu Chaoyan accepted the condition without hesitation.

That startled Madame Gu a little bit but she did not dwell on it.

She was in control of the Gu Family, and this ugly girl could not do much.

“Then, go to Begonia Yard immediately!” Since Gu Ruxue liked begonia flowers so much, her yard was named accordingly.

Gu Chaoyan bowed and left.

But Gu Zhenkang was not assured. Seeing Gu Chaoyan leave, he followed behind.

He could not be assured when this devious daughter went to the yard alone. She was ugly, had a poor maternal background and also lacked morals.

He needed to guarantee Ruxue’s safety!

Chapter 34: Payback With Life

Like the front yard, Begonia Yard was full of the colorful begonia flowers. Gu Chaoyan frowned at them. She did not like these shining and superficial things.

As the servants of Begonia Yard caught sight of Gu Chaoyan, their faces changed. Facing Gu Zhenkang, they pointed at Gu Chaoyan and snapped. “What is Miss Ugly doing at our Begonia Yard?”

The sharp voices attracted Mrs. Gu’s attention as well.

Seeing Gu Chaoyan, Mrs. Gu said harshly, “You hideous weirdo, what are you doing here? Are you trying to spread the disease of ugliness to our Ruxue.”

Suddenly, Mrs. Gu realized something and pointed at Gu Chaoyan with wide eyes. “Wait a minute! Why did my Ruxue get rashes after going to your place the other day?”

Gu Chaoyan raised her eyebrows and looked at Mrs. Gu in confusion. When did Mrs. Gu become so smart as to guess that there was some relation between Gu Ruxue’s face and her?

Before she was able to think deeper, Mrs. Gu screamed. “You are the one who has spread the ugliness to Ruxue. It’s definitely you!”

Gu Chaoyan rolled her eyes. She had thought that Mrs. Gu had turned smarter, but it seemed that she was still brainless.

Everyone seemed to believe what she said and turned to look at Gu Chaoyan in fright, fearing that they would get the contagious disease too.

“Aunt Zhang, you are wrong. I am just tanned and chubby. I have no rashes on my face like your daughter. How will I be able to spread this kind of disease to anyone?” Gu Chaoyan looked at Mrs. Gu as if she were staring at an idiot.

Mrs. Gu was dumbstruck and had no reply.

First of all, she did not expect that Gu Chaoyan would counter her. And secondly, when she looked at Gu Chaoyan carefully, she saw that this hideous girl’s face was clear except for the tanned skin, the chubby cheeks and the red birthmark.

This displeased Mrs. Gu.

She got so upset that she did not even notice that Gu Chaoyan was not addressing her as mother.

"You..." Mrs. Gu pointed at Gu Chaoyan, unable to utter a word.

Gu Zhenkang stepped forward and said, "Mother asked her to examine Ruxue's face to see if she can help her recover."

"She?!" Mrs. Gu's voice sounded sharp.

"We would be thankful if she doesn't ruin our Ruxue any further. Old Master, have you become slow in your head or something? Since when has she become a doctor?!" Mrs. Gu mocked ruthlessly.

She did not hear about how Gu Chaoyan cured the little boy of the Wang Family, since she had spent most of her time at Begonia Yard with her convalescing daughter during the past few days.

So, Gu Zhenkang had to recount the entire story.

Mrs. Gu stared at Gu Chaoyan in disbelief. She didn't want to believe the claim but didn't know how to refute it. After all, this girl's maternal family had indeed been engaged in medical business.

"None of the doctors can do anything about Ruxue's face, just let her try." Gu Zhenkang suggested.

He had chosen to believe Gu Chaoyan after what she did to the little boy of the Wang Family.

But Mrs. Gu was still not convinced.

Doctors had told her that Ruxue's face was incurable.

So she said, "Ugly, you can take a look at Ruxue, but you have to be careful! If anything goes wrong with Ruxue, you will have to pay back with your life, got it?"

With her life?

How dare she, a concubine, raise such a proposal to the daughter of the legal wife?

Her life was indeed worse than an ant!

Gu Chaoyan threw a look at Gu Zhenkang who was standing next to her.
