Chapter One Thousand Three Hundred and Sixty-One The woman

gave a high-spirited Shang Qian with a low laugh, "It's morning in country M, and I'm getting up."

Su Nan patted his head, really sleepy, and he forgot about the jet lag matter.

"I've slept for so long, I must be hungry, let's go get something to eat?"

Shang Qian coaxed her patiently, Su Nan pursed her lips, and felt a sense of dependence in her heart.

"When will the matter on your side be finished?"

Shang Qian was helpless:

"You still said, didn't you find this trouble for me?"

Su Nan muttered, "Then it's too late for me to regret it now.. ...."

Shang Qian smiled: "You know that too?"

Su Nan really regretted it, shouldn't let Shang Qian go in person, just find someone to go over there?

A business group, how is it worth Shang Qian to go in person?

After the two talked for a while, Su Xiaohu opened her door with both claws, jumped to her hand, and turned around with his tail up.

After Su Nan said a few words, he hung up the phone, picked up Su Xiaohu and went downstairs.

"Dad asleep?"

Su Xiaohu shook his head, "I'll be downstairs, waiting for you to have dinner!"

Su Nan quickened his pace upon hearing this.

When I went downstairs, I saw that Su Yifeng and Su Jin were both there.

The two serious people sat together, and the atmosphere felt even more serious.

Su Nan put down Su Xiaohu and walked over.

"It's so rich, I'm going to lose weight at night!"

She was really hungry, but felt that her body was more important.

Su Yifeng rolled her eyes at her:

"We also want to eat, and we don't lose weight. My boss and I have been waiting for you all night before you get up?"

Su Nan stuck out her tongue, expressing her helplessness.

"Then you can go and wake me up!"

Su Jin glanced at her, "Do you think you haven't called me before?"

Su Nan's smile broke.

It's called, but not woken up?

The housekeeper uncle watched her go downstairs and happily let her eat.

Su Nan couldn't resist the temptation of delicious food, and unknowingly started eating.

Su Yifeng suddenly said,

"How did the Shang family deal with it in the end? Did you give the company to Shang Qian?"

Every step she took there was part of their plan, so they knew everything about M country.

Su Nan pursed his lips, "Well, we don't have the extra energy and manpower to deal with the Shang Group, their foundation is still very deep, especially the tens of thousands of employees inside.

If we force the acquisition, we will have to pay the cost and time. It's too much, it's not worth it."

Su Yifeng nodded:

"That's right, don't make wedding dresses for others."

Su Jin glanced at her, "How did Shang Qun deal with it? Are there people around him who can be used?"

Yes For them, they are most concerned about business groups.

After all, the target he increased was Su Nan.

Su Nan took a sip of red wine and said calmly:

“Shang Qian said he would handle it, so I don’t have to worry.”

Su Yifeng sneered dissatisfiedly, “He handled it? That’s his biological father, how should he handle it? He doesn’t Will it fool you?”

Su Nan: “No, it’s too easy for us to investigate. He won’t hide it deliberately, and will always give me a satisfactory answer.”

“You trust him so much?”

Su Nan raised an eyebrow: “Of course, he is me. My boyfriend!”

Su Yifeng and Su Jin looked at each other, and bowed their heads to eat speechlessly.

Su Nan hooked his lips and finally became quiet.

When he was about to finish eating, Su Yifeng couldn’t help but said,

“Since the Shang Group gave it to Shang Qian, there is no need to come back. No matter what, you are still in love, so you should be generous and don’t be too stingy!”

Su Nan was stunned for a second, then blinked.

Is this what she said?

Shouldn’t this be said by Su Jin, who is a man?

Su Jin lowered his head to eat silently, pretending not to hear.

“Shang Qian doesn’t want to take over. He has no feelings for the Shang Group. If I hadn’t moved Mike out, he wouldn’t care at all.”

Su Yifeng frowned slightly after hearing this.

"Yes, it stands to reason that Mike inheriting the Shang Group is a matter of course."

Su Jin pursed his lips, wiped his mouth, and said indifferently:

"It's not a business anymore, so why should it be right?"

Look at it this way first. Come on, just take it as a bet for Su Nan's safety, at least it will be impossible for the business group to find trouble again for a while."

