

THE DIVINE NINE-DRAGON CAULDRON

Chapter 3211 - 3211 Chapter 3098, the song family's recruitment

3211 Chapter 3098, the song family's recruitment

Who would be willing to give her the inheritance of the sinkhole overlord?

In Xia Jingyu's mind, only one image flashed — Su Yu!

It was Su Yu!

In this world, only Su Yu would give her the inheritance of the sinkhole overlord.

!!

No wonder she felt that he had an inexplicable familiarity with her.

No wonder he was also proficient in the spatial domain!

No wonder he was also mysterious.

It turned out that he was Su Yu.

He was always by her side and never left.

“Why?” Xia Jingyu stared in the direction of where she came from. “Why don’t you want to see your real body?”

She regretted that she didn’t recognize him earlier.

She missed him thousands of times, but she only missed him once.

Speaking of which, Su Yu had already arrived at the song family.

The song family was one of the top super families in the six paths of heavenly son realm.

The presence of Song Jun, a Super Ten Thousand Saints expert, made the song family the overlord of this place. Only a few powerful forces of the other races could contend against them.

Their family was located in the center of the six paths of heavenly son realm, a magnificent and prosperous heaven city.

In this Heaven City, everyone was human, and ordinary non-humans were refused entry.

In an era where humanity was weak, the song family's Heaven City was the last harbor for many humans.

Here, they would never have to worry about being bullied by outsiders.

After passing through the vast heaven city, they arrived at the palace in the center. An ancient and powerful "Song" floated above the palace.

"Take young master Su to rest first." Song Jun was going to hold a family meeting.

After all, there was the collapse of the sinkhole's imperial tomb and the Big Incident of falling out with Yin family.

The rest were minor matters.

“Alright, Patriarch.” Song Jiayi was very happy to lead the way.

Song Jun said, “Come with me and explain the matter clearly. Let Song Fan lead the way.”

Song Fan, whose name was called, flew out of the palace not far away.

He looked very young, probably in his thirties. He said with a smile, “Young Master Su, thank you for saving my sister. Please give me a chance to thank you.”

It turned out that Song Jun had invited Su Yu as a guest, but it was not Song Jun himself who had invited him. Instead, it was a member of the same generation in the Song family.

Su Yu was not surprised by this.

What kind of status did Song Jun have? He was a mysterious existence. How could he personally welcome a junior?

“You’re too polite.” Su Yu said, “As companions, we should help each other in the sinkhole emperor tomb. It’s nothing.”

“Young master Su, there’s no need to be humble. We more or less understand the dangers of the sinkhole emperor tomb. My Sister’s safe return is all thanks to you, young master Su.” The young man spoke in a refined and gentle manner.

Su Yu could not help but take another look at this person. He felt that there was a hidden meaning behind his words.

At that time.

Song Jun was in front while Song Jiayi was behind.

“The photographic crystal will be released later for the entire clan to see.” Song Jun did not even turn his head.

Song Jiayi had a hesitant look on her face as she said, “Forefather, the photographic crystal has been damaged during the previous battle. We can only replay the scene of the draw mortal city plotting against us. The rest is gone.”

She was very careful and extremely nervous.

With forefather's experience and shrewdness, she did not know if she could hide it from him.

"It doesn't matter. We just need to see the images of draw mortal city. The rest is not important," song Jun said.

Song Jiayi heaved a deep sigh of relief.

There were too many images in the recording crystal that Su Yu could not reveal to the public.

If the entire clan saw it, song Jiayi could not guarantee that Su Yu would still be able to leave the song family alive. Therefore, song Jiayi had already erased the rest of the images on the way.

However, was it really that easy to hide it from an elder who was at the king level?

On the other side.

"Young master Su, this is the Heaven Dao fruit of the six paths of heavenly son realm. I can only produce ten in a thousand years." Song fan smiled and pushed a fruit in the shape of an infant in front of Su Yu.

Su Yu's eyebrows twitched slightly.

This fruit was slightly red in color. It had all the limbs, and its facial features were lifelike.

If not for the faint fragrance of the fruit on its body and the fact that there was no soul in it, Su Yu would have thought that it was a real baby.

“The Heaven Dao fruit contains the Supreme Great Dao. It has an extraordinary effect in improving all kinds of ancestral techniques.” Song fan continued to introduce it with a smile.

Su Yu did not doubt this point.

That was because he could indeed feel the extraordinary power contained in the Heaven Dao fruit. Not only that, it also had an extremely strong strengthening effect on one's cultivation.

If he swallowed it, Su Yu was confident that he could break through to the late-stage of the Great Sage realm.

However, he did not feel that the song family was using such a precious fruit as a gift to repay their kindness.

...

If they were to repay their kindness, the gift would be too valuable.

Ten fruits in a thousand years, something that even the core members of the song family could not obtain, why should he give it to an outsider like Su Yu as a reward?

“If you have anything to say, just say it.” Su Yu said expressionlessly.

Actually, when he had followed Song Jun Here, he already had a bad premonition in his heart.

Song fan smiled like the wind, “Young master Su is indeed a smart person. No wonder the ancestor wanted me to keep you.”

He said, “I hope that young master Su can stay in the song family and become a guest of the song family. If you are willing, this heavenly dao fruit will be a welcome gift.”

Su Yu said meaningfully, “You all think too highly of me. I am only a small cultivator in the middle stage of the Great Sage realm. In Your Song family, which is full of talented people, I am really nothing.”

Song fan smiled and said, “Young master Su, there’s no need to be modest. With the inheritance of an ancient mighty figure in your hands, I believe that your future is not limited to this.”

Su Yu narrowed his eyes. “Miss song was very clear. Apart from her, no one else has received the inheritance.”

Song fan smiled and said, “Young master Su, my younger sister has some ability. We know what kind of character she has and how much she can get into the sinkhole tomb. She was able to break into the last domain and enter the Hall of preaching. She must have been helped by an expert.”

“And you are that expert!”

...

“In the end, there is no reason for my sister to obtain the inheritance while you, an expert, have gained nothing.”

His analysis was logical and confident.

Su Yu was silent for a moment. He did not expect Miss Song's words to fool everyone. After all, the song family was able to become a transcendent existence, so the people in the family were not all muddleheaded.

"Young master Su, join us!" Song fan said sincerely. "The chaotic times are coming. Only a behemoth like our song family is the place where you itinerant cultivators live."

"Moreover, as long as you have the hope of breaking through to ten thousand saints, our song family will do our best to help you succeed."

"You should be clear about the Great Dao nowadays. The Heavenly Dao is sealed, and it is strictly prohibited to break through to ten thousand saints. Those who rashly try to break through to ten thousand saints will be reduced to ashes. In the end, 0.10% of them will submit to the Sacred Mountain and become ten thousand saints as Rockmen."

"There aren't many people in the world who can help you become ten thousand saints, and our song clan is one of them."

To be honest, it was a lie that Su Yu was not tempted.

The song clan was a human clan, and they had a Super Human King Like Song Jun. . Moreover, their recruitment conditions were good.

However, in the end, they could only be tempted.

Chapter 3212 - 3212 Chapter 3,098, tactfully rejected

3212 Chapter 3,098, tactfully rejected

Since the start of cultivation, how could Su Yu not know the principle that one's fate could not be handed over to others?

The song family was big, but could it be bigger than the sacred mountain, bigger than the emperor, bigger than the Heavenly Dao that Su Yu wanted to step on?

If one day, the sacred mountain wanted to crush Su Yu, and the Emperor wanted to destroy Su Yu, the Heavenly Dao wanted to destroy Su Yu.

If the song family was willing, could they protect Su Yu?

!!

Was the song family an important race, or a mere guest elder?

The answer was self-evident!

Whether it was for himself or to not cause trouble for the song family in the future, he could only reject this invitation.

“Your talent is limited. I’m afraid that you won’t be able to become a myriad sage in your lifetime. If you stay in the song family, you will only be wasting the resources that you are.” Su Yu rejected tactfully.

Song fan could hear the meaning in his words. He sighed, “Young Master Su, are you worried that our song family will go back on Our Words?”

Of course, Su Yu was worried about this.

How difficult it was to break through to ten thousand saints was something that could be seen from the blue heart iron puppet and the reincarnator king.

The former cut off his own body and became a golem. Only then did he break through to ten thousand saints.

The latter insisted on becoming a human body. However, after several eras, he cultivated the reincarnation ancestor technique to the extreme. In the end, he still failed to break through.

If the song family could easily create ten thousand saints, it would not be Su Yu's turn to be disobedient!

Such a huge family like the song family had accumulated more than one or two peak-stage great sage experts?

But they had yet to break through to ten thousand saints. Why should an outsider like Su Yu have such an opportunity?

To put it bluntly, song fan seemed sincere, but he was full of deception.

They only had one goal, which was to trick Su Yu into staying.

Su Yu said calmly, "Everyone has their own aspirations. I have my own path to walk, so I appreciate the kindness of the song family."

