

THE DIVINE NINE-DRAGON CAULDRON

Chapter 3221 - 3221 Chapter 3007, the Alliance of the sacred clan

3221 Chapter 3007, the Alliance of the sacred clan

“Cai’er, what’s Wrong?”Nirvana lady asked with concern.

Su Cai’er’s face was filled with pain. She clutched her chest and said, “I don’t know. It seems like a piece of my heart is missing.”

HMM?

Nirvana lady immediately checked Su Cai’er’s body. After a moment, her brows furrowed. “There doesn’t seem to be anything strange.”

“But I’m getting more and more painful...”Su Cai’er was in so much pain that her waist was bent. The pain on her face was getting deeper and deeper.

Nirvana maiden was puzzled, but suddenly, her eyes flashed: “Wait, what’s going on with your eight domains?”

Su Cai ER’s eight domains were released uncontrollably, forming waves of ripples around her body, spreading in all directions.

“What’s going on, why is your domain getting stronger and stronger?”Nirvana Maiden’s gaze gradually became serious.

Su Cai’er was in so much pain that her forehead was covered in sweat. “I... I don’t know.”

Nirvana lady stared at the eight domains that were becoming more and more powerful. In the blink of an eye, Su Cai’er’s domain had more than doubled in strength.

She began to feel uneasy, and she had a bad premonition.

“Your father once said that the eight domains are divided into ten battles. The eight great saint clans occupy six battles, ancient god Nine Dragons occupies three battles, and one battle is for the eight rulers.”

The eight great rulers had long since been destroyed, and all of their domains had fallen into Su Yu’s hands. In addition, ancient god Nine Dragons had occupied three battles.

Of the eight great domains in the world, Su Yu alone occupied four!

“Domains are constant. They won’t increase in number, and they won’t decrease in number.” Nirvana Maiden’s heart grew even more uneasy. “You have your father’s bloodline, which is why you have a tiny bit of the eight great domains. But that’s all. Ever since you were born, they have never grown stronger.”

Su Cai’er suddenly understood what Nie Nu meant. Her face turned pale. “Aunt, you mean that I have my father’s domain... Then he...”

Nie Nu’s body trembled slightly. She looked into the distance and her face was pale.

“Aunt, tell me. My father is fine, isn’t he?” Su Cai’er’s face was as pale as paper.

Nie Nu’s eyes were already wet. She clenched her fists tightly.

She wanted to tell Su Cai’er that Su Yu was fine, but she couldn’t even lie to herself. How could she lie to Su Cai’er?

“No! Father will be fine, he will be fine!” Su Cai’er cried out in grief and indignation. She even ignored the pain in her body because the pain in her heart was far greater than the pain in her body.

Su Cai'er's eight great domains became stronger and stronger. With the cauldron as the center, they covered the entire world.

The eight domains that were beyond her control affected the order of the world.

Time, space, life, death, Fate, soul..

In some places, time flowed backward or jumped.

In some places, space was in disorder, and the universe was upside down.

In some places, people were resurrected, and all things were resurrected.

In some places, spirit veins were destroyed, and all paths were destroyed.

..

In just two hours, half of the mirror blossom heavenly son realm was greatly affected.

“Has the sky changed?”In the past, Patriarch Huang looked up at the sky with a solemn expression.

In the world where the famous sword Saint Clan was located, the sky was filled with light. The souls of the dead, which should have dissipated, were all walking in the world.

“Is it a sign before the Apocalypse?”Patriarch Huang narrowed his eyes.

Before the apocalypse, there must be signs of anomalies in the world.

His eyes sparkled. “No, it’s not a sign of the apocalypse. It’s the appearance of a huge treasure!”

Patriarch Huang stood up. His body was covered in burning ruins. Ever since the human-shaped tribulation fire destroyed the famous sword Saint tribe, the famous sword Saint tribe was deteriorating day by day.

Not to mention that the family had yet to recover, the grotto-heaven blessed land that they once occupied was coveted by countless people.

Several sacred clans had already joined forces to prepare to attack and occupy the blessed land.

With the current strength of the famed sword Saint Clan, there was an 80% to 90% chance that they would not be able to keep it.

He had already discussed with a few patriarchs and was prepared to retreat in advance and give up the grotto-heaven blessed land.

Rather than fighting to the death with the Sacred Clan Alliance and exhausting the last bit of the family's reserves, it was better to preserve their strength and find another blessed land to reproduce.

With their good relationship with the carefree emperor, their family clan would recover sooner or later.

At that time, it wouldn't be too late to snatch back the family clan's base!

"What a gift." Patriarch Huang smiled. "The place where the treasure is unearthed will definitely be a blessed land."

"There's always a way. The brand-new Blessed Land of our famous sword Saint Clan is set!"

At the same time.

At the edge of the famed sword Saint Clan's territory, a few saint clans were gathered to discuss.

“Elder ancestor Chen, how confident are you in suppressing elder ancestor Huang? Although the famed sword Saint clan is desolate, they have preserved a considerable portion of their heritage over the years. There are at least five of the ten clan-guarding treasures from back then.”

“Any one of them is an unparalleled dao artifact that can suppress a realm. If we're not careful, we might be crushed to death.”

The one who spoke was a half-serpent-man. His cultivation had reached the late-stage of the Great Sage realm.

In the dark room, there were five other late-stage great sage experts.

One of them was from the rhinoceros tribe, one was from the ape tribe, one was from the sea demon tribe, and one was from the insect tribe.

The last one was a human wearing a long red robe.

He was thin and his face was dry and bloodless. His eyes were sunken and there was a faint smile at the corner of his mouth.

...

However, coupled with his slightly pale face, the smile didn't give people the feeling of a smile. Instead, it made people feel cold.

He was the elder ancestor Chen that the half-snake-man called.

As soon as he finished speaking, the other four forefathers looked at elder ancestor Chen, waiting for him to speak.

Elder ancestor Chen's smile deepened, and his voice was cold. "We don't even have a 10% chance of suppressing elder ancestor Huang."

The expressions of the five non-humans changed.

"Elder Chen, even with your strength, you can't suppress elder Huang?" The snake-man stuck out his tongue.

The other four non-humans also had expressions of disbelief.

“Elder Chen, you are known as the descendant of the Ren Zu. In the Mirror Flower Emperor Realm, you are the most powerful human,”the rhinoceros tribe elder said.

The Ape tribe Elder also showed some fear in his eyes, “I heard that when you were in the carefree heavenly son realm, you once met a blind saint tribe member and were attacked by five late-stage great sage experts.”

“In the end, you single-handedly killed five late-stage great sage experts, but you were not injured at all.”

The sea demons and the insect race both had expressions of disbelief.

...

The reason why they dared to attack the famous sword Saint Tribe’s number one tribe this time was because elder Chen had joined them.

He said that he was not even 10% confident, so they could not help but guess whether old ancestor Chen had his own army and wanted to use this opportunity to bargain.

Old ancestor Chen curled the corner of his mouth and said sinisterly, “You all know quite a lot.”

He smiled, and the forefathers of the other clans felt uncomfortable all over.

“Old ancestor Chen, don’t be angry. It’s not that we intend to investigate you, but your deeds are too conspicuous. It’s hard for us not to know.”The half-serpent-man tried to smooth things over.

Patriarch Chen chuckled and changed the topic. “I don’t care about Patriarch Huang’s strength. Even if he has a clan-protecting dao artifact, I’m confident that I can kill him within a hundred moves.”

The five forefathers’eyelids twitched as they looked at each other quietly. They saw the shock in each other’s eyes.

Killing Patriarch Huang in a hundred moves?

What kind of strength was that?

But if that was the case, why didn’t patriarch Chen have the confidence to suppress him?

Chapter 3222 - 3222 Chapter 3,008, anxious and confused

3222 Chapter 3,008, anxious and confused

“Patriarch Huang’s greatest strength has never been his strength!” Patriarch Chen said meaningfully.

The other races were slightly stunned, and the half-snake-man’s brows slightly curved. “You mean that the famous sword villa and the carefree emperor have a good relationship?”

Patriarch Chen’s face was expressionless, tacitly agreeing with his words.

In response, the half-snake-man shook his head. “Patriarch Chen is overthinking. In the eyes of the emperor, all things are ants. The so-called good relationship is just that this ant has value in his eyes.”

“Now, the people of the famous sword villa have been wiped out, leaving only a few old bones.”

“The various artifact-making places in the famous sword villa have also been destroyed. They have long lost the ability to refine artifacts.”

“Why would the carefree emperor care about his life and death? I doubt it.”

The other four alien races agreed.

“If the carefree emperor still cares about the famous sword Saint tribe, why didn’t he show up at the villa to support them?”

“Old Ancestor Chen, you’re too cautious.”

The Mirror Flower Emperor realm could not produce many experts due to the desolation of an era and the fact that the sacred mountain had focused on extracting the source of civilization.

Until now, there were very few experts at the late-stage of the Great Sage realm.

Old ancestor Chen was the most famous among them. His cautiousness seemed to be unnecessary.

Old ancestor Chen’s finger on the table tapped lightly. His gaze flashed as he said, “It’s not that I’m cautious, but I have to be! We humans are the target that the sacred mountain is trying to suppress.”