Su Yifeng nodded in agreement.

After the three of them finished their meal, Su Nan was not sleepy at all and planned to go to the screening room to watch a movie.

As a result, before he got up, he heard movement outside.

After a while, Su Ming came in.

Su Jin was also stunned.

"Didn't you go back to the research institute long ago?"

Su Ming pursed her lips, and the golden glasses frame reflected a cold sense of alienation:

"Ask for leave."

"You have taken so many leave, so you bought the research institute. ?" Su Nan couldn't help but speak.

Su Ming glanced at her, "Let me see her parents silently."

Su Nan and Su Jin looked at each other.

Su Jin went upstairs silently.

He wasn't interested in the topic at all, he wanted to be a tool man.

Su Nan was the opposite. She jumped down the steps and walked over excitedly:

"Second brother, are you enlightened? Are you willing to ask for leave to see her parents?"

You didn't want to ask for leave when your father was sick in the hospital, didn't you ? Silently broke up with you again?"

Su Ming pursed her lips, and finally tightened the corners of her lips and said nothing.

He wanted to walk in directly, but Su Nan walked beside him and asked excitedly:

“I’ve helped you a lot, you have to tell me!

Momo and I are good friends. If you don’t tell me, I’ll ask her. If I say something I shouldn’t say then, don’t regret it!”

She said with a smile.

Sure enough, Su Ming stopped.

Su Nan happily leaned forward:

“Tell me, you have no experience in dating, I can help you with ideas!”

After speaking, she greeted the housekeeper’s uncle:

“Uncle, bring my second brother a cup of coffee!

” Alright!” A glass of milk came in.

The housekeeper uncle smiled, “What kind of coffee do you drink at night, it’s not good for your health!”

Su Nan: “...”

Su Ming: “Thank you!”

He picked up the hot milk and drank it all in one go .

Su Nan grabbed his arm not to let him go.

Must say!

Su Ming was helpless and looked at her: “You really learned the essence of Lao Lai by following Su Qi!”

Su Nan: “...”

Heartbroken!

It really shows Su Qi’s life character in one sentence!

So accurate!

Su Ming went upstairs and put one hand in his pocket, "Go upstairs and say."

Su Nan happily followed upstairs.

"Second brother, what's the matter?"

Su Ming sat down and started playing the Rubik's Cube:

"I made up with her before, but her parents firmly disagreed with us."

Su Nan nodded: "Unexpectedly."

Usually encounter this kind of situation The aggrieved party may easily forgive the matter.

But as the parents of the parties, they can't see their children being a little wronged, and of course they don't agree to continue the relationship.

Su Ming glanced at her, her brows light.

"After I went back, she continued to persuade her parents. Today is her mother's birthday, so I rushed over to bless her."

Chapter 1363 When the parents came to the door,

Su Nan was really shocked, "If you didn't tell me earlier, I knew I should ask Dad to prepare some gifts, so you can take them."

Su Ming shook her head, "There are too many people. Now, almost all of their relatives are there, I just went to say hello."

Su Nan frowned and thought for a while:

"Almost all of them are there? Did you introduce yourself when you went?"

Su Ming nodded: "I said quietly tell the truth like to introduce myself to you. but I introduced himself, her mother looked very happy.

very strange, did her mother know me, how suddenly happy again?"

he also because it The matter was puzzled, and I was troubled all night.

Human relationships are so complicated.

Su Nan smiled knowingly.

In the past, he patted him on the shoulder, "It was your excellence that saved you!"

Su Ming raised his eyes in confusion and adjusted his glasses, revealing a bit of confusion:

"How do you say it?"

"In front of so many relatives. Face, you introduced yourself in the past, isn't that announcing that his future son-in-law is a top talent, how can you be unhappy?"

Su Nan smiled, "It seems that there is still a way to be silent, so you don't have to worry."

Su Ming seemed to understand,” Oh, vanity “?

Sunan Now that we know, not interested to stay .

“Then I wish you good luck, good night brother!”

Su Ming: “Good night.”

Without raising his head, he said one more sentence:

“Tomorrow their family will come to visit our house...”

Su Nan opened the door with a slight pause.

“Tomorrow?”

“Well.”