After that, Su Yu did not even look at the Heavenly Dao fruit and stood up calmly.

Song fan said regretfully, "Since that's the case, I won't force you. But since young master Su is here, it's not good for us to entertain you. It doesn't make sense no matter what."

He put away the Heaven Dao fruit without batting an eyelid and clapped his hands.

A row of beautiful women dressed in immortal robes walked in with light steps and began to dance.

The music of the bamboo and the melody of the zither came one after another.

At the same time, plates of exquisite spirit fruits, top-grade wine, and delicacies were brought forward.

"Young master Su, Please!" Song fan raised his glass and personally poured wine for Su Yu. He chatted casually with him, "Young master Su, with your abilities, who is your master?"

Since he failed to recruit Su Yu, he started to ask him about his background?

Su Yu smiled casually, "A nameless small force, not worth mentioning."

A small force?

Song fan shook his head in his heart, but the smile on his face remained. “I wonder which region you’re from? I don’t think I’ve heard of young master Su’s name in the six paths son of Heaven Region.”

“Carefree son of Heaven Region.” Su Yu randomly picked a place.

Song fan chuckled. “As far as I know, the human race in the carefree son of Heaven region has long been wiped out by the sacred mountain. I wonder where young master Su is from?”

Hearing this, Su Yu was secretly surprised.

He still didn’t know that the human race in the carefree son of Heaven region had been massacred?

Recalling the cold and chilling gaze of the carefree son of heaven, Su Yu felt a chill down his spine.

This Sinister Carefree Heaven’s son was the greatest threat among all the heaven’s sons.

It wasn’t that he was the strongest, but that he was the most unscrupulous.

Up till now, among all the heaven's sons, the Carefree Heaven's son was the only one who personally came to deal with Su Yu.

"The remaining small gate." Su Yu's eyes flashed. "My clan has some connections with the Soul Saint Clan."

Hearing this, most of the doubts in Song Fan's heart disappeared.

The Soul Saint clan was one of the eight strongest saint clans in the world. There must be more than one myriad saint expert in the clan.

The carefree emperor had always treated the eight great saint clans well. If the human clan that Su Yu belonged to had connections with the soul saint clan, they would indeed be able to survive.

However, Song Fan still had some doubts. "The Soul Saint clan is a very isolated race. They don't have many connections with the human clan."

What he meant was that Su Yu's words were not believable.

Su Yu's expression did not change. With a light flash in his eyes, a wisp of silver soul light turned into a sharp needle and pierced into Song Fan's soul.

The latter frowned slightly. His eyes flashed with deep surprise. He sized up Su Yu and asked in surprise, “Soul Domain?”

Su Yu said, “This is a secret technique that the soul saint clan gave to my clan.”

Song fan no longer had any doubts in his heart.

Since ancient times, only the members of the eight great saint clans were able to cultivate the soul domain. Currently, no one was able to cultivate it by themselves.

It completely made sense that Su Yu’s clan was bestowed by the Soul Saint Clan.

“I didn’t expect young master Su’s clan to have such a good background. No wonder you have such abilities.” Song fan no longer had any other doubts in his heart.

“Come, come, Cheers!” He had a smile on his face, but his eyes were flickering with a dark light.

Toasts were exchanged.

After a feast, song fan took out a small pocket that was filled with various resources.

...

“Young master Su, I can’t thank you enough for saving my sister’s life. Please accept this small gift.”

Su Yu’s gaze swept over, and his eyebrows couldn’t help but twitch slightly. Inside were all medicinal pills unique to the six paths of heavenly son realm.

Cultivation, healing, calming, and so on.

There were also tens of thousands of Dao artifacts, and each of them was a treasure.

The wealth of these resources was more than ten times more than the current accumulation of the cauldron!

And to the song family, these were not even a hair’s breadth.

The song family’s wealth and grandeur were beyond compare.

After being modest for a while, Su Yu accepted them.

“Young master Su, why don’t you rest in the song family for a few days so that we can do our part as hosts?” Song fan said, “You are too kind to the song family.”

Su Yu smiled and waved her hand. “The family is still waiting for me to return. I really don’t dare to stay for long. Young master song, I appreciate your kindness.”

Song fan urged him to stay again and again. Su Yu had made up her mind to leave, so he sent her off without taking anything.

...

Just as she was about to leave the song family, the family meeting finally ended. Song Jiayi was finally able to escape and contact Su Yu.

When she found out that he was leaving, song Jiayi immediately ran over.

“Brother Su Yu, you’re leaving already?” Song Jiayi stopped Su Yu, her heart filled with displeasure. “How can you leave just like that? You’ve only just arrived!”

As she spoke, she glared at Song Fan. "Brother, why are you so rude? Brother Su Yu saved me, and you're treating him like this?"

Song Fan smiled bitterly. "Young master Su insisted on leaving. Are you going to tie him up?"

Song Jiayi pouted. "It's because you didn't treat him well that brother Su Yu insisted on leaving!"

While the siblings were arguing, Su Yu said, "Miss Song, I've been out for a long time. If I don't go back now, the family will be in a hurry to find me."

Miss Xiao Song refused to let it go. "Then you can send a message to them. You stay in my Song family and tell them not to worry."

Su Yu did not know whether to laugh or cry. He cupped his fists and said, "If something really happens, it won't be too late to contact you again in the future."

Miss Xiao Song opened her big eyes aggrievedly and said reluctantly, "Then when will you be back?"

"I'm free."

When she said this, Su Yu slightly avoided her eyes and didn't dare to look directly at her.

Chapter 3213 - 3213 Chapter 3,099, Fatal Trouble

3213 Chapter 3,099, Fatal Trouble

Why?

Because Su Yu knew that they would not see each other much in the future.

"Alright!" Miss Xiao Song moved aside and said, "But you must remember your words and come back to me."

"Of course." Su Yu smiled and left the song family.

!!

Just as she was about to leave, Miss Xiao song suddenly remembered something and quickly ran out. “Wait! I have something for You!”

She grabbed Su Yu’s hand and stuffed a ball of nine-colored light into his hand.

“Treasure it well.”

Su Yu opened his palm and looked. His pupils could not help but shrink.

This nine-colored light was not something else. It was the nine great domains of the ninth domain.

During the battle, Miss Song used the inheritance of patriarch myriad flower to forcefully take a portion of the power from the ninth domain.

This was the portion of the domain’s power that she had taken back then.

This portion of power was relatively weak. If it was given to someone else, it would be of no use.

However, giving it to Su Yu, the controller of the eight great domains, was something more precious than any treasure!

“Thank you!” Su Yu’s eyes lit up.

Seeing that Su Yu liked it, Miss Song finally revealed a happy smile on her face. “Be careful on your way. If you encounter any danger, we will report our song family’s name. Do you understand?”

Su Yu smiled and gratefully cupped his fists again before teleporting into the distant sky.

Just as he was about to disappear into the horizon, Su Yu turned around and glanced at Song Jiayi.

If he could, why wouldn’t he want to stay in the song family for a few days?

However, he knew that if he continued to stay, he probably wouldn’t have the chance to leave.

In fact, he couldn’t leave anymore.

The song family’s human gathering place had several long-distance teleportation arrays. As long as he used one of them, he would be able to cross an entire six paths realm and head to another realm.

Swoosh —

In a few breaths, Su Yu arrived at a teleportation array in the east.

However, the teleportation array that was usually busy and never closed was now tightly closed.

There was a notice on it: “The teleportation array is temporarily closed. It is not open to the public.”

Outside the hall, there were many people waiting for the teleportation.

“What the hell is going on? Why is it suddenly closed?”

“It shouldn’t be. There are people checking the teleportation array every day. Theoretically speaking, there shouldn’t be any big problems.”

“Is there a special situation?”

Many people were keenly aware of the unusual signal.

Su Yu's expression changed slightly, and he immediately flashed to the teleportation array in the south.

As expected, the teleportation hall's door was still closed.

"As expected." Su Yu held his forehead and sighed. "Curiosity killed the cat. It's true that I can't bully an old friend."

He felt a little regretful and did some unnecessary actions, which led to great trouble.

Su Yu did not go to the teleportation formations in the west and the north.

If nothing unexpected happened, the two teleportation formations were also sealed. There was no need to waste any more time.

"Fire Lion." Su Yu sighed and summoned the fire lion.

This time, the fire lion did not gnaw on the bones. Instead, it looked dejected. "Little Master, can you tell me who you offended this time?"

“The song family.”

“OH.”The fire lion replied with an “OH.”Then, it spread its four limbs and ran away. As it ran, it shouted, “F * ck! I’ll sever my master-servant relationship with you. If I follow you, I’ll play to death sooner or later!”

The enemies that he offended were each more terrifying than the last!

The Ten Thousand Saints Beast was terrifying, right? Don’t be anxious. The ninth domain was even more terrifying than it. Su Yu could not afford to offend it.

