Chapter 3171 - 3171 Chapter 3059, crossing formation

3171 Chapter 3059, crossing formation

Looking at the reincarnator king again, the three reincarnation vortexes that he had already extinguished actually flickered with a faint light in the darkness. It was shockingly showing signs of recovering.

As for the sky-covering patriarch, the curses that had dissipated faintly reappeared around his body. It was actually the return of the curses!

The expressions of the three people changed drastically!

They were so far away from each other. Just outside the hall, there was a drastic change in their bodies. If they entered the hall, wouldn't they immediately attain the Dao?

!!

“Hiss! Could that be what was left in the tomb of Sinkhole?”

“That Hall must have been used by sinkhole!”

“If I cultivate in there, i... I have hope of breaking through to myriad saints!”

The three of them were ecstatic!

However, Su Yu did not make them happy.

With a thought from Su Yu, the chaotic energy that was scattered in all directions gathered towards them and surrounded them.

As a result, the starlight that was attracted was even denser.

Sensing this, the three of them flew into a rage.

“Is this the work of a F * cking human?”The Reincarnation King roared, but the ten starlight beams came over and bombarded him, turning him into dust.

The reincarnated human king had no choice but to use the reincarnation ancestral art again to recover.

However, after he recovered, he took a few steps forward and was once again blasted into dust by the dense starlight! ! !

The face of the overwhelming patriarch changed drastically. As he threw out the curse, his face turned pale as he ran outside.

30,000 feet!

30,000 feet!

30,000 feet! !

He was getting closer and closer to the outside of the formation, but it was difficult for the overwhelming patriarch to take even one step.

The 300,000 meters in the past was just a thought for an unparalleled expert like him.

But now, every step was extremely difficult, and he had to pay the price of a curse.

And there were less than ten curses left on his body.

Looking at the 300 meters in front of him, the overwhelming patriarch gritted his teeth and threw out all the curses, forming a defense on the surface of his body.

Then, he rushed out at full speed.

The distance of a thousand feet only took an instant!

Once he successfully crossed it, what awaited him was the ancient hall left behind by sinkhole Lord. He sat in the hall and listened to the Dao. What he lost would be repaid a hundred times over!

Sou —

In an instant, he had crossed the distance of a thousand feet.

The price he had to pay was to be attacked by hundreds of concentrated starlight attacks and all the curses on his body were destroyed.

After passing through the Starlight Formation, overwhelming patriarch was ecstatic. He turned around and smiled triumphantly at the Samsara King and Zhan Wushuang who were still inside the formation.

However, before he could smile, his pupils constricted.

Hundreds of starlight chased after him from the Starlight Formation and bombarded him.

Overwhelming patriarch only felt that his eyes were blinding. Then, he disappeared into the countless starlight.

The reincarnation king, who caught sight of this scene from the corner of his eyes, felt his heart skip a beat!

His long-time friend had been reduced to ashes in an instant. This scene was more shocking than any other scene.

However, he was like a clay bodhisattva crossing the river, unable to protect himself.

Boom —

The instant he was in a trance, a beam of starlight suddenly struck over and instantly pulverized the reincarnation king.

The reincarnation ancestral spell vortex that he condensed dimmed another one, and then there were only two left.

Looking at the distance of a thousand feet, he gritted his teeth and decided not to move forward slowly. Instead, like the overwhelming patriarch, he unleashed his movement technique and dashed out in an instant!

In the instant he unleashed it, he was killed by dozens of dense starlight beams halfway through.

However, after losing one vortex, the reincarnation King recovered and continued to run!

In the blink of an eye, the reincarnation king rushed out of the Starlight Formation.

However, just like the Great Grandmaster, countless starlight descended and killed the reincarnation king.

Fortunately, the reincarnation king still had one last whirlpool.

The powder on the ground recovered at a shocking speed and turned into the complete reincarnation king.

However, the seven whirlpools in front of his chest were all destroyed and not a single one was left.

The Reincarnation King did not dare to stop. He ran forward for a long distance and only stopped after he was sure that he was far away from the killing range of the Starlight Formation.

He took a deep breath and revealed an ecstatic expression. Then, he stared at the distant ancient hall greedily.

Then, he looked at Zhan Wushuang.

It was the most difficult for him. His movement technique was not as powerful as the two quasi-ten thousand saints, so he could not leave quickly. He did not have any defensive magic treasures on him.

He could only rely on the emperor's killing sword to deal with it with great difficulty.

Seeing that the reincarnation king had broken out of the encirclement, he became anxious and quickened his pace.

...

However, a flaw appeared quickly. A Ray of Starlight swept past his legs and instantly sent him flying. As he flew backward, countless rays of starlight covered his body.

Zhan Wushuang's eyes were blindingly pale!

Just as he was about to be destroyed, a ball of gray-colored air current emerged from his body and tightly wrapped him within.

When the Starlight entered the dark grey air current, they were like stone oxen entering the sea without any sound.

However, a lot of the dark grey air current had dissipated.

Zhan Wushuang was stunned for a moment. He suddenly understood that this was the protective power that the carefree emperor had secretly blessed him with.

In his ecstasy, looking at the air current that was about to dissipate, he did not dare to stay any longer. He kept running out of the Starlight Formation.

Along the way, the starlight was bombarded indiscriminately, but it was blocked by the dark grey air current.

When he successfully stepped out of the Starlight Formation, the dark grey air current on his body had almost been neutralized. Only one or two wisps were still surrounding his body.

Zhan Wushuang had the intention to retract this air current, but he could not control it. He could not even disperse it.

“Forget it. It’s good to keep it by my side as a defense.”Zhan Wushuang’s eyes were filled with greed as he stared at the hall.

...

Su Yu, who had witnessed the entire process, was filled with regret.

“Only one died, what a pity.”Su Yu sighed inwardly.

Using the Fatal Starlight Array, they were actually unable to wipe out all of them.

Su Yu couldn't help but be alert in his heart. After his strength had reached the quasi-ten thousand saints realm, it was already very unrealistic to kill him easily.

An existence at this level more or less had the power to protect themselves.

"Let's go over as well." Su Yu turned around and could already see the gigantic body of the Ten Thousand Saints Beast.

However, the threat of the Ten Thousand Saints Beast could be removed.

The existence of the Starlight array was destined to make the Ten Thousand Saints Beast cower in fear, not daring to take another step forward.

Su Yu took out a drop of blood essence and injected it into Miss Xiao Song's head, then pulled him into the Starlight Array.

The Starlight Formation remained calm, allowing Su Yu and Lady Xiao Song to pass through easily.

After passing through the formation, Su Yu saw the mysterious ancient hall that was brightly lit and resplendent. Su Yu had just broken through not too long ago, but at this moment, his cultivation seemed to be on the verge of breaking through to the Great Sage realm.

Su Yu's heart was beating wildly, and his eyes were burning with passion.

He had just broken through to the peak of ancient sage not too long ago. Logically speaking, he would need to accumulate several thousand years before he could stabilize his cultivation and break through to the Great Sage realm.

Chapter 3172 - 3172 Chapter 3,060, the spirit of the temple

3172 Chapter 3,060, the spirit of the temple

However, listening to the voice of the Heavenly Dao from outside the temple would allow one's cultivation to soar?

Thinking of this, Su Yu was extremely moved.

The two of them quickly arrived outside the temple.

When they arrived, they realized that the reincarnation king and Zhan Wushuang had already arrived and were circling the temple.

Su Yu also realized that there was no door to the hall!

A sealed wall surrounded the hall.

There was a mysterious isolation formation above the hall that prevented people from entering.

“Damn it!” Samsara king was impatient. He slammed his palm at the wall. Not only did the wall not move, but it also reflected the power of Samsara King.

Samsara King wasn't willing to give up. He attacked the sky above the hall again, trying to open a gap on the wall and enter directly.

But in the end, there was still no movement on the wall.

“How can this be?” Zhan Wushuang was also extremely unwilling. He had already tried to use the emperor's killing sword to attack the hall, but it had no effect.

The two could only watch helplessly as the hall was right in front of them, but they couldn't use it.

On the left side of the palace, there was a teleportation formation.

“Don't tell me that we have no fate with the palace, so we can just leave?” Reincarnation King said unwillingly.

Zhan Wushuang was indignant, “Why do I have no fate with you? I am the Heavenly Fate Emperor, the one who collects the fate of the greater world. If I don't have fate, who will?”

After obtaining the recognition of the emperor's four-piece set, Zhan Wushuang's mentality had reached its peak.

“I don't believe it!” Zhan Wushuang was like a madman. He circled the hall and attacked continuously, but in return, the hall did not move at all.

On the other hand, the reincarnation king calmed down and thought. After a long while, he took out a drop of blood from his body. It was the saintly being's blood that the overwhelming patriarch had given them.

While he was thinking, the reincarnation King threw the holy blood into the courtyard wall.

A scene that made him excited appeared. The drop of Holy Blood was absorbed by the courtyard wall, and then a blurry portrait appeared.

The figure in the portrait looked like a demon, a Buddha, and more like the faces of all living beings.

Zhan Wushuang and the reincarnation king were shocked. They quickly retreated and remained vigilant.