“Then why didn't you tell me earlier?” Su Nan looked at him in surprise.

He is not in a hurry and is as stable as Mount Tai?

What an oddity!

Su Ming raised his eyes, his eyes were clear and clean:

“I plan to talk about it tomorrow.”

Because it is not yet until tomorrow, he is a very rigorous scientist!

Su Nan choked and walked out without saying a word.

She didn't want to worry about it, but she saw that the door of the study was still open, and Su Yifeng was inside.

She knocked on the door and went in.

Su Yifeng was chatting with his friends, talking about his plan to go fishing tomorrow...

Seeing her coming in, he stopped.

“Is something wrong?”

“Dad, the silent parents are coming to visit our house tomorrow, my second brother just said!”

Su Yifeng was stunned for a moment, and hurriedly stood up.

“Tomorrow?”

Su Nan nodded.

“Then he didn't say it sooner!”

Su Yifeng widened his eyes, slapped the table and stood up, “It's such a big thing to say it now!”

Su Nan was helpless: “He originally planned to talk about it tomorrow. Forget it, let the housekeeper let it go. Uncle, start preparing early in the morning...”

Su Yifeng sighed speechlessly, really helpless to this son with a high IQ but a lack of EQ!

But thinking about how hard it was for him to find a girlfriend, the family must not hold back!

“Okay, I'll tell you. Go and rest. No matter what happens tomorrow, you're not allowed to go out. You must stay and help your second brother!”

Su Nan made an ok gesture: “Don't worry, I can Do n't be left behind!”

Su Yifeng nodded excitedly: "And your eldest brother, let your eldest brother and sister-in-law come back, even if Su Qi comes back, he will make trouble when he comes back..."

Su Nan silently walked away and let him Get excited!

Su Yifeng listened to the person on the mobile phone several times before he realized that he hadn't hung up.

He picked it up, smiling.

"I can't go to sea anymore. My in-laws are coming. The second son's, there's no way. Who made our family have more children? By the way, your son has liked to hook up with girls since he was a child. Why hasn't he gotten married yet?"

early in the morning.

Su Nan slept soundly.

Su Xiaohu started to get in and jump around.

"Mama, it's time to get up!"

Su Nan waved the little unlucky bastard away .

Su Xiaohu called out to her reluctantly, finally calling out her drowsiness.

The housekeeper came up in person, stood outside the door and knocked gently:

"Miss, are you awake?"

He didn't hear any movement, so he continued knocking on the door:

"Miss, Su Dong told you to go downstairs early, so as not to be seen by the guests. It's here, the impact is not good!"

Su Nan completely woke up and sighed.

Uncle I know!” Uncle the housekeeper was relieved when he heard the answer, and went downstairs.

As my mind gradually came to my senses, I remembered that my silent parents were coming over today.

Su Yifeng must have taken it seriously!

She immediately went to freshen up, and then went to the cloakroom to choose a more comfortable and decent dress that was not eye-catching. The light off-white color made her skin fairer and her temperament much warmer.

Down the stairs when, Su Yi wind is downstairs losing his temper:

“such a big thing, the boss his eyes to what the company apart from anything else the company can surprise??”

Housekeeper uncle smiled opening in the side:

“young master a long time ago He left, and before he left, he said that he would come back soon after finishing the work.”

“Humph!”

Su Nan went downstairs and watched the people below busy, packing things, even some furniture was brand new, and the antique vases were replaced with the artistic temperament that the artist likes most.

I don't know where the vase worth tens of millions was thrown into?

She stood there and watched for a few minutes, then looked at Su Yifeng speechlessly:

“Do you need this? Just change the place to live. I bought a house before and it was very simple, and the decoration style is literary.”

Su Yifeng glared at her A glance:

“What do you know, it's not like Momo hasn't been here before. It's too late for us to change places temporarily, so we can only make do with it...”

“But what about the vase here? That's what the big brother spent Tens of millions of photos taken from abroad, as well as wine cabinets and ornaments, why are they gone?”

Su Nan frowned and looked around, this is too different, isn't it?

Su Yifeng paused:

"Momo's family is an intellectual's family, of course they don't value money, we can't be too unprofessional, otherwise we think we are showing off our wealth, your brother is also an intellectual, we have to work hard to talk to others. Flat!" The housekeeper, sweating profusely, moved a to the place where the wine cabinet was originally placed.