After finally settling down, he had offended the song family, which was even more terrifying than the ninth domain! ! !

The fire lion felt that if he continued to sever ties, he would sooner or later be tricked to death by this brat.

Su Yu said, “They know you. Do you think that if they can’t run away from me, they can run away from you?”

“Why don’t you follow me? Maybe I have a way to escape?”

The Fire Lion's eyes darted around as it slowly stopped in its tracks. After a long while, it sighed and said, "Ahhhh! What did I do to deserve a master like you?"

It obediently ran back and allowed Su Yu to jump onto it.

Su Yu was right. The song family already knew that it was Su Yu's spiritual pet. There was no way they would let it go.

On the other hand, Su Yu's brain was more agile. Perhaps he could escape?

"Little Master, how should we run now? Tell me." The fire lion seemed to accept its fate.

Su Yu's eyes flashed. "Let's head west."

The fire lion's gaze turned. "Is there any life in the west? Or have you discovered something?"

It shook its head. "No."

...

“Then why are you running West?”

“I was facing the west and couldn’t be bothered to turn around.”

Ah?

The fire lion was already in the mood to die. It was over. Even Su Yu couldn’t do anything about it.

It rose into the air helplessly and headed towards the city outside the song family’s city.

As it walked, the fire lion asked unwillingly, “Little Master, what did you do to deserve the wrath of the heavens and the resentment of the people? Did the song family, who asked you to show mercy, want to grind your bones and Scatter Your Ashes?”

Su Yu sighed, “I saw something I shouldn’t have, so I must die.”

The fire lion said in horror, “Could it be that you saw song Renwang’s shorts?”

“It’s more serious than that.”

“Ah?”The Fire Lion’s eyes popped out, “What did you see?”

Su Yu’s gaze gradually turned gloomy, “I saw renwang... his lifespan is approaching!”

...

Creak —

The fire lion’s running footsteps came to an abrupt halt, almost throwing Su Yu off his body.

The fire lion’s face was filled with shock, and he said in shock, “Don’t talk nonsense! That is the six paths king of man, the strongest king of man in the nine-star civilization!”

“His lifespan is boundless, and he has the same lifespan as heaven and earth. How can he pass away in meditation?”

Su Yu looked into the distance, and the dark clouds in his eyes became deeper and deeper. He said, "His life has already reached its end, and there is not much life force left. He is just like a candle in the wind."

"At most three to five years. His life will definitely come to an end."

The fire lion sucked in a cold breath. "This... If such a human king dies, wouldn't it be comparable to the collapse of the Sky?"

As the strongest human king in the world, if the six paths human king died, would it mean that humanity would continue to decline?

The human race was already extremely weak. Ever since Ren zu died, they had not recovered their vitality for an entire era.

It was not easy for a six paths man king to appear, and he was barely able to carry the banner of humanity's revival. Who knew that he was going to die?

Furthermore, humanity was not on the table.

Just the song family's current status would probably be greatly shaken, right?

The six paths son of Heaven realm experts surrounded the song family, and the death of the six paths man king brought about the immediate decline of the song family, and even the destruction of the opposing family clans.

With the destruction of the song family, it was inevitable that the various families of the six paths emperor realm would fight for the vacant position of the song family.

The entire six paths emperor realm would fall into chaos!

A series of chain reactions could be predicted.

Su Yu said, "So you're saying that the song family will allow an insider to leave alive?"

"No." The fire lion shook its head. "If it was me, I would have destroyed you too!"

Su Yu had never thought that the life ancestor technique that he had obtained with great difficulty would bring him a fatal trouble before it could establish its might.

Chapter 3214 - 3214 Chapter 3,100 was the real deal

3214 Chapter 3,100 was the real deal

He had just escaped from the sinkhole tomb and was now being targeted by the most powerful family of the six paths emperor realm.

His luck was really bad.

“Little Master, why don’t you use the boots on Your Feet?” Fire Lion asked. “If the power of these boots burst out, even song kings would be scared away, right?”

Su Yu sighed. “If this pair of boots still had such power, why would I need to run?”

!!

“When I fought against the ninth domain, the remaining power in the Boots had already been completely released. I couldn’t use it anymore,” Su Yu said helplessly.

That pair of cloth shoes contained a thread of power from the sinkhole Emperor Tomb. It had been sealed in the coffin for countless eras, and its power was already on the verge of dissipating.

Su Yu had gone all out. The sinkhole, which had risked its life to survive, had only been able to activate that thread of power. How had it been able to severely injure the ninth domain.

Now, the power in the cloth shoes was empty, and they had become a pair of ordinary cloth shoes.

“We’re finished!”The fire lion covered its face in pain and said dejectedly, “Does this mean that we’re going to fight the song family head-on?”

Just one king of six Daoists was enough to make them suffer, let alone the entire song family?

There were countless heaven-destroying spiritual artifacts among them.

If the song clan was determined to destroy Su Yu, escaping would be useless.

“Let’s take it one step at a time,”Su Yu said. “They didn’t make a move at the song clan, which shows that their killing intent isn’t decisive enough. Perhaps they are a little hesitant, so we should take advantage of the small chance that we have to escape now.”

“If they continue to hesitate, they will be ruthless and have no chance of survival.”

As he spoke, Su Yu pressed his palms together, and shadows immediately appeared on his and the fire lion's bodies.

The Shadows left their original bodies like smoke, and then landed on the ground to become Su Yu and the fire lion.

Whether it was their appearance, Aura, or soul, they were all exactly the same as their original bodies, and it was impossible to tell if they were real or fake.

"I hope I can stall for some time." After Su Yu's soul was reassembled in the ultimate, it had already broken through to the Ten Thousand Saints level! !

The power of the soul secret technique that he used was no longer the same as before.

Several true bodies and fire lions that were extremely similar to him were the products of the soul ancestor technique's explosive power – soul imitation!

The imitated soul was highly similar to the original body.

The only flaw was that Su Yu was currently unable to imitate the secret technique that was highly similar to the original body.

Therefore, the imitated soul was ultimately just a soul body.

It could hide from most experts below the ten thousand saints realm, but it could not hide from existences at the Ten Thousand Saints realm.

If there were ten thousand saints realm experts chasing after them personally, they would be able to tell that the other few were all soul bodies.

Therefore, the prerequisite of being able to delay time was that the six paths man King did not personally make a move.

With some apprehension, Su Yu gave the order, and several souls headed in other directions. Su Yu jumped onto the fire lion and ran madly towards the west.

His choice of the west was not without reason.

The Yin family was in the east. At the moment, the song family should be there to accept the Yin family's paradise.

The south was the more distant carefree emperor realm.

The north was the sinkhole emperor tomb where they came from.

Only the west was the mirror flower emperor realm where they were.

The song family would most likely intercept them in the south because Su Yu lied about coming from the south.

The West should be the safest direction.

“Little Master is done. Let’s try again.”The fire lion gritted his teeth. He knew that if they delayed any longer, their chances of survival would be slimmer.

He immediately set off and ran towards the west.

Not long after, they left the song family’s city and rushed into the vast sky.

Somewhere.

A few days later.

Su Yu’s fingers trembled silently as he looked back to the south with a solemn gaze.

In the south, there was a lush lake.

An expert surrounded by a dense aura was silently watching Su Yu and the fire lion, who had been reduced to soul fragments, his eyes revealed traces of seriousness as he took out a communication device. “The south intercepted Su Yu and his pet. They are confirmed to be soul clones.”

At the same time.

In the north, near the sinkhole tomb, a woman surrounded by raging flames flicked her finger. A ball of flames burned the soul fragments in front of her into ashes.

“The target heading north is confirmed to be a soul avatar.”

In the south.

In the east, a group of experts dressed in black robes with cold expressions and the song family badge surrounded two piles of shattered souls.

“The target that the east is chasing is confirmed to be a clone.”

Song family.

Song fan paced back and forth in the room. As he listened to the information that came one after another, a faint smile appeared on his face. “No wonder you were able to bring Jiayi out of such a dangerous area. You do have some ability.”

“However, the people that the ancestor wants to kill probably won’t be able to escape.”

The corner of his mouth curled up slightly.

The West!

The six paths heavenly son realm was indeed flourishing. Even the desolate area near the west was filled with huge cities of various races.

...

Su Yu had been on the road for a few days and had encountered several cities with large-scale living beings.

Some of them were even places where humans gathered. Although they were far from being able to compete with the song family in terms of scale, they were much stronger than the mirror flower heavenly son realm.

Su Yu did not choose to stay in these cities. He flew past them.

If he hid there, he would not be able to receive any protection. Instead, they would become the force that would help the song family capture Su Yu.

“Little master, if we go any further, it seems that we will be in the territory of another race, the Divine Bull Race.”The fire lion pointed at a map and ran as he studied it.

Su Yu’s eyes flashed, “The Divine Bull Race’s territory?”