The person in the portrait said slowly, "It's been ten eras. Finally, someone came."

Zhan wushuang narrowed his eyes and asked, "Who are you?"

"I am the spirit of the Dao Palace, and I have been ordered to wait for the fated person." The voice of the spirit of the Dao Palace sounded ethereal.

Zhan Wushuang and the reincarnation king were overjoyed. This was great!

“The person you are waiting for is me!” Zhan Wushuang said. Four Phantoms appeared above his head, representing his position in the emperor’s four-piece set.

The reincarnator king pointed at himself, “I am a reincarnator, the king of the human race. I should be the one you are waiting for!”

The spirit of the temple said hoarsely, “Since you are here, whether you are a god, a Buddha, a demon, an immortal, or a mortal, you are all fated people.”

This made the two of them completely relieved.

“Then please let us in,” said the reincarnator king.

The spirit of the temple said, “There are deep and shallow fates. Those who are shallow will listen to the dao outside for two hours, and those who are deep will study in the temple for three years.”

What was the use of listening to the Dao for two hours?

This was not what Zhan Wushuang and the reincarnation king wanted. They wanted to occupy everything in the temple.

“How do you determine the deep and shallow fates?” Zhan Wushuang asked, “I am the heavenly emperor, how can there be less fates?”

The spirit of the temple said slowly, “You must know that the deep and shallow fates can only be tested.”

“What test?” Zhan Wushuang knew that it would not be that easy to enter.

The reincarnation king was full of confidence, “Tell me, what test?”

He had cultivated for many years. In terms of martial arts, in terms of comprehension, and in terms of experience, he was extremely rich. There were few tests that would be difficult for him.

The spirit of the temple said calmly, “The test is to cripple your martial arts.”

What?

Both Zhan Wushuang and the reincarnation king were shocked.

Destroy their own martial arts?

Not to mention the reincarnation king, even Zhan Wushuang would not agree.

His martial arts had been accumulated over hundreds of years. Every bit of growth represented his hard work.

How could he give up all of it?

“What kind of test is this?” Zhan wushuang shouted.

The spirit of the dao palace said slowly, “You are already filthy. If you want to listen to the Great Dao, you have to be pure.”

“In the eyes of the sinkhole tomb, all the Great Dao are unorthodox. If you want to obtain his dao, you have to be alone to comprehend it.”

Reincarnation King’s eyes flashed. “Can’t it be changed to another test?”

The price of destroying one’s own martial dao was too high.

“It’s just a test. It’s the same for anyone who comes here,” said the spirit of the Dao Hall expressionlessly.

Reincarnation king clenched his fist and said, “Then, if I self-destruct, will I be able to receive the Dao Hall’s preaching?”

“No,” said the spirit of the Dao Hall. “You have only obtained the most basic qualification to preach. Whether you can attain the DAO in the end depends on sinkhole emperor Lord’s Dao and whether he is willing to accept you!”

...

What a joke!

Asking him to cripple his own martial dao, but only giving him the most basic qualification. If he did not attain the Dao in the end, wouldn’t his life’s efforts be in vain?

Only a fool would accept such an adventure!

“I refuse!” The Reincarnation King made a decision. He would leave the Dao Palace, the Beast Egg, the reincarnation realm human king position, or the mighty lord who could shake the world with a single call.

If he gave up all of this, he might have nothing.

“Your fate is too shallow. Listen to the Dao outside the courtyard for two hours, then leave on your own.”The spirit of the Dao Palace then looked at Zhan Wushuang. “What About You?”

Zhan Wushuang was hesitating.

To be honest, his martial path was very ordinary. If he gave up, he would not feel too much heartache.

Compared to being able to obtain the sinkhole emperor’s Dao, giving up was really valuable.

“What About My Fate? Can I keep it?”However, Zhan Wushuang was most worried about his heavenly emperor.

Because of it, Zhan Wushuang was able to obtain the recognition of the emperor’s four-piece set.

...

And after activating the emperor's four-piece set, Zhan Wushuang was filled with boundless confidence. Now, asking him to give up the emperor's four-piece set was worse than killing him.

"Since it's pure, how can there be such a thing as Fate?" The spirit of the Dao Palace said slowly.

Zhan wushuang's expression darkened.

How was it possible for him to give up the emperor's four-piece set that was destined to belong to him, his boundless combat power, and pursue an uncertain dao

"I refuse!" Zhan wushuang gritted his teeth and made a choice. "But, I am the Heavenly Emperor, why don't you let me in?"

The spirit of the dao palace said indifferently, "Heavenly Emperor? He is still the emperor that was appointed by the heavens, and the sinkhole emperor Lord is the heavens."

"Heavenly Emperor Lord does not have the right to be exempted in front of sinkhole Emperor Tomb."

Zhan wushuang swung his sword angrily, but it could not do anything to the wall.

The spirit of the Dao Hall was expressionless as he continued, “The two of you are no longer fated. Then, do the remaining two also wish to accept the test?”

HM?

Zhan wushuang and Samsara King’s expressions changed at the same time as they swept their sharp gazes in all directions.

If there were two other people here, then who were they?

Su Yu and his companions! ! !

When they thought about the starlight formation being plotted against, their killing intent exploded!

Zhan Wushuang was fine, but his killing intent had always been like this.

However, the Samsara King’s killing intent was unprecedentedly strong!

Chapter 3173 - 3173 Chapter 3,061, reincarnation petrification

3173 Chapter 3,061, reincarnation petrification

The five Maelstroms that he had accumulated in his life were all destroyed by Su Yu!

His plan to become a ten thousand saints expert was completely destroyed by Su Yu!

If he did not take revenge, he would not be human!

Su Yu felt a little helpless. This spirit of the Dao Palace was a little talkative.

However, fortunately, the emperor's new clothes still had an effect on the two of them, so there was no need for him to show himself.

"Su Yu! Come out!" Zhan wushuang held the emperor's killing sword in his hand, and his murderous aura swept across the area.

An arc-shaped sword aura swept across the area with him as the center. Even the reincarnation king was within the attack range.

Su Yu and Miss Song jumped up without a sound and quietly dodged.

The Reincarnation King also jumped up and straightened his back. A strong airflow rushed out from his back.

The air current split into ten thousand and turned into tens of thousands of air needles that swept across the sky.

Under the dense attacks, Su Yu and Miss Xiao song found it difficult to dodge and had no choice but to endure it.

Fortunately, the emperor's new equipment was not only a disguise, but also a powerful defensive nirvana weapon. The air needles stabbed into the emperor's new equipment and successfully brought it down.

Other than feeling the pain on his skin, it did not cause any damage.

However, the reincarnation King's eyes were sharp, and he immediately noticed that a part of the air needle was rebounded.

There must be someone at the rebounding place!

“Reincarnation palm!”The reincarnation king raised his finger, and an ancient ancestral art remnant flew up into the air and attacked Su Yu.

At the same time, Zhan Wushuang held the emperor’s killing sword and swept it over.

The former was a quasi-ten thousand sage level attack, while the latter was even more powerful!

The attacks of the two experts forced Su Yu to reveal himself.

However, he only revealed himself.

He wisely pushed Miss Xiao song to the side while he pulled down his emperor’s new clothes and said, “Since you’ve discovered it, I’ll have a good fight with you!”

Sou —

Su Yu revealed himself. His body was covered in a thick layer of blue heart steel. For someone who was only at the peak of the ancient Sage realm, the attacks of the two could destroy him even if it was just the aftershock.

Su Yu was no exception!

The blue heartwood was only used to guard against the aftershocks. The real trump card was at the back!

Shua —

A seven-colored fan suddenly appeared in Su Yu's hand.

“This fan?” Miss Song, who was quietly watching the battle from the side, was suddenly taken aback. “Eh... isn't this fan missing?”

She immediately understood what was going on. She was so furious that flames were spurting out of her nostrils. “Damn you, Buttface! So, you were the one who stole it. No wonder you couldn't find it!”

Miss Xiao Song gritted her teeth. Back then, when she asked if it was Su Yu, Su Yu pretended to be a coward. What happened in the end?

He was the one who took it!

Thinking of this, Miss Xiao Song wished she could join the battle and besiege Su Yu.

This guy was too good at pretending!

With the seven-colored feather fan in his hand, Su Yu activated it with his power. With a fierce fan, a tornado with mysterious power suddenly arrived.

The omnipresent sword qi and the powerful reincarnation palm were all shattered into dust in an instant.

The power of this fan was beyond imagination.

“This is just the beginning!” Zhan Wushuang held the sword with both hands and spat out a stream of blood from the Emperor Sword.

The Emperor Sword, which was full of evil energy, shot out tentacles from the inside and covered Zhan Wushuang’s entire body.

At first glance, Zhan Wushuang’s figure was nowhere to be seen. It was clearly a sticky monster covered in meat!

The emperor killing sword was like something that grew out of a meat ball. It was extremely evil.

“Man and sword as one!” Zhan Wushuang turned into a world-destroying stunner and stabbed toward Su Yu.

Su Yu waved his wrist, and the seven-colored feather fan was activated again. A tornado suddenly appeared.