“If you guys attack, it might not be a problem, but if I reveal myself too much, it won’t be good,” forefather Chen said.

The other races didn't refute this point.

The human ancestor, who had risen in the last era, had given the sacred mountain destruction, making it wary of the human race and suppressing them everywhere.

"If that's the case, why are you here, forefather Chen?" The snake-man said unhappily.

The five pagans finally understood that elder ancestor Chen was just trying to avoid putting in the effort.

The so-called fear of the son of Heaven of the sacred mountain was obviously an excuse.

He was just worried that the famous sword Saint Clan had some unknown trump card that threatened him, so he tried to avoid taking the risk.

Elder ancestor Chen smiled faintly and said sinisterly, "Of course, it's to help you defeat the famous sword Saint Clan and occupy the first blessed land of the mirror flower son of Heaven Realm."

The half-serpent-man snorted and said, "If you cower and can't make a move, our Saint Clan Alliance can do it ourselves. You can go back to where you came from."

The other four alien races were united and showed signs of resistance.

Old ancestor Chen tapped his fingers on the table and said indifferently, “Are you sure you want to eliminate me?”

As soon as he said that, the several alien races felt a chill on their backs.

The threat in forefather Chen’s words couldn’t be clearer!

They thought of all the rumors about forefather Chen, and all of them felt a chill down their spines. The snake-man hesitated for a moment, then rolled his eyes and said, “Since forefather Chen said so, then let’s withdraw.”

They weren’t fools. Why did they risk their lives to kill forefather Chen when he didn’t do anything?

The four alien races agreed and expressed their opinions one after another.

“Since it’s difficult to reach an agreement, I think we should go our separate ways!”

“Different paths lead to different strategies.”

”...”

A hint of killing intent flashed across old ancestor Chen’s eyes. He said, “Are you trying to make things difficult for me?”

The half-serpent-man laughed in anger. Why? Couldn’t they just leave?

The two sides were in a stalemate when suddenly, their communication devices sent news at almost the same time.

When they opened it, their expressions changed drastically.

The news was sent by their respective spies, and the news was surprisingly the same — the famous sword Saint Clan had retreated.

Old ancestor Chen reacted the fastest. He rolled his eyes slightly, shook his plain clothes, and disappeared into thin air!

The five alien races realized what was going on, and the half-serpent-man exclaimed, “Quick, let’s Go!”

No matter what the reason for the famous sword Saint Clan's retreat was, it was time for them to allocate the territory of the famous sword Saint Clan. Whoever arrived first would have the greatest right to speak.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh

The sound of rushing wind could be heard. They arrived at the ruins of the famous sword Saint Clan in the past.

Apart from the charred ground, there was no one else here.

Patriarch Chen was floating in the air, deep in thought with his eyes narrowed.

The five alien races were overjoyed as they hurriedly took over the territory.

“The weapon refining well belongs to our Saint Clan!”

“The ancestral hall belongs to us!”

“Then I want this pond. There seems to be a spiritual energy spring here.”

..

The half-serpent-man looked at Patriarch Chen in surprise. It seemed that the other party was not as enthusiastic about territory as they had imagined.

“Patriarch Chen, why don’t you consider choosing a territory?”The half-serpent-man asked.

Patriarch Chen’s eyes lit up. “Aren’t you curious as to why the famous sword Saint Clan would retreat?”

The half-serpent-man said, “Is there a need to ask? If I were the famous sword villa, I would also choose to retreat! With the strength of both sides, the famous sword Saint Clan will definitely lose.”

...

“Rather than fighting with what little strength the family has left and having their territory taken by someone else, it’s better to give up the territory in advance and find a better spirit land. It’s not strange at all.”

In fact, they had imagined that the famous sword Saint clan would give up the family territory that many forces were eyeing.

“Is that so?” Old ancestor Chen’s eyes flashed as he looked around. “Haven’t you noticed that all the local undead have come back to life?”

“This is either a sign of the impending disaster or the birth of a great treasure with extremely strong vitality.”

With that said, the thoughts of the five alien races immediately became active.

The half-serpent-man spat out its snake core, and there was a hint of greed in its dim yellow eyes. “You mean, the famous sword Saint clan is going after that treasure?”

Old ancestor Chen said meaningfully, “Most likely.”

He looked at the alien race with a smile that was not a smile. “Why don’t we seize the opportunity and seize the treasure together?”

In fact, they were already tempted even without the temptation of elder ancestor Chen.

The giant treasure that appeared in such a large area was probably of a world-shaking level. If they could take it, why would they let the famous sword Saint Clan Take It?

“Then what about this territory?”The half-serpent-man probed.

...

Elder ancestor Chen chuckled and said, “Take the giant treasure and discuss the distribution together.”

The five outsiders looked at each other and immediately came to an agreement.

“Okay!”

After that, they arranged for people to guard the territory and immediately headed to the source of the strange phenomenon.

At a certain spiritual land.

The evil woman sat cross-legged and guarded Su Cai'er's side.

She looked up at the strange phenomenon. Apart from sadness, her brows were filled with worry.

“If this continues, I’m afraid we’ll be in big trouble.”The Evil Woman was worried. Currently, the strongest in the cauldron was only the cuckold elder and a few other great sage level elders.

However, they were all at the early stage of the Great Sage realm. It was still possible for them to intimidate the small saint clans in a remote corner.

It was basically impossible for them to be similar to the top-ranked great saint clans.

However, there was nothing she could do. She could only sit back and watch Su Cai’er’s domain grow out of control.

Time passed bit by bit.

The thing that the evil daughter was most worried about happened. Unknown people appeared around the cauldron one after another. They did not enter the territory rashly, but kept peeping around.

“Su Yu, what should I do?”The evil daughter’s mind was shaken, anxious and confused

Chapter 3223 - 3223 Chapter 3009, the return of the fire lion

3223 Chapter 3009, the return of the fire lion

Sou —

Suddenly, a stream of fire shot across the sky and pierced through the sky, causing the entire sky above the cauldron to turn scarlet red.

The temperature of the air on the ground rose sharply, and all the plants and vegetation were burning.

Several patriarchs appeared one after another, standing side by side with the evil daughter.

“What should come will come in the end?”The Cuckold Patriarch’s eyes revealed a hint of solemnity.

The evil woman also wiped away the sorrow in her eyes. The cold killing intent that she had not seen for a long time flashed. The pitch-black longsword in her hand trembled silently.

“All of you, leave!”The Evil Woman raised her sword and looked at the beautiful face reflected in the pitch-black cold light. It was as if she could see herself in the past.

The Evil Woman in the past was cold and heartless. She only knew how to kill.

Later, when she met Su Yu, her heart fell into the mortal world. From then on, she had something to care about.

“Su Yu gave me a rebirth, and I returned him to the Netherworld together,”the evil woman said indifferently, as if she was talking about something that had nothing to do with her.

The cuckold patriarch laughed hoarsely. “Since I showed up, why would I leave?”

Not far away, the Netherworld Patriarch spoke in a dark voice under his black robe. “The world is about to be destroyed, so where can we ants escape? Rather than die of cowardice, why don’t we fight with Our Lives?”

The evil woman was slightly stunned.

They came from Sky Mountain, and they were all the various large and small chaotic forces that Su Yu had recovered with his strength. It was not an exaggeration to call them three religions and nine schools of thought.

However, it was this motley crew that was surprisingly united at the critical moment.

The Evil Woman, who had experienced countless things, could not help but be stunned.

“You have to think clearly. Ding Zun is dead, and the world has changed masters. We have to face an unimaginable enemy, and what will welcome us is destruction,” the evil woman said calmly.

The expressions of the cuckold patriarch and the Netherworld patriarch were very calm, and they did not panic at all.

The former sighed faintly, “Aren’t we facing destruction when we escape? Those unknown experts can easily trample and destroy us, so why would they let us leave?”

“Instead of surrendering, why not fight with our backs against the water?”

The Netherworld patriarch laughed coldly, “I’m sorry, there is no such thing as surrendering in our Netherworld race. Either we die, or we fight!”

The evil woman lowered her head. Under her long hair, she murmured, "Is it necessary? Su Yu is dead. You are free now."

The cuckold patriarch and the Netherworld patriarch smiled and said in unison, "Even though Ding Zun is dead, he is still alive in my heart."

Hearing this, the evil woman's heart trembled. An electric current instantly struck her entire body.

The cuckold patriarch said, "Back then, when the first ancestor of the soul came, if it weren't for Ding Zun using his life to lure the other party away, we would have all been destroyed."

"I admire the breadth of mind of Ding Zun."

Netherworld patriarch raised his left hand, pointing at the vast sky, he said, "In the life of a mortal, who does not live a mediocre life for themselves? But for Ding Zun, he is willing to sacrifice himself for the sake of Ding Zun. Although I am someone who has survived the epoch, I am inferior to him."

Some powers were based on cultivation.

Some powers were based on the heart.

The cohesion of the cauldron was never based on how strong Su Yu was. There were many people in the world who were stronger than him.

However, it was Su Yu who protected the true dragon continent, the nine prefectures, and the tens of thousands of lives.