He had heard of this race before. It was a race that was innately powerful. Its clansmen were born with the cultivation of an ancient sage, and they could easily cultivate to the great sage level.

The clansmen who broke through to the ten thousand sage level far surpassed the other races.

At the most ridiculous time, there were seven ten thousand sage experts at the same time!
!!

The only flaw was that the lifespan of the Divine Ox clan was naturally very low. The longest lifespan was no more than ten thousand years.

Therefore, although they were powerful, they were limited by their lifespan and could never become an existence that could dominate the world.

...

However, the Divine Ox clan was one of the few existences in the six paths of heavenly son realm that could stand shoulder to shoulder with the song clan.

Currently, the Divine Ox clan had five ten thousand saint experts at the side to fight against the song clan's song Renwang.

If they were to infiltrate the Divine Ox clan's gathering place, the song clan would not dare to act recklessly.

Firstly, they had offended the divine ox clan's wariness. The different races had always stayed out of each other's way. The song clan had done this very well.

Secondly, it was easy to arouse the divine ox clan's suspicions. Why would the song clan's experts spend so much effort to exterminate a small clan member?

If the news were to leak out, the song clan would lose more than they gained.

“There is indeed some hope, but the prerequisite is that we can survive this trial.” As Su Yu’s voice fell, he suddenly pulled out his heaven-defying sword and slashed across the sky.

Kacha —

As the sword Qi passed by, the sky was like the surface of a lake blown by a violent wind, rippling.

Under the Sharp Sword Qi, the ripples broke apart, revealing a shattered dao artifact.

It turned out that there was an invisible dao artifact above their heads.

Under the concealment of the Dao artifact, an indifferent middle-aged man surrounded by ice flames appeared.

(tonight is the first watch.)

Chapter 3215 - 3215 Chapter 3,001, the brush of the human emperor

3215 Chapter 3,001, the brush of the human emperor

“You have some ability. You can actually discover my existence.”The man surrounded by ice flames was slightly surprised.

A streak of Sword Qi was frozen in the ice flames in front of him. It was the remnant sword Qi from the heaven-defying sword.

The power of the ice was so strong that it could freeze sword qi.

Su Yu looked left and right. When he confirmed that there was only the man surrounded by ice flames, he couldn't help but heave a sigh of relief.

!!

Fortunately, it was only one quasi-ten thousand saint from the song family and not Song Jun. .

“How about this?” Su Yu said, “If we continue fighting, it won’t be good for either of us.”

The man surrounded by ice flames smiled faintly, “Kid, although you have received some inheritances, you have not yet digested them. In front of the ten elders of the Song family, you are still a little lacking.”

The ones who were chasing Su Yu from the first three directions were also elders of the Song family.

“My name is Song Yuanbing. Remember My Name. If anyone reincarnates to seek revenge on me, do not implicate the rest of my family.” Song Yuanbing’s killing intent was not obvious.

He was only following orders. There was actually no deep hatred between him and Su Yu.

Clang —

Song Yuanbing flicked his finger and instantly, ten thousand miles of ice was sealed!

The Heaven and earth were frozen into a huge ice sculpture.

This ice did not completely freeze Su Yu and prevent him from moving. However, it could affect Su Yu's movements and reduce his sensitivity.

"Ice Burial!" He pressed his hands together and an ancestral spell rose into the sky!

Within the ten thousand miles of ice, a huge ice coffin with a cold glint fell from the sky!

It crushed the sky and crushed the ten thousand miles of ice seal into a huge hole, directly suppressing Su Yu.

Su Yu's body moved, and he could feel the huge cold air coming from all directions obstructing his movements.

The ten thousand miles of ice seal was rapidly shrinking with Su Yu as the center, squeezing him in the middle, reducing the range of his movements, making it easier for the ice coffin to suppress him.

Within the ice coffin, Su Yu could feel the aura of some ice origin. If he was suppressed within, even if Su Yu had three heads and six arms, it would be difficult for him to escape.

He was calm. He raised his hand and grabbed, and a seven-colored fan appeared in his palm.

With a fierce flash, an extremely strong storm swept out and blew away all the ice that was pressing on him.

Even the ice coffin that was pressing down from the sky shook in an instant.

“Seven-colored feather fan!” Song Yuanbing recognized it immediately, and his expression could not help but change. “Why is Jiayi’s fan with you?”

Su Yu kept his fan and took the opportunity to take out the blue heart iron puppet and throw it into the sky. “Go!”

At the same time, he separated a wisp of his soul to control the blue heart iron puppet.

The current Su Yu’s soul had already reached the ten thousand saints realm, and he could control the blue heart iron puppet with ease. He was no longer as slow as before.

He still held the absolute heaven sword tightly in his hand.

The Blue Heart Iron puppet flew up into the sky, and the Absolute Heaven sword was pulled out!

Clang —

A peerless light flashed, and in an instant, the ice coffin that was pressing down from the sky was cut in half.

The remaining sword Qi went straight for Song Yuanbing. The latter was shocked, and immediately condensed ten thousand miles of ice to block in front of him.

Kacha Kacha –

The mystic ice shattered along the way, and finally stopped when the sword Qi was about to reach Song Yuanbing.

Song Yuanbing was covered in cold sweat. He stared at the Blue Heart Iron puppet in front of him and said in surprise, “Ten Thousand Saint Puppet? What a profound puppet refining secret technique.”

“No wonder you can bring Jiayi in and out of sinkhole Emperor Lord Freely.” Song Yuanbing took a deep breath and took out a crystal exquisite pagoda.

“It seems that the patriarch asked me to carry a clan-guarding treasure with me. It’s not superfluous.”

The Exquisite Pagoda gave off an ancient and distant aura, just like the useless cauldrons of the common people. Although it was not at the level of the human emperor brush, it was still a rare treasure in the world.

“Exquisite Pagoda, suppress!”The Crystal Exquisite Pagoda landed with a loud bang.

The frozen heaven-defying sword Qi was shattered into ice shards by the exquisite pagoda.

The Blue Heart Iron puppet waved its sword again. The violent sword Qi disappeared without a trace. However, when it was attacked by the exquisite pagoda, it disappeared without a trace!

Su Yu’s pupils constricted. He was shocked to find that the blue heart iron on the Blue Heart Iron puppet was faintly leaving its body and heading towards the exquisite pagoda.

He suddenly understood that the exquisite pagoda’s power wasn’t just suppressing, it was devouring.

Whether it was power or the materials of various heavenly and earthly treasures, they could all be disintegrated and devoured into a part of the exquisite pagoda.

This was a Peerless Dao artifact that could grow.

If it was really suppressed by the exquisite pagoda, not to mention Su Yu, even the Blue Heart Iron puppet would crumble and become an ordinary ten thousand saints corpse.

Seeing this, Su Yu stretched out his hand, and an extremely broken brush appeared in his hand.

This was the emperor brush of the ninth domain!

“This aura...”song yuanbing was immediately surprised. “Why is it so similar to my Sui ren Leather Armor?”

Su Yu was too lazy to say anything and started writing in the air.

However, although the ninth domain looked very easy, Su Yu found it extremely difficult to write.

It was extremely difficult to even move, as if he was holding the entire civilization with one hand.

The power in his body was transferred to his palm, and he drew with difficulty one stroke after another.

Song Yuanbing, who sensed the intense danger, did not dare to hesitate. He immediately controlled the exquisite pagoda to quickly suppress it.

...

In an instant, the exquisite pagoda arrived above Su Yu's head.

And Su Yu's drawing was not complete!

The Blue Heart Iron puppet immediately used its body to block in front of the exquisite pagoda. The Blue Heart Iron in its body actually flew out of its body one by one and was sucked away by the exquisite pagoda.

As time passed, the Blue Heart Iron was absorbed more and more. Su Yu felt an incomparable pain in his heart.

These blue heart iron might be the last blue heart iron of a nine-star civilization. If they were all lost, the Blue Heart Iron puppet would be useless.

One Breath, two breaths, three breaths!

Even though the exquisite pagoda was being held back by the Blue Heart Iron Puppet, it was still being held back.

At the tenth breath, Su Yu could even feel that the absolute heaven sword was showing signs of leaving the sword.

If the Absolute Heaven sword was lost, there would really be nothing left of the usable dao weapons in his hands.

Clang —

At the thirteenth breath, the absolute heaven sword left its sheath and flew towards the exquisite pagoda.

...

It was also at this moment that Su Yu used his last bit of strength to finish writing.

“Seize!”

This move was once used by the ninth domain, and it forcefully took away the human emperor armor.

Now, it was only taking away an ancient magic treasure that was far inferior to the human emperor armor, so the chances of success were very high.

As expected!

As soon as the 'seize' word appeared, an unseen force surged out, cutting off the connection between song Yuanbing and the Exquisite Pagoda. Even the song family's mark on the exquisite pagoda was easily erased.

The Exquisite Pagoda instantly became an ownerless object.