However, this time, Zhan wushuang, who was one with the sword, was not swept away. Instead, his momentum did not decrease as he headed straight for Su Yu.

At this moment, Su Yu flipped his hand and took out a bottle of pitch-black liquid.

This was the nine yin heavy water, which was the heaviest water in the world. One drop of it could crush the world.

Su Yu took it out and threw it in the air. Dozens of drops of nine yin heavy water poured down like raindrops.

Zhan wushuang could not avoid it. Under the pressure of one of the drops, he was immediately pushed back repeatedly. The fierce sword momentum was completely gone!

He was extremely angry. “If you have the ability, don’t use any strange magic treasures!”

It seemed that since they had known each other, Su Yu had never lacked any kind of powerful magic treasures. He had everything he needed and could always surprise the enemy and cause great damage.

It was still the same now.

Unknowingly, two more unknown magic treasures appeared in Su Yu's hands.

Su Yu sneered, "You speak as if you are relying on your own abilities! Without the emperor's killing sword, what difference are you compared to trash? Look at me again. Without the nine dragons divine cauldron, I can still push you to the ground and make you unable to raise your head!"

In the past, the nine dragons divine cauldron belonged to Su Yu. In front of him, Zhan Wushuang was not worth mentioning.

Today, the nine dragons divine cauldron belonged to Zhan Wushuang. In front of Su Yu, he was still nothing.

...

“Just as I said, What Heavenly Emperor?” Su Yu’s eyes were full of contempt. “No matter how great the emperor is, he is still the heavenly fate. He is the slave of the heavens, the loyal dog of the heavens. What great achievements can you achieve?”

“And we all have our hearts set on martial artists. The heavens are the peak that we want to conquer. Sooner or later, we will be trampled under their feet!”

His speech was actually similar to what the spirit of the Dao Palace said.

Zhan wushuang regarded the “Heavenly Emperor” as a glory, but in the eyes of those who cared, it was a joke.

Zhan wushuang held the emperor’s killing sword tightly, his eyes full of killing intent, “Su Yu! ! !”

Boom —

A small cauldron was brought out and rotated in his palm. It was the nine dragons divine cauldron.

It was something Su Yu was extremely familiar with!

“Nine dragons divine cauldron?” Su Yu’s eyes revealed a complicated look. However, he was resolute, “Those who abandoned me can not be left alive yesterday!”

With a wave of his hand, the nine yin heavy water that filled the sky poured down once again!

Even if he could not kill di Guiyi, it would still make him feel bad. It would be difficult for him to activate the nine dragons divine cauldron.

...

At the same time, Su Yu did not hesitate and forcefully slapped his back!

An unprecedentedly strong tornado suddenly appeared and swept behind him!

Ten thousand feet behind him, the figure of the reincarnation king was forced to appear. His palms revolved the ripples of reincarnation, exuding the aura of extermination.

Su Yu did not turn his head and said coldly, “Do you think I don’t know that Zhan Wushuang is talking to me to attract my attention and give you a chance to sneak attack?”

The tornado forced Samsara King to retreat. The latter roared furiously, “I will kill you today at all costs! !”

“Samsara petrification! !”Samsara King roared into the sky.

The faint sound of thunder penetrated through the isolation of the sinkhole tomb and reached his eyes.

Samsara king was emitting a thick black aura. His valiant face gradually distorted and his body rapidly grew taller.

His body, which was originally the size of a normal human, had grown twice as tall out of thin air.

The skin on his body was also rapidly turning gray and dark.

Even his eyes were beginning to dim!

Chapter 3174 - 3174 Chapter 3,062, all the tricks were used

3174 Chapter 3,062, all the tricks were used

Su Yu was not unfamiliar with this scene. He was petrified!

After petrifying, the aura of the reincarnated human king rose crazily. He actually skipped the quasi-ten thousand saints realm and jumped towards the ten thousand saints realm.

Su Yu's eyelids twitched as disappointment appeared in his eyes. "I didn't expect that as a human, you would still bow down to the emperor in the end."

He had once obtained the Ten Thousand Saints body, which was an existence that relied on the emperor to finally break through to the ten thousand saints level.

However, the reincarnation king, as a human, should be like Ren Zu and fight against the Emperor to the end.

However, the result was extremely disappointing.

As a human king, he was willing to fall. Ren Zu's glory had been completely thrown away by them!

“Originally, I had been hesitating whether I should choose to be petrified and become a member of the Emperor.” The Reincarnation King’s distorted and petrified face was filled with deep resentment.

“They had looked for me long ago and planted a ten thousand saints seed in my body. As long as I wanted to, I could petrify and become a saint.”

“I know the disadvantages, so I have been trying to become a saint with my ancestral technique. But, you, Su Yu! You destroyed my ancestral technique one after another. There is no hope for me to become a Saint!”

“Don’t blame me for letting Ren zu down. It is you, Su Yu, who caused me to become a Saint!”

“Ah! ! ! All Saints, break for me! ! !”

A terrifying force was emitted from the reincarnation king’s abdomen. It was as if a seed full of vitality had finally begun to sprout.

Seeing this scene, Zhan Wushuang’s eyes revealed a trace of joy. Su Yu still wanted to survive below the All Saints?

Hehe, in his dreams!

However, he was a little worried about who the reincarnation King's next target would be after Su Yu's death.

Without a doubt, it would be him, Zhan Wushuang, right?

If he was the reincarnation king, he would definitely turn around and deal with Zhan Wushuang after he dealt with Su Yu.

For No other reason, the emperor's killing sword and the Divine Throne of Heaven and earth in Zhan Wushuang's hands were things that he had to fight for.

Hence, his eyes flashed. Zhan wushuang quietly came near the teleportation formation and chose to hide.

As long as he was sure that Su Yu was dead, he would use the teleportation formation to leave!

The reincarnation king took a glance and noticed Zhan Wushuang's small actions. He frowned but did not make a move.

His main target was Su Yu. He would deal with Zhan Wushuang later.

“Su Yu! Do you regret it?”The Reincarnation King’s killing intent was shocking.

Su Yu took back the seven-colored feather fan and the nine yin heavy water expressionlessly and said, “Regret what? Regret that a loser found a reason to be a Lackey?”

“When you accepted the petrifying seed of Tian Zi, you already became a dog. It’s just a matter of time.”

“The path of the ten thousand saints is filled with difficulties. If you didn’t meet me today, you would have encountered other difficulties. It’s only a matter of time before you open the seed. There’s no need to shout at me and say that you’ve let Ren zu down.”

“As long as you have backbone, that seed will not be in your body.”

As if he had exposed the reincarnation King’s lie, the reincarnation king narrowed his eyes and his killing intent became even more shocking, “Since you respect ren zu so much, then, I will send you to meet Ren zu later!”

Su Yu said indifferently, “Why later? Do you think that I will give you a chance later?”

HMM?

The reincarnation king narrowed his eyes and laughed mockingly, “What, what can you do to me?”

He was in the middle of a breakthrough and it was indeed inconvenient for him to make a move, but it was definitely not something that anyone could easily shake.

“What can I do to You?” Su Yu’s expression became unfathomable, “You should regret making a breakthrough in front of me.”

Silently, a blue figure appeared beside Su Yu.

His skin was smooth, but it was all dark blue. His eyes were empty and lifeless, which meant that he was a dead object.

With a thought, Su Yu divided half of his soul into the puppet.

In the past, he only managed to control the puppet with a little bit of his soul, but today, he had more than half of his soul, which was enough to fully control the blue heart iron puppet.

At the same time, the puppet clenched its hand, and a huge sword with a scabbard appeared in its palm.

That was the heaven-severing sword!

Su Yu activating the heaven-severing sword and the Blue Heart Iron puppet activating the heaven-severing sword were two completely different things.

Clang Clang Clang —

The Absolute Heaven sword was slowly pulled out. Under Su Yu's instructions, the vengeful souls on it quickly relaxed their suppression and erupted with the boundless fierceness of the Absolute Heaven Sword!

Streams of killing intent seemed to engulf the entire sixth level like an explosion.

Zhan wushuang, who was hiding in the distance, suddenly felt his palm tremble. Surprisingly, the emperor's killing sword in his hand started to tremble non-stop.

The killing sword was surging with a strong battle intent, as if it had encountered a great enemy in its life.

Zhan wushuang was shocked, "Is that sword on the same level as the killing sword?"

Instantly, Zhan Wushuang felt extremely uncomfortable, and his eyes were filled with jealousy!

He was the heavenly emperor, so he had a peerless sword.

Why did Su Yu have it?

Was he the Heavenly Emperor? How could he have the Absolute Heaven Sword, which was not inferior to the Emperor's killing sword?

This was not fair! !

Looking at the reincarnation king, he actually recognized this sword. His eyes flashed as he said in shock, "This is the son of Heaven Sword, which was refined by the famous sword Saint Clan for the Sons of Heaven – the Absolute Heaven Sword!"

"Rumor has it that the absolute heaven sword was snatched away by someone named Su Yu. Could that person be you?"

...

He had never expected that the Su Yu in front of him was Su Yu, who was far away in the realm of mirror flower son of heaven.