“If Su Yu can die for us, why can’t we fight to the end for him?”The cuckold ancestor waved his hand and tens of thousands of roots appeared under his body. They grew in reverse space and turned into a cage that covered the sky, enveloping the entire cauldron.

The cuckold patriarch sat cross-legged and put his palms together. Green light spots all over his body were continuously sent out along the roots under his feet.

He was surprisingly using his own life force to maintain the existence of the cage.

The Netherworld patriarch chuckled. “Old friend, I can’t stay idle even if you’re going all out.”

He pointed at the sky with one hand and the ground with the other. He closed his eyes and said, “Ten-sided Yama!”

His back suddenly turned into tens of thousands of layers. Each layer projected an evil spirit. He stared at the surroundings ferociously, ready to rush out at any time and devour all the creatures that offended him.

The Netherworld grand ancestor had paid the price for this by continuously losing energy, causing his body to continuously absorb it.

If this continued, the netherworld grand ancestor's cultivation would probably fall to the early stage of the Great Sage realm.

At that time, any expert would be able to kill him.

Seeing this, the evil woman felt as if she had drunk a mouthful of wine. Her chest was burning, and her throat seemed to be choked.

"Su Yu..."the evil woman gripped the evil sword tightly. Her body and heart were trembling.

Bean-sized tears rolled down her cheeks. "Did you see that? Your Cauldron didn't let you down!"

She raised her long sword and pointed it at the sky. Her eyes that were filled with tears were unusually sharp. "Come on, show yourself!"

Boom —

At this moment!

The barrier created by the cuckold patriarch with his life burned a huge hole in the fire.

The fire lion stepped into the fire circle.

He looked down at the ground and saw Su Cai'er in the crowd. She was the girl who was releasing the eight domains.

The evil girl was about to wave her sword and attack him.

Suddenly, her heart palpitated and her eyes were attracted by a flame floating in front of the fire lion's chest.

“That's... Su Yu!” Although it was just a flame, it had no shape, name, or aura.

But at first glance, the evil girl seemed to have seen Su Yu.

Su Cai'er also raised her head and looked at the flame. She said in a low voice, "It's father. Father... is inside!"

...

The cuckold patriarch and the Netherworld patriarch were shocked. "Dingzun?"

The Fire Lion's eyes were tired and dim. He asked listlessly, "You are Su Cai'er, right?"

Su Cai'er looked at the unfamiliar fire lion and said, "Who are you?"

The fire lion did not say anything. He flew down with the flame in his mouth and placed the flame seed in front of Su Cai'er. He said in a hoarse voice, "Your father said that if he dies in this world, please leave this seed to you."

"Everything in it is his life. Now, everything is left to you."

Su Cai'er's mind was blank. She looked at the flame seed in a daze and said in a daze, "You said that my father... has already..."

At this moment, Su Cai'er's heart seemed to split open. She felt a heart-wrenching pain.

After enduring for so many days, she finally could not help but lie on the ground and cry.

The evil woman raised her head. Her eyes were already filled with tears. She could no longer control her emotions. She only felt that the heaven and earth had been destroyed. She only felt that she had returned to the once cold and heartless grayish-white world.

In the end, she still walked alone between heaven and earth.

It was one thing to know that Su Yu was likely to die, but it was another thing to see it with her own eyes!

...

“Grandmaster Ding!” The cuckold patriarch and the Netherworld patriarch knelt on one knee. A sour feeling surged in their hearts.

The cuckold patriarch lamented, “Heaven is heartless!”

The Netherworld patriarch often sighed, “Ding Zun, although you have left, you are still in my heart!”

He slowly stood up, “Even if I die, I will protect the person you have spent your whole life to protect!”

The cuckold patriarch also stood up, releasing even more powerful life force to make up for the towering tree.

The Evil Woman also wiped her tears and said, “Su Yu, I owe you. I will pay with my life!”

Her long sword slashed, and the sound of the sword rang out!

Hearing this, the Fire Lion’s eyes lost focus and gradually became clear. The light in his eyes also became cold. “Who are you to Master?”

Chapter 3224 - 3224 Chapter 3,10, the beginning of the battle

3224 Chapter 3,10, the beginning of the battle

The cuckold patriarch raised his head and looked at the fire ring that had yet to be completely repaired. Then, he looked at the fire lion and said, “We are the subordinates of Grandmaster Ding. All the creatures that you have seen are under his protection.”

The fire lion was surprised and muttered, “He has never mentioned to me that there are still so many people to protect.”

A bitter smile appeared on his face. “He really is a person who is ‘well-hidden’.”

The saddest one was Su Cai’er. He stared at the flame seed and said, “You said that my father is inside?”

The fire lion lowered his head and reached out his claws to stroke Su Cai’er’s head. “Before your father died, he was most concerned about you. This is the holy infant flame seed, which has absorbed everything from your father

“After it blooms and bears fruit, your father’s life’s accumulation will be condensed and belong to you.”

Su Cai’er’s face was already covered in tears. Holding the flame seed, she cried, “I don’t want his accumulation. I only want him. Senior, please let my father come back.”

Regarding this, the fire lion looked up at the sky. No one could see its expression at this moment.

“Cai’er, carry on your father’s legacy. This is the only thing you can do for him,”the fire lion murmured. “To become a human king, step onto the heavenly path, obtain the legacy of the human ancestor, and finally destroy the sacred mountain.”

Su Cai’er sobbed in grief. She used her small hands to break the saint baby flame seed. “I don’t want it. I only want my father!”

Unfortunately, all of her power was directly absorbed by the Saint Baby Flame seed. It could not move the flame seed at all.

“Get out of the way!”The wicked girl suddenly lowered her head and slashed the sacred infant flame seed with her sword.

The result was that the sword Qi of the wicked sword was instantly devoured, leaving nothing behind.

The cuckold patriarch and the Netherworld Patriarch tried to separate the flame seed one after another, trying to save Su Yu, who had already disappeared without a trace.

But the result was the same. All of the power was absorbed by the sacred infant flame seed, leaving nothing behind.

The fire lion said, “There’s no need to be in vain.”

After several attacks and confirming that they could not activate the sacred infant flame seed, they all stopped dejectedly and stood there silently.

Only Su Cai'er's sobs were left.

This was probably the darkest day since the establishment of the cauldron.

The human sacred body that protected them had fallen!

What was even darker was that when the Ding Zun fell, an unknown powerful force ascended the mountain gate.

Boom Boom Boom —

A violent explosion suddenly came from the sky above the tree root enchantment. Everyone looked up and shockingly found that the tree root enchantment had been blasted open by someone again.

That was the power of Sword Dao, directly blasting open a cross star gap in the sky above the enchantment.

The four experts hovered in the air and looked down at the situation below.

The four of them each held a powerful and Peerless Dao artifact, emitting a monstrous and fierce power.

One of them was an old man in a Daoist robe with disheveled hair. His eyes were like torches, and he immediately noticed Su Cai'er.

He raised his eyebrows. "Why is she a human?"

He was the Master of the famous sword Saint Clan, Patriarch Huang.

"I came here for nothing. I thought I picked up a treasure. After all this time, she's a strange girl."The other patriarch was a little angry.

They had given up the territory of the famous sword Saint clan and came to this remote place. They had come for the place where the great treasure was born. They must have come for the grotto-heaven blessed land.

However, when they arrived, they found out that the spiritual land here had dried up and there was nothing left.

And the so-called great treasure was a so-called human girl.

“It seems that a few guys from the Saint Clan Alliance have also attacked. Elder, let’s retreat. Otherwise, we will have to face them head-on.” Another elder spoke.

The people below all felt relieved.

From the situation where the other party had attacked just now, their strength had all reached the late-stage great sage realm.

Any one of them could easily wipe them out. Now that they were leaving, how could they not let out a sigh of relief?

However, forefather Huang rubbed his chin and began to think again.

His old eyes slowly narrowed. “I suddenly feel that this little girl is even more precious than a huge treasure.”

The hearts of the people on the ground tightened again.

If they were talking about a huge cauldron, what was the most precious thing?

Of course, it was Su Yu's daughter, Su Cai'er.

If Su Cai'er died before them, even if they died, they would not have the face to see Su Yu in the afterlife.

"Is that so?" An elder looked over. After sensing carefully, his eyes became round and he said in surprise, "Why is this little girl emitting eight domains?"

"Can one person cultivate eight domains at the same time?"

Patriarch Huang's eyes were filled with excitement. "Feel it carefully again."

Eh?

The three patriarchs used their hearts to sense it. After a while, they opened their eyes one after another. Their eyes were filled with shock. "Eight domains? How is that possible? How can one person have eight domains?"

"The eight Saint Clans of Heaven and earth only have one domain each. Who is this little girl that can control eight domains by herself?"

“What kind of heaven-defying physique is this?”

“Once she grows up, she will definitely become a heavenly overlord!”

Forefather Huang’s lips curled into a faint smile as he said, “It’s not like there aren’t people who can control eight domains at the same time. Back then, ancient god Nine Dragons stole a portion of the eight domains.”

“The sons of Heaven have some complaints about this,” patriarch Huang said meaningfully. “If we give those eight domains to carefree emperor, do you think he’ll pay attention to our famed sword Saint clan again?”