Without the activation of its owner, the exquisite pagoda naturally could not operate. The devouring power immediately dissipated.

Ding —

At the critical moment, the heaven-severing sword slashed at the bottom of the exquisite pagoda. A crisp sound rang out as it was reflected back.

It was close!

Su Yu hurriedly grabbed the heaven-severing sword and also caught the exquisite pagoda that had fallen.

“What is that?” Song Yuan’s ice eyes flashed with shock. (one more, one more post)

Chapter 3216 - 3216 Chapter 3002, world-destroying purge

3216 Chapter 3002, world-destroying purge

Su Yu did not have the time to pay attention to him. He looked at the Blue Heart Iron puppet that had lost more than half of its body, and his heart was bleeding.

He raised his head coldly. “Then go ask this exquisite pagoda!”

He opened his mouth and spat out a stream of blood onto the exquisite pagoda, simply refining it.

Su Yu immediately activated it!

!!

Whoosh! The Exquisite Pagoda spun and flew towards Song Yuanbing.

The latter's expression changed drastically. His body suddenly turned into a ball of ice water and condensed into a palm-sized bird of ice that flew far away.

However, the exquisite pagoda still enveloped him and flew far away with him.

No matter how Song Yuanbing escaped or shrunk, the exquisite pagoda did not move at all.

Finally, the exquisite pagoda suppressed Song Yuanbing. All the treasures in Song Yuanbing's body were instantly devoured. Even the clothes on his body were disintegrated by the exquisite pagoda and sucked into it.

Song Yuanbing's naked body was filled with anger.

What was even more infuriating was that the exquisite pagoda suddenly descended and suppressed him on the ground.

This pagoda was the Legacy Treasure of the Song family. Over the countless eras, it had absorbed countless magic treasures, and those magic treasures had all become part of the exquisite pagoda. One could imagine its weight.

As a quasi-ten thousand saints, Song Yuanbing was pressed down on the spot, unable to move.

Su Yu and the fire lion rushed over. The latter circled around the exquisite pagoda and rubbed his hands. "This is good stuff. It should be the legacy treasure of the Ten Thousand Saints family from ten eras ago."

Su Yu stared coldly at Song Yuanbing. "Go back and tell your ancestor not to force me. I have no intention to harm anyone, but if anyone harms me, you will pay the corresponding price!"

With a wave of his hand, the exquisite pagoda flew back.

Song Yuanbing seized the opportunity and immediately turned into an ice bird to escape.

Before he left, he even turned around to look at Su Yu. He was secretly surprised. He did not think that Su Yu would let him off.

Boss Fire Lion was unwilling. “Young master, are you not such a coward?”

How could a guy who dared to provoke the ninth domain be afraid of the song family’s reputation?

With Su Yu’s personality, logically speaking, he could kill him if he wanted to.

Su Yu said indifferently, “There are not many humans. One less one dies.”

After hearing this, fire lion sighed. “Sigh! The calamity of the world is coming. How many humans are truly concerned about the future of the human race? All they think about is themselves.”

He looked at the oil lamp on Su Yu’s chest, which was gradually dimming, and said, “The heaven and earth have spirituality. It is not unreasonable that you can surpass everyone and become a human saintly being.”

The human saintly being was never born from an ultimate powerhouse.

Instead, it was born from a person with a big heart who cherished the lives of the human race.

His race wanted to kill Su Yu, but Su Yu released him with the future of the human race. What kind of heart was this?

“Let’s Go!” Su Yu turned around and entered the Divine Ox clan’s territory.

The Divine Ox clan’s city was also incomparably vast. Most of the people walking inside were divine ox clansmen. The other clansmen were extremely rare, and the human race was almost non-existent.

Su Yu’s eyes revealed a look of contemplation. The six paths heavenly son realm and the mirror flower heavenly son realm were really different.

The former’s domain consciousness of each race was extremely strong. All the major races gathered together, as if they were about to face something that was about to come.

It was different for those in the mirror flower son of Heaven Realm. Since there were no super families like myriad saints holding down the fort, and there were no such strict domain awareness among the great races, it was incredibly obvious that they were living together.

The fire lion was deep in thought. “It’s still the six paths son of Heaven realm super forces that can sense the changes in the world. The great disaster is about to arrive.”

Su Yu looked at the sky. He was not unfamiliar with the so-called great disaster.

The nine-star civilization was the only nine-star civilization in the true world.

Once it was destroyed, all the races in the universe would have nowhere to go.

Only a very small number of super families could survive this disaster.

“Did the green emperor say where the source of the disaster came from? Or was there any sign of it?” Su Yu asked.

The fire lion thought for a moment and said, “I once heard the Green Emperor mention that the progenitor had once calculated the secrets of the universe. He predicted that the nine-star civilization would have less than one era

“At the end of this era, the fate of the nine-star civilization will definitely be exhausted. When the catastrophe comes, all the races in the universe will not be able to escape.”

“The only way is to ascend the heavenly path after the destruction of thousands of worlds and look for a chance of survival there.”

Ren Zu had personally calculated it?

Su Yu was moved.

“Later, after a long period of thinking, the Green Emperor predicted that the origin of the catastrophe must be above the few sons of Heaven of the Sacred Mountain!”

The fire lion said, “The reason why the nine-star civilization was destroyed time and time again was not only because of the endless demand and plunder of resources from the world, but more importantly, the son of Heaven of the Sacred Mountain kept himself immortal and plundered the source of the civilization.”

“The Green Emperor predicted that when the ten sons of Heaven reappeared in the world, it would be the beginning of the catastrophe. The ten sons of Heaven must be the ones driving the catastrophe!”

Eh?

Su Yu’s brows twitched and his eyes narrowed. “Are you saying that the ten sons of Heaven will reappear in the world? The nine-tailed Emperor’s soul will be destroyed and the mirror flower emperor will be torn apart. How can these two sons of Heaven reappear in the World?”

The fire lion said, “This is the problem. When they reappear in the world, they will definitely exhaust the remaining source of civilization. At that time, the nine-star civilization will definitely collapse.”

Su Yu fell into deep thought. “If it’s just the collapse of their civilization, it might not be a disaster.”

He remembered the creatures that lived in the ruins of their civilization.

It was not that there were no resources in the ruins, but there were relatively few of them.

If it really reached that stage, it might not cause a disaster for all the creatures.

“The collapse of their civilization is only the first step,”the fire lion said solemnly.
“However, the destruction of the last civilization means that the power to maintain this true world has already been lost

...

“It is very likely that the true world will cleanse itself and start a world-destroying purge. All the living beings will be within the range of the purge, including the son of Heaven of sacred mountain

“If we can survive it, then the world will be split open for the second time. Chaos will be reborn. If we can not survive it, then we will be destroyed,”the fire lion said. “Of course, this is the Azure Emperor’s conjecture

“Once the true world is destroyed and cleared, will chaos be reopened? It might not be as the Azure Emperor has speculated. It is very likely that it will return to silence and become a deathly stillness

“If that’s the case, then the living beings in the world who have escaped will still die.”

Su Yu’s heart could not help but rise.

‘is true worlds self-cleaning?’?

When he thought about it carefully, the green emperor’s speculation was not without reason.

In the eyes of true worlds, all the races in the universe were like bugs in an apple. They would continuously devour its essence, and in the end, they would destroy true worlds.

If true worlds had spirits, they would be able to wipe out the bugs in their bodies before they were completely destroyed, allowing true worlds to preserve their life force. Then, they would fall into a deep sleep and wait for their prosperity to return.

“Soon, true world will react, right?”The fire lion looked at the sky and mumbled,
“Perhaps, soon, some sort of abnormal change will happen in the world

“If I’m careful, I should be able to sense it.”

...

Su Yu memorized it in his heart and sucked in a deep breath. If that was the case, then he would have to seize the little time he had left to increase the power of himself and the cauldron.

The stronger he was, the more powerful he would be able to protect the experts of the human race. He would have a higher chance of surviving the apocalypse.

He just didn’t know if he could get Xian ‘er’s immortal soul back before then.

Chapter 3217 - 3217 Chapter 3003, the King of man arrived personally

3217 Chapter 3003, the King of man arrived personally

The calamity was coming, and Su Yu did not have much time left!

Before that, he had to find Xian 'er.

And in order to find the sinkhole's soul fragment from the sinkhole, there was only one way, and that was to refine the sinkhole divine monument.

There was only one way to refine it – to master all the ancestral techniques on the sinkhole divine monument.

!!

“I'll leave first.” Su Yu had already made up his mind. After returning to the mirror flower son of Heaven Realm, the first thing he had to do was enter seclusion. He had to seize every opportunity to comprehend all the ancestral techniques on the sinkhole divine monument.

Sou –

The two entered the Divine Ox clan's city.

A human face and a fire lion were particularly eye-catching in a city where most people were from the Divine Ox clan.

Fortunately, they were rather open-minded and did not reject Su Yu and Su Yu's entry.