After all, there were so many humans, so it was not strange for Su Yu to have the same name.

“It’s a pleasant surprise, isn’t it?” Su Yu smiled faintly. “Then, welcome the pleasant surprise I’ve given you happily!”

Boom

The Absolute Heaven Sword slashed down with a loud bang.

The puppet activated and unleashed part of the true power of the Absolute Heaven Sword!

A materialized 30,000-meter-long sword shadow pierced through the Sun, Moon, and stars. It shook the six regions of the sinkhole imperial tomb and slashed down with earth-splitting power!

“No!” Madness erupted in the eyes of the Samsara King.

He could already feel the terrifying earth-splitting power contained in the Absolute Heaven Sword. One strike was enough to completely destroy it.

At this critical moment, the reincarnation king used his ultimate technique.

“Nine forms of reincarnation!”

...

“Body of reincarnation!”

“Eternal Reincarnation!”

..

He used everything he had learned in his life as his strongest defense.

Unfortunately, his strongest defense, the ancestral reincarnation technique, was completely destroyed by the Starlight Formation.

The remaining ultimate techniques couldn't give him any protection.

What was even more unfortunate was that if he could not beat him normally, he could still dodge. A quasi-ten thousand saints expert was not so easily hit.

However, he was petrified and was in the middle of it.

At this moment, he did not have the slightest chance to dodge.

He watched helplessly as the heavenly sword's boundless sword momentum crashed down.

However, a clear sound rang out. The sword's aftershock arrived first and shattered the surface of the petrified reincarnation king's body, revealing his bloody flesh!

He had already lost his human skin, and was barely a human on the inside.

"No!" The Reincarnation King roared in despair!

Chapter 3175 - 3175 Chapter 3,063, who asked you to leave

3175 Chapter 3,063, who asked you to leave

Just as the Absolute Heaven sword was about to destroy him, a dark gray fog suddenly shot out from his abdomen.

Zhan Wushuang was most familiar with this fog. It was blessed by the Emperor and had an extremely powerful defensive power.

Even the starlight from the Starlight Formation could successfully block it.

Zhan wushuang, whose heart was hanging in the air, suddenly calmed down and said slowly, "The situation is set!"

It turned out that when the son of heaven bestowed the seed, he had been worried that the petrification would be destroyed Midway. One had to know that once the other party broke through, he would be the ten thousand saints expert of the son of Heaven's lineage.

No matter what, the son of Heaven would not easily let him die from an attack. Hence, he had left a backup plan in the seed to guard against this day.

From the looks of it, the Emperor's choice was the wisest.

The Reincarnation King was also stunned. Then, he could not help but laugh maniacally, "Hahaha! hahahahaha! The emperor actually left a backup plan for me!"

He never thought that the seed would have such an advantage!

Then, he looked at Su Yu and laughed sinisterly, "Su Yu, what can you do to me? Just wait obediently, wait for me to become a myriad sage and then tear you into pieces bit by bit!"

With a loud roar, the reincarnation king accelerated his petrification, and the petrified skin that had been torn apart by the Heavenly Sword of extinction was stitched back together again.

And at this moment, the Heavenly Sword of Extinction's sword force finally arrived.

Rumble —

It was clearly slashing at the air current, but it was as if it was slashing at the heavens and the Earth, giving out a loud rumble.

The Heavenly Sword of extinction did not cut through the air current. Instead, it shook violently and left his hand. The palm of the blue heart puppet was directly distorted by the violent vibration of the sword hilt.

Fortunately, with the Blue Heart Iron, the palm quickly recovered.

Su Yu put away the absolute heaven sword, his eyes revealing a trace of solemnity.

“Su Yu, aren’t you very capable? Come on! If you have the ability, kill me at the Breakthrough Stage!”The reincarnation king sneered, “This is your last chance.”

Su Yu slowly held the sword back into its sheath and said slowly, “Since you’re in such a hurry to die, then I’ll fulfill your wish.”

He clenched his hands above his head and the ice crystal crown floating above his head slowly rotated!

The Blue Heart Iron puppet took the crown from Su Yu’s head with both hands.

This crown was the third of the emperor’s four-piece set and represented power!

It was forged from the source of ten thousand ice and represented the coldest ice in the world!

Looking at the Ice Crystal Crown, the reincarnation king didn't feel any danger. It was just a crown with a slight chill, how powerful could it be?

It wasn't until Zhan Wushuang said with fire in his eyes, "That is the ice crystal crown forged from the origin of ten thousand ice. All Saints will die if they touch it!"

This was the ice from the creation of the world, all the cold air in the world was derived from it.

The terrifying cold air contained in it was self-evident.

What?

Origin of ten thousand ice?

The Reincarnation King's eyes became round, revealing a look of shock, "You... how do you have that thing?"

Zhan wushuang's face darkened, "It's mine, he took it away!"

The reincarnated human king stared at the ice crystal crown, his heart thumping wildly. He could feel a deep chill from afar, and the gray fog around him could not give him any sense of security.

"Su Yu! How about we stop here? I can swear to the heavens that I will never find trouble with you again. I can even give you the position of the reincarnated human king."

On one side was the great danger of life and death, and on the other side was the hope of becoming a saint.

What choice did he have?

"I never believe in oaths," Su Yu said indifferently.

"What about the position of the Samsara Stage Human King? I am about to be petrified, and I can no longer be the human king. The position of the Samsara stage human king will be vacant."

Su Yu said indifferently, "Can't I fight for the position of the Human King Myself? Why Do I need you to give it to me?"

With that, he controlled the blue heart puppet to fly down with the ice crystal crown in hand.

The ice crystal crown emitted a strong chill that froze the blue heart puppet into an ice sculpture. The Chill was still invading its soul.

Su Yu had no choice but to be cautious. He withdrew most of his soul power in time, leaving only a small portion behind. He continued to control the blue heart puppet to fly down.

“No! Don’t come over!” Samsara king shouted.

But the blue heart iron puppet was like a meteorite, falling straight down!

Samsara King was frightened, but he wasn’t at the moment of despair because there was still gray fog around him. This was his final protection.

However, the moment the ice crystal crown touched the gray fog, the gray fog froze into ice!

Then, it was crushed into ice by the powerful body of the Blue Heart Iron Puppet!

“No! ! !”The reincarnation king screamed in fear.

Even the gray fog couldn't save him! !

At the last moment, the reincarnation King's eyes showed his determination. He gritted his teeth and when the ice crystal crown was about to touch his body, his soul instantly left his body and fled!

Kacha —

In an instant, the reincarnation king's body turned into an ice sculpture. The momentum of his breakthrough came to an abrupt halt, and even the seeds that were sprouting in his body were frozen.

His body was permanently frozen at the moment of his breakthrough, and he could no longer move.

Only the reincarnation King's soul managed to escape and ascend to heaven.

However, with only his soul left, even if he condensed a new body of flesh and blood, his cultivation would be reduced by one level. He would only be at the peak of the Great Sage realm, and he would never be able to return to the ranks of the quasi-ten thousand saints for the rest of his life.

...

“Su Yu! ! We are irreconcilable enemies! ! !”The reincarnator king let out a vicious roar.

Su Yu dug his ears and said, “My ears are full of calluses.”

He had heard the same words too many times. Without exception, they were all nonsense!

They were already at this stage, so why would they still be irreconcilable enemies? They were clearly irreconcilable enemies, alright?

“Just you wait. When I return to the outside world, I will mobilize all the power of the rebirth state and destroy everything you have in the mirror flower emperor’s territory!”

“Your lover, family, friends, and forces will all be eradicated! ! !”The Reincarnation King roared into the sky and let out an intense roar.

After saying that, he entered the teleportation formation and activated it.

Sou!

With a flash of white light, a wave of spatial energy rushed towards him, instantly enveloping him and teleporting him.

However, just as the teleportation was about to begin, the reincarnation king suddenly screamed and ran out of the teleportation formation. His face was filled with shock and anger as he turned his head to take a look.

On the teleportation formation, a huge scale had appeared out of nowhere. It was emitting traces of black flames and traces of destructive aura were spreading out from it.

...

Upon seeing it, the reincarnation king's expression changed, "This is... the scale of the Ten Thousand Saints Beast?"

He looked around and realized that the ten thousand saints beast could not have come here. The only possibility was that Su Yu had done something to it!

"It's You Again!"The Reincarnation King said in surprise.

This scale was not sent over just now. It had been sent over before the teleporter had activated it.

Chapter 3176 - 3176 Chapter 3,064, the sudden death of the giant beast

3176 Chapter 3,064, the sudden death of the giant beast

Otherwise, after the teleportation formation was activated, any external space power would have difficulty entering the formation.

If that was the case, wouldn't Su Yu have already secretly placed the scales in place to prevent it from escaping?

But, how could this be possible?

His defeat was only in an instant. How would Su Yu have time to predict that he, the reincarnation king, would be the one to escape instead of himself?

Zhan Wushuang's eyes were solemn as he muttered, "After so many years, he's still so difficult to deal with!"

Only he knew that Su Yu must have planned this in advance!