With carefree emperor’s status, as long as he spoke, the famed sword Saint clan would be able to obtain endless spiritual lands and recover their former glory and peak.

...

However, they had already lost their value and the carefree emperor found them a waste of time. Why would he help them?

The eight domains in front of them were the best proof of loyalty.

“Don’t mess around!”The evil daughter held her sword in front of Su Cai’er and said, “Get lost!”

The cuckold patriarch and the Netherworld patriarch protected Su Cai’er and said coldly, “You are not allowed to touch the Empress!”

They wanted to use their lives to protect the last bit of Su Yu’s bloodline in the human world.

However, Patriarch Huang did not even look at them. In his eyes, those people were just ants.

“Take them away.”Patriarch Huang waved his hand.

The three patriarchs immediately flew down.

One of the Patriarchs flicked his finger, and an extremely sharp power of the late-stage great sage state flowed down like a clear flood.

The three of them tried their best to resist, but they could not resist for even a breath. They were directly washed away by the power of the flood.

That power enveloped Su Cai'er and formed a demonic palm. It grabbed her and quickly pulled her back.

...

"Humph!" The fire lion snorted heavily.

Who was he trying to show off by grabbing his master's daughter in front of him?

A fire dragon whistled up from his nostrils. One of the demonic palms formed by burning power was broken, and the other instantly wrapped around the three patriarchs.

The three patriarchs' expressions changed drastically, and they hurriedly took out their clan-guarding treasures.

However, they never expected that there would be a late-stage great sage fire lion in the small cauldron. How could they withstand it in a hurry?

Chapter 3225 - 3225 Chapter 3,111, the Battle of contention

3225 Chapter 3,111, the Battle of contention

Flames soared into the sky and suddenly enveloped the three ancestors in a sea of fire.

Their clan's supreme treasure was barely taken out, but before it could be activated, it was suppressed by the endless flames.

The three ancestors had no time to care about anything else, so how could they care about Su Cai'er, who had already caught it?

A fire dragon immediately melted the demon palm, revealing Su Cai'er.

Su Cai'er was still in shock and quickly retreated behind the fire lion. She stared at the enemy and said gratefully, "Thank you, Senior!"

The fire lion looked at the four Huang family heads with cold arrogance and said disdainfully, "You Little Scoundrels, with me here, do you think I have the right to behave atrociously?"

With that, the lion opened its mouth, and like a volcano erupting, it erupted with lava that blotted out the sky and sprayed into the sky.

The three patriarchs, who had managed to block the flames with great difficulty, were just about to counterattack when they encountered the incomparably hot lava again. Their expressions could not help but change.

“Patriarch Huang, if you don’t attack now, when will you do it?” One of the Patriarchs shouted sternly. The clan-guarding treasure in his hand was finally activated.

The other three patriarchs also pulled out their hands and activated the clan-guarding treasure in their hands.

Under the combined force of the three, they suppressed the flames that were burning them. At the same time, the power of the three giant treasures transformed into three giant hands that blocked the lava that was spewing out from the sky.

Puchi —

The fire lion was once the mount of the Green Emperor. How could its mighty power be ordinary?

The three giant hands were immediately burned by the lava, making sizzling sounds as they were disintegrated.

The faces of the three patriarchs changed drastically, and they were shocked beyond words.

At this critical moment, forefather Huang narrowed his eyes and pulled out a giant sword that was filled with human skulls without any change in expression. He brought the giant sword and transformed into a ray of black light as he rushed out instantly!

Clang —

The extremely powerful lava was instantly pierced through a crack that was as wide as a person by the strange giant sword.

Moreover, the crack was spreading in all directions at an extremely shocking speed.

With a loud bang, the lava suddenly cracked and turned into hot soil that fell to the ground. Wherever it fell, it would melt into nothingness.

At the same time, the black light did not lose its momentum and went straight for the fire lion.

The fire lion's pupils constricted slightly. Its gaze that was staring at the giant sword became a little more serious. It let out a low and boundless roar, "You're courting death!"

Boom —

The world suddenly rumbled as the flames around the fire lion's body suddenly expanded by a hundred times, condensing into a fire lion phantom that was a hundred times larger.

The Phantom raised its sharp claws and brandished them. Yin and Yang were thrown into chaos as time and space were extinguished!

Wherever the sharp claws passed, everything turned into chaos!

Clang —

The black light that Patriarch Huang had transformed into was also intercepted by the sharp claws.

After a loud bang, Patriarch Huang was sent flying back for ten thousand miles. His body rubbed against the atmosphere, triggering a raging flame. From Afar, it looked like a meteor falling down.

Ten thousand miles away, Patriarch Huang steadied himself. His back was charred.

In front of him were burn marks.

Even the ancient sword pattern in his hand had melted a little.

This caused patriarch Huang's expression to change greatly.

This sword was one of the ten great guardian treasures of the famous sword Saint Clan. It was ranked in the top three. After tens of millions of years of tempering, it could be said to be the hardest of the ten great guardian treasures.

However, it had been destroyed by the fire lion of unknown origin?

Patriarch Huang turned solemn. He looked at Su Cai'er with some hesitation. Was it worth the risk for such a girl?

However, as he stared at the eight domains on Su Cai'er's body that had yet to dissipate, the greed in his heart overcame his rationality.

"I'll hold on to this fire lion. You guys catch that girl!" Patriarch Huang made up his mind and took out a broken small sword that was only the length of an arm.

This sword had the aura of time.

The mottled scars indicated that it had experienced an unimaginable baptism of time.

Even so, the sword body was still as smooth as a mirror, reflecting heaven and earth.

Patriarch Huang held the sword and his expression became serious. He murmured softly, “The descendants of the famous sword Saint Clan are unfilial. They had no choice but to use the treasures left by their ancestors. Please don’t blame them.”

This sword was a forbidden item in the famous sword Saint clan, so it could only be kept and not used.

However, the famous sword Saint clan no longer existed. If patriarch Huang wanted to rely on Su Cai’er to restore the famous sword Saint clan, he could only do so at all costs.

The enormous power in his body was like a flood pouring into the strange sword. The sword actually became brighter, illuminating the surroundings even more clearly.

“Vile creature! I’ll let you have a taste of the might of our famous sword Saint Clan’s number one family treasure, the Shuo!”

There was only one word in the name of this sword — Shuo!

Patriarch Huang raised the Shuo up high, and everything within 10,000 Li was reflected on the body of the Shuo.

Amongst them, the fire lion was reflected even more clearly.

“Shuo’s destruction!” Patriarch Huang let out a low shout.

Immediately, a scene that caused people to suck in a breath of cold air appeared.

The world that was reflected in the new world was actually shattered into dust at the same time!

The Sky, the Earth, the mountains, rivers, plants, insects, fish, birds, beasts, and even the dust in the world were instantly reduced to dust! !

The land of ten thousand kilometers instantly turned gray.

...

Only the grotto-heaven blessed land where the cauldron was located remained.

The cauldron was complete. All of them stared at their surroundings in horror, not understanding what had happened.

Why did the surroundings suddenly turn into dust?

A wisp of dust floated in front of the green-robed Patriarch's eyes. He subconsciously raised his hand to wave it away, but he was reprimanded by the fire lion in a deep voice, "If you don't want to be a member of the dust, feel free to touch those dust!"

Hearing this, the green-robed patriarch was quick-witted and quickly withdrew his hand.

He held a somewhat suspicious attitude and casually took out a third-grade dao artifact, throwing it into the dust outside.

In the end, what caused the pupils of all the members of the cauldron to constrict was that the dao artifact was directly crushed into pieces!

The green-robed patriarch's palm trembled in fear, and he was incomparably shocked, "This... This Is..."

When had they ever seen such strange dust?

The fire lion's expression had become unusually solemn. "There's no problem with the dust. It's the sword Qi in the dust that is too powerful."

His gaze passed through the dust and looked at elder Huang, who was ten thousand miles away.

...

The members of the cauldron, who had their backs to him, did not realize that the fire lion's eyes were already bloodshot. His face was also filled with countless tiny cracks, like a dried-up clay figurine, filled with tiny cracks that could only be seen with the naked eye.

Ten Thousand Li of Heaven and earth were destroyed, but only the cauldron remained intact.

That was because the fire lion had blocked the invisible sword Qi Attack!

The most terrifying part of this so-called new year was that it reflected everything in the sword and carried out a precise destruction attack.

A few sword Qi that had been sealed for a long time would destroy everything in an invisible situation.

“All of you, protect young master carefully. I will deal with that old man.”The fire lion glanced at the other three ancestors, its eyes full of calmness.

It knew that once it left, the three of them would make a move.

But it also knew that if it did not leave, it would no longer be able to protect its surroundings when ancestor Huang launched the second round of annihilation.

It could only divert ancestor Huang’s attack.

As for Su Cai’er, it would depend on her luck. (I hope to give the nine dragons an ending as soon as possible and end a regret)

Chapter 3226 - 3226 Chapter 3012 was fraught with danger

3226 Chapter 3012 was fraught with danger

With a puff, the three of them were burned to ashes on the spot.