Su Yu saw the location of the teleportation hall and said, "We have to speed up. Once the song clan catches up, we won't even have a place to hide."

The two of them were too conspicuous and there was no way for them to hide.

Not long after, they arrived at the super teleportation array that spanned an entire realm. There were many users of the array, and most of them were from the divine bull race. There were very few people from other races.

Among the races at the front, Su Yu saw a familiar figure. He was sneakily wearing a black robe and looking around as if he was on guard against something.

"This person?" Su Yu thought for a while. His intuition told him that they must know each other.

Everyone patiently lined up and watched as they entered the hall of Preaching and teleported. Su Yu gradually relaxed.

After all, this was the Divine Ox clan's territory. The song clan might not dare to intercept them here.

However.

What Su Yu didn't know was that the Divine Ox clan was in the divine ox palace.

The Five Ten Thousand Sacred Divine Ox clan ancestors stood in the sky above the divine ox palace as if they were facing a great enemy. Opposite them was an old man dressed in white robes.

He had his hands behind his back as he walked through the Divine Ox Palace alone.

"Human King song, we don't interfere in each other's business. What's the meaning of invading rashly?"The Divine Ox Palace Lord snorted angrily as he panted heavily.

The other four Divine Bull clan ancestors also had murderous looks on their faces.

Song Jun had come personally!

Moreover, he had directly found a few super experts of the Divine Bull Palace.

“Has a human entered your Divine Bull Clan’s City?” Song Jun asked indifferently. His old eyes were filled with the vicissitudes of time.

The Palace Master of the Divine Bull Palace was stunned for a moment. “Just for this?”

His pair of ox eyes moved, “Yes, he’s in our divine ox palace. So What?”

Song Jun’s eyes turned cold, traces of killing intent circulated within, “Then, have you guys already communicated with each other?”

The eyes of the palace lord of the Divine Ox Palace moved even faster, his mind was filled with countless thoughts.

Could it be that that human was carrying some great secret that caused the human king of the song clan to come personally to hunt him down?

After exchanging a few glances, the ten thousand saints from the Divine Ox Palace all had strange looks in their eyes. That human must be an important character, they had to stay behind.

The palace lord of the Divine ox palace laughed, patting his chest, "Of course, he has already told us what he needed to tell us."

Song Jun's killing intent suddenly weakened, he regained his calmness, "In that case, he hasn't told you guys anything. In fact, you guys haven't even met yet."

He had lived for so many eras, and his hair was smarter than the Ten Thousand Saints of the Divine Ox clan. With just a few sentences, he knew that they didn't know anything.

"Then, I'm relieved." Song Jun smiled faintly.

In the next breath, he raised his palm, and an indescribable suffocating feeling spread out from Song Jun's body.

After the suffocating feeling appeared, dark clouds rolled in the sky, and the clouds in the sky condensed into a huge human face.

The face looked like an old Daoist, and lightning and fire flashed in its hollow eyes.

"Heavenly... Heavenly Dao?" The palace master swallowed hard and said in shock, "Legend has it that reaching the late-stage of ten thousand saints realm or breaking through to the absolute beginning realm in the inheritance will attract the attention of the Heavenly Dao."

“Song Jun, you... could it be that you’ve already arrived...”

Song Jun said indifferently, “More or less.”

As soon as he said that, a ten thousand saints patriarch next to the palace master suddenly screamed!

A thick black flame suddenly emerged from his body and instantly swallowed him into ashes. Even his soul didn’t have time to escape.

The whole process happened too fast, so fast that they didn’t even have time to react.

The Divine Bull Palace Master’s hair stood on end, and his soul was about to leave his body. He was both furious and terrified, “Human King song, you... You Want to start a war between the two races? A catastrophe is about to befall us, and now is not the time for us to fight.”

Song Jun said indifferently, “I’m just taking precautions. If you really did communicate with that person from my race, then you can’t stay.”

A terrifying suffocating feeling once again enveloped everyone’s hearts.

Everyone's hearts were beating wildly?

The remaining four divine ox clan elders were horrified to discover that song Jun had long surpassed the shackles of cultivation and reached a terrifying realm.

Even if his cultivation hadn't reached the late-stage of the Ten Thousand Saints realm, it wasn't far off.

He was just a sliver away from touching the pinnacle of the late-stage of the Ten Thousand Saints realm!

Even if there were a hundred of such existences, not to mention the five early-stage ten thousand saints realm ancestors of the Divine Ox clan, they would still be able to kill them.

"Human King song, Please Wait!"The Palace Master of the Divine ox palace hurriedly said, "We have no intention of starting a war. We don't know anything about the humans you mentioned. Please calm down, human king."

Song Jun said indifferently, "Is that so?"

...

The Palace Master of the Divine Ox Palace extended his finger and said slowly to the giant face that was gradually disappearing into the sky, “I swear to the heavens that we have never seen the humans that human king song mentioned, let alone communicated with them.”

An obscure message surged into the clouds in the sky.

After that, the world was calm and there were no signs.

Song Jun withdrew the pressure from his body and said, “It seems that none of you have.”

The Palace Master of the Divine Bull Palace instantly felt much more relaxed and he couldn't help but let out a long breath. A gust of wind blew over and he just realized that he, who hadn't sweated for many years, was covered in sweat.

He changed from his previous overbearing attitude and cupped his fists respectfully, “Human King, if you have any orders, please feel free to tell me. For example, I can help you find this human.”

Song Jun waved his hand, “There's no need. There's only one place he can be right now.”

In the teleportation hall.

In the patient line, they were finally about to reach Su Yu.

However, Su Yu's heart was becoming more and more restless. He lowered his head with a solemn expression, and the fate lines on his chest fluctuated violently.

Without the use of the fate ancestral technique, the fate lines would jump out by themselves, which often indicated great danger.

...

Seeing that it was almost his turn, he might be able to leave if he waited a little longer.

But should he wait?

His mind flashed for a moment, and then he made a decisive decision. "Go! I shouldn't stay here for long!"

He jumped on the fire lion and put layers of defense on his body, wrapping himself up tightly. He even used a secret technique of invisibility to try to hide himself.

Chapter 3218 - 3218 Chapter 3,004. There was nowhere to run

3218 Chapter 3,004. There was nowhere to run

Fire Lion was stunned. “Why don’t We Wait? There are only five people left. We only have a few minutes at most.”

Su Yu’s voice was indescribably grave. “I’m afraid we don’t even have a few minutes left. Quick, let’s leave this place!”

Fire Lion reluctantly took a few steps and left the hall of preaching. He walked aimlessly towards the distant street.

However, after just a few steps, the fire lion’s hair stood on end and he turned his head to look in horror.

!!

A huge mirror appeared out of thin air ten thousand feet behind him, surrounding the entire ten thousand feet radius of the teleportation hall.

The people inside could not see the outside, but those outside could clearly see the situation inside.

Those who were waiting for the teleportation were caught off guard and were all trapped inside.

They anxiously looked for a way out, wanting to leave, but there was nothing they could do.

At the same time, an extremely powerful force descended upon the sealed area. All the living beings were instantly suppressed by that force.

Under that powerful force, the people lying on the ground were carefully inspected from the outside to the inside.

Even their storage spaces were forcefully opened uncontrollably to check if there were people hidden inside.

The fire lion gasped. “Little Master...”

“Don’t speak. Continue moving forward. Don’t try to speed up and pretend that you didn’t see anything.” Su Yu’s solemn voice echoed in his mind. “Don’t show anything unusual. Don’t reveal your aura. Don’t probe the source of your power.”

He repeatedly exhorted. Even he cut off all external senses and controlled the flow of power in his body to hide the human’s aura.

Coupled with the existence of the concealment technique, at first glance, Su Yu and the fire lion seemed to be two members of the Divine Bull Race. Outsiders could not distinguish them at all.

Only by carefully inspecting them would they discover something strange.

Therefore, as long as they did not attract the attention of that powerful existence, or if no one reported them, they might be able to temporarily avoid a calamity.

The fire lion was terrified, and Su Yu was also extremely nervous.

He really wanted to know if he had been noticed, but he did not dare to reveal the slightest bit of visitation. He could only pretend not to know and move forward.

A sense of uneasiness that was like a ray of light on his back caused Su Yu’s heart to beat wildly.

After only a few beats, Su Yu forced himself to calm down. The unusual heartbeat might be able to attract the attention of that expert.

If nothing went wrong, this expert should be the six paths king, Song Jun. .

The worst was about to happen.

The six paths king had personally made a move!

And after song Jun used his tyrannical methods to suppress the living beings near the teleportation hall, he carried out an inspection.

After a while, Song Jun's face was expressionless. "You're more vigilant than I thought."

His gaze swept across the surroundings, sweeping through everything.

Many divine ox clansmen had yet to feel the probing gaze, but Song Jun had already detected their every move and even their expressions.

If there was anything abnormal, he would be able to sense it immediately.