This person's ability to plan was too strong!

Looking at the reincarnator king who was only left with his soul body and was still being burned by the black flames on his scales, he sighed slightly, "The tide has turned!"

It was unrealistic to expect the reincarnation king to kill Su Yu.

He looked at the Ice Crystal Crown reluctantly and gritted his teeth. He glared at Su Yu and walked into the teleportation formation. Before he left, he said coldly, "Su Yu, we will meet again!"

However, just as he jumped in, a powerful force suddenly rushed out from the teleportation formation and sent Zhan Wushuang flying!

Wow!

Zhan Wushuang was suddenly attacked and hit hard. He opened his mouth and spat out a large mouthful of blood. It turned into a long parabola and fell on the ground.

He clutched his abdomen and stared at the teleportation array with disbelief.

He saw a small ancient cauldron that looked similar to the nine dragons divine cauldron in the teleportation array.

The small cauldron spun slowly and almost smashed Zhan wushuang into pieces.

“It’s You?”Zhan wushuang said in surprise!

Su Yu glanced at him and said coldly, “I let you go?”

It turned out that Su Yu had also predicted this scene.

Therefore, he had set up two magic treasures in the teleportation formation at the same time. One was the scale of the Ten Thousand Saints Beast, and the other was the newly obtained abandoned universal cauldron.

Zhan wushuang’s internal organs were all shattered, and his abdomen was in extreme pain. Even the emperor’s killing sword, which had become one with him, was sent flying by the collision just now!

He gritted his teeth and was enveloped by the shadow of death.

He was somewhat regretful. He regretted that he had been too careless and underestimated Su Yu.

Su Yu, or that Su Yu, no matter how strong you were, he would always be able to come up with endless methods to make you suffer a great loss.

If he had known this would happen, he would not have just watched from the sidelines. He would have just left.

Now, Zhan Wushuang was heavily injured and had lost the ability to fight.

The only soul of the Samsara Man King was still being burned by the black flames from the scales of the Ten Thousand Saints Beast.

Su Yu had personally witnessed this fire. The bald young man at the advanced stage of the Great Sage realm was burned to ashes in a single move.

Looking at the reincarnation king again, although his soul was powerful, could he still resist the black flames?

His soul was burning rapidly. It was useless even if the reincarnation king tried to extinguish it with a scream. Not only was the black flames difficult to extinguish, a few extinguished flames were reignited.

“No! Don’t! I don’t want to Die!”The reincarnation king screamed in fear.

Su Yu’s eyes were filled with coldness. As the saying went, ‘take advantage of your illness to take your life’. Su Yu naturally didn’t mind giving reincarnation king a fatal blow while he was in his current state.

He sent the scales of the Ten Thousand Saints Beast flying into the air and smashed them into reincarnation King’s scales.

This blow was enough to turn reincarnation king into ashes.

However!

At this moment, the sky suddenly darkened and a huge shadow that covered the sky fell, enveloping Su Yu, Zhan wushuang, and reincarnation king.

Su Yu's heart was beating wildly. He had a premonition of great danger. He did not have time to execute the reincarnation king. With a wave of his hand, all the magic treasures rolled back.

He himself retreated rapidly. In a few moments, he was out of the Shadow's range, and all the magic treasures in his body followed him back.

Zhan Wushuang's reaction was also very agile. He rolled and crawled out of the Shadow's range.

Only the reincarnation king, who only had his soul left, was entangled by the black flames and could not move effectively. In the end, he was forcefully suppressed by the giant Black Shadow.

In an instant, the reincarnation king turned into dregs! !

Su Yu's pupils constricted as he stared at the giant black shadow in front of him at a close distance. When he saw it, his expression instantly became extremely ugly.

The giant Black Shadow's body was extremely huge. Its entire body was covered in pitch-black scales. Its head was like a ferocious dog, and its body was like a crocodile.

This wasn't something else, it was the Ten Thousand Saints Beast!

A terrifying and fierce aura poured out like a flood, suffocating people, as if they had fallen into an endless deep sea.

Under the terrifying aura, the emperor's new clothes on Miss Song were directly torn apart, revealing her existence.

Miss Song's entire body was stiff, and she stood there motionlessly, her eyes filled with fear.

"Ten... Ten Thousand Saint Beast!" When she shouted these words, Miss Song collapsed to the ground like a deflated balloon.

Luckily, Su Yu reacted quickly and hugged her. He said in a serious voice, "Calm down! The Ten Thousand Saint Beast is already dead!"

Ah?

Miss Song had observed it carefully just now. Although this ten thousand Saint Beast had a ferocious aura and its body was still emitting an unparalleled aura, it did not move after landing.

This did not seem like what the ten thousand Saint Beast should look like.

“Dead?” Miss Xiao Song was stunned for a long time before she heaved a sigh of relief. She patted her chest and said, “So it’s dead. You scared me to death!”

Su Yu did not relax at all. Instead, he became even more serious. He was extremely serious as he said, “Don’t you think that the Dead Ten Thousand Saint Beast is the one we should be worried about?”

...

Miss Xiao Song was stunned for a moment and said, “Are you confused? This ten thousand saints beast is so terrifying. It would be better if it died. If it were alive, we would all be finished.”

Su Yu’s expression was indescribably solemn and fearful. His tone was even more solemn than Miss Xiao Song had ever felt before. “Have you ever thought about what kind of existence could kill the Ten Thousand Saints Beast?”

HMM?

The huge rock that Miss Song had just put down suddenly pressed down with ten times the weight, causing Miss Song’s heart to thump.

A cold feeling rushed from her feet to her head, causing her entire body to be cold.

The Ten Thousand Saints Beast was undoubtedly terrifying. If placed outside, it was absolutely an invincible existence that could sweep through a nine star civilization.

Her song family had sent out all of them, and they didn't dare to guarantee that they would be able to stop the Ten Thousand Saints Beast's rampage.

However, it was dead!

Judging from the state it was in when it was chasing them, the Ten Thousand Saints Beast was at its peak. It definitely would not have died because of its own body.

There must be someone so powerful that it was suffocating to kill it!

"Let's Go!" Su Yu did not hesitate at all. He did not even care about the hall of preaching before him. He pulled Little Song into the teleportation formation in a flash and activated it instantly.

...

Zhan wushuang also realized that a great danger was approaching and quickly jumped into the teleportation formation.

The two of them looked at each other. Surprisingly, they did not attack each other.

Their Hearts were extremely heavy. They wished that the teleportation formation would immediately teleport them out. They did not want to stay for even one-tenth of a breath's time.

Ka Ka —

The teleportation formation began to operate rapidly. The teleportation light quickly enveloped the two of them.

The portal began! !

Chapter 3177 - 3177 Chapter 30065, the ninth domain

3177 Chapter 30065, the ninth domain

Sou —

Su Yu already felt weightless. This was the start of the teleportation. In the next breath, they would be able to reach the outside world.

However!

At this moment, a familiar but gloomy sneer seemed to explode in his ears. “Old friend, I’ve traveled a thousand miles to see you. Why are you in such a hurry to Leave?”

The teleportation array suddenly trembled, and the teleportation light surrounding them quickly shattered.

Su Yu’s blood rushed to his head, and his hair stood on end. Sensing that something was wrong, he pulled Su Yu and teleported away.

Zhan wushuang rolled on the ground and fled in the vast expanse.

Just as the three of them left the teleportation array, a ferocious nine-colored claw stepped on the teleportation array and crushed it.

The teleportation formation was destroyed!

Looking up from the giant claw, they saw a nine-colored dragon hovering in the air!

The dragon was covered in nine-colored mottled spots, and it gave off an ancient aura of the eight great ancestral techniques!

A deep mockery pervaded the imposing and fierce dragon's head.

That pair of dim yellow eyes filled with brutality stared at Su Yu with a faint smile.

It was the ninth domain!

It had stolen the ancestor techniques of the eight great domains carved on the sinkhole divine tablet. Together with its body, it had gathered all nine great ancestor techniques in one body, attempting to break through its shackles and reach the legendary absolute beginning realm.

Right now, it was devouring experts everywhere to strengthen itself.

As for Su Yu, as the Master of the eight great domains and the inheritor of the soul ancestor technique, he was the first target of the ninth domain.

“So it’s You!” Su Yu’s heart was indescribably heavy. The rest of his eyes glanced at the ten thousand Saint Beast’s body, and he was shocked beyond words.

The last time they met, the ninth domain was attacked by the Heaven Dao Palace, and a mere saint almost died.

It was only because Su Yu made a move that he let it go.

Unexpectedly, not long after, the ninth domain was already strong enough to kill the Ten Thousand Saint Beast!

This ten thousand Saint Beast’s cultivation was very likely at the intermediate stage of the Ten Thousand Saint Realm!

However, it still died tragically at the hands of the ninth domain.

However, Su Yu was still keenly aware that the ninth domain seemed to be a little weak. There were many hidden wounds on its back and abdomen.

Presumably, the process of destroying the ten thousand Saint Beast was not an easy one.

But even so, it was enough to kill Su Yu a thousand times!

Su Yu thought quickly. He did not think that the ninth domain would be merciful enough to let him go just because he had saved it once.