The three-foot-long souls rolled up the spatial storage device and fled back to Patriarch Huang's side in a panic.

The three patriarchs, who had survived the disaster, turned pale and stared at the fire lion in front of them in shock and anger.

Patriarch Huang's calm face was disturbed and he frowned slightly. "You are not a member of the cauldron, are you? It seems to be a wiser choice to withdraw and retreat."

His old and cold eyes flashed with a threatening light.

The fire lion snorted and laughed mockingly. "When I rampaged through the world, you were still a white tadpole. How dare you threaten me?"

???

HMM?

Everyone could not help but look at the fire lion with question marks on their heads.

What kind of white tadpole was?

Elder ancestor Huang did not know what a white tadpole was, but it did not sound like a good thing.

Clang!

He slowly raised his hand, and an earthen yellow, ancient and exquisite pagoda appeared in his palm.

There were four corners at the bottom of the pagoda, each inlaid with an unknown head, making it look particularly ferocious.

Around the pagoda, there were faint traces of dried blood mixed in the cracks on the pagoda.

There were even threads of murderous aura flowing out from the pagoda.

Once the murderous aura was released, the entire world was filled with boundless rage.

The living beings below all had their blood boiling and their killing intent rising uncontrollably. If they were not members of the cauldron and had lived peacefully with Su Yu for a hundred years in a peaceful environment, their temperament would be relatively peaceful, at this moment, they had long been infected by the murderous aura and became monsters that only knew how to kill.

“Vile creature, the patriarch’s seven Fiend Exquisite Pagoda is still lacking a ferocious spirit’s blood to temper it. Unfortunately, you’ve come up with it!” Patriarch Huang’s eyes were filled with anticipation.

The Seven Fiend Exquisite Pagoda was one of the ten great guardian treasures of the famous Sword Mountain Villa, and it was ranked sixth.

In terms of resources, time, and manpower, it was enough to rank in the top three of the Guardian Treasures of the family.

The reason why its combat power was lower was that this pagoda was only half-finished.

After condensing, it still lacked the blood of powerful ferocious beasts to complete the final refinement.

Although it had caught a few, they were mostly the weaker ones in the late-stage of the Great Sage realm, and the stronger ones were extremely difficult to find.

Occasionally, it would get clues about ferocious beasts, which were all owned by their owners.

The fire lion in front of him, based on his intuition, should not be an ordinary item. Its body seemed to exude a faint Taoist aura.

The blood of such a ferocious spirit was probably not ordinary.

With that said, Patriarch Huang immediately made his move. The Seven Fiend Exquisite Pagoda immediately transformed into a stream of light that shot through space-time, striking over with a loud bang.

The fire lion snorted and raised its claws to strike across space.

Chi La!

The Seven Fiend Exquisite Pagoda's speed suddenly slowed down, while the fire lion's claws were burning and emitting a white smoke. Looking at the soles of its feet, it was already a bloody mess.

On the other hand, the bottom of the seven deadly exquisite pagoda was stained with the Fire Lion's blood. It actually became exceptionally excited. The entire body of the pagoda could not help but tremble as it emitted a will of desire.

Without needing patriarch Huang to activate it, it actually charged over by itself.

The fire lion snorted heavily. “If a tiger doesn’t show its might, do you really think I’m a sick cat?”

No matter what, he was still the mount of the former human disciples. He was once a figure who suppressed an entire region. How could he not have any means?

“Little master, I have to give way, you white tadpole. Do I have to give way to you?”

The fire lion opened its mouth, and an illusion rushed out from its mouth and rapidly enlarged.

It was a huge lion shadow that roared the world. It was as huge as a mountain, and it bit towards the incoming exquisite pagoda.

Kacha —

There seemed to be a clear sound in the dark, and the exquisite pagoda was directly bitten into two pieces.

A frightening murderous aura erupted from within and engulfed the entire world.

The Lion Shadow raised his head and roared. The Roar shook the entire universe and the boundless murderous aura dissipated without a trace.

Everyone stared at this scene and their scalps went numb.

The powerful seven deadly exquisite pagoda was destroyed just like that?

Grandmaster Huang's pupils constricted and his eyes revealed a hint of shock. "What kind of ferocious spirit is this?"

Based on his strength, even the most powerful advanced stage great sage was probably no better than this?

In his impression, he could count the number of advanced stage great sage experts who could match up to the fire lion.

However, he did not have much time to be shocked because the huge lion shadow was looking down at them.

Its ferocious eyes were like the sun and moon of the nine heavens as it stared at them mercilessly.

“Roar!”

A savage roar that shattered the universe roared out, accompanied by the terrifying shadow of a lion.

The three patriarchs, who only had their souls left, immediately felt that their souls were swaying and were on the verge of collapse.

Patriarch Huang’s expression was solemn, but he did not lose his composure. He snorted coldly and said, “Destroying my clan’s magic treasure, it’s impossible for me not to take your life!”

Clang!

...

An earth-shattering sword chime suddenly rang out.

The sword chime rang out, and a crack that was a thousand miles in circumference was actually split between the heaven and earth.

The already destroyed land was completely reduced to nothingness under the sword chime.

In a layer that mortals could not see, a sword Qi that enveloped the heaven and earth was sweeping in all directions with ease.

Wherever it passed by, everything turned into nothingness.

The enormous lion shadow suddenly jumped back and crouched in front of the crowd, using its body to block the sword qi.

Kacha Kacha —

The extremely solid shadow of the lion quickly collapsed and turned into dust.

The dust in all directions was unstable, and everyone was shocked.

What was going on?

A sword cry had destroyed the shadow of the Lion?

...

Everyone looked around and was shocked to find that a khaki-colored seven-foot long sword had appeared in Patriarch Huang's hand.

Compared to an ordinary sword, this sword was more than twice as long.

It was filled with a fierce aura and a shocking killing intent.

It seemed to be able to destroy everything.

The fire lion's gaze was solemn, and there was a hint of surprise in it. "This is... The Absolute Heaven Sword?"

After following Su Yu for a while, it definitely knew about the Absolute Heaven Sword.

The earthen-yellow sword in front of him only had a hint of the absolute heaven sword's aura. It seemed to be of the same origin in some aspects.

However, in terms of killing intent, this sword sect's absolute heaven sword was much weaker.

“Oh? You know the Absolute Heaven Sword?” Patriarch Huang was slightly surprised. “It seems that you have a deep relationship with the thief who stole our famed sword Villa.”

Those who had seen the true face of the Absolute Heaven Sword were all tricked to death in the artifact refining well and became the sacrificial offering of the Absolute Heaven Sword.

The only possibility for the ferocious spirit in front of him to be able to recognize it was that it was very familiar with that thief.

“If that's the case, I won't Let You Live!” The killing intent in patriarch Huang's eyes grew stronger as he held the sword in his hand. His aura surged. “This sword was forged from the materials left over from refining the Absolute Heaven Sword.”

“Furthermore, using the same well only took half the time, but the power it contains is already one-tenth of the Absolute Heaven Sword's power.”

At present, the Absolute Heaven Sword's power that Su Yu could use was less than one-tenth.

No wonder the power of this sword was shocking.

The fire lion became serious. This sword gave it a strong sense of threat.

It could feel that this sword could kill it.

Patriarch Huang's eyes suddenly focused as the long sword in his hand swept out.

However, it was not aimed at the fire lion, but at the direction behind him!

Chi La —

The destructive sword ripples swept out in all directions, turning the endless world behind him into nothingness.

And in the Endless Nothingness, there was actually a human youth dressed in Sequoia, with a bit of evil in his eyes, standing there with a faint smile.

Chapter 3227 - 3227 Chapter 3013, Ren Si Dao 9

3227 Chapter 3013, Ren Si Dao

Clap Clap Clap!

The evil red-robed human youth clapped his hands and said, "I thought I hid myself well."

Elder Huang stared at him coldly, but his heart was beating uneasily.

The human in front of him seemed very special!

He did not know why, but he felt a deep sense of fear.

"You did hide yourself well, but your companions are far inferior to you." Elder Huang said plainly, but his gaze remained on the red-robed youth, not shifting at all.

Swoosh swoosh swoosh —

From the side of the red-robed youth, the void trembled, and four Grand Sage level forefathers appeared.

“How many forefathers of the Holy Race Alliance?” Patriarch Huang recognized them in an instant. He was a little surprised, but not surprised at the same time.

What was not surprising was that the Holy Race Alliance that surrounded the famed sword Saint tribe would come here.

He could sense the earth-shattering changes here, so they could naturally sense it too.

Surprisingly, the identity of the newcomer was not small.

The half-serpent-man was from the WA Snake Saint Clan. It was said that he had an ancient and mysterious bloodline, while the ape clan’s patriarch was from the famous ancient six-armed divine ape Saint Clan. The insect-like patriarch was from the nine Yin heavenly silkworm Saint Clan, and the last one was from the sea clan, he was from the Dark Flood Dragon Saint clan of the Dead Sea.

The four of them were extremely powerful. If they joined forces, it would be enough to make him suffer.

However, Patriarch Huang did not care about them the most. With the few clan-guarding treasures on him, he was not afraid of them.

He was afraid of that unfamiliar red-clothed youth.