"Su Dong, is this okay?"

Su Yifeng looked at it with satisfaction, and then frowned:

"It feels empty..."

Su Nan smiled:

"There are no books on the , of course it's empty."

Su Yifeng suddenly realized , immediately looked at the housekeeper's uncle, "Get someone to get the books, take out the books in the study and put them on the table!"

Su Nan ran to the kitchen silently, she woke up feeling a little hungry.

As a result, there was nothing in the kitchen.

"What about breakfast?"

Su Yifeng said casually, standing on the steps, commanding them to move the furniture with an aura of commanding thousands of troops.

"Don't eat for now, just drink some milk when you're hungry, how can they have time to cook?"

Su Nan: "... " As he was talking, there was the sound of a car outside the door.

Su Nan looked out, and Wen Xiang walked in wearing a navy blue Xiaoxiangfeng suit, with a gentle and extremely gentle smile, which made people like it at first sight.

"Little girl, haven't you eaten yet? I made some snacks at home, can you try them?"

Chapter 1365 Derailment

Chapter 1365

Wen Xiang walked in with a smile and looked at Su Yifeng, nodding slightly:

“Good morning Dad!”

Su Yifeng nodded, his eyes softened a lot:

“Come on, you are more sensible than the boss. There are many, such a big day, he is not here yet?”

Really never forgot to complain!

Su Nan glanced at Wen Xiang speechlessly, and then pointed to his watch:

“Dad, it’s not even eight o’clock yet. My brother went early to work overtime!”

“Hmph, if you don’t go for a day, the company will go bankrupt again. No, he’s worried about his life!”

Su Yifeng angrily turned and left.

Su Nan helplessly looked at Wen Xiang and shrugged:

“He’s really too excited...”

Wen Xiang smiled, “But why does Dad look a little nervous?”

He is the director of the Su Group Chang, who has never seen the Jiangshan that he conquered at the beginning?

Why be nervous?

Su Nan looked like he had seen it through, and leaned forward mysteriously:

“He has a low self-esteem!”

Although Su Yifeng is talented in business and invincible, he is still lacking in knowledge.

Graduating from high school is the regret of his life.

While eating the snacks that Wen Xiang brought, Su Nan told Wen Xiang the history of Su Yifeng.

“After my dad founded the Su Group, he was considered a small success, but at that time, the circle was the most human-centered. Some people didn’t see that my dad could make such a big country with his bare hands, so he deliberately isolated him in the business circle, saying that he was too educated. low...”

Wen Xiang looked at it in surprise, “Do Uncle Su’s generation still care about education?”

“Of course, if ten people were originally good friends, but suddenly the other nine highly educated people became one heart, my dad wouldn’t Did you suffer?”

Su Nan said a little disappointedly.

Of course she knew that it was not easy for Su Yifeng to get to where he is today.

He also knew that he was brooding about this matter in the bottom of his heart.

Otherwise, he wouldn’t send their siblings to study. Su Nan and Su Jin both went to first-class universities abroad, of course.

Su Ming’s school god genes don’t know if there is green smoke on their ancestral graves, his existence has always been a ceiling that others look up to.

Only Su Qi was completely deviated from the track envisaged by Su Yifeng.

Even if you don’t study business, at least you do academia.

I really don’t have any hobbies, I just want to be a university professor or something.

But Su Qi signed up for the performing school without telling everyone.

In shopping malls, although everyone has many opportunities to deal with people in the entertainment circle, they have always treated people in the circle condescendingly.

After all, people in the entertainment industry depend on them for food.

Su Qi chose this line of work, and he didn’t want to be a pure performer. He wanted to be a star and enjoy the excitement of being a full-timer.

Every choice he made could kill Su Yi’s style.

So until now, Su Yifeng felt that the awards for his best actor were bought with money.

Wen Xiang listened to her talk about the past and looked very interested, both sighed and excited.

“Your eldest brother never told me this. What he mentioned was that Dad was very kind to you all, but he was very strict with him and loved you very much. He also said that the second brother was quiet and the third brother was naughty, but everyone was happy. .”