It was very likely that it would choose to devour him in one go.

What should he do?

Su Yu was in danger, almost to the point of desperation!

The only teleportation array was broken, and behind him was the tightly shut door of the Hall of preaching. There was no way to retreat, no way to advance.

Although the starlight array was behind him and he would be safe if he hid there, would the ninth domain give him the chance to escape to the Starlight Array?

The answer was obvious!

No!

“Old friend, do you have any last words in front of the sinkhole tomb?”The ninth domain asked with a faint smile.

His huge dragon eyes stared at Su Yu, filled with greed and desire.

As long as it devoured Su Yu and more experts, reaching the absolute beginning realm would not be a problem.

And devouring Su Yu was the most important thing. Without the eight great domains he had comprehended, it would be difficult for him to break through to the absolute beginning realm.

Su Yu was calm and composed. “You are unexpected. You are much stronger than before.”

The ninth domain chuckled. “You flatter me! Actually, you are not bad either. To be able to force a quasi-ten thousand saint to this extent, you are truly impressive.”

As the ninth domain, it knew very well where its explosive strength came from. It relied entirely on devouring experts to condense its strength.

This kind of explosive strength naturally came quickly.

But Su Yu was different. He was a real person. Through his own cultivation and the ingenious use of many magical treasures, he was able to heavily injure his enemy.

Between the two, it could be imagined which was more difficult.

“You flatter me too much,” Su Yu said.

The Man and the dragon looked at each other, as if they were destined enemies that had been separated by a lifetime.

Between them, it was either you devour me or I devour you. Sooner or later, this day would come.

After a long silence, the smile on the ninth domain’s face disappeared. Slowly, it said, “Since the last words have been spoken, then let’s end this between us.”

Su Yu did not hesitate and left.

The ninth domain coldly raised its dragon claw and slashed across the air. A spatial ancestral technique appeared.

The direction Su Yu was escaping to was cut off!

Yes!

The entire space was completely cut off from the front, cutting off the path ahead!

Su Yu was on the right. The ninth domain waved its dragon claw again, cutting off the space on the right.

...

The ninth domain said coldly, “There’s no need to struggle. I’ve already mastered all eight ancestral techniques. You Don’t have the ability to escape from my spatial ancestral technique. Even if you can escape, you still have the time ancestral technique behind you. Do you think you can escape?”

Indeed!

There was still the time ancestral technique. Even if Su Yu was lucky enough to use a method to escape, a time ancestral technique would be able to reverse time and return to before Su Yu used his method.

It could be said that Su Yu's path had been completely cut off.

He was unwilling to give up and used the Absolute Heaven Sword, the Blue Heart Iron Puppet, and even the ice crystal crown.

However, other than the latter, the ninth domain was slightly afraid and used the space ancestor technique to freeze the Ice Crystal Crown's cold air in a certain space. The ninth domain didn't even bother to dodge the other moves and allowed the attacks to land on his body, it could not cause any damage.

After a few rounds, the ninth domain said in a dignified and cold voice, "For the sake of an old friend, I've already given you enough time."

His pair of dragon eyes stared at Su Yu. "It's time for us to Say Goodbye!"

His dragon mouth slowly opened, and a suction force became stronger and stronger. Su Yu's body was slowly moving toward his huge mouth uncontrollably.

Was there really no other way this time?

However, Su Yu's expression was still calm. He did not lose his composure at all. As his body was moving uncontrollably, he said, "Are you not ready yet?"

...

HMM?

The ninth domain's eyes narrowed as it looked around. "Who are you talking to?"

It had a bad feeling.

At this moment, a leisurely voice sounded. "Welcome to the sinkhole Emperor Lord's preaching assessment."

Creak —

A door appeared out of thin air on the sealed wall of the preaching hall.

A gentle light was released from within the door and enveloped Su Yu.

Under the effect of the light, Su Yu's body, which had been sucked away, fell down like a feather.

The ninth domain's expression changed slightly. It hurriedly increased its devouring power, but Su Yu was not affected at all. He glanced at the ninth domain lightly and turned around to head towards the main door of the preaching hall.

"Where do you think you're Going? Stay Here!"The ninth domain raised its dragon claw and slapped Su Yu's head.

However, the faint light on its body was even stronger than Tian Zi's gray air current. It forcefully pushed the ninth domain's dragon claw away!

"Don't Leave!"The ninth domain panicked and quickly used its dragon claw to block the door of the Hall of Dao!

Su Yu put his hands behind his back and headed toward the door. When he approached the Dragon Claw, an invisible and majestic power slowly raised the Dragon Claw, allowing Su Yu to pass through calmly.

"How can we stop the sinkhole lord from imparting his Dao?"The spirit of the Dao Palace shouted softly, and the huge force sent the ninth domain flying.

The ninth domain stared at the Dao Palace in front of it in shock, traces of fear flowing in its eyes.

What made it afraid was not the power that sent it flying, but the spirit of the Dao Palace.

Chapter 3178 - 3178 Chapter 3,066 was forced inside

3178 Chapter 3,066 was forced inside

“Who are you?”The ninth domain narrowed his eyes. “You can actually control the power in the sinkhole Emperor Tomb!”

“I am the spirit of the Dao Palace. This is my final warning. No one is allowed to obstruct others from receiving the preaching,”the spirit of the Dao Palace said indifferently.

The ninth domain snorted coldly. “Good! You can protect him for a while, but you can’t protect him for a lifetime. Let’s see how long he can stay in there!”

Then, he stared at Su Yu coldly. “Very good, you’ve plotted against me again!”

“You’ve actually been secretly communicating with the spirit of the Hall of Dao, haven’t you? But on the surface, you’re acting like a cornered beast. You’re just stalling for time so that the spirit of the Hall of Dao can open the Hall of Dao, right?”

Su Yu didn't even turn his head and said, "It's good that you know."

The ninth domain laughed angrily. "Good, good! As expected of my target. The longer you live, the more enjoyable it will be to eat!"

Su Yu said indifferently, "Then, just wait for that day!"

With that, he stepped into the Hall of preaching.

The ninth domain was furious. Its dragon eyes swept around and found Zhan Wushuang and miss song. It opened its dragon mouth, ready to vent its anger on the two of them.

Zhan Wushuang was quick-witted and had nowhere to retreat. He gritted his teeth and roared, "I want to participate in the preaching of the sinkhole overlord!"

Participating in the preaching of the Dao meant that he had to destroy all of his martial arts, including the fate of his Emperor's killing sword.

Zhan Wushuang was a hundred, a thousand unwilling.

But now, in the face of death, it was not his place to object.

No matter how unwilling he was, he had to be willing!

A ball of faint light descended on Zhan Wushuang's head and enveloped him.

The ninth domain immediately swept its gaze at Miss Song. The latter's legs went weak and she shouted in a trembling voice, "I, I also want to preach the Dao."

A faint beam of light descended, covering Miss Song with the faint light.

She walked towards the Hall of preaching with a sullen face, her face filled with reluctance. "I don't want to cripple my cultivation. SOB, SOB, sob!"

Unwillingly, the three entered the hall of preaching.

The ninth domain stared with its eyes wide open as it circled the hall of preaching. Air spewed out from its nostrils from time to time.

The mirror race expert on its body, who had been captured by him, did not even dare to breathe loudly. All he could do was silently watch the door of the Hall of preaching close as he said silently, "I'm sorry, brother Su. I had no choice."

Without his extraordinary teleportation ability, the ninth domain would not have been able to pass through the restrictions of the sinkhole Emperor Tomb and enter this place directly.

The door of the Hall of preaching closed with a loud bang.

Su Yu looked relaxed, but in reality, his tensed heart was finally relaxed.

Then, he turned around and pulled Miss Song aside. He stared at Zhan Wushuang with murderous intent and said coldly, "Are you ready to die?"

Zhan Wushuang's mouth was full of bitterness. There was a fierce ninth domain outside, and Su Yu, the Demon God, was inside!

He silently raised the emperor's killing sword and shouted angrily, "Su Yu!"

He took the initiative and activated the Emperor's killing sword. A fierce sword Qi rushed over.

However, Su Yu stood still on the spot, and a mischievous smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

Zhan wushuang suddenly realized that something was wrong and abruptly withdrew the emperor's killing sword. However, the sword Qi he released had already been slashed out.

When it was about to reach Su Yu, a ball of invisible power completely destroyed Zhan Wushuang's sword qi.

Whoosh –

All of a sudden, the surrounding fog gathered and condensed into a white-bearded old man in front of them.

The old man was dressed in a tattered ancient robe. There were many shocking wounds on his body, as if he had suffered a huge injury.

His expression was dignified as he stared at Zhan Wushuang. "If you attack the other preachers without permission, the preaching assessment will be reduced by ten points!"

Zhan wushuang frowned slightly. "What is the preaching assessment?"

The old man said, "The level of the preaching assessment will affect the level of your next preaching."

Eh?

The old man continued, “The person with the highest score will have a better chance to receive the preaching from the sinkhole lord. As for the person with a lower score, he can only receive the preaching at a lower level.”

His words were very clear.