“Sir, you are very unfamiliar. May I know your name?” Patriarch Huang said warily.

The corner of the red-clothed youth’s mouth curled. He smiled slightly, but that smile made people’s hair stand on end.

“Surname Chen. Single name, ‘Nian’.”

Chen Nian?

Old ancestor Huang searched through his memories, but there didn’t seem to be any human with the surname Chen from the Saint clan.

This name was even more unfamiliar and unheard of.

“Of course, I prefer another name.” Chen Nian gently stroked his long hair and said, “That is, ‘the ninth dao of the human heir’.”

Rumble —

The moment this name was given, a formless thunder rumbled in the sky, as if this name had startled an existence in the unseen world.

Chen Nian could not help but look up, feeling a little helpless. “I am really remembered by the sacred mountain. A mere name has triggered the sacred mountain’s senses. It is not suitable for me to stay here for long.”

He spoke to himself as if there was no one else around.

However, Patriarch Huang had already cried out in shock, his eyes filled with shock.

“You... you are the human heir?” Patriarch Huang took a few steps back, his face filled with fear.

The descendant of a human.

The descendant of a human, as the name implied, was the descendant of a human.

The “Human” here was not a surname, but it was better than a surname.

In the ancient world, there was only one kind of person who was qualified to add a descendant after a “Human”!

That was the descendant of the Ren Zu!

Only the descendants of the ren zu could bear the weight of billions of human beings, and they could be named after the word “Human”!

He was shocked, and the fire lion was even more shocked!

As the Mount of the Azure Emperor, it was one of the few existences in the world that had come into close contact with Ren Zu.

It did not know that Ren zu had left behind an heir in the world!

It did not doubt Ren si dao jiu’s identity.

Because, from its body, it could feel the bloodline aura of Ren Zu. Although it was very thin, it was extremely clear.

The Thunder in the sky became increasingly dull.

The sacred mountain might be coming soon.

Chen Nian said indifferently, "I don't have much time. I should get this done as soon as possible."

His gaze shifted to Su Cai'er, who was enveloped by the eight domains. He smiled and said, "Little girl, come with me."

Patriarch Huang's eyes flickered, but he did not dare to make a move.

He had a feeling that once he made a move, he would die immediately.

Su Cai'er was immersed in the grief of her father's death. She only held the only burning holy infant flame in her hands and remained indifferent to the outside world.

She was very remorseful.

She regretted why she had left alone in a fit of anger and ventured outside.

It was to the extent that she didn't even have the chance to be with her father in the end.

She was even more remorseful that after she had introduced herself to her father, she had yet to bury the hatchet.

Now, she wanted to make up for it, but the yin and Yang were separated forever.

The tree wanted to be quiet, but the wind would not stop. The son wanted to be filial, but his father was not there.

This was the greatest sorrow in the human world.

...

"Father..." Su Cai'er stared at the sacred infant flame seed and choked on her tears.

Before her father died, he still missed her the most.

Everything in his life was left to her.

When he thought of this, he felt even more sorrowful.

Chen Nian furrowed his brows. When an even more depressing thunder sounded in his ears, his frown deepened.

“I don’t have time to waste here.” Chen Nian took a step forward.

He did not ask Su Cai’er if she was willing to go with him.

Because he did not need to ask. He was only telling her.

In his eyes, Su Cai’er was not much different from a treasure.

“Stop!”

The fire lion stepped in front of Su Cai’er and shouted coldly, “She has some relationship with Ren Zu. For this reason, let her go.”

...

Chen Nian glanced at the fire lion and looked at Su Cai'er again, "Is that so? Why do you think so?"

The fire lion looked around and said in a deep voice, "She is the daughter of the human saintly being and should be protected by Ren Zu. Since you are the human heir, you should fulfill the duty of the ancestor."

The human sacred body was not a stranger in the nine-star civilization.

The fact that Su Yu was the human sacred body was not a secret. At least all the members of the tripod knew about it.

Now that it was said, few people were shocked.

Except for Chen Nian.

"Human Sacred Body?" Chen Nian was deeply surprised.

He seemed to be especially surprised.

The fire lion stared at him and observed his expression. He thought that something was going on and said, “That’s right, she is...”

However, before he could finish his sentence, Chen Nian curled his lips and revealed a look of disdain.

“Is the human sacred physique really that great?” Chen Nian sneered. “He is just a retainer of the Ren zu lineage!”

Boom —

A brand new and extremely bright flame appeared on Chen Nian’s chest. It was like an oil lamp that had appeared out of the Sun.

The light was extremely dazzling. It was so bright that one could hardly open their eyes.

Compared to Su Yu’s oil lamp, it was like a firefly and the radiance of the Sun and moon.

The fire lion’s eyes widened in shock.

“The radiance of the human sacred body can be so powerful?”The fire lion muttered.

It had seen some human sacred bodies, including Su Yu’s. No one’s human sacred body could be compared to Chen Nian’s.

Could it be because of the Ren zu bloodline?

The Ren Zu bloodline was born with a human saintly being that was hard for mortals to give birth to.

“Hehe, how can a postnatal saintly being be compared to us innate saintly beings?”Chen Nian sneered.

No matter how strong the postnatal human saintly being was, it was still formed by countless human wills.

But what about the innate human saintly being?

It came from the bloodline of the ancestor of the human race!

It was easy to guess who was stronger!

“The daughter of a slave of the ren zu lineage is naturally a slave too.”Chen Nian said coldly, “The ren zu lineage deals with their own slaves, who wants to meddle in their business?”

With just one sentence, Su Cai'er became his slave.

The fire lion was burning with anger, he scolded, “How dare you! The human saintly being is the will of the human race, how can you slander it as a slave?”

As the ancestor of the human race, he should be more kind to his own kind.

But what about this man?

He opened his mouth to be a vassal and shut his mouth to be a slave. He was simply lawless!

Chapter 3228 - 3228 Chapter 3,014. The sacred infant flame seed bloomed and bore fruit

3228 Chapter 3,014. The sacred infant flame seed bloomed and bore fruit

Chen Nian swept his gaze over and looked at the fire lion with disdain. “Since when does the mount of a disciple of the ancestor have the right to reprimand me?”

“Noisy!”

The flames of the oil lamp on his chest exploded instantly, and a layer of flame ripples swept across the area!

The fire lion was the first to bear the brunt of the flames at close range. Its expression changed drastically, and it immediately condensed a huge lion shadow in front of it.

However, the powerful shadow that was on par with old ancestor Huang was instantly burned into nothingness like a cloud under the flame ripples.

The terrifying ripples even swept across the fire lion’s main body!

Ah —

A soundless scream sounded from the spiritual level. The fire lion's entire body was charred black, as if it was charred black charcoal. There was not a single piece of flesh left, only a skeleton!

A skeleton's remnant soul was attached to the skeleton and flickered.

It was as if it was about to disappear.

With just one strike, the guardian-like existence in the cauldron was heavily injured and almost died.

If the fire lion was like this, the others would not be able to escape.

Thousands of members from the cauldron were burned to ashes on the spot. Not even a trace was left.

They did not come into direct contact with the flames. They were only affected by the residual power of the flames. Even so, there was not a single corpse left.

The power of the Flames made the many grand sage powerhouses who came forward feel terrified.

Elder Huang gripped the replica heaven-destroying sword in his hand tightly. His expression was solemn. His instincts told him that this human was very powerful. However, he did not expect him to be so powerful.

The expressions of the grand saints who followed Chen Nian changed again and again.

Chen Nian was far more powerful than they had imagined!

The world was silent. Chen Nian's red robe trembled and there was an unspeakable evil and wildness in his eyes.

"A mere mount dares to be so arrogant?" Chen Nian swept his gaze over and finally fixed his gaze on Su Cai'er. "No one will stop me anymore, right?"

He raised his palm and was just about to take Su Cai'er away when a terrifying sword radiance tore through space and time.

The sword light swept down, cutting across Chen Nian's body from behind.

Clang —

However, the oil lamp that rose up from his chest instantly appeared behind Chen Nian, blocking the sword light at the right time.

The oil lamp clanged, and the flames on it jumped a few times to block the sneak attack.

Chen Nian turned his head, and the corners of his mouth curled up with a hint of disdain. “Why am I not surprised that you would attack me?”

Boom —

The oil lamp exploded once again. Another wave of flames rose up and swept toward Patriarch Huang.

The latter’s expression changed drastically, but he did not panic. He copied the Absolute Heaven Sword and drew a circle in the air, blocking the flames completely.

Chen Nian smiled faintly. “You’re panicking already? The show has just begun.”

The scattered flames returned from the void and quietly appeared above Patriarch Huang’s head. Then, they descended with a bang.

Patriarch Huang turned pale with fright and hurriedly used his sword to block.

The opening in front of him immediately opened up. Chen Nian swiped his finger and an ancestral spell swept out, striking his chest.

Puff —

In a breath's time, Patriarch Huang spat out a mouthful of blood on his back. His Qi and blood were dispirited.

“Mirror of life, Come!”

A small dark green mirror appeared in his head. His figure was reflected in the small green mirror very clearly.

In the mirror, his figure was unharmed, and his real body was rapidly changing to the state in the mirror.