Su Nan smiled, the corners of his lips raised:

“My eldest brother always looks at things very simply, he is the first child in the family, and my father loves him the most. I heard that the family was difficult before, but my father still wears clothes every day. He was very clean and tidy and sent him to school, I really like this son very much!”

Wen Xiang smiled unconsciously.

“It seems that your elder brother has only work in his mind now...”

Su Yifeng heard this sentence.

He responded with great approval:

“Yes, even you said so, he still has such a short memory!”

Wen Xiang smiled, “Dad, eat some food, keep silent, parents, they will have to wait for a while. I just came...”

Although Su Yifeng kept saying that he was not hungry or hungry, his body was still very honest.

He also sat down unceremoniously, picked up a piece of pastry and looked at it:

“It looks so good, can you eat it?” After saying that, he took a tentative bite. He couldn't eat too much sugary food, but he was patient. not live.

Take a bite, it's soft and glutinous, fragrant and delicious, but it's not very sweet, it's really delicious!

Su Yifeng nodded and ate two bites.

Looking at Su Nan, who was stunned, he gave a speechless look.

He pointed to the dim sum on the table: "Learn!"

Su Nan looked at him innocently, why did he mention himself?

Wen Xiang smiled and helped her out in time:

"Alright, when the little girl learns to do it for her boyfriend, her boyfriend must be very happy!"

Su Yifeng froze for a second, then coughed for a second:

"Forget it. Now, if you don't really like it, don't study it, and focus more on making money, girls still have to have money!"

After speaking, he continued to lead everyone to clean up without looking back... .

Wen Xiang glanced at Su Nan and blinked.

Su Nan immediately understood, he didn't expect Wen Xiang to be on the Tao so quickly!

The two smiled at each other and continued to eat.

After a while, Su Jin and Su Ming returned to Su's house.

Su Jin looked at Wen Xiang for a moment, then opened his arms, and Wen Xiang immediately went over and hugged her.

The two of them showed their affection like no one else around, Su Nan reluctantly didn't start, and didn't want to watch, the dog food was too much.

Su Ming showed no expression, walked to Su Nan's side, took the last piece of cake, and ate it expressionlessly.

Su Nan: "Second brother, you didn't pick them up?"

Su Ming shook his head: "She said no, she's been here many times, and she can find a place."

Su Nan nodded, then leaned over:

"Then you're nervous. Excited?"

Su Ming thought for a few seconds in confusion, before nodding with difficulty:

“Well, nervous and excited.”

Su Nan: “Haha...”

What about a liar?

After the servants were busy with other things, they started to go to the kitchen non-stop to prepare snacks and fruits.

Look at the time, it's almost there.

Su Yifeng pierced his seat and went up to change into a formal suit, looking more solemn.

Su Jin and Su Ming were also forced to change into suits. The three men still felt a little uncomfortable wearing this at home.

But who made this a rigid requirement of Su Yifeng?

It's just that after Su Jin put on a suit, his aura was 1.9 meters. He was so powerful that he thought he was angry if he didn't speak. He was cold and had a sense of alienation.

Su Ming is gentle and gentle, as if he is ready to go to the podium to win an award at any time.

Su Nan and Wen Xiang were sitting there looking awkward.

Wen Xiang tentatively asked, “Dad, do you need us to change into a professional suit?”

She also put a lot of her own clothes here.

Su Yifeng looked at her, then at Su Nan, frowned, and finally shook his head:

“Forget it, you can just keep it as it is.”

Wen Xiang breathed a sigh of relief silently.

You are satisfied.

Chapter 1367 The ultimate goal

Chapter 1367 The ultimate goal

Not long after, the housekeeper received a call from outside, saying that someone was coming in.

This wealthy villa area is several kilometers away from the access control, and it seems that it has already arrived.

After putting down the phone for a while, the car slowly stopped in the yard outside the door.

Su Yifeng took them to stand outside, the sun was hitting him warmly, just right.

The housekeeper went to open the door, a man and a woman came out from behind the driver's seat, and got off the co-pilot in silence.

One man and one woman are very outstanding. Although the man is middle-aged, it is not difficult to see that his eyebrows are handsome and handsome, and he has a bookish look, which is somewhat similar to Silent.