There was only one person who had the chance to receive the preaching from the sinkhole lord. Moreover, it was only a chance. In the end, he might not receive the preaching from the sinkhole lord.

The remaining people could only receive the preaching from the others.

The importance of the evaluation score could be imagined.

“The evaluation score, what is the total score?” Zhan Wushuang’s heart suddenly rose. Ten points could not only have a big impact.

However, he was not too worried.

Generally speaking, the evaluation score was calculated in the hundreds. The less one hundred points, the more hundreds, or even tens of thousands of points.

A mere ten points might not affect the overall situation.

“Thirty points,” the old man said briefly.

What?

The total score was only thirty points, and he was deducted ten points?

How could he play this game?

“He provoked me first and made me attack. He should be punished as well!” Zhan wushuang said.

The old man was expressionless. “Did he attack?”

...

“No, but...”

“No buts. I only care about the result, not the process.”

Zhan wushuang clenched his fists and glared at Su Yu with gritted teeth. “You harmed me!
!”

Su Yu shrugged. “I forced you to make a move? You wanted to strike first, so why blame me?”

Zhan Wushuang was furious!

He had given up on his martial path. If he could receive the teachings of the sinkhole overlord, it might not be a loss.

However, after being schemed against by Su Yu, he could only receive teachings that were far inferior to the sinkhole overlord. Compared to the four pieces of Emperor Luck set that he had lost, it was a huge loss!

“I won’t accept the preaching,”Zhan Wushuang said.

The old man's shadow was naturally the spirit of the local Dao Palace. He said with a dignified expression, "Before the evaluation officially starts, you still have the chance to go back on your words. Once it starts, it's not up to you!"

"This is the last confirmation. Whether you continue to preach or not, if you refuse, please leave the Dao Palace now."

Zhan Wushuang's face was filled with anger.

...

What a joke. The ninth domain was outside. If he went out, he would definitely be eaten alive.

"I'll continue!" Zhan Wushuang lowered his head in a cowardly manner.

The spirit of the Hall of preaching said indifferently, "What about the two of you?"

Su Yu replied without hesitation, "Continue!"

Miss Xiao Song said with a bitter face, "I'll continue as well."

She pinched Su Yu's waist viciously and said, "I'm dead because of you!"

Su Yu said, "Not necessarily!"

What surprised him was that he thought that only the sinkhole monarch's Dao could be taught, but from the spirit of the Dao Hall's meaning, there seemed to be other dao that could be taught.

In that case, even if miss song could not receive the sinkhole monarch's Dao, she still had other choices.

Su Yu believed that the dao that could be placed in the sinkhole monarch's tomb would definitely not be ordinary.

"Since you are all willing to continue preaching the Dao, let me introduce the rules." The spirit of the dao palace said, "There are a total of nine halls in front of you!"

"Each hall represents the inheritance of a dao."

Su Yu used his soul eye to scan the surroundings without batting an eyelid, and the outline of the entire palace appeared in his field of vision.

This was a group of palaces shaped like stars surrounding the moon.

The palace in the middle was the most brilliant, and it was the most well-preserved. The remaining eight palaces each occupied a position and displayed the power of stars surrounding the moon, surrounding the palace in the middle.

Without a doubt, the palace in the middle was the Dao left behind by the sinkhole Emperor Lord.

The rest were the other Dao.

“Later, according to your evaluation results, the nine palaces will each absorb you and carry out the preaching,” the spirit of the Dao Palace said slowly.

Zhan Wushuang’s face sank into the water. “How do you evaluate?”

He had lost ten points before he even started the evaluation. The situation was very unfavorable for him!

Chapter 3179 - 3179 Chapter 3,067, self-severing cultivation

3179 Chapter 3,067, self-severing cultivation

“The assessment method is very simple.”The spirit of the temple slowly raised his palm. The ground in the middle of the square cracked open, and a pitch-black ancient coffin slowly rose from the ground.

The ancient coffin was made of an unknown material. It was completely sealed, and it emitted a pitch-black light.

Wisps of fragrance seeped out of the ancient coffin.

“Cut your cultivation and seal it inside the ancient coffin. The ancient coffin will give you a score.”The spirit of the dao palace said, “The highest score is 20 points, and the lowest score is zero.”

Zhan Wushuang’s heart sank. Sure enough, it was inevitable for him to cut his cultivation.

He stared at the ancient coffin and said in disbelief, “What is the ancient coffin? Why does it have the ability to give a score?”

The spirit of the dao palace said indifferently, “That is the boot that the sinkhole emperor tomb once wore. It contains a trace of spirituality from when he was alive. Once your cultivation is sealed inside, it will naturally give a corresponding score.”

Bang Bang —

Zhan wushuang’s heart pounded violently. The boot of the sinkhole Imperial Emperor?

He had heard from carefree emperor that the sinkhole imperial emperor was an existence that was even older than the sons of heaven. It was very likely to date back to the creation of the heavens and earth.

Even a single strand of hair left behind by such a mighty figure could destroy the Sun, moon, and stars.

Let alone a boot that had once been used?

The power contained in them was enough to sweep through a nine-star civilization!

However, he did not have the courage to think about the boots in front of the spirit of the Dao Palace.

The ninth domain, which was extremely powerful outside, had suffered at the hands of the spirit of the Dao Palace, let alone them?

“How do we seal in the cultivation base that we have cut off?” Zhan Wushuang asked again.

The term self-destruction of cultivation base was rather general.

Normally speaking, self-severing cultivation base should only include one's entire body's strength, such as the Heavenly Dao master realm that was painstakingly cultivated.

However, the requirement of the spirit of the Dao Palace clearly did not stop there. It wanted to cut off the so-called luck as well.

How to cut off this point, he had never heard of it before.

The spirit of the Dao Palace walked over and gently pressed his palm on the ancient coffin. A ball of black airflow flowed out from the ancient coffin and slowly condensed into a pitch-black ancient sword.

When the spirit of the Hall of Dao held the ancient sword, his body was like a myriad of stars in the sky, flickering with a dense scene.

Although it was fleeting, the all-encompassing scene left a deep impression on people.

“Hold this sword!”The spirit of the Hall of Dao threw it to Zhan wushuang.

Zhan wushuang caught it subconsciously. The moment he caught it, Zhan Wushuang felt as if he had been electrocuted. There was an infinite amount of energy circulating in his body, probing him thoroughly.

Around him was a mottled cluster of light.

Among them, the most eye-catching one was the emperor’s four-piece set, followed by cultivation, and then there were scattered domains, cultivation methods, insights, and so on!

Zhan wushuang looked over and felt frustrated.

He had even forgotten many of the things he had cultivated. For example, the cultivation methods he had cultivated when he was still a young master.

He had not expected that everything he had cultivated in the past would automatically appear in front of this strange black sword.

“Using the black sword in your hand to cut them off is equivalent to cutting off your own cultivation.”The spirit of the dao palace said, “If you have thought it through, then do it. Leave the rest to the ancient coffin to evaluate.”

Zhan wushuang gripped the black sword tightly and fell into deep hesitation.

Was it really worth giving up everything in the past and fighting for a result that might not come?

Of course not!

However, the brutal ninth domain outside left him with no other choice.

Clenching his teeth, Zhan Wushuang raised the black sword. Just as he was about to cut off the cultivation technique that he had practiced the first time, he suddenly caught a glimpse of Su Yu standing calmly at the side.

“Doesn’t he need to be evaluated?”Zhan wushuang asked unhappily.

The spirit of the Dao Palace looked at Su Yu and Miss Song. “The two of you, proceed together.”

With no other choice, the two walked to the ancient coffin. The spirit of the Dao Palace slapped out two black swords and handed them to the two of them.

After Miss Song held them, seven or eight balls of light immediately appeared around her.

Compared to Zhan Wushuang's twenty or thirty, the difference was far. It could be imagined that Miss Song's cultivation was relatively simple. Because she had the fingerprint of an expert from her family, she did not have to take many detours.

After comparing, Miss Song could not help but look at Su Yu. "Ergou, it's your turn."

She was very curious about how much cultivation Su Yu had. This guy was really a little mysterious.

While Su Yu was deep in thought, he slowly took the black sword from the spirit of the Dao Palace.

The moment he took it, Su Yu felt as if his entire body was seen through, even the core of his privacy was seen,

then, Su Yu's body shone brightly!

Hundreds of light blobs surrounded his body tightly!

The brilliance of the light bloomed, suppressing Zhan Wushuang and Miss Xiao Song's light blobs and making them dim.

Miss Xiao Song's eyes widened. "My God, how much have you learned?"

There were more than two hundred light blobs of different sizes. The larger ones had eight domains, soul ancestor technique, eye of Taotie, human sacred body, and primal chaos body. Among them, there were hundreds of domains belonging to various sacred clans, while the smaller ones had hundreds of cultivation techniques.

Even Zhan wushuang, who was familiar with Su Yu, was surprised.

The amount of knowledge Su Yu had learned in his life was far more than he had imagined.

Even the spirit of the Dao Palace couldn't help but be moved. He said, "Surprisingly powerful!"