But when he swept his gaze over, there weren't many abnormal people?

Those divine ox clansmen were either calmly conversing, drinking, trading, or practicing martial arts.

Occasionally, there would be two people whose hearts were racing and showing signs of guilt. They were also sneaky people, and were not the people he was looking for.

Song Jun's eyebrows moved slightly. "They are indeed cautious. No wonder they are able to enter and leave the sinkhole emperor tomb without being affected."

He once again used his probing gaze to scan all living beings.

Su Yu and the fire lion maintained their original rhythm and continued forward, not daring to reveal the slightest bit of abnormality.

Song Jun's gaze swept past them, but he still did not discover Su Yu.

"Your mentality is not ordinary. You must have been tempered a thousand times to come here," Song Jun said slowly.

His gaze swept past them for the third time.

This time, he still did not find anything.

“I believe that you are among them.” Song Jun sat cross-legged in the air above the teleportation hall and began to probe again and again.

His gaze swept past Su Yu and the fire lion countless times, but he did not stop at them.

Because their behavior was too normal, almost negligible!

The Fire Lion’s heart gradually relaxed as he thought to himself, “Looks like the song king isn’t omnipotent. I can’t even find him in front of me. Hehe, idiot.”

However, Su Yu was treading on thin ice, not daring to reveal the slightest bit of abnormality.

The two of them walked and finally arrived at the other end of the city. Countless divine bulls entered and exited the city gates.

Su Yu was deep in thought. The Divine Bull clan's city was already the most dangerous place. Song Jun scanned the city again and again. Sooner or later, he would discover them.

Rather than staying in the city, he might as well leave.

While he continued to scan the city, he left the Divine Bull clan's city and looked for another opportunity to leave.

As he did so, Su Yu secretly communicated with the Fire Lion's soul.

The fire lion understood and walked towards the city gate.

Soon, the two of them arrived at the city gate and were about to leave.

Suddenly, Su Yu's body shook.

He seemed to feel that a gaze had pierced into his back. That cold and sharp feeling made his body tremble uncontrollably.

The fire lion's footsteps suddenly stopped. Its body froze and almost fell to the ground.

...

Its teeth were chattering as it said in fear, "Master, we... seem to have been... discovered."

At the same time, an indifferent voice filled with supreme pressure came from above.

"We've finally found you."

That voice was the king of Song!

Su Yu's expression changed drastically as he roared, "Go!"

The fire lion was paralyzed with fear as it frantically ran.

In the blink of an eye, they had passed through the city gate. A bright light was right in front of them.

However, Su Yu knew that what awaited them might not be the light, but the Abyss!

As expected!

Just as they were about to rush out of the city wall, a light flashed in front of them. A human figure with his hands behind his back suddenly appeared at the city gate.

His appearance sent all the divine bull clansmen in all directions flying ten thousand feet away.

...

Even the city walls collapsed.

That part of the world sank into an enormous void, turning into a long black crack that devoured everything in its surroundings.

The fire lion suddenly stopped and swallowed hard. “Master, are we finished?”

Su Yu’s mood sank to the bottom.

Facing an existence even more terrifying than the ninth domain, all of Su Yu's treasures and secret arts couldn't even withstand a single blow from him.

In fact, his schemes and tricks were completely useless against him.

In the face of absolute power, all his schemes and schemes were nothing but illusions.

The Absolute Heaven Sword, the myriad calamity scythe, the crippled cauldron, and even the emperor brush were all ineffective against him.

Su Yu didn't even have the time to activate them before he was killed by a single glance from the other party.

What should he do?

What should he do?

There was not much time left for him. When Song Jun turned around, it was time for him to die.

"Isn't it good to stay in the song family? Why do you have to leave?" Song Jun turned around with a slight sigh.

It turned out that song Jun had the intention to kill Su Yu from the start, but he did not want to kill Su Yu. He only wanted to keep Su Yu under house arrest in the song family to keep song Jiayi Company.

But Su Yu had to leave?

How could song Jun allow him to leave with the biggest secret of the song family?

Chapter 3219 - 3219 Chapter 3,005, fatal blow

3219 Chapter 3,005, fatal blow

The fire lion was lying on the ground, its butt rising. It covered its eyes and shouted, "It's over, it's over! It's really over this time!"

Su Yu's heart was extremely heavy, and his mind kept spinning.

If he couldn't use his martial arts, should he use his emotions to reason things out?

Or should he appear as a human saintly being?

!!

As a human, Song Jun might be willing to go easy on him because he was a human saintly being?

This thought flashed through his mind. He remembered the reincarnation King's thought when he first found out that Su Yu was a human saint physique – kill him!

The ten domains' human kings would eventually compete for the inheritance of the Ren Zu.

They would all be competitors.

Su Yu, a human saint physique, had great potential to become the new generation's human king. Song Jun's killing intent would only increase, not decrease.

But other than that, was there any other way to intimidate Song Jun?

Su Yu realized that all the schemes and schemes were useless in front of him because Song Jun was just too strong.

At this moment, Song Jun turned around.

The killing intent in his eyes was like the strongest sword in the world that could easily destroy all the magnates in the world.

Just like how he easily killed the godly bull and ten thousand saints.

Su Yu was shocked, his body started to tremble uncontrollably under his gaze, no, it was crawling!

His knees slowly bent down.

In the face of death, not only did his body fail to activate the potential to survive, but he also succumbed to death.

What kind of absolute difference was this?

He could not continue like this!

All of a sudden, while he still had the strength to move, Su Yu grabbed the black robe on his body and pulled it hard.

Crash!

The black robe on his body, which had been worn for a long time, was torn off on the spot. What was revealed was a peerlessly beautiful face that made time and space suffocate.

That face was cold and noble, like the son of heaven above the nine heavens, making people look up to it.

The moment his true appearance appeared, Song Jun's calm eyes suddenly fluctuated and he cried out involuntarily, "The goddess Clan's Xia Jingyu... No, Shi Xin is still here. You... You Are the heart of the illustrious son of Heaven!"

As he spoke, Song Jun's expression became unusually strange.

There was shock, confusion, and confusion.

What was shocking was that the heart of the mirror flower emperor was actually here. What was confusing and puzzling was why the Mirror Flower Emperor's clone would help the song family.

One had to know that in the eyes of the Emperor, the song family was a thorn.

If it wasn't for the face of all the clans in the world, the Emperor would have long taken action and razed the song family of the human race to the ground.

For a moment, Song Jun's gaze changed drastically.

Su Yu calmed down and said, "Song Jun, kill me. are the song family prepared to bear the price?"

If they angered the emperor, they would have a legitimate reason to wipe out the song family.

However, what made Su Yu's heart sink was that after a moment of emotional change, song Jun gradually calmed down.

His aged eyes seemed to see through the essence as he shook his head slowly. "That's not right! The heart of the illusionary flower emperor has fallen into a deep sleep. It seems to be suppressed by something."

Su Yu's heart jumped. was this the six paths of Man King?

Until now, this was the first time someone had seen through the essence of his stone heart.

Song Jun narrowed his eyes and said, "If I'm not wrong, you and the fragment of the illusionary flower emperor are symbiotic. You live with her heart while she relies on your body, right?"

One had to say that song Jun was inexplicably terrifying.

There were too many things that he could see through!

"The only strange thing is that you used her heart to survive, but it didn't take over your soul. It's really amazing."

Song Jun knew much more about the secrets of the world than ordinary people.

At least he understood that the way the mirror flower emperor was resurrected was for the shard to be nurtured in someone else's body and then reassembled.

He also understood how terrifying the body of the mirror flower emperor was. If it was parasitized in the ten thousand saints body, when the fragments matured, the ten thousand saints would become its container.

On the other hand, Su Yu, a person with average cultivation, was actually able to suppress the most important part of the mirror flower emperor – the heart.

This was too shocking.

“Then you can kill me!” Su Yu puffed out his chest. “If I die, the heart will definitely die. The emperor will definitely find trouble with Your Song Family!”

“Why don’t we take a step back and I swear to protect your secret to the death while you make way?”

“Otherwise, even if I die, your song family will be killed by the emperor. He will wipe out all of you from this world and not leave a single one alive.”

Song Jun fell into deep thought as if he was considering a compromise.

But in the next moment, his figure suddenly disappeared.

Su Yu’s heart skipped a beat. He only had time to say the word “Finished” in his mind before an extremely intense pain spread from his limbs and bones.

He looked down and saw that his body started from his heart. There were many cracks and traces of blood spurted out.

Even Shi Xin felt a vague pain.

Behind him, Song Jun put his hands behind his back and said calmly, “So what if it’s the emperor? If I compromise, will they show mercy?”

...

With that, he took a step into the air and disappeared into the horizon.

As for Su Yu, he could feel that his life force was being drained at an alarming speed, especially his heart. The rhythm of his heartbeat was weakening bit by bit.