The woman was well maintained and looked dignified and generous, but she still glanced nervously at the luxurious Su mansion in front of her.

However, he quickly concealed the surprise between his brows.

Silently smiled and glanced at the person standing there, slightly surprised.

Then he took the arms of his mother and father and walked over.

"Hello Uncle Su, these two are my parents..."

Everyone briefly introduced, Su Yifeng behaved very solemnly, and he invited everyone in with enthusiasm and restraint.

Father Shen glanced at Su Jin's back in surprise, and wiped his sweat nervously.

I don't know why, the people of the Su family seem to be very approachable, and they don't have the stinky problems of rich people, and they don't even have any airs, but the boss of the Su family, why does it seem so stressful?

Compared with Su Jin, Su Ming is much better!

But the strange thing is that every time Su Jin looks at Wen Xiang, the tenderness between his brows and eyes will make people think that he is a very gentle person...

an illusion!

Shen's father and Shen's mother sat opposite, Shen's mother saw Su Nan, a look of surprise flashed between her brows and eyes, and then she extended her hand with a smile.

"Miss Su, can I call you by your name?"

"Of course, auntie, you can just call me Su Nan."

Su Nan smiled. She had a good impression of Shen's mother, a bit like a silent character.

Shen's mother took her hand without showing anything, and said with a smile:

"I'm your loyal fan, are you really not planning to debut? I'll definitely make a list for you every day!"

Su Nan was stunned, everyone was surprised Followed for a moment.

Silent smiled embarrassedly.

"My mother is keen on chasing dramas. She thinks that Su Nan's face can kill all female stars in seconds!"

Su Yifeng's slightly changed face suddenly smiled proudly.

"Where, this child just grows up casually."

Su Nan smiled, "Thank you auntie for her love, but my ultimate dream is to be the richest man in the world!"

Mother Shen looked at her with admiration, even her vulgar dream , feel very noble and great.

"This dream is good, you will definitely make it come true!"

Father Shen also smiled and patted her arm helplessly:

"Don't forget the purpose of our visit!"

Followed the wrong person!

Mother Shen was stunned for a moment, then looked at Su Ming and smiled:

"Actually, we are very satisfied with Su Ming, Su Ming is very good, silent and very fond of it, but your Su family is a wealthy family after all. No kidding.

In fact, what I've always advocated is the right match..." Before he could finish speaking, Su Yifeng interrupted anxiously.

"My mother, don't pay attention to this now. Our family is not a wealthy family. As long as they love each other and can take care of each other, then everything is not a problem!"

My mother?

Su Yifeng's words made Shen's father and Shen's mother stunned for a moment.

, Father Shen smiled, "I didn't expect Chairman Su to be such an open-minded person..."

Su Yifeng waved his hand: "Three generations up, who's family? Not a poor peasant? I'm also from a mud-legged background, so I don't care about that.

Why don't I talk about the dowry we have prepared here?"

Su Yifeng's topic jumped too quickly, and Shen's father and Shen's mother couldn't catch up.

"Sixty-six million in cash, and a 300-square-meter lakeside villa as a new house. Oh, there is a small room of about 100 square meters in the city center that is suitable for commuting to and from work. This can be used as a dowry for her.

Yes . Now, there are jewelry..."

Su Yifeng was planning to go on talking, when Father Shen finally couldn't help coughing a few times, his face flushed.

"Su Dong, isn't it too early to talk about this now?"

"Not early, the more things we have, the more we value silence. Our whole family likes silence!"

Su Yifeng smiled and looked at silence.

Silent and almost embarrassed, he lowered his head.

Shen's father and Shen's mother smiled. Before coming, they were a little nervous, and even held it up. After all, they didn't marry in a hurry.

As long as the Su family showed a little arrogance, they would leave immediately, not uncommon!

But the enthusiasm of the Su family was beyond their imagination.

"Su Ming is also a very good kid. He is in the same field as Momo said, but he is much better than Momo.

I heard that he has to win several awards every year, and it is an international award. Those scientists who have worked hard all their lives. It's beyond our reach, such an excellent child like him can see us silently, that is our silent blessing..."