Su Yu gazed at the many balls of light and sighed with emotion. Many of them were things that he had once been familiar with, but he had already forgotten about them.

...

If not for the ancient sword, Su Yu would not have been able to recall them.

Every single one of them had been obtained by Su Yu step by step, representing the hardships that Su Yu had gone through.

But now, he was going to cut them down in exchange for a brand new future.

The three of them were hesitating. The spirit of the Dao Palace shook his head and sighed, "A bunch of fools! How can the world's ten thousand techniques compare to the sinkhole monarch's Dao Techniques?"

"If you can obtain them, your achievements will be a hundred times greater than what you have achieved now. You might even become a super magnate Qi practitioner that is on par with the son of Heaven."

"At the very least, there are eight other ancient palaces. The dao skills in them are also many times stronger than what you have now."

"The emperor's four-piece set and the human saint body. What are these in front of those powerful dao skills?"

“If you are still hesitating, then, I can only see that you have broken the contract and send you out of the main hall.”

Hearing this, Zhan Wushuang’s heart tightened.

He held the black sword, gritted his teeth and said, “Go all out!”

He had already lost ten points. Only by taking the initiative would he have a chance to win.

...

Chi La —

His sword slashed at the smallest ball of light, and instantly, a sense of ease welled up in his heart.

It was as if something attached to his body had been removed.

The ball of light that had been cut off was also wrapped by the black light on the ancient sword and surged into the ancient coffin.

Miss Xiao Song's heart ached. She also cut off the smallest ball of light and poured it into the ancient coffin.

In the end, it was Su Yu's turn to cut off the smallest ball of light.

After the three of them entered the ancient coffin, a line of numbers appeared above their heads.

Zhan Wushuang's head was 0.03.

Xiao song's was 0.02, while Su Yu's was the least, only 0.01.

Chapter 3180 - 3180 Chapter 3,068 was a fake

3180 Chapter 3,068 was a fake

Zhan wushuang raised his eyebrows and revealed a surprised expression, “Why do I have the most?”

According to the size of the light ball, the biggest one was neither him nor Su Yu, but Miss Song. After all, the latter had received guidance from an expert, and any cultivation was quite profound. It was definitely not something that the two of them could compare with.

The spirit of the dao palace said expressionlessly, “Because you are the first to cut off your cultivation.”

“It is not only the depth and level of your cultivation that determines the level of the evaluation, but also the determination to cut off your cultivation. Those with high determination are naturally more decisive and faster, so the evaluation score will naturally be higher.”

Hearing this, Zhan Wushuang’s eyes shone brightly!

He had already been guessing this answer in his heart, but he did not expect it to be true.

Without thinking, Zhan wushuang consecutively severed seven to eight of his life’s lessons!

His speed was so fast that miss song and Su Yu could not keep up at all.

The number above Zhan Wushuang's head also rose rapidly. In just a short moment, it had risen to more than ten points!

One had to know that he had only severed half of his lessons, and there was still half that had not been severed. He had even obtained more than ten points.

According to the full score of twenty points, when Zhan Wushuang cut off all the things he had learned in his life, he would get a full score in the end.

On the other hand, Su Yu was one step slower than him, and the points would decrease step by step. In the end, it was very likely that he would not even get ten points.

In the end, Zhan Wushuang was completely able to make up for the ten points that he had lost, and he was ahead of Su Yu.

Thinking of this, Zhan Wushuang was extremely excited. He cut off three more balls of light in succession, and a happy smile appeared on his face.

However, as he smiled, he suddenly realized that something was wrong.

Su Yu did not continue to cut off the balls of light. He even pulled Miss Xiao Song, who was about to continue cutting off her own cultivation.

There was no anxiety or worry on Su Yu's face. On the contrary, he was extremely calm.

When he met Zhan Wushuang's gaze, he revealed a faint trace of mockery.

This gaze was like a nightmare to Zhan wushuang.

Usually, when Su Yu revealed this gaze, he would be at a disadvantage.

"What are you smiling about?" Zhan Wushuang stopped and asked with a frown.

Su Yu said, "I saw that you were smiling quite happily, so I smiled."

Zhan Wushuang's heart beat rapidly. He could confirm that Su Yu was definitely planning something.

He narrowed his eyes. "Why don't you continue to cut your own cultivation?"

Su Yu spread out his palms. "Seeing how happy you are, I'll let you have more fun."

Zhan Wushuang's eyes flickered. He glanced at the numbers that far exceeded Su Yu's. He suppressed his urge and slowly put down the black sword.

The spirit of the Dao Palace, who stood with his hands behind his back, frowned in dissatisfaction. "Why don't you continue?"

Zhan wushuang pointed at Su Yu. "Then ask him why didn't you continue?"

The spirit of the Dao Palace looked at Su Yu. "What do you mean?"

Su Yu looked over and stared at the spirit of the Dao Palace. He said with a faint smile, "I have to ask, what did you mean by pretending to be the spirit of the Dao Palace and deceiving us to kill ourselves?"

What?

Zhan Wushuang and Miss Xiao song were shocked. "He's a fake spirit of the Dao Palace?"

Miss song grabbed Su Yu's arm in shock. "Don't talk nonsense! How could he be a spirit of the Dao Palace?"

Su Yu asked back, “Why is he a spirit of the Dao Palace? Is there any evidence? From the beginning to the end, he was the one who said it!”

‘This!’!

Miss Song thought about it, but there was really no evidence. “But, he can control the power of the sinkhole tomb, so he can only be a spirit of the Dao Palace? Could it be something else?”

Su Yu’s eyes shone as he said indifferently, “Have you ever seen a spirit of the Dao Hall who can’t wait for the person receiving the Dao to cut off his own cultivation?”

Miss Song thought about it carefully, and it was true. This spirit of the Dao Hall seemed to be particularly concerned about their self-cutting cultivation.

A normal spirit of the Dao Hall could stay out of the matter as long as it acted according to the will left behind by its master.

Whether it was beheaded or not was your own business. As the spirit of the Dao Hall, there was no need to be anxious.

However, this spirit of the Dao Hall was a threat on one side and a bait on the other. It was even more attentive than them.

Was this really the position that the spirit of the Dao Hall should be in?

“That’s true, but isn’t it too arbitrary to make such a conclusion?” Miss Xiao Song said.

Su Yu shook his head. “Of course not! I’m not the only one who saw through his identity. The ninth domain also found out that something was wrong with him.”

Ah?

When Miss Xiao Song was facing the ninth domain, she was extremely flustered. Thus, she was unable to savor the conversation between the ninth domain and the spirit of the Dao Palace.

“At that time, after the ninth domain was repelled by the courtyard wall, she asked a question. What are you?” Su Yu narrowed his eyes. “Perhaps you don’t know what the ninth domain is.”

“It is an ancestral art on a stone tablet. In a sense, it is the same as the spirit of the Hall of Dao.”

“How could it not recognize what the spirit of the Hall of Dao Is? Why would it use an unfathomable tone to ask what it is?”

“At that time, I guessed that there was something wrong with the identity of the spirit of the Hall of Dao.”

“After that, his series of actions made me suspicious.”

Miss Xiao song was suddenly jolted awake. She had a big question about the identity of the spirit of the Dao Palace. He said, “What about conclusive evidence? Just because he was very concerned about our self-beheading cultivation? But, this doesn’t completely explain the problem, right?”

Su Yu shook his head. “It’s Not!”

Zhan Wushuang’s expression was uncertain as he looked at her. He was also very surprised. How was Su Yu sure that the other party was not the spirit of the Dao Palace.

...

Everything that had happened before was just a guess!

Su Yu held the ancient sword in his hand and said, “Perhaps, all of you have overlooked one thing. When this spirit of the Dao Palace held the ancient sword, countless bizarre light balls appeared around him. They were as vast as the galaxy.”

Su Yu was sharp and profound. “Don’t tell me all of you really think that those are illusions of the Galaxy?”

Zhan Wushuang and Miss Xiao Song’s minds were buzzing. They noticed that after the spirit of the temple held the ancient sword, countless mottled galaxies indeed flashed past his body.

However, none of them took it to heart.

When Su Yu suddenly mentioned it, it immediately made their hearts beat faster. Miss Xiao song said, “Don’t tell me you’re saying that those are all cultivation levels?”

Su Yu’s gaze was deep as he asked, “What else could it be?”

Miss Xiao song said in surprise, “But the spirit of the Dao Palace is only a spiritual item. How could it cultivate so many things...”

She did not continue because this had already confirmed Su Yu’s guess — that was definitely not the spirit of the Dao Palace!

Zhan Wushuang's pupils contracted as he stared at the spirit of the Dao Palace. At this moment, he did not say a word as he placed his hands behind his back and stared at Su Yu with a gloomy gaze.

This gaze had already explained everything!

...

He had been exposed by Su Yu!

He was really not the spirit of the Dao Palace!

Zhan wushuang looked at the cultivation base that he had cut off by more than half. Among them, there were several cultivation techniques that he had frequently used in his life. Among them, there were movement techniques that he had specially cultivated.

Now that he had lost them, along with the other cultivation bases that had been cut off, his overall strength would be reduced by at least 20% .