“Little Master!”The fire lion was shocked. It growled as it walked forward. Su Yu fell down powerlessly and was held up by it.

Su Yu held his gradually weakening heart. The remnants of the ancestral art spread out from his palm as he crazily infused it into his heart.

The power of the ancestral technique of life lay in the fact that even the dead could gather life force.

However, in front of the dying heart, the effect of the ancestral technique of life was abnormally weak.

It could only barely slow down the weakening of the heart.

The song Renwang was too strong!

The residual power of his power directly negated the power of the ancestral technique of life, causing it to lose its effect.

Su Yu started to have difficulty breathing, and his vision started to blur. The fire lion before him was as blurry as the moon in the water.

“Quick! Leave Now!” Su Yu urged with his remaining rationality.

...

This was still the divine bull tribe's territory. They had to leave before the divine bull tribe could react.

Otherwise, it would be too late!

The fire lion was extremely intelligent. It could sense that Su Yu's life force was rapidly disappearing.

In less than the time it takes for an incense stick to burn, his heart would stop beating.

At that time, even if Su Yu's soul reached the Ten Thousand Saints realm, it would be useless.

He was different from others. His soul had returned because of the stone heart. Now that the stone heart had dissipated, his soul would definitely die.

"Little Master, don't Die!" Fire Lion's heart was moved. He carried Su Yu on his back and entered the teleportation hall.

At this moment, the divine ox clansmen had yet to react. They watched in a daze as fire lion stepped onto the long-distance teleportation array and disappeared into space.

By the time they reacted, the man and the Lion had already disappeared into the remaining spatial aura.

Divine Ox clan.

“Clan leader, why are you watching them leave?”

The clan leader sighed deeply, “If I don’t let them go, I’m afraid that our Divine Bull clan will be exterminated today.”

3220 Chapter 3006, the sacred infant flame seed

His gaze drifted in the direction where song Jun had disappeared.

“It’s obvious that those two creatures have the secret that song Renwang must kill. If we keep them here, will song Renwang suspect that we also have that secret?”

“Do you think that song Renwang would rather believe our mouths or our corpses?”

The Divine Bulls felt a chill run down their spines as they looked at their ten thousand saints comrade who had been killed.

!!

“Let them go. That human won’t live long after the king of Song personally attacks him.”

In reality, that was indeed the case.

In the teleportation, Su Yu’s stone heart was beating weaker and weaker, and his consciousness was becoming increasingly blurry.

The Ten Thousand Saints Golden Soul was also rapidly dimming and losing its luster.

The fire lion ran wildly in the spatial tunnel and shouted, “Little Su, don’t Play Dead for me. Are you playing a trick?”

The one who answered him was Su Yu who was about to lose his breath.

“Don’t Play Dead! Others may die, but you won’t! You’re so cunning, so sinister, so despicable, so dirty. Even if everyone in the world dies, you won’t Die!”

Su Yu was already powerless to answer. He could clearly feel that his life force was constantly losing.

All the martial arts that he had learned all his life were being stripped off his body along with the loss of life force.

He was really going to die.

Unlike the last time when he self-detonated his soul, this time, he was really going to die.

He had never felt a clear death in his life.

“Say something, Little Su. SOB... stop pretending...”the fire lion ran and looked back at Su Yu from time to time.

Looking at the increasingly pale face and the gradually dimming vitality, the fire lion could not help but cry out to the sky.

Su Yu felt dizzy. He vaguely seemed to see the vast chaos in the ultimate world, and he also seemed to see Xian 'er smiling faintly as she moved forward in the fog.

At that moment, Su Yu suddenly woke up.

Xian 'er was still waiting for him to save her. If he fell down, who would save Xian 'er for him and let her return to the human world?

If he died, Xian 'er, who was in the sinkhole world, would also cry, right?

He did not want to see Xian 'er sad again. He did not want to see her sad again. He had failed Xian 'er too much in this life!

I can not die!

I can not die! !

I have to live, before I see Xian 'er, I have to live! ! ! !

He gritted his teeth and desperately used the ancestral life technique to maintain his weak heartbeat.

How could he live?

His heart was about to be lost, his body was about to be destroyed, how could he live?

At the final edge of death, when the last bit of his life force was about to be destroyed, Su Yu suddenly thought of something and took it out!

It was a flame seed burning with a holy flame.

The holy aura on its body made people calm down and all distracting thoughts were absorbed.

This was the holy infant flame seed that Su Yu had once obtained.

It could absorb everything from its master. When it bloomed and bore fruit, it could give birth to a pure and flawless body again.

This body could inherit everything from the original body.

Su Yu once tried to drip a drop of blood essence into it. He was shocked to find that not only was a part of his cultivation absorbed, even a part of his stone heart was missing.

And there was only one way for this flame seed to give birth to a new body.

Every other day, it would be watered with blood essence. It would take an entire era before it bloomed and bore fruit.

Now that his life was about to end, Su Yu's body and heart were about to fall into death.

He could only rely on the holy infant flame seed to fight for a chance of survival!

However, the holy infant flame seed that had yet to give birth to a living body had absorbed everything about Su Yu. No one knew what the outcome would be.

Perhaps Su Yu would obtain all of his inheritances, but only Su Yu's consciousness would be excluded.

In that case, Su Yu would still vanish into thin air.

However, Su Yu had no other choice!

Fight!

With a flip of his palm, Su Yu pressed the holy infant flame seed into his chest, and directly smacked it into his heart from the shattered wound.

That place was filled with the blood of his heart, and it was the place that contained the most of his blood essence!

The moment the holy infant flame seed entered, the blood essence from all directions flowed into the holy infant flame seed like thousands of streams flowing into the sea.

It was like a bottomless pit, causing all the blood essence to flow into it.

Su Yu's various divine abilities and many special items also flowed into it.

For example, the emperor's oil lamp, the stone heart, the emperor's power, and the power of Chaos all flowed into the holy infant kindling.

When the fire lion saw this, it cried out with tears, "No! The holy infant kindling will absorb your consciousness and refine it into a pure state!"

Su Yu's guess was still wrong.

The holy infant flame seed would not exclude Su Yu's consciousness. It would absorb it.

...

However, the absorbed consciousness would be like a body that was born. It would be pure and without dirt. In other words, Su Yu's consciousness would have nothing and become a piece of white paper, just like a child.

Moreover, the birth of a body would happen after an era.

If that was the case, what was the difference between Su Yu and death?

Su Yu did not know where his strength came from. He stared at the fire lion and said, "Give the fire seed to... Cai Er."

If he lost his consciousness, he would leave all his life's gains to his only daughter.

He hoped that Cai er would be able to sense his wish and bring his life's learning to save her mother.

After he finished speaking, Su Yu's heart suddenly throbbed in pain.

Even Prince of mirrorflower, who was hidden deep within, let out a painful twitching sound. "You... did... What?"

Prince of Mirrorflower broke free from the sinkhole divine monument's suppression and said in pain.

Looking over, half of Shi Xin had actually disappeared!

Su Yu, who was extremely weak, blacked out from the twitching pain and completely lost consciousness.

...

He felt a warm suction force sucking his consciousness away and arriving at a warm place.

Su Yu did not have to think about anything here. He only needed to sleep peacefully.

The fire lion howled in grief as it watched everything about Su Yu disappear.

His heart, his oil lamp, his strength, his blood essence, his leather bag, his magical treasures, and even the boots on his feet had all disappeared and were absorbed by the holy infant flame seed.

Not long after, Su Yu disappeared into thin air, leaving behind only a trace of his aura.

A slightly brighter flame was dancing slowly in the air.

“Master!” The fire lion finally couldn’t control his emotions. Holding the flame seed, it prostrated on the ground and cried bitterly.

Su Yu still died in the end.

Everything in his life had turned into the flame of the sacred infant flame seed and completely disappeared from the human world.

Thinking back to everything that had happened, the fire lion’s heart seemed to have lost a lot.

The Mirror Flower Emperor Realm.

In a remote spiritual land, the spiritual energy here was thin, but there was a group of forces of various races.

Some of them were at the late-stage of the Great Sage realm, and some of them were even mortals.

However, although their powers and races were very different, they were very harmonious with each other.

A young lady with pitch-black eyes was sitting cross-legged in the morning fog cultivating. Above her head, a domain of different colors was flashing.

“Eight great domains!”The young lady let out a light breath. The eight domains successfully merged into a beam of light.

Clap Clap —

Applause sounded behind her. The young lady turned around and said proudly, “Aunt Evil daughter, how is my cultivation?”

The evil daughter smiled. Her smile was filled with nostalgia. “You have your father’s elegance.”

“HMPH! I want to be stronger than father!” Miss Miao Ling was the crystallization of Su Yu and Qin Xian ‘er, Su Cai’er.

The evil daughter smiled but did not say anything. She stroked Su Cai’er’s head with a complicated expression.

Suddenly, Su Cai’er suddenly clutched her chest. There was a hint of pain in her expression.