The injuries on his body recovered in the blink of an eye.

With this mirror, Patriarch Huang could almost stand at the peak of invincibility!

One hand was an imitation of the heaven-defying sword, and the other hand was the mirror of life. Apart from myriad forms, perhaps no one could break it.

Chen Nian pursed his lips. "As expected!"

He raised his hand once more and swept out with another powerful ancestral art.

Patriarch Huang relied on the two treasures to resist tenaciously, but he only had the strength to resist. There was no way for him to retaliate.

After less than fifty rounds, the replica heaven-severing sword in Patriarch Huang's hand let out an unbearable whine. It was about to break.

Patriarch Huang's expression changed again and again. In the end, he looked at Su Cai'er with reluctance. He held the heaven-severing sword and retreated quickly. He shouted to the horizon, "Emperor, I have successfully stalled the DAO Master's descendant for you. Please quickly capture this thief."

Chen Nian's expression changed slightly. He swept his spiritual sense behind him, but there was nothing behind him.

He had been tricked!

Old Fox!

When his spiritual sense once again focused on patriarch Huang, the latter had already disappeared without a trace.

“HMPH!” With a cold snort, Chen Nian’s gaze swept toward the cauldron and ordered, “Kill everyone else.”

He only had Su Cai’er in his eyes. A trace of greed flowed in his eyes. “There seems to be a special domain power on your body. Follow me back. I will help you cultivate to the great success stage.”

After he finished speaking, he raised his hand and grabbed.

A sudden change occurred!

...

With a grab, the weak Su Cai’er was like Mount Tai. She did not move at all, and was completely unable to be absorbed by Chen Nian.

“You... No, what is in Your Hand?” Chen Nian quickly realized that there was something unusual about the flame seed in Su Cai’er’s hand.

There seemed to be something strange, and an aura that made him inexplicably terrified slightly fluctuated for a moment.

But it was only for a moment, and Chen Nian’s hair stood on end. Blood flowed faster, and his muscles tensed up.

It was as if he had met an ancient existence that could restrain him.

The weak fire lion followed his surprise and looked at the sacred baby flame. His eyes also changed. He was a little shocked, but also in disbelief.

In theory, the Sacred Baby Flame, which could only bloom and bear fruit for an unknown number of eras, actually had a fluctuation of life.

Visible to the naked eye, black sesame-sized patches appeared on the surface of the sacred baby flame.

As time passed, the patches became darker and bigger..

“This is?”The fire lion asked itself that it had seen a lot, but at this moment, its mind was blank.

The Sacred Baby Flame had clearly absorbed everything about Su Yu, even his consciousness.

...

In theory, Su Yu had already disappeared from the world.

The holy infant flame would remain in its current state until countless years later before it could give birth to a completely pure and unsullied new body.

However, at this moment, the holy infant flame actually emitted life fluctuations.

This meant that it was in the process of producing results!

What made the Fire Lion’s pupils shrink was that as the black spots expanded, the holy infant flame gradually expanded, and the flames became increasingly vigorous!

In the blink of an eye, it condensed into the size of a human!

Looking from afar, it looked like a Burning Man.

The fire lion's throat seemed to be blocked by something, and it stuttered, "It... it bloomed!"

When the flames bloomed into the form of the Holy Spirit, it bloomed.

When the life force was born in the flower, it was the result.

Chen Nian was on guard for a while, and only when he heard the word 'bloomed' did he suddenly realize what it was. His eyes lit up, "The sacred baby flame, bloomed and bore fruit?"

"Then what is this body?"

Chen Nian's heart was pounding. It was said that the body born from the holy infant flame seed was extremely pure. The body could contain all the power in the world.

If he made a move now, he could infuse everything in his body into the body and occupy it.

At that time, all the power he had learned in his life and all the magical treasures in his body would be melted into the body, increasing the strength of the body by several times.

This was a great opportunity!

However, what stopped Chen Nian was that the black dot, which was originally the size of a sesame seed, had already spread all over his body, turning the human-shaped holy infant flame seed into pitch black.

Moreover, the flame gradually converged and gradually condensed into the appearance of a person.

Chapter 3229 - 3229 Chapter 3015, Black Su Yu

3229 Chapter 3015, Black Su Yu

It was a handsome and unsullied face with distinct facial features. Even if his entire body was pitch-black, it was still difficult to conceal the God's face.

This face was very unfamiliar to the living beings of the nine star civilization.

But the living beings from the former nine regions continent were very familiar with it.

“Ding... Ding Zun!” Countless members of Ding muttered in astonishment.

“Su Yu?” Nirvana maiden wiped the blood from the corner of her mouth. Her snow-white eyes were filled with disbelief.

“Father... Father!” Su Cai'er choked on her tears and stared at the face that she had not seen for a long time.

Everything was still so familiar.

But..

Why was it a little strange?

Ever since Su Yu merged with the heart of the Prince of Mirrors, he had finally reappeared in the human world as Su Yu's face.

However, the current Su Yu was a little strange. His entire body was as black as ink, and not a single bit of light could be seen. He was like a bottomless black hole that could devour everything.

His eyelids twitched, and his tightly shut eyes slowly opened.

Weng!

The instant he opened his eyes, the world instantly trembled. The spirits of the four worlds trembled, and an ancient fear that originated from the depths of his bloodline rapidly recovered.

It was as if some ancient taboo was awakening!

His eyes gradually became clear. After sizing up the world around him for a moment, a wisp of... evil laughter bloomed.

“Haha!”

“Hahahaha!”

The laughter shook the Milky Way, wanton and insolent.

“I! have finally come out!”

The voice was still Su Yu’s voice. It could see through the cold vicissitudes of life in the human world, but it did not lose the warmth of the last wisp of fireworks in his embrace.

However, that tone and gaze were no longer Su Yu’s.

Nirvana Maiden’s jade-like face stiffened little by little. The surprise was still there, but the joy had already faded.

He was not Su Yu.

He was another creature, an evil creature!

The uneasiness in Chen Nian’s heart grew stronger as his laughter spread.

This... What kind of monster was this?

Even his ancestral bloodline could not help but tremble.

He shifted his gaze and silently teleported towards Su Cai'er. He was prepared to silently take her away so that he would not have to clash with this unknown monster.

However, just as he teleported, he was suddenly blocked by an invisible force and shot out from the void.

As he staggered, he naturally turned his gaze towards Su Yu and said, "I have nothing to do with you. You Go your own way and we will not interfere with each other!"

To be able to make the arrogant and arrogant Chen Nian take the initiative to say this, Su Yu's appearance had indeed given him a great deal of pressure.

Su Yu swapped his head and slightly curled his lips. "All I see are ants, and ants are not qualified to be on the same level as me!"

Chen Nian narrowed his eyes and felt more and more uneasy. With a thought, he might as well give up on Su Cai'er and retreat.

"The most pitiful thing about an ant is not that they are unable to control their own fate, but that they lack the courage to look at the sky. They will never know how high the sky is and how lowly they are!"

Su Yu placed his hands behind his back and lightly stepped on the ground with the tip of his feet.

Under his feet, a ball of pitch-black clouds rushed out and enveloped Chen Nian in a flash.

“I am the human ancestor Hou Yi, the innate human saint physique!” Chen Nian shouted loudly. The new oil lamp shone brightly and dispersed the black clouds.

A trace of relief appeared on Chen Nian’s face. At least his human saint physique was strong enough to compete with him.

However, Su Yu stretched out his right hand and gently clenched it!

Boom!

Within ten miles of Chen Nian, he was instantly enveloped by an incomparably dense black fog!

The black fog was so dense that his oil lamp could not even reach out ten feet.

Cold sweat appeared on Chen Nian’s forehead.

Su Yu clenched his fingers, and the massive black mist shrank rapidly.

The area the oil lamp could reach became narrower and narrower!

A disdainful smile appeared on Su Yu's face. "How can you call this the human sacred physique? I'm afraid you have some misunderstanding about this physique!"

"The so-called human sacred physique is the core of the human race. It requires the will of the human race to condense and create it. The more the human race favors it, the stronger the sacred physique will be. The strongest warrior can break away from the restraints of the Great Dao and control the absolute beginning power."

"As for you, you're just a sacred body condensed by the bloodline of your ancestors. It's not yours, but your ancestors'. It Won't grow at all."

"On the other hand, the sacred body on my body, TSK TSK..."an oil lamp slowly appeared on Su Yu's chest.

It was old and unadorned. The light was weak as if it was about to be extinguished.

“99% of the so-called human sacred bodies in this world are created by external forces. For example, your bloodline and the human king who killed this body relied on the prestige of the family to obtain the support of the human race’s will.”

“Only the sacred body of this body is for the survival of the common people and to open up the future for the human race. In the darkness, it ignited the fire of hope for the human race and was able to light the oil lamp and become the human sacred body

“Although it is currently weak, it will definitely become the strongest sacred body in the world in time

...

“As for the other sacred bodies, their lifetime achievements are limited. Yours is even less worth mentioning and will never be stored in it!”

His words, however, revealed the secrets of the human saintly beings.

It was as if he had many dealings with the human saintly beings.