Seeing that the Su family had been praising the silence, Father Shen finally felt a little embarrassed.

Su Yifeng smiled, "It was fate that made them meet, and it was our success that made them happy together. In the future, no matter how good they are, it is the achievement of the two of them. Without silent support, how could he concentrate on doing it? Research?"

Mother Shen listened, and the smile on her face could no longer be hidden.

I didn't expect this trip to come, it was really unexpected.

Su Nan is gentle and kind, not as cold as in the news at all, but like a pretty girl next door.

Su Ming sat there, smiling slightly, not interrupting, not rushing to express himself, how calm and steady...

Although Su Jin didn't speak, he sat there patiently and earnestly Listening, nodding from time to time, attaching great importance to the meeting, low-key but not public.

And the beautiful woman next to him should be Su Jin's wife.

She is gentle and beautiful, her demeanor is dignified and generous, she looks at him silently and laughs from time to time, she is sincere and gentle, and she will get along very well when she gets married in the future.

When Mother Shen came here, she was completely relieved.

In the later conversation, Su Yifeng shouted one by one from his own mother, and Shen's mother and Shen's father did not refuse embarrassingly.

It seems that everyone agrees with this relationship.

We talked for a while, a little tired.

Su Yifeng asked Su Nan and Wen Xiang to accompany Shen's mother around to relax, and he happily took Shen's father to the back pond to see the fish he raised...

Silent and Su Ming went In his room, Su Ming will take the time to guide her research mistakes...

. Su Nan walked around holding Shen's mother's arm and stopped when she saw that she was interested in the flowerbeds in the garden.

There is a swing in the middle, as well as tables and chairs for drinking tea. You can smell the fragrance of flowers while sitting there, which is so comfortable.

Mother Shen sat there, eager to try.

Wen Xiang smiled aside:

"Auntie sit up and try, this swing is very comfortable..."

Mother Shen didn't hesitate, and immediately sat up.

She hadn't been so relaxed in a long time.

Su Nan and Wen Xiang looked at each other and sat on a chair not far away.

"Miss, this year's scented tea is made from the flower bones in our own yard, can you try it?"

Uncle Steward has always been restless. He has lived here for decades and has regarded it as his home.

Su Nan smiled, "Okay, let's try it together..."

She carefully poured tea for them, poured a cup aside for Mother Shen, poured another cup for Wen Xiang, and finally Poured myself a glass.

Wen Xiang took it with a smile, took a sip, and nodded.

"Sure enough, it's fresh and rich, and it's calm and sweet."

Uncle the housekeeper smiled proudly:

"I made it myself, without any additives and flavors, it must be very comfortable to drink."

Su Nan nodded:

"These flowers are from abroad. The new edible varieties that have been cultivated can be eaten even if they are fresh."

Uncle, the steward of the flower tea, makes them every year, and I will bring some back to Aunt Shen and sister-in-law later..."

Mother Shen smiled, "Then I'll be welcome."

Wen Xiang also nodded.

The butler responded immediately and went back to prepare.

Mother Shen got off the swing and looked around with great interest:

"This exquisite garden must have been built by your father for you, right?"

Otherwise, no matter how you think it, it can't be for the other three sons!

Su Nan paused, lowered her eyes, and raised a smile on the corner of her mouth:

"No, it's for my deceased mother, she likes these flowers and plants very much."

Mother Shen's face changed, and she immediately patted it with her hands regretfully. patted his mouth.

"I'm sorry, Auntie didn't do it on purpose."

"It's okay, it's not something that can't be brought up."

Su Nan smiled gently.

She is very fond of Shen's mother.

Although there are many elders who have watched her grow up since she was a child, and those ladies from aristocratic families are warm and kind to her, but no one has ever given her a feeling that she is so close and peaceful.

The way she smiles is kind and kind, without any purpose or aggression.

Impression, like her mother.

But she never saw her mother.

Mother Shen took her hand and looked at her distressedly:

“Look at what a beautiful little girl, if your mother knew that she had such an excellent daughter, she would wake up laughing from a dream... Su Nan ‘s eyes suddenly became sour, and he really had to hold back the tears that he wanted to gush down.

Looking at Su Nan’s appearance, Wen Xiang knew that in Su’s house, the deceased hostess was not allowed to say the name. Speaking of which, everyone felt sad.

She hurriedly smiled and said, “Yes, I really have to say, how beautiful your mother has to be to give birth to you so well?

Aunt Shen, you haven’t seen the third brother, the actor Su Qisu, he looks like Zhilan. Yushu has a sweet mouth and can talk, the brothers just standing there are enough to attract attention!”

Shen’s mother nodded in agreement .

“Really, if Su Ming hadn’t told me personally that Su Qi is his younger brother, I wouldn’t have dared to put you together. I didn’t expect you to be a family, genes are really good things!”

it, Wen Xiang smiled and joked:

“Don’t worry, when you marry in silence, this gene can continue!”

Shen mother froze, clapped her hand, and laughed:

“Yeah!” The

three of them smiled in unison.

After everyone finished their meal, in the afternoon, Shen's father and Shen's mother no longer felt the prudence they had when they first came.

Even to Su Jin, they have a very loving look in their eyes.

Because Su Jin lost several rounds in a row in the game against Shen's father, even geniuses sometimes lose against ordinary people.

The housekeeper sent a car to take them home, and the day finally passed smoothly.

After the people left, Su Ming still kept a smile on his face.

Su Nan felt that he should be tired.

But as soon as he turned his head, he heard Su Ming say to Su Yifeng:

"Dad, give me our household registration book."

Su Yifeng didn't care, and sat on the massage chair to massage:

"Why do you want that?"

"Get a certificate."

He said two words decisively.

There was a momentary stagnation in the air.

Su Yifeng twitched the corners of his mouth and opened his eyes:

"Although my in-laws are very satisfied with you, I have repeatedly mentioned engagement, but they have been blocked. They want to stay silent for two more years. What certificate do you get?"

Su Mingzhan There, his face did not change and his heart did not beat:

"I have received the license first, so don't be in a hurry to get engaged."

"You are cheating on the marriage, if your in-laws find out..."

Su Yifeng hesitated, if they knew, all your good impressions would be shattered!

After all, he is also a father. When he knew that Su Nan and Fu Yechuan had obtained the certificate, he was so angry that he could kill him with a gun!

But Su Mingqingjun's face had a faint smile:

"It's not a cheating marriage, I agreed silently."

Su Yifeng was taken aback, "She agrees?"

"Well."

Su Nan sat beside, silent.

Indeed, although Shen's father and Shen's mother agreed with Su Ming very much, they secretly obtained the certificate without their consent, just like secretly Chen Cang.

It doesn't feel good at all.

"Second brother, why don't you wait for a while, wait until you silently give their family a vaccination, and it's okay for you to go with the flow and get the certificate. Now that you have just met your parents, go to get the certificate, isn't it too urgent?"

Su Nan couldn't help but speak.

Su Ming pursed her lips, and her eyes were dimly lit with a cold light.

"No, I'm afraid she will go back on it."

Therefore, it is best to get the certificate early.

With that certificate, he can feel safe.

Otherwise, when he does experiments in the research institute in the future, he will always worry about whether the silence outside will kick him?

Su Yifeng looked at this son who was excellent in everything but had indescribable emotional intelligence.

He patted his clothes and stood up:

"If you want to get married smoothly, don't mess around. Are you going to go back to the institute tomorrow? Go back and get ready..."

Su Ming didn't expect Su Yifeng to refuse he.

Stunned for a second.

"dad....."

But Su Yifeng didn't listen at all and went upstairs directly.

Su Nan smiled, "Brother, Dad is for your own good!"

Su Ming frowned, her brows were cold and puzzled:

"Big brother and sister-in-law got the certificate even before they got engaged, why can't I?" Su Ming, whose name was named Jin and Wen Xiang were slightly taken aback.

Su Jin's brows froze, and he wanted to teach him a lesson with a sullen face.

No comparison what?

How can this thing compare to them?

Wen Xiang squeezed his hand and let his fire go down by half.

She looked at Su Ming tenderly, with a gentle smile on the corner of her mouth:

"Second brother, we got the license before we got engaged because we don't have any obstacles other than each other.

I don't have any parents, and I don't have any other relatives. I only have your brother. alone, so I can take responsibility for myself."