Chen Nian was gradually devoured by the Black Fog, and his flesh and blood collapsed. When he heard Su Yu talk about his shortcomings, he could not help but break down. he shouted, “What kind of monster are you?”

“Monster?” Su Yu smiled coldly. “What an ignorant and fearless creature! If I was at my peak, the ancestor of your bloodline would have to call me senior!”

“Of course, I prefer the other name, ancient Taotie!”

What?

Chen Nian’s pupils constricted!

A strong sense of fear surged in his heart.

“You, you are the first Taotie in the world, the legendary mount of the Absolute Beginning Dao Ancestor?”

It was still alive!

...

“TSK TSK!” Su Yu smacked his lips. “The last part of the sentence is a bit redundant! I was wondering why the living beings of this generation remembered that I was his mount.”

Shaking his head, Su Yu said, “You make me a little unhappy!”

With that, the black fog that was still ten miles in circumference shrank violently, instantly shrinking to the size of a sesame seed!

Chen Nian did not even have a trace of a scream before he was swallowed clean.

The black sesame seed flew back into Su Yu’s hand. The fog dispersed, revealing a bright red drop of blood the size of a sesame seed inside.

Although the blood was small, it contained the power to Swallow Mountains and rivers, an indomitable will.

“Although it’s a mosquito’s leg, it’s still meat.” Su Yu casually threw the trace of ancestor’s blood into the oil lamp.

In an instant, the oil lamp shone brightly and ignited a few high flames.

At the same time, the oil lamp was brand new. It had changed from an ancient state to an incomparably new one. Its entire body was emitting a silver radiance.

Su Yu, who revealed a satisfied expression, only then had the intention to examine his own body.

“Not bad, not bad. The body produced by the holy infant flame seed is indeed different from the others. It’s clean and clear, without any impurities. It’s a pity that I can’t wait for an era. Otherwise, the body produced would be at the ten thousand saints level.”

“I have to thank Su Yu for using the holy infant flame seed. Now that his own consciousness has been destroyed, only I am left. hahaha!”

Chapter 3230 - 3230 Chapter 3,016, the battle for the body

3230 Chapter 3,016, the battle for the body

The best outcome was that Su Yu tore open the seal between his brows, and the eye of Taotie reappeared in the human world. Then, it devoured endlessly, eventually swallowing the host as well. After that, it returned to its eye state and waited for the next host.

But now, it was completely different!

Thanks to the saint infant flame seed, the eye of Taotie had obtained an eternal body, and it did not need to go through endless reincarnation to find a new host.

He had been reborn as a complete creature.

Next, as long as he used the eye as the foundation, he could cultivate again. In time, he might be able to return to his peak.

“It feels good to have a body. Long time no see... HMM?” Taotie was suddenly stunned, and his eyes instantly turned cold. “Who are you?”

He suddenly sensed that there was another powerful consciousness in his body that was sneakily invading his sea of consciousness, ready to fight with him for control of the body.

Su Yu actually had a consciousness that even the holy infant flame seed could not digest!

“Humph! A mere remnant soul dares to think about my body!” It was the remnant soul of the Mirror Flower Emperor that appeared!

Tao tie frowned. When he found the stone heart of the emperor in his body that had not been digested in time, he suddenly realized, “I knew who it was. It turns out to be the ten thieves from back then.”

“Those little thieves have finally become famous and call themselves the son of Heaven?”

“Ah! What a joke. Back then, I tried to persuade the Dao ancestor to not let you outsiders stay, but the dao ancestor just laughed it off. Many years have passed, but in the end, you still managed to steal the dao fruit and take control of this prosperous true world.”

The son of heaven smiled coldly. “Then what are you? You’re just a pitiful pet that was abandoned. I didn’t destroy your entire soul back then and let you escape with an eye. Now, it seems like I made a huge mistake!”

The two of them instantly went against each other. There was no room for maneuver.

Whether it was the hatred in the past or the fight for the body today.

There could only be one between them!

“It seems that we have to use the soul to fight!” Tao tie narrowed his eyes.

Mirror flower son of heaven said indifferently, “It suits me. The fight for the soul is enough. This body can’t be damaged!”

Tao tie nodded slowly.

However, he said, “But before that, we need to confirm whether Su Yu’s consciousness has survived! We can not let our guard down against him!”

Mirror flower son of Heaven’s expression became serious. He agreed with him. “This kid is cunning. His intelligence is close to that of a demon. We have to guard against him!”

The two remnant souls were surprisingly afraid of Su Yu!

They had suffered too many losses.

They checked each other tacitly.

“His bloodline is normal, and there is no trace of his consciousness!”

“His bones are normal, and there is no soul fluctuation!”

“His skin and flesh are normal, and there are no traces.”

“All the imprints of the magical equipment that have not been digested are gone, and his consciousness is not hidden.”

..

The two had a clear division of labor. They carefully combed Su Yu inside and out, not sparing a single hair.

In the Sea of consciousness, mirror flower son of Heaven, who had transformed into Xia Jingyu, looked at a huge eye shrouded in black mist from a distance.

“My soul seems to be greatly enhanced after devouring you.”

Mirror flower son of heaven stood calmly with a sneer on his face. “You overestimate yourself!”

Swoosh!

The two souls immediately collided and then separated.

The light around the mirror flower emperor's body dimmed. A large portion of his soul power had been devoured, making him extremely weak.

The black fog around the eye of Taotie had already dispersed, revealing the silver eye. Cracks could be seen all over the eye, but it was badly injured!

"You have some skills!" The Eye of Taotie revealed a fierce light.

The mirror flower emperor stabilized his aura, his expression resolute.

There was no way out now. They could only fight to the end!

Either her remnant soul was destroyed, or the remnant soul of the Taotie disappeared!

There could only be one owner of this body!

"Again!" The Taotie roared and turned into a ray of light and rushed forward!

The Mirror Flower Emperor didn't want to be outdone and collided with the Taotie!

Bang!

The Sea of consciousness shook violently!

The vast sea of consciousness almost collapsed!

Under the gazes of the people outside, Black Su Yu suddenly stopped moving, as if he had lost his soul. Only his eyes were still trembling, indicating that he was still alive. No one dared to approach him.

On his forehead, the black and gray halos were fluctuating strangely.

“It’s the Battle of Consciousness!”The fire lion said weakly after recovering some yuan qi.

There was no surprise in its eyes.

Since the will of the eye of Taotie could survive, there was no reason for the soul of the son of heaven to dissipate just like that.

The only person whose will dissipated was Su Yu.

In the end, it was all for nothing, just for the benefit of others.

...

Putting aside Su Yu's human saintly being, the son of Heaven's solid heart, and the sinkhole divine monument, just the boots, Emperor Brush, and Sui ren's leather clothing that he had obtained from the tomb were all immeasurable and terrifying opportunities.

Now, all of them were going to be given to others.

Wasn't that pathetic?

When nie nu heard this, she was also filled with grief and indignation. The heavens were unfair!

"Aunt nie nu!" Su Cai'er secretly poked her waist with her elbow. Nie nu turned her head over with tears in her eyes. "Child, don't be sad. be as strong as your father. Even if you die ten thousand times, you won't stop."

Su Cai'er's face was indeed filled with grief, but there was more astonishment.

“Aunty, the eight domains on my body seem to be... disappearing.”

In Su Yu’s Sea of consciousness.

After experiencing the second collision, the mirror flower emperor and the eye of Taotie were once again severely injured!

The Mirror Flower Emperor’s figure dimmed by more than half, and the cracks in the eye of Taotie intensified.

If it happened a few more times, both of them would probably fall apart. Even if one of them survived, it would be a great loss.

...

“Taotie, give up your body to me. This body contains my stone heart. It has long been my vessel to return to the world. I have no choice but to have him! As long as you are willing to withdraw, I will promise you endless benefits!”

If the hard way didn’t work, then the soft way could only work!

The eyes of taotie scoffed, “The so-called benefits you all have are to make me submit to the emperor’s lineage and become a half-stone man from now on, right? I’m sorry, I don’t think that a bunch of little thieves have the qualifications to control me!”

“In addition, I’ve long taken a liking to this body. I’ve waited for countless years. How can I give in to you?”

The mirror flower son of Heaven’s expression turned cold.

“If that’s the case, we can only stop when one side dies.”

The taotie laughed maniacally, “Nonsense!”

A trace of light filled the eyes of the taotie, “Little Thief, one of us will definitely die. Why don’t we each leave some benefits on this body? In case we die, there won’t be any traces left between heaven and earth.”

If Su Yu was here, she would definitely praise and call him by his real name.

The mirror flower son of heaven pursed his lips and smiled. “You are very confident that you can stay in the end! However, I think this suggestion is very good.”

She was also confident that she could stay in the end!

If the eye of Tao tie could leave some inheritance on this body, that would be the best!

The eye of Tao tie's eyes flashed with greed. "Good!"

"Let's start with me!" The eye of Taotie said, "I will merge this eye into the body and make it a part of the body. If I die, you can use it as you like and devour all the enemies in the world!"

The Mirror Flower Emperor was tempted!

The devouring power of Taotie originated from the creation of heaven and earth. It was one of the few nemesis of the emperor.
